VARSITY TIES AND LOSES

PLAYED TWO GAMES DURING PAST WEEK.

N. Y. U. TIED AND NAVY HELD CLOSE

McDermott Sustains Fractured Foot in Election Day Game.—Varsity's Attack Throws a Big Scare Into Over-confident Midshipmen.

Substituting for Trinity College, whose game had been cancelled at the eleventh hour, the Bucknell eleven battled the New York Univ. team to a 3-3 score on Tuesday in New York City. Owing to the fact that terms for the game were accepted on less than twenty-four hours notice, Coach Johnston was compelled to present a team not only still crippled from the effects of last Saturday's hard game with Muhlenberg, but also a team, minus several of its first string players; and consequently a better showing could hardly have been expected.

During the early part of the game, McDermott, Bucknell's plucky little quarter-back, had the misfortune to fracture two bones in his right foot in making a hard tackle. This accident, which will deprive the Varsity of "Mac's" services for the rest of the season is a severe blow to the team, as "Mac" has up to this time been one of Coach Johnston's mainstays.

Each team scored by drop-kicking a field goal. Referee Murphy was the only one, not excluding the New York coach, who seemed to think that the N. Y. U. goal kicked by Egan was good.

When Hendren placed the ball between the uprights in the third period, he broke the jinx, which has been following the Orange and Blue team since the first game of the season and incidentally saved the game for Bucknell.

It must be admitted that the Varsity was outclassed in rushing the ball, but within the ten yard zone, New York found Bucknell's defence to be a veritable stone wall, which no bucking on their part could possibly dinge. The New Yorkers were four times within an ace of scoring, but on each occasion the Varsity line stiffened sufficiently to recover the ball. Toward the close of the game, however Bucknell had a very close call, as the whistle blew with the ball on Bucknell's 3 yard line in New York's possession. In the third period Hendren recovered a fumble on New York's 10 yard line, but, as three attempts to gain were in vain, Hendren dropped back to the 15 yard line and kicked a goal from field. This was as close as Bucknell ever came to their opponent's goal line.

Throughout the entire game both teams were guilty of many fumbles, the ball changing hands repeatedly because of the carelessness of the backfield men. The New York backs circled the Bucknell ends for many long runs, and, at times, the line was very easy for Egan and Bernstein to penetrate. Mangin got away for several brilliant runs, while his punting was far above the average. Three forward passes out of five tries, were successful for the Orange and Blue team, which clearly demonstrated that Bucknell's open attack is rapidly improving.

With the Navy game scheduled for Saturday, Coach Johnston was forced to use a number of second string men in this game. Twenty-two men made the trip to New York.

The line-up:

New York Univ.		Bucknell

Bucknell-Navy Game.

Playing their third game in the last eight days, the Bucknell eleven held the Navy to a 13-3 score at Annapolis on Saturday. In the Orange and Blue contingent, the midshipmen encountered far more strength than they had anticipated, with the result that the final score was anything but assuring to the Navy coaches.

BAKER VISITS BUCKNELL IN INTEREST OF I. P. A.

GERMER ELECTED TO PRESIDENCY OF LOCAL ORGANIZATION.

E. W. Baker, traveling secretary for the Intercollegiate Prohibition Association, visited Bucknell on Tuesday and Wednesday of the past week in the interest of this rapidly developing movement in collegiate circles. He called together the local Prohibition Club, which last year under th leandership of Groover, '15, made itself felt as a source of much good to Bucknell. and gave them plans for their organization and work this year. Because of the absence this term of Bartlett, '16, who was elected president of the association at the close of last year, Germer, '18, was elected to head the organization this year.

Another object of Mr. Baker's visit was to solicit men for the work which the I. P. A. intends to have done during the second week of Christmas vacation. This work, to be done by groups of college men, will be to take a census of the business men standing for and against Prohibition in the larger cities.

LYCEUM COURSE LECTURE WELL ATTENDED

MR. BENNET'S "THE MAN WHO CAN," PROVES ENTERTAINING LECTURE.

"The Man Who Can" was the subject of the lecture delivered by William Rainey Bennett in the Methodist Church Monday evening, Nov. 1. His lecture was the second number on the Y. M. C. A. Lyceum Course and was given before a packed house. Mr.

WILLIAM RAINEY BENNETT.

Bennett proved to be a forceful orator and held the close attention of the audience throughout. Those who have arranged the Lyceum Course should be commended for bringing a man of Mr. Bennett's ability to Bucknell, for his lecture was both entertaining and instructive to college students.

GREEN BUTTONS MUST STAY

FRESHIES LOSE TO SOPHS IN FOOTBALL CONTEST.

CAPTAIN SHILLING TALLYS ONLY SCORE

Booted a Field Goal From 20 Yard Line.—Annual Underclass Scrap Fought by Evenly Matched Teams. —Sophs Outclassed in Early Part.

In the annual class game, which this year was to determine whether the first year men would be permitted to remove the green button from their caps, the Sophomores defeated the Freshmen on the campus Saturday afternoon, score 3-0. The teams were very evenly matched and a highly interesting struggle resulted, with neither having a very distinct advantage.

During the first two quarters the Freshies fairly drove the Sophomores off their feet, but at the critical moment the necessary punch was lacking. Both teams were severely penalized for roughness, several men being put out of the game on this account.

Sophomores		Freshmen

Goal from field—Shilling. Referee—George Cockill, Bucknell. Umpire—S. B. Wolfe, Lewisburg. Field judge—Tripician, Atlantic City. Head linesman—Prof. Taylor, Bucknell. Time of quarters—10 minutes. S. A. E'S. ENTERTAIN SEMINARY GIRLS

LOCAL CHAPTER GIVES PARTY OF TRIPLE NATURE SATURDAY.

Sigma Alpha Epsilon entertained a number of Seminary girls in a very novel manner Saturday afternoon and evening, which included a movie party at the Orpheum; a dinner party at the Cameron House, and a house party at the home of the local chapter.

The girls were first escorted to "Koser's Palace" where "The Price" was thoroughly enjoyed and the reports from the Navy game listened to with much interest. At the Cameron House next a chicken dinner was enjoyed by all, following which the entertainment shifted scenes by a separate march of the girls in one group and the boys in another to the home of the local chapter of S. A. E. Here a mock initiation took place in which each guest was officially branded and initiated into S. A. E. and given her favor, a big yellow chrysanthemum. The guests departed sharply at ten, after having spent the remaining hours of the evening toasting marshmallows and listening to different vocal and instrumental selections.

D. T. U. PARTY.

On Friday night, Nov. 5th, Delta Theta Upsilon entertained a number of the Sem girls. Several original methods of getting acquainted were used, after which bobbing for apples, snapping for doughnuts, popping corn and other Hallowe'en festivities were in order. Appropriate refreshments aided in the Hallowe'en idea.

LIGHTS IN HALLS.

There is a possibility of an arrangement being made whereby the hall lights will remain burning throughout the entire night. Should such an innovation be made much gratitude will be felt in the hearts of all the students residing on the Hill, especially those in Main Building.

GLEE CLUB AT MILTON.

The Glee Club and the Band gave a combined concert at the Family Theatre in Milton last Wednesday night. Though extensively advertised the entertainment was not very well attended.

PLANNING TO ATTEND GETTYSBURG CONVENTION

SECY. HEDGE DESIRES THAT BUCKNELL BE WELL REPRESENTED.

The Student Volunteer Union of Enstern Pennsylvania and New Jersey will hold a convention at Gettysburg beginning December 3rd and closing December 5th.

A similar convention was held at Lancaster last year and was attended by a party of sixteen Bucknell delegates. The delegates who attended the convention last year reported a profitable time and most of them are planning to go to Gettysburg this year.

One afternoon of the convention will be set aside for the delegates to visit the battlefield. Quite a number have already expressed their intention of attending the meeting at Gettysburg and it is hoped that many others will decide to join the delegation.

The carfare on the party ticket will be about four dollars. Entertainment will be furnished by the Gettysburg Association. All who intend to go to Gettysburg should hand their name to the Secretary as soon as possible in order that arrangements may be made for the party ticket.

TUG-OF-WAR TO BE HELD ON THURSDAY

THIRTY MEMBERS OF TWO UNDERCLASSES TO VIE IN TEST OF STRENGTH.

In place of the "proc" scrap this year, a tug-of-war between 15 members, selected from each of the two underclasses, will be substituted as the second class scrap of the year between the Freshies and Sophs. The contest will take place at 4:15 A. M. Thursday on the Atheltic field, the men taking part to be selected by the presidents of the two classes. Should the Freshies win they will be allowed to display their numerals immediately, while if they lose they will be deprived of this distinction until the spring term.

ANOTHER WYCKOFF EXPLOIT.

A North American issue of last week contained the news of a "whoppin" big fight between "Weldie" Wyckoff and a big bear. Here it is:

Williamsport, Pa., Nov. 3.—J. Weldon Wyckoff, of this city, a member of Connie Mack's Athleties pitching staff, was today treated to a greater thrill than he ever experienced in a baseball game when he encountered a bear on the mountainside along Gray's run.

Wyckoff was hunting for birds and small game, and was not loaded for bear.

The bear approached the pitcher, apparently intent upon a fight. Wyckoff waited until the animal was only a short distance away and then fired at it with small shot. The shot blinded the animal and it turned, escaping in the brush.

MASS MEETING

A Mass Meeting for Friday evening at 8 P. M. in the Chapel has been called by Senior President Ranck.

HARRISBURG IS THE NEXT STOP

TEAM PLAYS WITH GETTYSBURG THIS SATURDAY.

SPECIAL TRAIN AGAIN TO BE CHARTERED

Team Needs Support of Every Backer Who Can Possibly Arrange to Go.—Usual Program Will be Followed.—Carfare Will be $2.88.

The usual cry of "On to Harrisburg," which for the past few years has always started to ring out about a month ahead of the annual clash of the Bucknell and Gettysburg elevens at Pennsylvania's legislative centre, has not been heard thus far around the campus this year. Whispers, however, of this trip, which has been the pleasure of so many Bucknellians and Bucknell adherents to take at this time every year, have been heard. These are to the effect that the tickets this year will cost $2.88, the best rate which could be secured from the Pennsylvania Railroad. In case 100 buy tickets the Pennsy authorities will grant a special train as they have done in years past.

Although the Harrisburg trip has not received the boosting it should have had, because of other matters which have arisen and taken considerable of upperclassman time, there is yet one big week in which to shove this annual Bucknell day to the limit. It is fair to call it a Bucknell day for it always turns out to be a Bucknell victory and this year will not be any exception for the team is improving each week; which statement the last game against the Navy will attest. It may be a harder proposition to win from the rival Orange and Blue eleven this year, but "what it takes to lick Gettysburg Bucknell's got," so each and every fellow who can possibly scratch together $2.88 for carfare and 10 cents for a lunch should be on deck next Saturday morning to depart with the Bucknell contingent.

The usual order of programme will be followed out this year as that of last, which includes a parade, upon arrival, about the streets of the Capitol City headed by the band, dinner, an assemblage of the Bucknell hosts at the team's headquarters, a march enmasse to the field, the game, supper and an evening of entertainment such as any one desires. The train leaves at a late enough hour, for those who wish, to take in the various shows at the different playhouses or to spend an evening dancing.

Let every man on the Hill start in to talk up the Harrisburg trip and get his neighbor interested in doing the same thing. It is no more than the duty of each one, for the team will need every note of encouragement it can get. The team is working hard and will in all probability present its strongest front in the game with the Gettysburgians. "Bonnie" Banks and "Bull" Olson will be back into the fray and the addition of these two should bolster up the team considerably. Let every man pull together with one grand big pull this week and when the pull is pulled may there be a greater crowd than ever before to accompany the team.

SEND-OFF FOR VARSITY.

Nothwithstanding the fact that the Varsity was simply departing for a practice game, as some courteous Navy correspondent for the Press seemed to deem Bucknell's game with the Annapolis team, the students gathered at the Pennsy station at 1:05 on Friday and gave the Orange and Blue squad as encouraging a send-off as they have had yet. Every fellow, as he marched back to the Hill, had a feeling away down in his heart that the Navy would be given a little more than they counted on.

ELECTION RETURNS.

Curtis C. Lesher, '04, won out for District Attorney of Union County, over David H. Getz by a majority of 103 votes.

THE BUCKNELLIAN.

With this issue the name "Orange and Blue" will be relegated into the realm of "things that used to be, but are no more," and the new name "Bucknellian" will assume its place as the title of Bucknell's chronicler of news from "Hill and "Sem."

Though changed in name the design and general plan of the paper will not be different from that which has gone out under the name which goes out of existence with this edition. A representative name has been selected and the aim of the staff is to make the paper itself more representative than ever it has been. To accomplish this end the staff needs the full support of a student body not only willing to produce news under pressure, but to give news of its own initiative. We feel as if there are activities at Bucknell which are still unrepresented in the Bucknellian, news of which would be of greater interest than some stereotyped department news which we have been forced to use thus far. Those who are interested in departments or activities which are not receiving deserved publicity should get in communication with the editor and have matters made right. To see Bucknell represented by a newsier, a bigger and better paper is the aim of the present staff.

ALUMNUS COMPOSES A SONG AT AGE OF 88

REV. J. M. LYONS, '51, IS THE AUTHOR OF "OUR MEMORIAL."

At the request of Rev. J. M. Lyons, '51, we are publishing a song composed by him called "Our Memorial," which has been set to the tune of "Love Divine." Mr. Lyons is 88 years of age.

OUR MEMORIAL.

Hallelujah! Sing His praises;
Now His open hand we see.
Ev'ry heart glad tribute raises
For His bounties, large and free.
Like the ancient tribes, His glory,
Grateful, we will keep in view,
And inscribe our cheering story,
God hath help'd us hitherto.

Praise Him, praise Him; He is reigning,
And His word our faith assures;
Fear not, little flock remaining,
For the Kingdom shall be yours.
On o'er plain and hill and valley,
Down the slope to Jordan's tide.
We will 'round our standard rally,
God, our Helper, doth abide.

He is Love! Oh He is guiding,
And His presence with us still,
All the way for us providing;
We can fear no earthly ill.
All uniting, let glad voices
Sing of glories we shall see,
While the ransom'd throng rejoices,
God our help will ever be.

FACULTY WELL REPRESENTED.

HYATT, '91, DECLINES BANK PRESIDENCY

DECLINES HONOR BECAUSE OF PRESSING DUTIES OF PROFESSION.

Last week John T. Hyatt, Esq., '91, was elected president of the National Bank of Jersey Shore. Mr. Hyatt declined the honor because the demand of his profession did not give him time to discharge the duties of the office to which he was elected.

Mr. Hyatt, it will be remembered, was the feature orator at the memorable mass meeting before the Swarthmore game a few weeks ago.

It might be a good thing to call on him before the Lebanon Valley game to act as a "Tom Shevlin" for the purpose of getting Bucknell spirit at flood tide once again.

Y. W. C. A. NOTES.

The Y. W. C. A. meeting of Nov. 2 had for its leader a returned missionary from China, Miss Morris, who spoke on the subject, "Have a Vision." The patient trials and joyous successes, indigenous to a missionary's life were mentioned and the necessity of truthful aim in life was stressed. Miss Louise Hahn sung a solo. A new member was received and action was taken in regard to a Xmas play to be given at the Xmas meeting, under the direction of Miss Schillinger.

Y. M. C. A.

The Reverend Snyder, pastor of the Reformed Church of Schewenksville, will address a Men's Meeting in the Chapel at 7 P. M. on Thursday under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A. Mr. Snyder is an especially strong worker among college men, whose work has taken him among many colleges, both large and small, and various prep schools. Every fellow who wants to hear a good heart to heart talk should come out on Thursday evening.

Madame De Sylva Schuen Heads German Table.

A number of girls have found places in the Woman's College dining room which is to be known as the German table. Madame de Sylva is the head of this table and only German is to be spoken. This is greatly appreciated by the girls who are struggling in an effort to speak the German language fluently. No. doubt many mistakes will be made, but these will tend to strengthen the girls in their conversational German.

DEFEATED AT LOCK HAVEN.

The Preps had an off-day at Lock Haven on Saturday and were defeated, 24-0, at the hands of the Normalites of that place.

BUILDING BEING PAINTED.

INTERCOLLEGIATES

The University of Pennsylvania football team lost several of its stars last week owing to deficiency in scholastic work.

Governor Brumbaugh and Governor Miller, of Delaware, delivered addresses at the fifty-first anniversary of the founding of Swarthmore College, on Saturday, Oct. 23. Many other prominent men were present at the exercises.

The principals and football players of twenty-two secondary schools in the Pittsburgh district were guests of the University of Pittsburg at the Pitt.- W. & J. game last Saturday. The visitors inspected the University buildings before the game.

An automobile containing Lehigh students went through town on Friday afternoon at 1 o'clock, evidently bound for State College, where their team was playing the State team. It is very doubtful whether they got to the game.

Dickinson is agitating the adoption of a point system to cover undergraduates activities. Its purpose is to limit the number of offices to be given one student. The various offices are rated by a certain number of points and no student shall hold offices which total a number of points greater than a certain limit. This method is intended to prevent one man from being over-loaded with the duties and responsibilities of too many positions.

BIBLE CLASS HEARS "CHRIST IN CREATION"

DR. HARRIS GAVE SECOND OF SERIES ON THE "CHRIST" LAST SUNDAY.

Dr. Harris addressed the Bible Class on Sunday morning on "Christ in Creation." This was the second of a series of talks on the Christ, the first being "The Eternal Christ." Next Sunday the subject will be "Christ in Human History."

The scripture references used, were the same as those of last Sunday, which were found in the first few verses of the first chapter of John and the 16th and 17th verses of Colossions I. In the first of his lecture Dr. Harris was recapitulatory, reviewing the essence of his preceding lecture on "The Eternal Christ."

He spoke of Love being the nature of the Supreme being in so far as it moved Him to communiente or to express Himself; of John's rational idea which was that God is love, is reason, is spiritual power, which was in direct opposition to the chaotic idea of Plato and also of the trinitarianism of God.

Leading up in this way to "Christ in Creation" the speaker basing his talk mainly on the words of Paul in the first chapter and seventeenth verse of Colossians,—"And he is before in all things"—, spoke in part as follows: "The world is rational because it is founded and made in eternal reason, 'Christ is before' does not mean temporally; but rationally or priorally as a cause is what is referred to. This should be the form of answer used in answering the question, "What was God doing beore he was creating-?" At this junction Dr. Harris spoke of the dates in the Bible as being the ideas of Achbishop Usher and that faith must not be pinned on these because they are invalid. In those days time was not computed so exactly as today and the same was true with weights. Everything was figured in a general way and the modern application of our careful figuring methods to old figures produces nothing of certainity. 'Christ before' does not imply there was no world but that Christ is a causal priority.

Speaking of, 'All things are created thru him,' Dr. Harris showed that the theories of Pythagoras that God geometrizes; of Aristotle, that the world is concrete mathematics; of Hegel, that the world is congealed logic, and John's "Logos" were all the same as the theory contained in Paul's words in Colossians. The world, the speaker said, was not made and left; but sustained by God. This is God's way of doing things. When we find out God's way of doing things we find a law of Nature. Kepler in seeking out the movement of the planets set out to find the thought of God and found it after 20 years of search. We consider God too much as a stage-driver, the leader next added, but God is not external in his remodelings. He is in the universe, in its activities as an energizing force. In this idea we are not to go to the extreme for this is Pantheism. The old Pantheist said, 'All is God,'; the new Pantheist, 'God is All.' The new idea is, that God is all, in all and thru all. He is a personal Being who has put into existence and sustains in existence an infinite succession of worlds, and knows what he is about having power over his power.

AUBREY AND NEAL SPEAK IN Y. M. C. A.

GIVE HELPFUL TALKS ON SUBJECTS RELATIVE TO COLLEGE LIFE.

The speakers at last Thursday evening's meeting were Aubrey, '17, and Neal, '18. The first speaker took as his subject, 'Why Should I Attend the Weekly Meetings of the Y. M. C. A?" He gave reasons from before, during and after the college course. He said that during the college course a fellow should attend these meetings for his own good; to round out his college training which should be development intellectually, physically and morally; to partake in the discussion of college men's problems; and to help gain the benefits for the Association and its atmosphere. Every college man should attend these meetings to support the Y. M. C. A., by helping it to achieve its object of serving the college in all its departments and also thus to develope community spirit. He should attend these meetings for the example he sets and for the prestige it gives him among college men.

Neal, '18, then spoke on "Our Responsibility for the Other Fellow." He stated four ways in which we may discharge our duty to our fellow students. We can relieve our responsibility to the other fellow by taking care of our speech, of our attitude to our fellows, of our actions and of our lives. If we do this we shall set an example of the proper life of a Christian student.

"Chesty" added a few remarks concerning attendance at the Y. M. C. A. explaining how he receives letters asking whether graduates were men of good moral character. He urged the value of the life of preparedness for the end which may come at any time.

Next week the speaker will be Rev. Snyder, from whom is to be expected a good practical talk to college men.

NO HOPE FOR SUSPENDED ATHLETES.

Yale deiced last week that it will not reinstate the five prominent athletes who recently withdrew from intercollegiate competition, so long as the Yale rule concerning playing so-called baseball stands in its present form. This was made plain recently by Professor Robert N. Corwin, chairman of the Yale Athletic Committee, who made public a letter he had written to Dean Le Baron R. Briggs, of Harvard. Both Harvard and Princeton had written to Professor Corwin, expressing the desire of the undergraduates of those universities that the athletes be allowed to rejoin their teams.

TRI DELTA ENTERTAINS.

Delta Delta Delta entertained its patronesses and Miss Carey, the new Dean of Women, at a reception in the parlors of the Woman's College, on Wednesday evening, Oct. 27. The entire affair was carried out in keeping with the Hallowe'en season.

When the report of the first quarter was read, pandemonium broke loose at the Freshman-Sophomore game, with visions of a bon-fire as a keen incentive. By scoring a touchdown in the second quarter, however, the Middies took the lead, which the desperate efforts of Bucknell were unable to overcome.The Navy scored again in the last period on a successful forward pass play.

At the beginning of the game Bucknell kicked off to the Navy's 5 yard line. The Midshipmen started down the field at a terrific clip, with Davis and Martin getting through for big gains on off-tackle formations. On Bucknell's 45 yard line Martin fumbled, Hendren recovering the ball for Bucknell. On the first play Mangin tossed a pretty pass to Dent, who ran to the 20 yard line before being thrown. Hendren, whose ability as a kicker is becoming more prominent with every game, dropped back and sent the ball squarely between the uprights from a somewhat difficult angle.

In the second quarter the Navy scored a touchdown, due mostly to the running of Martin, Davis, and Orr. They failed to kick the goal. During the remainder of the period, Bucknell dazzled the Navy with a series of forward and lateral pases, but interceptions at critical moments defeated any chances to score.

Again in the last quarter the Navy rushed the ball to the 10 yard line, from which point a pass over the line to Blodgett gave the Middies their second and last touchdown.

Many penalties for holding and offside plays were inflicted on both elevens, but aside from this the game was cleanly played. Mangin's punting was a feature of Bucknell's exhibition, while Martin, Davis and Blodgett were the Navy's star performers.

A hard weeks' drill will be given he Varsity men in preparation for the Gettysburg game on Saturday, and by that time the team should be in shape to give the Battlefield Boys the battle of their lives.

VARSITY COMES INTO ITS OWN

ACHIEVES BIG VICTORY AT HARRISBURG.

GETTYSBURG BEATEN ON SAT., 16 TO 7

Johnston's Fighting Suadron Pulls Big Surprise.—Mangan Big Factor in Victory.—Bucknell Worked 22 Successful Forwards.

Bucknell defeated Getysburg at Harrisburg on Saturday by a score of 16-7, before a crowd of several thousand spectators. The ideal day brought hundreds of people to the game and the majority rooted for Bucknell including about 200 students from the Hill, who accompanied the team. Harrisburg was "All Bucknell" this year as in former years and manifested its liking for the Lewisburg students from the time the special train arrived in the morning until it left late in the evening.

The Varsity, accompanied by the Bucknell Band and about 200 loyal rooters left by special train at 8:45 Saturday morning and arrived in Harrisburg about 10 o'clock. No time was lost in informing Harrisburgers that Bucknell was alive and had come with the spirit that spells "win." Led by the band, the students paraded from the station, around the capitol building, and back to Market street. The line then marched to Market square giving yells that attracted hundreds of people to the curb and windows as they passed with their penants and Bucknell colors. After serenading before The Patriot and The Telegraph, Harrisburg's two large newspapers, the students disbanded at the Columbus hotel near the capitol where the football players were stopping. The band and Bucknellians re-assembled after dinner and marched to the grounds where they were in no way outclassed by the delegation and band from Gettysburg.

In the evening the opposing teams occupied box seats in the Orpheum theatre. Most of the students were present at the performance and between acts the representatives of the two colleges alternated in giving their songs and yells.

Bucknell decisively outplayed Gettysburg and gained its fourth successive victory over them. The seven points secured by the battlefield boys were made in the early part of the first quarter and are attributed more to luck than good playing. During the rest of the game Bucknell was continually on the offensive and the opponents were never dangerous.

Gettysburg kicked off and Mangan carried the ball for a 20 yard gain. Bucknell soon fumbled and the opponents got the ball near the centre of the field where they were held for downs and punted. Atkins fumbled the ball and Gettysburg recovered it near our goal. Two forward passes were tried, Emanuel carrying the ball over the goal line on the second trial. Stoney kicked the field goal. Gettysburg made this score without a single first down, only two first downs being registered by them during the entire game.

Bucknell received and using straight football and an occasional forward pass carried the ball to the seven yard line where Gettysburg held, but Mangan scored on a shift play and kicked the goal. Score end of first quarter, 7-7. In the second period neither team scored. Both teams punted several times and the ball was carried back and forth until the end of the second quarter without any scoring.

Bucknell received the ball and was held for downs in Gettysburg's territory where they punted, and held the opponents on their five yard line. Gettysburg soon punted and Mangan carried the ball to the 28 yard line and Hendren kicked a field goal.

Spotts received the kickoff for a good gain and Atkins tore off several yards on a pretty forward pass. Mangan followed with a long run and Dent scored the final points on a forward pass from Mangan. The attempt at goal failed. Gettysburg again kicked and Hendren made 60 yards, Mangan following with a long gain. Gettysburg soon intercepted a forward pass. Bucknell held and soon obtained the ball. End of third quarter, Bucknell 16, Gettysburg 7.

In the last quarter Spotts and Mangan carried the ball to the five yard line. Bucknell was penalized fifteen yards, but a forward pass to Atkins recovered ten yards. Gettysburg secured the ball on the next play on downs. Gettysburg rallied somewhat and held in the vicinity of their 30 yard line until a long punt carried the ball into Bucknell territory and the game ended.

COLLEGE EVANGELIST ADDRESSES Y. M. C. A.

REV. SNYDER DELIVERS POWERFUL ADDRESSES TO THE STUDENTS.

Rev. Snyder, of Schwenksville, a well known college evangelist, who recently addressed the Princeton Y. M. C. A., was the speaker at the Association meeting last Thursday night.

He took his text in Philippians II 5, "Let this mind be in you which was also in Christ Jesus," and after impressing upon his audience the nonfixity of material life—a lesson which, in view of the recent illustration, struck home—proceeded to suggest a program by which we could make the most of our short lives.

The example was Christ, who performed the three actions essential to the successful life. First, He emptied himself of the power and glory of his heavenly per-existence with God to come down to earth. We also must give up the old life and get away from the entanglements of sin for if we stay in them, they will crush the spiritual life out of us.

Secondly, Christ took on the form of a man. He underwent all the suffering and sorrow of his earthly life, to understand us better. He was a young man of great physicial as well as spiritual power; and it is His wonderful physique and personality which appeal to us as young men. We must be men stalwart and upright; ready to fulfill the aim of the college education in lives of service.

Further, Christ was "obedient unto death;" he obeyed his Father in all things. Obedience to the Almighty, the submission of ourselves as an instrument in His hands and of our talents for his use, comprise the third essential of success.

So then, if we imitate Christ by emptying ourselves by being MEN and by manifesting obedience of God, we shall have taken the three great steps which place us over the threshold of success.

WORKING ON RESTAURANT.

Although the weather of last week was not exactly favorable for building purposes, the work on the new restaurant progressed rapidly. It is the intention of the contractors to get as much completed as possible before colder weather makes the work more difficult.

LEAVES BEING RAKED UP.

The raking and burning of the leaves on the campus has given an active appearance to the campus during the past week. At present the campus is practically cleared of its blanket of leaves and as a result presents a much cleaner appearance.

PETTIT VICTIM OF APPENDICITIS

POPULAR STUDENT SUDDENLY AND FATALLY STRICKEN.

DIED AT 12.30 ON THURSDAY MORNING

Was a Member of the Junior Class. —Whole College Visibly Affected by His Demise.—Buried Saturday Afternoon at Woodstown, N. J.

Bucknell hearts were saddened on Thursday morning when the report of the death of Elmer S. Pettit, '17, following an operation for appendicitis at the Williamsport Private Hospital, was reported at the school. The news came as a shock because of the quickness with which the young man was seized and stricken to death by the malaidy which proved so fatal to him. It was but a few hours before the attack came that Pettit had hiked with a group of his fraternity brothers into the country; it was but a day before that he had proved to be one of the liveliest and happiest of a group of young men entertaining a group of young ladies, and it was but a few days before that his buoyancy of youth and his healthiness of body was manifest as he lined up with his comrades of the second string squad to do battle with the Varsity. Truly it can be said that he was stricken from this earth as a scythe would lower the most enduring and beautiful flower, so quick was his transition from what seemed to be a state of robust health to a state which pressed hard the Gate of Death

The first warnings which came to Pettit of his condition were on Sunday evening when he retired at eight o'clock feeling very sick at his stomach, supposedly from the effects of cramps. His pains grew worse and his room-mates called in Dr. C. A. Gundy at a late hour to ferret out the trouble. Again in the morning the doctor called and pronounced it a slight case of appendicitis, at the same time speaking very encouragingly of a quick recovery without an operation; but the patient grew steadily worse. Early Tuesday morning Pettit's room-mates were awakened by his groans and it was again necessary to call the doctor to relieve his pain. After this he rested more comfortably, due as it was thought, after the condition of his appendix was observed, to the bursting of his appendix which generally relieves the patient, but oftimes proves fatal. Dr. Wm. Leiser, Sr., was called in to conference by Dr. Gundy and it was decided to take the sufferer to the Williamsport Private Hositpal for an immediate operation. He was removed from the S. A. E. house, put aboard the 1.29 Reading train and operated upon immediately upon his arrival at he hospital. Dr. Klump realized that the young man was in a septic condition even before the operation and declared it to be a doubtful case. Pettit came out from under the effects of the ether at 8 o'clock that evening and his condition was so bad that three of his friends were summoned immediately to his side. He however, rallied a little and was in a trifle better condition upon their arrival. After passing through the morning in about the same condition, rational but with his pulse at 180, he became gradually weaker from 1 o'clock on until the end at 12:30 that night. His friends were told that morning he could not be expected to last over two hours, as powerful stimulants were keeping him alive, but they were hopeful for his recovery up until late in the evening.

Pettit's father reached his bedside at 7.30 on Wednesday evening and was with his son until the end. Mr. Pettit, because of a misunderstanding of the telegrams sent him did not realize the seriousness of his son's condition and deemed it unnecessary to come until notified again by means of a plain statement of existing circumstances.

Elmer was but in his 19th year and a member of the Junior Class, enrolled as a Jurisprudence student. His clean character, his manliness, his good nature, and numerous other

MOCK TRIAL TAKES PLACE IN EUEPIA HALL

MEMBERS OF LAW CLUB PRESENT STRONG ARGUMENTS.

The Law Club held its first mock trial of the year on Monday evening at 8 o'clock in Euepia Hall. Weber, '17, and Nancarrow, '16, represented the plaintiff in the case, while Painter, '17, and Reich, '17, gave the argument for the defendant. Schaffner, '15, and Glass, '16, acted as judges. The case was well argued on both sides, making it difficult for the judges to render a decision. The judges will give their decision at the next meeting, Monday evening, November 22.

The underclass tug o'war arranged for last Thursday afternoon on the athletic field was called off by the committee. Both classes failed to qualify for the event by not submitting to the chairman at the specified time the lists of contestants and substitutes. The Freshmen will not be permitted to wear numerals until proper decision has been reached by underclass contests which are now being arranged.

MASS MEETING PRODUCES RESULTS

SMALL BUT ENTHUSIASTIC ATTENDANCE.

PUT HILL-TOPPERS IN A CONFIDENT MOOD

Coaches Cockill and Johnston, Aided by Ranck, Hedge and Darlington Gave Students Information and Pepper.

With the usual mighty Bucknell spirit somewhat dampened by an unusually small attendance, the loyal students gathered in Bucknell Hall on Wednesday evening to cheer the Varsity and to hear the outook and plans for the Gettysburg game at Harrisburg on Saturday. The speeches were good, full of facts, void of flowery language, and brought out the kind of spirit that true Bucknell men possess.

The band opened the meeting with an excellent selection in which the trombones played the principal part, and by way of reward the players were cheered and applauded with a husky, Ray-Band, to clinch the appreciation. Johnson, one of the cheer leaders, then led in the singing of several of the songs which are so popular among the fellows and which played a prominent part in the good times at Harrisburg several days later.

Ranck, Senior class president, then took charge of the meeting and stated that the meeting was called for the purpose of discussing the coming Harrisburg trip and the Gettysburg game. He called on "Chesty Hedge," last year's Senior class president, who began by telling of the hard schedule this season and complimented the players and the student body upon the football spirit they have shown. Gettysburg has always been a sort of windup for the football season for a numbers of years, the speaker stated, and added that all men who possibly could attend this trip to Harrisburg should do so and would never regret having gone. He told how Harrisburg was "All Bucknell" and emphasized his statements by reading a letter from the down-river police authorities inviting Bucknell students to again come to Harrisburg. The letter also complimented the students on their fine showing in the parade which has occurred in that city before the game each year.

Coach Cockill, who has assisted in football at Bucknell for the past fifteen years, was the next speaker and he told how much the team would need the support of a strong, cheering student body at Harrisburg. He complimented the students on their loyalty to the team, saying they should be proud, for the present Varsity team was a fighting one that has not been bettered at Bucknell in the past dozen years. He ended his talk with the statement that Bucknell students had always showed up the Gettysburg rooters and our team should not be handicapped by a lack of support on the part of fellows who could go to Harrisburg, but were merely indifferent.

"Bob" Darlington then told of the plans that were being made for this Gettysburg trip, including facts concerning former trips to this annual game. More than 250 men went on the special to the down-river city last year and for the past three years more than 200 students hae taken in this annual affair with a zeal that seems lacking this year. "Gettysburg is coming with the determination to win, feeling since Bucknell has been beating them three years straight that it is their last chance," Mr. Darlington said. The parades and good times of former years were recalled and at this point the question of the band accompanying the team was brought up by him.

A benefit show at the Orpheum theatre was suggested to aid the band in going and he liberaly handed over five dollars to the band manager to aid in having the band accompany the team and rooters.

IN MEMORIAM.

In the life of our departed friend, Elmer Pettit, there was ever present a whole-hearted consideration for Others, and as we look back now upon his life, which was cut off so quickly, we can see that God through the life of the deceased, taught a lesson which should find lodgement in every heart. From earliest youth Pettit exhibited this trait of consideration for others and when it found expression in the rich field of college association it won for him his innumerable friends.

Surely God had this short life to serve it's purpose before He, as the Friends minister expressed it at the funeral, took Elmer home as one of the jewels for his crown. From this life we can realize the fact that if we wish to attain unto Christ with a life that can be called a success we must think of others.

Sigma Alpha Epsilon wishes to extend its sincerest thanks to all those who showed such tender consideration in its recent bereavement.

GETTYSBURG VICTORY.

The class of 1916 will long remember the feat the Bucknell eleven accomplished last Saturday when the team's victory over Gettysburg gave them the unique distinction of being able to celebrate such a victory each year of their sojourn in college. All others who were there will long remember it as a victory in which the Orange and Blue fought as never before. Mangan with his sterling work made the hearts of many leap as he emulated the deeds of "Tip" Topham to perfection, while the thrilling defense which the line presented produced just as great thrills. The fact that the Gettysburg contingent came loaded for victory and were turned back so decisively makes Bucknell chances for a Turkey Day victory look mighty promising.

KATHARINE AND PETRUCHIO.

Next Friday evening; Bucknell Hall; 8:00 o'clock sharp. Positively a side-splitter; the masque from "The Taming of the Shrew;" the nearest to a farce comedy of any of Shakespeare's productions; Shakespearean wit at its best; a laugh every so often assured. Admission 25 cents, or budget receipt.

SLIGHT FIRE NEAR COLLEGE.

Several fraternity meetings were interrupted for a short time Tuesday evening by a fire on University Avenue. A mattress at the home of Mr. Darlington took fire and threatened to cause considerable damage, but the timely arrival of several students prevented a serious fire.

MECHANICALS TAKE TRIP.

Early Saturday morning Prof. Burpee, with his car filled with Senior Mechanicals, started on a trip, their destination being York, where they made a tour of the plants in that city. The object of special attention was the Pullman motor car works, the observations being made with a view to supplementing the work in the course in Internal Combustion Engines.

The Pitt Weekly gives out the information that the attendance of "grads" at the Penn State game will be equally as large as that of the W. and J. game, when a great number attended the contest.

A spirited rooting drill took place when "Pitt" met Carnegie Tech. on Saturday. Both teams had not been defeated this season and the student bodies of both colleges were out in force to cheer for their teams.

Howard Berry, star half-back of the University of Pennsylvania's football team has been declared ineligible for the rest of the season as a result of his refusal to accompany the team to Dartmouth last Saturday. Berry played a star game for Muhlenberg here two years ago.

The Westinghouse Electric and Manufacturing Co. has presented to the department of electrical engineering, of the Rhode Island State College one of the company's latest type of watt-hour meters. The college is grateful, not only for the gift, but for the expression of interest and good will which the gift involves.

THIRD OF "CHRIST" LECTURES GIVEN

"CHRIST IN HUMAN HISTORY" DISCUSSED IN BIBLE CLASS.

Yesterday morning Dr. Harris addressed his Bible Class on "Christ in Human History"—the third of his series of addresses on the subject of "Christ." He said in part:

"Christ is the eternal reason, and it is from this point of view that we examine Him in human history. The basis of creation is the will of God; the Eternal Reason, which worked when first the planets, then the plants and animals and finally man came into being. The creation of man showed the evolution of mind as above that of matter.

The first habitat of man was Eden, probably some tropical country. From this land the human race spread eastward and westward. Those who advanced to the west came through Asia, Europe and to America; whilst the east bound races went through India, Southern Asia, China and to America. In America in the XVI century came the meeting of East and West and the great races became one and exchanged ideas learnt and discovered in thousands of years of travel. In this unification was wrought the great purpose of God, who in making the world a globe had paved the way for such unity of the human race. Of course, we must understand this unity as being dynamic and not spatial; it is based upon the mind and is unity of ideas rather than persons or nations.

Here we note also a new phase of the evolution of the mind, viz. free choice. Whilst the animals are wholly subject to their condition; man becomes a factor in his own evolution by the principle of choice. He can choose his own life ideal. Thus, man is the only being who can be wise or virtuous. He can choose his own ideal of character and make that ideal the end of his life.

In order to attain this end in life he must bring into play Christian optimism, the optimism of will or action. This optimism is vastly superior to optimism of mind or of feeling; for it is the basis of progress. Christian optimism realizes what can be improved and thus is progressive and wholesome optimism. Each must make his contribution to progress by co-operation to form a totality in which lies power. Such contribution may be given at the polls by helping the totality which will be powerful for the right principles. If we wish international peace and goodwill we must each do his share as an individual member of the great totality we call a nation. This share consists in banishing from our hearts racial hatred, national antagonism and religious bigotry; for these are the fuel which when ignited by the torch of a leader cause the fire of war to blaze forth. We must strive for unity in the Christ of history, the God of love and justice."

Next Sunday the fourth topic of the series, "Christ Incarnate," will be discussed.

Y. W. C. A. LED BY MISS HOFFA

GIVES INSPIRING TALK ON "HOW TO MAKE OUR LIVES COUNT."

On November 9, Miss Mary Hoffa, a member of the Y. W. C. A. Advisory Board, gave a short, interesting, helpful and inspiring talk. Her theme was "How to Make Our Lives Count" and a forceful illustration, the three rules of happiness given by Mrs. Alice Freeman Palmer were introduced. (1.) Commit something worth while to memory every day. (2.) See something beautiful every day. (3.) Do something for somebody every day. The success of the meeting was generally felt.

The choir sang a beautiful anthem. After the meeting the names of all those wishing to attend the conference at Gettysburg were received.

Coach Johnston told how the Navy game had weakened the Varsity men and said the student body should not hirk attending the Bucknell-Gettysburg contest. Johnson, cheer leader, told of the good times on last year's trip and asked all the fellows to attend the Harrisburg Orpheum theatre in the evening following the game where they would give the citzens of that city an idea of Bucknell spirit by giving a few yells and songs.

traits which went to make up a creature whose duplicate God has made impossible, won for him friends by the score wherever he went. He was one of the strongest members Sigma Alpha Epsilon had within its roll of membership and his departure has caused in the hearts of its members a sense of irreparable loss. He is survived by a father, a mother, five brothers and three sisters to whom a world of sympathy goes out from hearts at Bucknell which fairly reach out to them to share their grief. He was interred in the Friends Cemetery at Woodstown, New Jersey, on Saturday afternoon.

The funeral services were held on Saturday afternoon at the Friends Meeting House in Woodstown, New Jersey. The Quaker services were very impressive. Several men arose and paid tributes to the life of the deceased after the Friends minister Joel Borton, had spoken in a consoling manner to the family. The pall bearers were six of Pettit's fraternity brothers, Painter, Heberling, Oesterle, Eshelman, Umlauf and Bender. Professor Wilcox, Rosenberger, Miller Lockard and Fayette Eshelman, were other members of Sigma Alpha Epsilon who attended the services. John Hedge, Sec'y. of the Y. M. C. A., also accompanied the little group which paid its last respects to the departed.

The floral tributes were many and beautiful. He was laid to rest in the Friends Grounds after a short but rich young life.

RESOLUTIONS.

Whereas, It has pleased Almighty God to remove from this life a true friend and fellow-student, Elmer S. Pettit, and

Whereas, We, the committee, desire to express, in behalf of the student body and institution of Bucknell University our deep sorrow and sympathy, therefore be it,

Resolved, That in the death of Elmer S. Pettit Bucknell loses a faithful and interested worker; and a fellow-student whose agreeable companionship and upright character will long be cherised in memory.

Resolved, That copies of these resolutions be spread on the minutes of the Senior Council, be published in the Bucknellian, and be sent to the Sigma Alpha Epsilon brothers and to the parents of the deceased.

NEW LAFAYETTE PAPER.

Lafayette is contemplating another publication. At a recent meeting in which the subject was discussed by members from all classes it was decided to outline the plans for the new publication and to present them to the Faculty Committee on Publications for approval. The new paer will in for approval. The new paper will in no wise interfere with their present but will contain semi-humorous and semi-literary articles, short stories, articles on subjects of intercollegiate interest and criticism and discussion of local collegiate affairs will be included in its make-up.

The "Lafayette" reports spies at her game with Swarthmore sometime ago. Here's the way they put it: "Football spies in the shapes of Tom Keady, Jim Keady, Chenoweth, Maginnes, Sawtelle, and a few other Lehigh footballers took in the game last Saturday with Swarthmore. Tom and Jim both agreed that "we will beat youse guys easy."

"Stan" Ewing, former Central High star, is playing a remarkable game at quarter for Penn State. His appearance on Forbes Field, Thanksgiving Day, will be anxiously awaited by his fond henchmen in this city. —"Pitt" Weekly.

THE BUCKNELLIAN

BUCKNELL UNIVERSITY.

TEAM READY FOR LEBANON VALLEY

ALL REGULARS BUT McDERMOTT IN SHAPE.

FIRST HOME THANKSGIVING GAME IN YEARS

Coaches Have Been Giving Team Needed Rest.—Light Practices Perfecting Open Play Were Only Workouts Demanded Last Week.

For the first time in many years, there will be a football game on Bucknell's campus on Thanksgiving Day. The wearers of the Orange and Blue will meet Lebanon Valley's team, which being composed almost entirely of veterans has made a remarkable record this year. As this is the only college game scheduled in this section of the state for that day, a large crowd of football enthusiasts from the surrounding towns is expected.

Since Bucknell's victory over Gettysburg, Coaches Johnston and Cockill have been giving the team a much needed rest, with light practices each day to keep the team from going stale. Yarnall and Banks, who were injured earlier in the season will again be in shape to fill the end positions, while Mangan, whose star playing was such a big factor in the Gettysburg victory, will be able to run the team as quarterback. With the return of these men to the game every Varsity player with the exception of McDermott will be able to enter the fray in the best of condition.

In Lebanon Valley, Bucknell will meet a team, whose strength has been fully demonstrated by their showing against Carlisle and Muhlenberg. In Mackert and Capt. Swartz the Annville team has a scoring asset which is at all times dangerous. Swartz is famous as a line plunger, while Mackert is a sure point getter with his accurate toe. From all accounts Lebanon Valley will present the identical line-up, which threw such a big scare into Coach Keady's Lehigh team. Coach Guyer's eleven plays football from the minute the whistle blows, and can be relied upon to give Bucknell a battle royal.

During the past week much time has been devoted to developing Bucknell's open play and much good has been accomplished along this line. As it is expected that drop kicking will play a prominent part in the Lebanon Valley contest, "Johnny" Hendren has been practicing this art diligently, with splendid success.

The game will be called at 2:30. Every Bucknell supporter should be on hand to cheer the boys to victory on "Turkey Day."

MATRICULATION TAKES PLACE TOMORROW AFT.

214 WILL BECOME MEMBERS OF COLLEGE.—ATTENDANCE IS IMPERATIVE.

The matriculation lists posted on Saturday show the names of 214 who will matriculate Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock in Bucknell Hall. Only sixteen of those eligible for the ordeal failed, and when it is considered that among this number there are one or two who came in late and several who are taking but two subjects which debars from matriculation no matter how good the marks, this record is an admirable one. Another noteworthy fact is to be noted in the record made by the girls who without one exception qualified for matriculation.

NOTICE TO SUBSCRIBERS

All Subscriptions to the "Bucknellian" must be paid on or befor Jan. 1, 1916. All unpaid subscriptions will be discontinued after that date.

Susquehanna played its only home game of the season when it met Dickinson at Selinsgrove on Sautrday.

"A BILLY SUNDAY SHOT."

"Billy" Sunday has tested the efficacy of prayer for gridiron warriors. The evangelist is conducting meetings in Syracuse, and attended the Syracuse-Colgate game Saturday. In a recent sermon he said: "I'm going to that football game to see Syracuse lick the tar out of Colgate, and I'm going to pray every day that they can do it."—The Washington, Pa., Daily Reporter.

T. G. GAME FOR SOPHS.

The Sophs are scheduled to play a football game at Minersville on Thanksgiving Day. Here's luck.

PROHIBITION LEAGUE INCREASES MEMBERSHIP

EIGHT NEW MEMBERS ADDED AND WORK FOR WINTER DISCUSSED AT MEETING.

The Prohibition League held its second meeting of the year Tuesday afternoon in Bucknell Hall. The league's membership was increased considerably by the receipt of eight new members. It is to be the endeavor of the organization to double its membership before the end of the year.

The work for the coming winter was planned and outlined. A strenuous year's work lies before the club. The study of Warner's "Social Welfare and the Liquor Problem," will be commenced immediately. This includes the study of the "Problem" from the following bases:

(A.) Sources of the Liquor Institution.

(B.) The Demands of Social Welfare.

(D.) The Social Demands for Complete Elimination.

The Oratorical Contest is to be held soon. The members of a Deputation Team will be selected from the contestants exhibiting the most ability for the work. The team will be composed of four persons and will make a tour of a number of towns in the State, during the week of December twenty-sixth, speaking upon Prohibition.

A cartoon poster service is to be established also. Cartoons will be received each week and posted in the main hallway.

The next meeting will be held Tuesday afternoon in the Chapel. The topic for this week is, "Liquor a Social Inheritance." A cordial invitation to attend is extended to all.

—Don't forget matriculation.

SENIORS REVEL AT THE "SEM"

"CALLERS" FROM CLASSES ARE BARRED.

SENIOR GIRLS ENTERTAIN SENIOR FELLOWS

Royal Good Time Shown Men of the Graduating Class on Saturday Night.—Evening Spent at Playing Games of Various Sorts.

The Senior girls proved themselves "superior sports" in their entertainment of the Senior fellows at the "Sem" parlors on Saturday evening in reciprocating the reception tendered them by their classmates last winter in the gym. The expressions of "Mighty Fine," from those who were entertained, and of "Sorry I Did Not Get There," from those who stayed away, serve as an attestation of the fact that a royal good time was forthcoming from the efforts of the Senior girls at "Ye Old Sem," in their reception.

The girls were hostesses to about forty of the fellows, who collecting at the Y. M. C. A. office marched in a body from this place of meeting to assault the doors of the Sem; some for the first time in their collegiate careers, whose closest approach before this time had been to receive a shower bath from the Sem windows in their Freshman year. Terror fled from these quaking hearts after they had come under the shower of Senior hospitality and kindly greeting spread about them from the first turn of the Sem door knob until Miss Carey rung wildly for departure.

The young men upon divesting themselves of their overcoats and other trappings were swished up the stairs to the parlors where the customary round-robin of hand shaking was gone thru with. To each young gallant a slip of paper was then passed containing many head-splitting riddles, the answers to which were on slips held by the girls. This occasioned a hunt for partners, but to only a lucky few was granted the opportunity of having a girl "all to his lonesome," as the fellows outnumbered the girls very nearly 2 to 1. Thus some of the maidens had a cortege consisting of as high as 6 attendants, as for instance Miss Rollins, whose following as she moved about resembled

BUCKNELL'S SPEEDY ENDS—BANKS AND DENT

TRACE STUDENTS WHO FLED.

Harrisburg, Nov. 20.—State Health Department authorities today ordered the locating of 31 students of Gettysburg College who left that institution last night when two cases of scarlet fever were reported among the students. The remainder of the students will be kept isolated under observation for 10 days at Gettysburg.

FRESHIES DEFEATED.

The Freshman team, coached by "Fat" Fisher, matched their skill against the Sunbury High School team on Saturday and were beaten 19-0 by the team representing the Alma Mater of their coach.

SCRUBS RUN OVER THE ACADEMY TEAM

ROLL UP 8 TOUCHDOWNS ON PREP'S ON SATURDAY AFTERNOON.

The interest of football followers among the student body was centred on the Scrub-Prep game which took place on the slippery campus Saturday afternoon and ended in favor of the Scrubs, 52-0.

The game was a lively, hotly contested one, but the miry condition of the field proved too great a disadvantage to the much lighter Preps whose usual attack is an overhead one. The preps, however, battled the Scrubs in a manner that is not to be passed without mention. They were in the game every minute and showed the Scrubs a thing or two in the art of tackling. Annan and Miller, the two Academy standbys, tackled like demons, stopping their heavier opponents in their tracks with shoestring tackles time after time.

The Scrubs used a great variety of plays, scoring on line bucks and forward passes of many kinds. Newcomb, Gearhart, Smith, Mackey, Menaker, Donaldson and Lewis scored the Scrub touchdowns.

Quite a number of students, clothed in their heaviest apparel, stamped up and down the damp sidelines rooting for the teams, also deriving lots of laughs from the many curious incidents of the game.

FINAL MASS MEETING

The final mass meeting of the present football season will come off at 9 o'clock Tuesday evening in the chapel, at which time Bucknell spirit, lying dormant since the Gettysburg game, will be brought to the fore to help the Varsity in its supreme test against Lebanon Valley's eleven on Thanksgiving. The band will be out. The team's work all season demands your presence and help at this meeting; so be on the job Tuesday evening.

FORMER BUCKNELL GRIDIRON HERO DIES

JOHN GILLIS SUCCUMBS TO AN ATTACK OF TYPHOID PNEUMONIA.

This morning's North American contained an article relative to the death of John Gillis, due to an attack of typhoid pneumonia. His death occurred in the Pittston Hispital.

Gillis is to be remembered as the giant guard of the teams representing Bucknell during the years between 1889 and 1902.

Gillis had the reputation of being a fellow who they never could put out and this reputation he sustained even when battling against Glass, of Yale, and Wheelock, of the old Indian team. For several years he acted as coach for Lebanon Valley's team. Gillis was not a graduate.

ELECTRICAL MEETING.

Monday evening of last week the Student Branch of the A. I. E. E. met in the Electrical Laboratory. "Insulating Material" was the subject of discussion for this meeting. The discussion was taken up by one of the Seniors and Prof Rhoades. At the next meeting one of the Seniors will give a discussion of observations during the summer vacation.

Dr. Harris spoke at a Suffrage meeting in Williamsport to-day.

KATHARINE AND PETRUCHIO GIVEN

BUCKNELL HALL SCENE OF A DRAMATIC EFFORT.

"CAP AND DAGGERS" MAKE THEIR FIRST APPEARANCE

Crowded House Enjoys Excellent Performance of Miss Schillinger's Stars.—Phi Gam Orchestra Furnishes Music.

The first effort of Cap and Dagger Bucknell's organization in dramatics, in the performance of "Katharine and Petruchio," was attended with great success. The members of the cast coached by Miss Schillinger of the School of Elocution, covered themselves with praise from everyone making up the crowded audience. The house was crowded and there is no doubting of this fact, as the ushers were compelled to use slipper horns in order to slip some of those attending into the chapel seats so closely jammed together. Phi Gamma Delta's orchestra enlivened the intermission and other breaks in the programme with some numbers which drew favorable remarks from the listeners. Members of the football squad attended the play in a body and were perched in seats on "bald-head row."

The stage copy of "The Taming of the Shrew," which, under the name of "Katharine and Petruchio," has for many years been in common use, was made by Garrick. The present version—used by Edwin Booth—is an alteration of that piece. The original play, which, obviously, is much better in the reading than it would be in representation, is never acted. A large part of it, comprising the introduction—with the capital character of Christopher Sly,—and the whole of the underplot, relative to the loves of Bianca and Lucentio, has been rejected, in arranging it to the modern stage. The scenes retained are those which it is thought were exclusively the work of Shakespeare. "The Taming of the Shrew" is based on an earlier play, supposed by Knight, to be the work of Robert Green. That piece was entitled "The Taming of a Shrew," and it is believed that Shakespeare either assisted with another writer, in writing a new version of it, or by himself enlarged and improved a version of it which another writer had already made. "I am satisfied," says Collier, "that Shakespeare had little to do with any of the scenes in which Katharine and Petruchio are not engaged." The piece is known to have been acted by Shakespeare's company, at the Blackfriars, at Newington Butts, and at the Globe.

The play was filled with lots of action especially in the second scene of Act two, the setting of which was in the Hall of Petruchio, when Malin, as Petruchio, produced much terror in the hearts of his peasant swains; much comical mimicry in the personage of Bertin as Grumio, his servant; and unspeakable anguish in the heart of Katharine, whose part was taken by Miss Edna Smith. "Joe" was especially good in the part assigned to him, while Miss Smith and Mr. Bertin interpreted their parts in a manner usually as well. Bertin's work is especially to be commended as he assumed the part on very short notice, after one of the members of the cast, assigned Grumio's part, had dropped out. As Baptista "Sam" Davenport was just "to hum" and acquitted himself very creditably. Even down into the minor parts each member of the cast contributed in a splendid manner to a rendition of Shakespeare's work which was immensely enjoyed by all present.

EMANCIPATION.

As one steps into the last year at college as a Senior there is something which lodges itself in his heart making him cognizant of an independence which comes only from education. This feeling of independence which makes the Senior feel like a man among men comes only after many degrees of emancipation.

For instance a man comes to college with many distorted and exaggerated ideas as to the ways of colleges; as to the magnitude and extent of the minds of the professors, as to the superhuman prowess of the athletes who represent their Alma Mater in the various phases of athletics, as to the importance of the various long and perplexing names of subjects in the catalogues, and many other things which make his entrance into the college similiar to a step into a fog. Gradually the shackles of such delusions fall away as he finds things not a whole lot different from his home life. He finds, as the training which a pursuance of studies and a mingling with his fellow-collegemen commences to assert itself on his character, that the professors are not awe-some creatures, but real men whose abundance of knowledge is in some degree attainable in his case. He finds that many of the famous athletes are not superhuman, but simply common, ordinary men once as he, who have only developed by hard training into the types they have become. He finds that the various positions which were filled by Seniors, causing him to admire the brains of those fellows holding them down, were not so impossible, after all, when his training brought him to a point where an assumption of them was nothing more than a slight transition. He finds that his opinion, if arrived at after good solid thinking on his part, is of as much value as the next man's.

All these riddances, these emancipation from petty delusions set the Senior on a plane of independence where he can look out to that which lies beyond his graduation, feeling that independence which assures him that the world's process has a place for him. He has in part realized the words of John, "And ye shall know the truth and the truth shall make you free."

COMMUNICATION.

Mr. Editor:

I wonder whether or not a few words would be in order with reference to our library. We have a fine building, a splendid stock of books, and a courteous librarian. However, many of these dark fall days one is unable to work with ease in the library after about four o'clock in the afternoon, owing to the fact that there are no lights in the building.

Now, it so happens that some of us, owing to laboratory and class work, are not able to get to the library until late in the afternoon and when we get there are unable to work on account of the darkness. Some students, I understand, take a few books to their rooms and there work out the assignment for the succeeding day; but it is quite obvious that we cannot all do that and so we are obliged either to wear out our eyes pouring over volumes in the darkness or to allow the assignment to go by default.

I do not know why there are no lights in the library, but it would seem that the convenience of the large number of students who use the building would require this facility. I am sure that the college authorities are not aware that these conditions exist, and I wonder if there is not some way of bringing it to their attention, if other students feel about as I do.

Respectfully,
A STUDENT.

SECOND OF Y. W. AND Y. M. JOINTS MEETINGS

DOROTHY BUNNELL AND EDGAR CAMPBELL ARE SPEAKERS.

The second joint meeting of the Y. M. C. A. and Y. W. C. A. occurred Thursday evening in Bucknell Hall, at which time the students were given two fine addresses by classmates from each association. The meeting was short and interesting and some very worthy thoughts were brought out in the addresses.

The sextette from the Y. W. C. A. opened the meeting with a selection of merit and after the scripture reading by Eric Oesterle, leader, the quartette from the Y. M. C. A. responded with a selection.

Miss Dorothy Bunnell was the first speaker and told of "The Give and Take of Life." She began by telling how thankful Americans should be for the peace which this country has enjoyed in the past year and to appreciate the flourishing conditions of our industries while the countries across the Atlantic have been suffering. As university students we can help our country by becoming educated. The speaker emphasized that we should know how to associate with people. Education should give responsibility by developing our talents for the benefit of our friends and ourselves.

Campbell, '16, then gave his version of "The Give and Take of Life." "This subject is generally construed that it is more blessed to give than to receive," the speaker said, but added, "There are some things better to take than to give. One should avoid provocation and take insult rather than give it." Following an appropriate illustration of "give and take" the speaker added, "Take pleasure in doing right and don't give pain. Obstacles are often met in doing right, but persistence overcomes them. And as a final thought, take courage and dont' give up."

COMMITTEE DISCUSSES THE FUTURE OF FRATS

Special to "The Record."

Newark, Del., Nov. 17.—To determine the future of fraternities in connection with Delaware College and whether or not it would be for the best interest of the institution to abolish them, a special committee of trustees, with Chancellor Curtis as chairman, held a conference last night with representatives of all parties concerned. The indications are that money soon will be available for dormitories and a commons on the campus, and because of this the trustees are anxious to have the fraternity controversy settled soon.

At present there are four Greek letter fraternities with an active membership of 117 students. Three of these own their houses which are away from the campus. It was the consensus of opinion among those who expressed their views that the fraternity members would have no objection to taking their meals with all other students in a mess hall on the campus and that there would be no objection to the "frat" houses being located on the campus under direct supervision of the college authorities, if the fraternities are given an opportunity of disposing of their present properties.

DR. HARRIS CONTINUES LECTURES ON CHRIST

"CHRIST INCARNATE" IS HEARD BY THE BIBLE CLASS STUDENTS.

President Harris' subject yesterday morning was "Christ Incarnate," and may be summarized as follows:

Christ was the image of the invisible God. The universe is the embodiment of God, but humanity alone is the complete expression of the Godhead. Nature does not represent the goodness and justice qualities of God; for what we see in nature in this respect is really what we read into it.

Man is the end of biological evolution, but the beginning of moral and mental evolution. He is a crude specimen of the incarnation of God, which is to undergo much evolution. In contrast to nature which grows in accordance with fixed laws which it cannot control, man is a factor in his own evolution. This very fact demonstrates the importance of instruction which is imparted by seers in prophesy. Divine love is the desire of God to incarnate and express himself; and so the energy of God operates in all people. Seers and prophets—seers who express their visions—are God's men doing His work, and they may be found in all branches of life. In this way the Greeks were the seers of ethics, for they connect religion and morality, man's relation with God and his relation with his fellows.

So, in the process of evolution man needed education and in the Old Testament prophesy was made of the advent of One who should give the final word about, and be the perfect expression of, God. The type, contrary to biological process, came in the middle of the series; and this was to give man example and instruction for use in his own evolution. This was the purpose of the incarnation of Christ.

The next of the series of lectures on Christ will be given on Sunday a week to give those who are away for Thanksgiving an opportunity to hear the whole series.

BASKET-BALL INTERPRETATION MEETING, NOV. 26

TO BE HELD FOR BENEFIT OF PLAYERS, COACHES AND OFFICIALS.

The annual Basket-Ball Interpretation Meeting for players, coaches and officials, will be held at the Hotel Astor, Broadway and Forty-fourth Street, New York, Friday evening, November 26th, at 7 p. m.

This year it is to be noted that this in an evening meeting instead of an afternoon one, as heretofore. The change in the time is due to the fact that this meeting will also be open to the Y. M. C. A. and A. A. U. players, officials and coaches, and it was deemed by the committee that an evening meeting would be more suitable.

One set of rules has been adopted by the Y. M. C. A., the A. A. U. and the schools and colleges of the National Collegiate Athletic Association this year. There is, therefore, a uniform set of basket-ball rules for all players of amateur basketball.

As last year, the Rules Committee urgently recommends that the rules be studied, that every member of the different teams procure a Rule Book and study carefully the rules and Dr. Raycroft's fine introduction to the rules, and then attend the Interpretation Meeting, determined to thoroughly understand the game—literally and in spirit.

RECITAL GIVEN BY SCHOOL OF MUSIC

SEVEN TALENTED PUPILS RENDER AN ATTRACTIVE PROGRAMME.

A very instructive musical programme was rendered in Bucknell Hall on Wednesday, Nov. 17, by seven talented pupils of the School of Music. The pupils are members of various classes, but in spite of this fact each number was well prepared and performed in a finished manner, which reflected favorably on their teachers. Special mention is due Misses Tule, Duke and Schimp.

The following is the programme:

Hazel Tule.

Lack ..... Cabaletta
Helen Dent.

AN OVERSIGHT

A marked copy of the "Miltonian" sent to us during the past week brought to our notice the announcements of a twain of marriages which have escaped our notice and which will prove interesting to those, who like the staff, have not been possessed of a knowledge of these affairs.

WILLIS—FOUST.

At the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Foust, 37 Bound avenue, Miss Alice Ethel Foust became the bride of Lieutenant Herbert Edson Willis. Rev. H. G. Maeder, of St. John's Reformed Church, performed the ceremony, using the ring service.

On November first they left for the Philippines where the Lieutenant will complete his three remaining years of service.

The bride is a graduate of Milton High School and Bucknell University. She has taught in the local schools for the past six years and is one of the most attractive ladies of the younger set in Milton.

The bridegroom's home is at Anelica, N. Y. He is a graduate of the public schools and one of the prominent military academies of his native State. He has been a Lieutenant of the Constabularly in the Philippines for the past three years and is on a deserved six month's leave of absence.

VAN OSTEN—HOLLINGSHEAD.

At the home of the bride's parents, on Mahoning street, August 23, Alfred Smith Van Osten, of Philadelphia and Miss Harriet May Hollingshead were united in marriage. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. F. Anderson, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal Church, using the double ring ceremony and in the presence of the immediate friends of the bridal party. Miss Hollingshead had for a number of years been an instructor of instrumental music in Bucknell University. Mr. Van Osten has been elected teacher in the high school at Clearfield.

SONG RECITAL

A remarkable song recital was given in Bucknell Hall on Thursday evening, November 11th, by Madame De Sylva-Schoen recently of the Vienna Opera Company, and now connected with the Vocal Department of the Bucknell University School of Music.

Madame De Sylva-Schoen has a full rich contralto voice of unusual volume and sweetness; she sang with great skill and art, as well as taste and temperament. The numbers were of an exacting nature, consisting of German, English and Italian song groups.

Madame De Sylva-Schoen is particularly strong in dramatic numbers. She scored a big success in the Aria of Andromache from the opera "Achilles" by Max Bruch; "Der Erl-Konig" of Schubert, and "The Cry of Rachael" by Mary Turner Salter, an American woman composer. "Der Erl-Konig" was interpreted in a particularly tragic and thrilling manner.

The lighter songs were given in a most attractive and inimitable manner possible only to one of Madame De Sylva-Schoen's winning and pleasing personality. The whole programme was received most enthusiastically and the Madame very graciously responded to several encores.

Miss Pricilla Richardson Hardesty supported the Madame in a decidedly sympathetic and artistic manner. Especial mention is due Miss Hardesty's ability in "Der Erl-Konig," which blended beautifully with the Madame's interpretation.

Lewisburg is most fortunate in having a singer and an accompanist of such ripe attainments enrolled among the musical forces of the town and community.

The surprise needed to cap the climax of this football season so fraught with weekly upsets in dope, will be for Penn to "put the cleaner" on Cornell and Barrett. Lafayette's decisive and unexpected defeat of Lehigh and Harvard's steam roller job in their finish of Yale have prepared us for any old kind of a Turkey Day shock.

Y. W. C. A. HAS MISS "SCHILL" FOR ITS SPEAKER

HEAD OF ELOCUTION DEPARTMENT SPEAKS ON "TRUTHS."

Miss Edith Schillinger honored last Tuesday's Y. W. C. A. with an informal, heart-to-heart talk. Her subject was "Truths, Great Truths and Truths," which resolved itself into a discussion on hyperbole—its use and misuse. Emphasis was laid upon the avoidance of hyperbole in language and life. A truly democratic and cheerful spirit was urged upon each one.

After the talk short, appropriate quotations were passed around and read by many.

An inspiration was felt by each one present.

Miss Frances Silberstein sang a very appropriate solo.

a mad rush for an heiress. Some of the more bashful ones remaining unattached all evening.

Paired, trio-ed, and sextett-ed, the company then moved to the school room rendered pleasant with several Japanese effects and chatted until summoned to the parlors where a "rug game" was reveled in. A circle was formed which was set into revolution by strains from the deft fingers of "Mechanical Conway" at the piano. In the orbit of this revolving circle was a rug over which each person was obliged to step. Those happening upon this at a time when Conway had ceased to play were supposed to make their exit from the game. Glass and Miss Embrey having finally been caught and relegated to the residue of panting, puffing participants the scene of merriment shifted again to the school room, where Miss Ruth Williams at the piano played 13 tunes, the guessing of whose names and transition to slips provided, constituted the next game on the programme. Miss Jenkins, aided and abetted by "Peachy" Wolfe pulled down the prize in this musical "guess-fest."

Miss Williams and Miss Margaret Evans with vocal solos delighted the company in the rapidly moving remaining half hour of the evening. As the latter was singing an encore the "eats", borne by several pretty waitresses, commenced to float in, gladdening the hearts of not a few. With pillows flying in every direction, especially in the quarter where sat the chaperones, the Misses Helena Way and Etta Brown, the dismissal bell fell harshly upon unwillingly ears. This mandate of Miss Carey did not produce immediate results and it was 10:10 before final good-byes and expressions of thanks were passed by the departing Senior men.

CORRECTION.

In the last issue of the Bucknellian it was stated in the mass meeting story that "Bob" Darlington had given $5 towards the expenses of taking the band to Harrisburg. This was an error both in the name of the donor and also in the amount given. The Orpheum was the donor while the amount was $10 and not $5 as stated.

THIRD 3-0 DEFEAT OF THE YEAR

VARSITY LOSES LAST GAME OF THE SEASON

LEBANON VALLEY TAKES TURKEY DAY CONTEST

Bucknell Outplays Annville Eleven in First Half But Throws Away Chances to Score.—Mackert Gives Great Exhibition.

For the third time in one season Bucknell was defeated by a single goal from field in the game with Lebanon Valley College, played on the campus Thanksgiving Day. During the first half the Orange and Blue warriors completly outplayed their rivals, and on one occasion had the ball within striking distance of Lebanon Valley's goal; but this pace began to tell later in the game, when the Annville team, playing with renewed vigor, had things their own way. The score was made in the third period when Mackert, who was by far the star of the contest, kicked a goal from placement on the 33 yard line.

The day was ideal for football, and the attendance was the largest at any game played here in years. This being the only college game in this section of the state, many out-of-town people were present, coming to Lewisburg by automobile and train.

At the out-set of the game the lineplunging of Atkins, Spotts and Hendren, with an occasional pass formed an offensive combine, before which the Lebanon Valley forwards were almost helpless. The ball was carried down the field several times at a rapid pace, only to be stopped by an intercepted pass or some similar catasrophe. It seems that luck alone kept the Lebanon Valley slate clean during the first two periods.

Lebanon Valley came back with a rush in the second half, and from then on Bucknell never had a chance. Mackert and Swartz were always good for gains, which with Rupp's end runs soon placed the ball in position for Mackert's kick. There was a lot of rough playing in this half, which went unpenalized by the officials.

The whole Lebanon Valley team showed great strength as the game progressed, but Mackert was always their star performer. This player, besides playing a strong offensive game, did some sterling work in backing up the line, making on the average about two out of every four tackles. Atkins, Spotts and Hendren, did Bucknell's best work in the backfield, and Capt. Schaffner displayed his usual strength on the line in this, his last game for Bucknell.

Last Wednesday afternoon Professor Colestock of the faculty, addressed the Woman's Club of Williamsport on "The Meaning of the Present European War." ENGINEERS TAKE AUTO TRIP TO PITTSBURGH

WITNESSED PITT-STATE GAME AND INSPECTED WESTINGHOUSE INDUSTRIES.

Early Wednesday morning, before Thanksgiving Day, an automobile party of ten men started to Pittsburgh, with Professor Burpee and "Bake" Spyker as drivers in their respective Overlands. The purpose of the trip was to make a tour of the Westinghouse industries and the National Tube Works. Due to troubles the party did not reach their destination until Thursday morning, stopping for the night at the home of Kepple, '17, where they were entertained to their utmost satisfaction especially in the matter of "eats." As the shops were closed on Thanksgiving Day, the party witnessed the Pitt-State game. Friday morning was spent in the Westinghouse Machine Company's Factory, and the afternoon in the Electric Company's Plant, the party being guided through the latter by Hern, '15, and Schaeffer, '13, along with a party of Penn State Seniors. Mr. Boston, of the Machine Company entertained the entire party at lunch. Saturday morning was splent in the National Tube Company 's plant at McKeesport. From here they went to Kepple's, leaving Greensburg at eight o'clock Sunday morning and reaching Lewisburg at nine in the evening. The trip was both interesting and instructive and can be conceded as the best taken this year.

Prof. Irving Fisher, the great Economist of Yale, speaking of the conditions which enable an athlete to be at his best says: "I have had occasion to examine the conflicting popular ideas concerning alcohol. I began the study quite willing to be convinced that alcoholic beverages have some virtues. I have ended in the conviction that they have none, and I have found that this conclusion is almost universally reached by those who have examined the facts.

J. L. VELTE, '10, ELECTED DIRECTOR OF CHARITIES

CITIZENS OF LARAMIE, WYO., BESTOW HONOR ON BUCKNELL GRADUATE.

Mr. J. L. Velte, '10, now located in Laramie, Wyoming, as pastor of the Baptist Church in that place, was recently elected Director of Charities in that city at a recent public meeting of the citizens.

Mr. Velte seems to be a rather busy man as he was appointed by the American Baptist Home Mission Society as a special traveling secretary for about 5 weeks for the State of Colorado. In addition to this he gives lectures occasionally to the students of the State University located at Laramie. These lectures have been on Child Labor, Philanthropy, Social Settlement, etc. The needs of the Baptist students in attendance at the University are also administered to by this wide-awake Bucknellian.

Mrs. Velte is also actively identifed with the women of the university. She is now chairman of the advisory committee for college women. Frequently she gives talks to the women students.

Recently Frye, '15, and Fairchilds, '14 arrived in the former's car from the western part of Penna. for a short visit with the D. T. U's.

The Bucknell Operatic Society will present "The Mikado," a Jananese opera, Tuesday evening, December 7th, 1915, at 7:30 o'clock. This Gilbert and Sullivan production is one of the best and affords plenty of wit and humor with bright catchy music.

Costumes are being hired from Tams Music Library, New York City, and the scene will be that of the Japanese village, Titipu. A large audience and splendid performance are anticipated.

SCHNURE, '14, LECTURES.

On Monday evening of last week Schnure, a graduate of the class of 1914, gave an illustrated talk on power plants. As he has been engaged in appraisal work with one of the public service corporations in New Jersey his collection of views was extensive and his lecture interesting as well as instructive.

PECULIAR FOOTBALL SEASON PASSED THRU

REVIEW OF 1915 SEASON REFLECTS CREDIT ON COACH JOHNSTON.

With its defeat at the hands of Lebanon Valley College on Thanksgiving Day, Bucknell closed a football season, which from the standpoint of victories must be considered a failure; and yet when the inexperience of the eleven and the strength of Bucknell's opponents are given due thought, the season's record is little short of remarkable.

From a field of new material, with the exception of Capt. Schaffner, Banks and Spotts of last year's team, Coach Johnston developed a team, which played eleven hard games, in only one of which they were decisively beaten. Barring the game with Cornell, one of the best teams in the country, the contests, were all hard fought, three of which resulted in ties, two in victories, and five in defeats; the scores of which would have been far more suited to baseball. The game with Syracuse, which the New York team won by six points, is especially notable in view of the splendid showing of the Orange against the best Western elevens, and the defeat of the Gettysburg team, which made an excellent record for the season, was another brilliant achievement. Bucknell's defeats, however small, were all accomplished by veteran teams, a fact which adds much glory to the work of the Orange and Blue.

The prospects for next year's team are unusually bright. Capt. Schaffner, Glass, and Atchison will be the only members of the Varsity lost by graduation, and with this season's experience to build on, the squad should develope in every department of the game. Coach Johnston, who is spending the winter in Philadelphia, will return in March to take charge of the track team. In the meatime, basketball will occupy the athletic stage, with Coach Cockill and Capt. "Freddie" Brenner in the leading roles.

PROHIBITION LEAGUE HOLDS A MEETING

GERMER SPEAKS.—DEPUTATION TEAM READY FOR ITS CAMPAIGN

The Prohibition League held an interesting and instructive meeting in Bucknell Hall last Tuesday afternoon The meeting was lead by Mr. H. E. Germer. The subject, "Liquor a Social Inheritance," was fully discussed. Many new and interesting thoughts were developed from the subject.

The Deputation Team has prepared an education program upon prohibition and the liquor traffic. They will visit a number of towns in the state and conduct meetings following Christmas. A quartet will accompany the speakers.

There will be no more meetings of the league this term; but on the first Tuesday afternoon of the Winter term, the league will hold its next meeting. Miss Superko will be the leader. The subject for study is "Sources of the Liquor Institution."

NOTICE TO SUBSCRIBERS

All subscriptions to the "Bucknellian" must be paid on or before Jan. 1, 1916. All unpaid subscriptions will be discontinued after that date.

CAGE SCHEDULE ABOUT COMPLETED

FILLED OUT WITH EXCEPTION OF ONE GAME.

VARSITY WILL PLAY 9 GAMES AT HOME

State Among Teams to be Found Listed to Play Orange and Blue Basket-ballers.—Ursinus and Geo. Washington New Teams to be Met.

The basket-ball schedule for the 1916 season has been completed with but one exception, that being the home date of February the tenth. The schedule is much on the same order of that of last year's; the new teams appearing on the list being Ursinus, State College and George Washington University. The same number of games, 17, will also constitute the total of games to be played during the coming season. Nine of these will be played on the local floor.

The season will open on January the 7th, the first Friday night of the winter term, the opponents of the Varsity on that occasion being the quintet from Bloomsburg Normal. Three home games then follow on the 3 remaining Friday evenings of January. On January the 15th it is hoped relations will be resumed with State in a game on the Blue and White floor.

There is a bare possibility of a home game with the State cage team, possibly on the date of February 10. The first trip of the season including games with Ursinus, Muhlenberg and Albright will start on Feb. 3. Two games will be played the following week one at home on the 10th, the opponents for which date are as yet unknown, and another at Susquehanna on the 12th. The second trip, usually called the "southern trip", in the course of which the Varsity takes on Mt. St. Mary's, Gettysburg and Lebanon Valley will start on the 17th of February and end on the 19th. All the remaiing games will be waged in the Orange and Blue gym. On Feb. 25 Albright, minus its Benfer, will encounter Cockill's squad; on the 3rd of March, Geo. Washington University will try its skill with the Varsity; on the 10th Ursinus will cope for the second time during the season with the Orange and Blue while on the 17th in the final siasta of the season the Alumni will be the attraction.

WHY?

Two more communications concerning the "light problem" have been sent to the editor for publication in this week's issue of the Bucknellian. It seems as if student opinion is coming to the fore this time determined that the agitation which once a year since the erection of the new library has sprung up but to die, shall this year reach to such a height that it will demand that recognition justly due it.

The need at Bucknell of the installation of lights in the library is so manifestly evident that refulation of the fact is impossible. The fact that the old library was so fitted out, and that of a student body justly pleading for the equipment which the new library so plainly needs make the above assertion as firm as rock.

From the character of the communications thus far received we can plainly see what it is up to us to do, and that divination prompts us to ask WHY we are not privileged to have lights in our library. This seems to us to be no more than a fair, open-minded. question and one which the agitation of a needed improvement demands answered.

COMMUNICATION.

Mr. Editor:—

In the last issue of the Bucknellian I noticed an article concerning the matter of lights in the library.

While I have read numerous articles and listened to a great many speeches upon this subject during my four years in college, it still remains a subject of much interest to me. It occurred to me, however, as I read this article that our interest for the past few years has been going without getting anywhere in particular. Our articles and arguments are now directed in a circle.

We have advanced our arguments and appeals for lights in the library until they have long ago become stale. We have said everything there is to say on the subject. Each new article seems but the echo of the one preceding.

The student body is unanimously in favor of this movement; the alumni say "Certainly the library should be lighted;" most of the faculty acknowledge the need of lights in the library;—yet no lights.

I wonder, Mr. Editor, if it would be possible for you to secure an article for your paper from those who have authority in this matter. We do not doubt but there is some good reason for not providing lights for our library and thus making it possible to use the books on other than bright days; but is it asking too much, Mr. Editor, when we ask WHY the students are deprived of the use of an excellent library for a greater part of the time because of the lack of a little light?

AN ALUMNUS.

COMMUNICATION.

Editor of the Bucknellian:—

In the last issue of the Bucknellian I noticed a communication regarding the light conditions at the library. It appealed to me as being a reflection of the true state of things, a defect in the University order which should be remedied. Last winter I was often handicapped in my reference work because of this condition, since I was unable to visit the library except after 4:15 and did not care to lug volumes to and from my room; especially so, for most of the books I used were needed at the library every hour of the day. Nor was I the only one inconvenienced and hampered in this respect. A number, I observed, were experiencing and are already this year finding the same difficulty. I notice, also, that some of the commuters have no place in which to study, while waiting for the evening trains. Several more reasons for the need of lights might be enumerated. Would there be, I wonder, any serious objections to their installation? I am sure that it is an improvement which is greatly needed and which would be correspondingly appreciated.

COLLEGE INN ABOUT READY FOR BUSINESS

PROPRIETORS EXPECT TO OPEN UP WITH THE NEW TERM

Co-incident with the opening ofthe winter term on January 4th, 1916, the College Inn, which, through its location and environments may be almost considered an institutional adjunct, will be ready for the business for which it was devised, that of furnishing meals for the members of the faculty and student body, of the best possible kind at reasonable prices.

The faculty and students are cordially invited to inspect the new establishment on its opening day. Mark W. Walter, Bucknell, '15; Russell C. Shipman, Bucknell '15, and W. G. Payne, ex-'09, are proprietors of the enterprise and affection for their Alma Mater was the factor that not only guided the physical erection of the College Inn, so that architecturally it is a credit to the college; but also led to the adoption of a plan of administration in full accord with the wishes and precepts of the faculty.

The College Inn is a structure modeled along the lines of a bungalow. Its interior finish is in mission and the equipment, up-to-date and complete. A dining room spacious enough to provide adequate seating accommodations, a lunch room, living quarters of Mr. and Mrs. Payne, who will be in charge, comprise the division of the floor space.

A feature that will be greatly enjoyed by the patrons will be a large fire-place to furnish cheer and comfort on cold days and nights. A soda fountain will be installed, and in fact, no appointment necessary to the service and convenience of the patrons has been overlooked. The quick and sanitary preparation of good food is the first consideration. Tickets having a purchasing value of $5.00 will be sold for $4.50. After serious consideration the management decided to adopt the a la carte plan of service as the one best suited to college requirements. Special attention will be given to college girls. The College Inn enterprise is designed also to fulfill the larger functions of the social side of a college and a college town.

Close attention will be devoted to catering for receptions and other public and private affairs that require service of this nature.

Altogether, the College Inn may be esteemed a worthy addition to the public utilities of old Bucknell and it is a source of gratification to all that its completion is so nearly achieved.

National Prohibition Favorite Topic of Intercollegiate Debate.

National Prohibition is a favorite topic of intercollegiate debate in the eastern colleges this season. The Amherst-Williams-Wesleyan Triangular uses the question—"that the sale, manufacture, importation and exportation of alcoholic beverages, except for scientific and medicinal purposes, should be prohibited by an amendment to the constitution." This is a stronger statement of National Prohibition than that of the Hobson bill now before Congress. Williams follows the triangular in a dual debate with Union on the same question.

Ohio Students in Recent Campaign.

That students of today are not limiting their interest in public affairs merely to the academic side is shown by the activity of Ohio colleges in the state prohibition campaign which ended November 2. At least 650 students at eighteen of the largest universities and colleges took active part in that great civic "drive" of anti-liquor sentiment. Sixteen of these colleges, reported in detail, furnishing the following specific data: Number of students engaged in prohibition work during the campaign, speaking, singing, canvassing, using stereopticons.

One of the biggest surprises in the Thanksgiving Day games was the victory of Gettysburg over Franklin and Marshall. Gettysburg's line attack swept their opponents off their feet in the early part of the game and gave them a lead which Franklin and Marshall could not overcome.

Owing to its interfering with the educational life the authorities at the Carlisle Indian School have decided to discontinue football next year.

NG POON CHEW LECTURES TO A LARGE AUDIENCE

"CHINA'S GREAT PROBLEM" PORTRAYED IN AN INSTRUCTIVE FASHION.

The Methodist Church was filled to the doors on Thursday evening when Dr. Ng Poon Chew lectured on "China's Great Problem." He is a great Chinese statesman, scholar and journalist being the author of Chinese journalism in America. Well informed on all departments of Chinese life; acquainted with all the strata of social life in the Orient, able to appreciate all the heart throbs of the Chinaman, Dr. Ng Poon Chew was prepared to deliver a powerful lecture and to charm his audience on Thursday evening. As a lecturer Ng Poon Chew is earnest and practical; but still he is endowed with such a keen sense of humor as to be called "The Chinese Mark Twain."

The lecture on "China's Great Problem" was a careful and clear analysis of a question which is a deep mystery to the average American. Ng Poon Chew explained China's greatest problem as being the rousing of the fighting spirit which has been allayed for so many centuries by monarchial oppression. Their financial burden of six hundred million dollars, and the tyranny exerted by other nations upon them have been a great set-back to Chinese progress and development. Americn alone has stood by to help and encourage Chinese advancement in education and government. The Chinese heart burns with hatred at the thought of her oppressors, and glows with gratitude at the thought of her friend, America. But still there is in modern China a great determination to meet and solve her problem. This determination, if encouraged by the more enlightened nations, will result in the advance of China to the front rank in modern world politics.

The next number of the course will be the Beulah Buck Quartet to be presented on February 11th, 1916.

Dickinson Won't Drop Football.

Carlisle, Pa., Dec. 1.—Although announcement has not been officially made at Dickinson College there is good reason to believe that the institution will not abolish football, either because of a somewhat discouraging season or the death of Fred McGough, a law Junior, at Williamsport, last Thursday. The college faculty at a meeting held last evening took no action on abolishing the game. The relatives of young McGough do not lay any blame whatsoever on Dickinson or her officials, and have frankly recognized the possibility of grave injury in connection with all forms of athletics, and have so expressed themselves.

A number of inter-fraternity football games have been scheduled to begin at Lafayette after the Thanksgiving holidays. Five minute quarters will be played in order that no ill effects take place from lack of training.

The afternoon first year gymnasium class challenged the night first year gymnasium class to a hare and hound race. On Saturday morning the race began at nine forty-five, the hares starting the chase. The trail lay along the Willows and Buffalo Creek, covering about 8 miles. The hares had twenty-five minutes start on the hounds. Prof. Davis Speaks at Y. W. C. A.

"Christ's Kingdom on This Earth," was the subject of an informal talk given by Professor Davis at Y. W. C. A. last Tuesday. Professor Davis emphasized the glorious enjoyment of God's care and our privelege to call him Father. The Y. W. C. A. girls very much appreciated Professor Davis' talk to them. The choir sang an appropriate selection, and also dismissed the service by a chanted benediction. Final arrangements were completed for the Gettysburg trip.

Student Government Meeting.

Wednesday evening the regular meeting of the Student Government Association was held with Dorothy Bunnell, '16, presiding. The budget system was presented to the girls by the executive committee. Arguments pro and con followed this presentation. A motion was passed to adopt the system on the five dollar basis. Discussion then was opened on the "Individual Responsibility of the Student Government Member." This subject promoted interest and spirit and every girl felt a keener responsibility to support the decisions made by the student body.

The Western Reserve Student Council has arranged a series of dances to take place during the year. It is believed that they will meet with the support of the student body, with the backing of the Student Council.

Authorities at Cornell have decided not to accept "Pitt's" challenge for a post-season game to decide the eastern inter-collegiate championship. The reason given was that the Cornell squad had broken training immediately after the Penn game.

MISS SCHILLINGER HOLDS AFTERMATH

DELIGHTFUL TIME SPENT AT SEM. ON FRIDAY.

SANTA CLAUS APPEARS TO GIVE PRESENTS

Students Hear an Excellent Recital, Play Games, and Blow Soap Bubbles.—Forced to Leave at an Early Hour.

Miss Edith Schillinger delightfully entertained the Students of Elocution, members of the Frill and Frown and Cap and Dagger, at the parlors of Woman's College, Friday evening, December 10. The parlors were tastefully decorated with evergreen and pine, which with an old-fashioned fire-place at one end of the room presented a very Christmas-like appearance. Several clever methods of entertaining gave an added charm to an evening which was thoroughly enjoyed by the students who were present.

Promptly at seven o'clock the guests assembeld in the School Room and listened to a well rendered program by the Elocution Students. The opening number, "Hello," was given by the Dramatic Trio with their usual ability and skill. Following this, readings by Mr. Tilton and Miss Margaret Mattern showed exceptional talent by the manner in which they were given. "Christmas Chimes," with Misses Harris and Michael and Messrs. Bertin and Hendren taking the parts, concluded the program in a fitting manner.

At the conclusion of the program the guests were given a chance to show their artistic ability by tearing an orator, Santa Claus and a Christmas tree, from a piece of paper held behind the back. Many curious figures were the result of these attempts; yet some bore a close resemblance to the object intended to be patterned after. After a short time spent in getting acquainted the students adjourned to the "eats" department. While the guests were seated about the room, Santa Claus came out through the fire-place with a large sack filled with presents. He evidently thought that everyone had been good, for he missed no one with his Christmas gifts, but was equally generous to all.

The remainder of the evening was spent in an informal good time and demonstrations of skill in blowing soap bubbles. No serious accidents took place, though several bubbles broke during the course of the performance. When the parting hour arrived, the girls formed a circle in the centre of the room and sang Auld Lang Syne. The fellows replied with the time-honored "Good-Night Ladies" and took their departure with the thought of having spent an evening filled with enjoyment from beginning to end.

MUSIC CLUB ORGANIZED.

Saturday morning the Seniors of the Music Department organized a musical club, which promises to be an association of entertainment during the long winter months. The following were chosen as class officers: President, Nelle W. Aumiller; Vice President, Jessie L. Cooper; Secretary, Ruth Williams; Treasurer, Alvin J. Adams. After the election of officers an appropiate name for the club was discussed, but none was selected. Watch for the dates of the recitals.

LOST!

Small, black, leather pocket-book containing a gold watch, on the back of which is engraved the monogram C. B. J. This pocket-book was lost early in the fall. The finder may keep the money that was in it, and will be rewarded if the watch is returned to the Lewisburg Journal office.

The Camp Fire Girls from the Woman's College held a successful candy sale in the office of the Saturday News building on Saturday.

MECHANICAL ENGINEERS MEET.

The Mechanical Engineering Society held a meeting Monday evening of last week. "Cy" Lewis spoke on "The Manufacture of Automobile Springs," describing the methods used at the Sheldon Axle Works. Prof. Burpee attended the convention of the A. I. M. E. in New York City during the week. It is the aim of the Bucknell Society to become a student branch of the American Institute of Mechanical Engineers, and his trip was with that purpose in view. The work of the society this year speaks strongly for membership in the Institute.

POWER HOUSE WORKMAN IS SERIOUSLY INJURED

SAMUEL CRABB HAS NASTY FALL FIXING BROKEN STEAM GUAGE.

Samuel Crabb, one of the Bucknell Power House firemen, met with quite a serious accident on Sunday morning. The steam gunge on boiler No. 5 had broken and upon mounting the platform in front of the offending boiler in an effort to fix it, Crabb was met by an outburst of steam which caused him to start backward and to fall from the platform to the cement floor below. In falling his head struck the edge of the set of steps knocking him unconscious. His plight was not discovered for over an hour. His wife noticing that the lights were not extinguished at the usual time crossed over to the power house and found her husband lying on the floor still unconscious.

There was more or less trouble at the Power House all the rest of the day and Professor Burpee was obliged to work overtime getting matters straightened out.

PHILA. ALUMNI ON THEIR TOES

START MOVEMENT TO HELP ATHLETIC ASSO.

COMMITTEE WORKING OUT WITH A ZEST

Striving to Pay Off the $500 Which Remains Unpaid on the Athletic Field Improvement.—Here's a Chance to Help Alumni.

As the result of a recent conference between Professor B. W. Griffith, of the faculty, and Romain C. Hassrick, of Philadelphia, it has come about that a committee of wide-awake Bucknell Alumni situated in the City of Brotherly Love is striving to help the Athletic Association efface the remaining unpaid $500 of the $1,500 debt, contracted in resurfacing the Athletic Field; an improvement meaning much to Bucknell athletics.

The committee is composed of R. G. Slifer, Drexel Building, Treasurer; Joseph Henderson, West End Trust Building; Ernest Tustin, Creger Building; R. Bruce Morris, 1702 Wyoming Ave.; Clarence A. Weymouth, Real Estate Trust Building; Jeremiah P. Pontius, Professional Building; Ralph A. Still, Evening Ledger; L. M. Haines, 4126 Westminster Avenue; W. C. Honopeter, 1411 Spruce Street; Romain C. Hassrick, 603 Bailey Building. The members of this finance committee were first given a list of the Alumni about Philadelphia and asked to select from this these whom they were to see in connection with this matter. The work has been apportioned and the movement gotten well under way. Hassrick in a recent letter gave assurances that results may be expected at a reasonably early date.

Mr. Alumni if you are at all interested in Bucknell here's a chance to dig down in those jeans of yours and to bring up a nice contribution towards the defrayal of this $500 which remains yet to be paid.

MEDICAL SOCIETY ELECTS OFFICERS.

The Bucknell Medical Society held its second meeting of the year in the new Biological Lab. on Friday afternoon. Professor Stewart gave a short talk for the betterment of the society. The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, Davenport; Vice President, Heikes; Secretary, Hayes; Treasurer, Kitlowski.

DOORS BEING CHANGED.

As the result of a factory law recently passed the doors of the college buildings are undergoing a change which converts them from doors swinging "in" to doors swinging "out."

SEVENTEEN AWARDED THEIR FOOTBALL "B"

MANAGER HANN ALSO GRANTED A MANAGER'S "B."

Seventeen members of last season's football team were awarded the Bucknell insignia so coveted by all those who battle on Orange and Blue teams. Those who were awarded the letter this year are, Lawrence, '18, Baker, '17, Cockill, '19, Felton, '17, White, '19, Peale, '18, Banks, '18, Schaffner, '15, Spotts, '18, Dent, '19, Hendren, '19, Yarnell, '18, Atchison, '16, McDermott, '18, Hopler, '17, Mangan, '19, Glass, '16 and Manager Hann.

At the same meeting of the Advisory Board in which the Varsity letters were awarded it was voted to show the Board's appreciation for services rendered by Tripician, '16, by presenting him with a football watch-fob. "Trip" has worked voluntarily and faithfully at the gym helping "Penchie" Kling round the Orange and Blue athletes into form. "Trip's" altruistic spirit is to be commended and it is with pleasure that Bucknellites learn of the Board's action in showing their appreciation of his services. More of the "willing to help" type are always needed.

MEDICAL SOCIETY MEETING.

The Medical Society held a meeting in the Biological Laboratory, Wednesday afternoon, December 8. Dr. Davis gave a talk on "Choice of Medical Colleges and Preparation for Admission to Advanced Medical Schools." Twenty-five men were in attendance at the meeting. Arrangements are being made to meet every two weeks next term.

SIDNEY PEALE NEW FOOTBALL PILOT

ELECTED TO HEAD JOHNSTON'S MACHINE IN 1916.

Sidney J. Peale, '18, of Eagles Mere, tackle for the past two years on the Varsity eleven, was chosen by his team-mates on Saturday morning to lead the team during the 1916 season.

Peale came to Bucknell last year from West Chester Normal with but a slight knowledge of the gridiron game. "Sid" specialized in baseball and basket-ball at Normal, having no outlet for his gridiron ability because of the absence of this sport at West Chester. Without ever having played a game of football before, "Sid" was placed at tackle last season and since his initial insertion has held his position and developed into a linesman whose ability is noteworthy.

Peale is an electrical engineering student and a member of the Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity.

NOTICE TO SUBSCRIBERS

All subscriptions to the "Bucknellian" must be paid on or before Jan. 1, 1916. All unpaid subscriptions will be discontinued after that date.

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR SOC. HEARS DR. PHILLIPS

MAKES PLAIN THE DUTY OF GENERATION IN PRESENT WAR CRISIS.

As is its usual custom, the Baptist Christian Endeavor Society had Dr. Phillips of the faculty to give one of his helpful talks on Sunday evening. This year as last the speaker took the European War as the basis for his discussion and spoke on "Peace."

His opening remarks showed how that President Wilson last year gave utterance to the words, "A country can be so right that it does not need to fight," and this year in what appears to be a complete reversal of policy calls for a $93,000,000 appropriation for defences. Our duty in this present crisis, Dr. Phillips stated, is to see that life is placed above institution; that the unity of the races becomes a reality, and that in our lives we shall distinguish between Christ's teachings about war and those of the Old Testament.

A large attendance was present at the meeting.

Hedge, '10, secretary. The purpose of the new department is to visit young men strangers on their arrival in the city, help them secure suitable homes and provide guidance in business, social and religious matters. Counselors from the professions, schools, clubs, business concerns and churches of the city are cooperating with the new department. MIKADO A HUGE SUCCESS

LARGE AND APPRECIATIVE AUDIENCE ATTENDS.

BEST PRODUCTION IN YEARS GIVEN

Splendid Costumes in Evidence at Operatic Society's Performance.—Success of Entertainment Due to Miss Etta Brown.

Bucknell's Operatic Society in its presentation of "The Mikado" established a reputation for itself on Tuesday night. Without a doubt the entertainment was the best of its kind given in Bucknell circles for many a year. Everyone in attendance was profoundly impressed with every detail of the production; with the excellent training so evident in every turn which the play took; with the pretty costumes and stage decorations, and finally because of the manner in which every character in the play took his or her part. To Miss Brown, whose indefatigable efforts for the past two months were responsible for this remarkable showing of the Operatic Society, is due much credit.

"The Mikado" is a clever and entirely original Japanese Opera in two acts written by W. S. Gilbert and composed by Arthur Sullivan . The plot centres about Nanki-Poo, the son of the Mikado, who is disguised as a wandering minstrel. He falls in love with Yum Yum, and this little incident causes quite a few seemingly unsolvable tangles which, however, are all unraveled at the final appearance of the Mikado. The music was as advertised, very catchey and elicited rounds of applause. The solos by the leading characters were all of a high order, especially that of Miss Louise Hahn, whose entrance and solo was the highest dramatic point of the operato.

Alex Russel fitted to a "t" in his part of Ko Ko, Lord High Executioner, was the real star of the play, his perfect acting in an extremely difficult position, calling forth congratulations on every hand.

The cast of characters was as follows:

The Mikado of Japan .. Stephen Puff
Nanki-Poo, his son, disguised as a wandering minstrel and in love with Yum Yum, ... Russel Stout
Ko-Ko, Lord High Executioner of Titipu, ... Alex M. Russell
Pish-Tush, a Noble Lord, ... Keays Carpenter
Yum-Yum, Pitti-Sing Peep-Bo, Three sister—wards of Ko-Ko, Helen Brown, Aileen Larson, Charlotte Laning

ANOTHER PROXY MIX-UP.

Saturday's Athletic Association election renewed once more the sister discussion of the much-mooted "Light" disc usion, namely, the proxy question. This is the second time this year that this unsatisfactory method of voting by those not in attendance at elections, has caused quite a disagreeable feeling within the student body; the first time being at the Senior Class election when the discussion of the proxy necessitated a second election in which all who desired to vote were compelled to be in attendance.

At Saturday's election one proxy was cast which could be declared illegal in two ways; first because it was not sealed, and secondly because it was not cast in at the proper time. Then again several proxies contained the name of a candidate who had withdrawn at the last minute, and since there was a neck-and-neck race for the office between the other two candidates, these wasted votes caused many dissenting voices to be raised. At the last election in the spring term a similar instance arose and at that time the election would have been held over had there been time to hold one.

The proxy is a nuisance and an unfair method. That it is a nuisance is attested by the review of all important elections since its inauguration. Let us look at the second accusation of the instrument. Does the fellow who has no time to solicit votes by proxies get an equal show? Is it right that a fellow may have a vote if he has not spirit enough to attend an election?

BEST WISHES.

The Staff of the Bucknellian wishes to extend to all its readers a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.

KAPPA SIG'S CELEBRATE 46TH ANNIVERSARY

BANQUET HELD AT HOUSE.—ORIGINAL PLAY WAS GIVEN.

The local chapter of the Kappa Sigma fraternity celebrated on Saturday, Dec. 11, the forty-sixth anniversary of the founding of the fraternity with a banquet at their home on University avenue. The result of the nominationg committees work was as follows: for President, Hayes, Craighead, Sprenke; for Vice President, G. Barnhart, Lodge, Swope; for Secretary, Sprout, Bender, Hugh Russell; for Assisstant Football Manager, Leighton, Reed, and Trimble.

Swarthmore is to have a new and larger athletic field in the near future. According to present plans it will be ready for use either in the fall or spring of 1917.

State's "one year rule" is expected to weaken its basket-ball team for this year as three stars have been lost by graduation, and much promising material in the first year class is ineligible for the "Varsity."

THE COLLEGE BIBLE CLASS

DR. HARRIS SPEAKS ON "THE VICARIOUS SERVICE OF CHRIST"

Basing his address on Phillippians II: 5-9, Dr. Harris yesterday morning spoke to his Bible Class on "The Vicarious Service of Christ."

Defining vicarious service as service performed without the hope of any reward, he showed at once that God is the greatest vicarious servant of all as proved in the creation of the Universe. Christ, His Son, was the perfect representation of the Father and thus He was the greatest vicarious servant among men. It was His vicarious service that placed Him highest among men; the vicarious servant is the greatest man in the world.

That human society is grounded on love and vicarious service is shown in the mother and father of the family, the great prophets of education and the ministers of the church. None of these perform their service for wages, but out of love.

Jesus, the supreme vicarious servant, was a man among men, and underwent all the suffering attached to mortal life. He suffered, as all men suffer, from the existing conditions and nature; for He experienced hunger, cold and exhaustion, or else He would not have been a typical man. He too bore a double load resulting from the inability or unwillingness of others to bear their burden. He suffered from the opposition of men "even unto death." Jesus, like His Father, was a progressor and consequently experienced stubborn opposition from the conservative Jews who revolted against this man who overturned their exclusiveness when He said, "Go ye into ALL THE WORLD and preach the gospel."

So then, though service may lead to suffering, suffering is secondary; and the fundamental element is service—vicarious service.

DELEGATES SPEAK IN Y. M. C. A.

GIVE AN ACCOUNT OF RECENT GETTYSBURG CONVENTION.

The Y. M. C. A. meeting last Thursday evening was turned into an informal discussion of the recent Student Volunteer Convention at Gettysburg by the three men delegates who were in attendance. The meeting was attended by but a few; but these were all pleased with what they heard.

Hedge the Secretary spoke first, his speech containing an explanation of the Convention, the benefits he derived from it and a discussion of three of the speeches. Hedge dwelt most on the benefits which were derived from the Convention, among which were the inspirations gained from the speeches; from the personal contact with the upright, manly deliverers of these speeches; from a comparison of things in other colleges with those in our own; from the splendid trip over the battlefield which the whole party took on the Saturday of the Convention. "Chestie" also remarked that this was the eleventh of such student Volunteer Conventions, that 260 attended and that 20 percent. of these were student volunteers.

Everett Stone spoke next, and taking up where Hedge left off, gave an account of the convention up until Sunday evening. He laid emphasis on the speech of President Grandeville, of Gettysburg, which contained the information that no person was graduated from Gettysburg unless he had taken English Bible and Christian Ethics. Stone urged that a larger delegation than ever before attend the convention which will be held at Princeton Theological Seminary next year.

Boggess, the last speaker for the evening, spoke on the last two meetings of the convention, he being the only who stayed for these. The meeting at the close of the last speaker's remarks was closed with the usual benediction.

MAKE RULES PLAIN IN COLLEGIATE BASKET-BALL

MEETING HELD AT HOUSTON CLUB, U. OF P. ON SATURDAY.

With the 1915-1916 collegiate basket-ball season about to be opened, a meeting to interpret the rules was held at the Houston Club, University of Pennsylvania, on Saturday.

The meeting was presided over by Dr. Joseph E. Raycroft, of Princeton, chairman of the joint rules committee of the A. A. U., Y. M. C. A's. and the National Intercollegiate Basket-ball Association.

Many small points were discussed and suggestions made, but the chief question was in regards to dribbling. In dribbling, under the new rule, the player must bat the ball, and not catch or merely push the ball, and it also must be continuous.

Both hands may be used, but not at the same time. If a player touches the ball with both hands he automatically stops the dribble, and cannot start dribbling the ball again without fouling.

At the end of a dribble he may either shoot or make a pass.

The meeting was well attended, and representatives were there from most of the Philadelphia high schools, playgrounds, Girard College, Swarthmore, Carlisle and Pennsylvania.

WELLESLEY STUDENTS TO DISSECT SPARROWS.

Wellesley College, Boston, the home of beauty and culture, now has an official sparrow chaser. He is John H. Oakes, and he receives $40 a month for catching birds for dissection. Cats were used formerly at Wellesley for dissecting, but this was discontinued when one of the college janitors was hauled into court on the charge of stealing a prize cat. President Ellen Fitz Pendleton was threatened with a summons by Chief of Police Hiram Brown, and cats thereafter were shunned. Oakes has a number of traps which he places in the fields around Wellesley.

Y. W. C. A. Meeting.

The Gettysburg convention received an airing in the Y. W. C. A. meeting of last Tuesday. Miss Edna Sayenga, the president, opened the meeting by a short, informal, general talk and compared the Gettysburg-Lancaster convention. Miss Grace Starr was the second speaker. Miss Lois Reynolds followed by a short, fine discourse on one of the leading speakers. Owing to the lack of time the opportunity of speaking by the remaining delegates had to be postponed.

Personals.

Miss Helena Way entertained the Seniors in Art at tea on Saturday afternoon.

Miss Priscilla Hardesty entertained the Seniors in Music at a tea on Friday afternoon.

Helen Levegood, '12, and Ethel Hottenstein, '12, visited their Pi Beta Phi sisters on Saturday evening. They joined in the Christmas party frolic.

The classmates and friends of Irene Fritz, '10, regret to hear that she was called home on Saturday because of the severe illness of her brother. We hope for his speedy recovery.

Tuesday evening the Christmas dinner will be served in the Woman's College dining room. The tables will be decorated in Christmas fashion and all are anticipating a jolly time.

Christmas Service.

Filled to over-flowing were the candle-lighted parlors of the Woman's College Sunday evening when the annual Christmas service of the Y. W. C. A. was held. The Y. W. C. A. choir girls opened the service with a beautiful and inspiring Christmas anthem. This was followed by the scripture reading by Ruth Barthold. Two violin selections "Lullaby" and "Prayer" were given by Miss Armstrong, followed by a "Nocturne," played by Miss Hardesty. Miss Margaret Mattern set forth the true Christmas spirit beautifully and vividly. Madame De Sylva Schon closed the service by singing the inimitable "Heilge Nacht." This last meeting of the season was felt to be an all-around success and special mention is to be made of Miss Louise Hahn, who arranged the musical numbers.

VARSITY OPENS WITH VICTORY

DISPLAYS GOOD FORM IN FIRST GAME.

BLOOMSBURG NORMAL DEFEATED, 42-20

Orange and Blues Have Trouble Locating Basket in First Half, But Find Their Eye in Second.—Boyles Shows Up Well.

In the opening game on the basketball schedule, the Varsity defeated the Bloomsburg Normal team in the gym on Friday evening by the score of 42-20. A capacity crowd, the University Band, and the splendid work of Capt. Brenner's men helped to usher in a season, which gives promise of unusual success from the standpoint of the Orange and Blue.

During the first half the Varsity seemed to have great trouble in locating the basket, and many shots went wild, which should have been easy scores. Each team scored but two fields goals during this period, but Garner's foul shooting gave Bucknell the lead, 13-11, at its close. Toward the close of the half "Tony" Murray, last year's speedy forward injured his arm and was forced to retire; Capt. Brenner, who had been on the side-lines up to this time, taking his place.

Between the halves, the band played several selections, which were loudly applauded.

Beginning with a rush, Bucknell fairly drove the Bloomsburg quintet off the floor during the second half. Displaying a puzzling assortment of passes and fast floor work, the Varsity was able to score almost at will, and at the conclusion of the game had more than doubled their opponents total. The team, as a whole improved with the progress of the game, their team work being especially noticeable in this respect.

Capt. Brenner and "Scow" Garner were very fast as forwards, and Musser proved a very efficient centre with four field tosses to his credit. Boyles, who made his debut as a Varsity player, worked consistently at guard. For Bloomsburg Leidrich was the star performer, scoring fourteen points for his team.

The Varsity will put in some hard work this week in preparation for the strenuous games on Friday and Saturday. Muhlenberg will face Bucknell with a veteran team and should prove a test of the Varsity's real strength. The team will meet State at State College on Saturday night, and it is needless to dwell on the importance of this game from the viewpoint of the student body.

DEBATE WITH SWARTHMORE.

It is rumored that Bucknell will debate with Swarthmore some time this term. Such a treat would be welcomed after the absence of an intercollegiate debate last year. Professor Freas is conducting a class in debating which meets for an hour each week.

PREPS LOSE.

The Prep basket-ball team journeyed to Lock Haven on Saturday night and were defeated by the Normal team of that place. The exact score is not known but it is said to be by a narrow margin of 3 points.

Muhlenberg vs. Bucknell Friday.

$100 OFFERED IN PRIZES.

The Pennsylvania Arbitration and Peace Society has issued a notice of its Seventh Annual Oratorical contest open to under-gratuates. As usual the winner of the state prize will receive $75.00 and will be entitled to represent the state in a group contest of the winners of contests in nearby states. The winners of the group contests meet for a final battle at the great peace congress held each year at Lake Mohawk. Last year the orations of the leading orators were printed by the World Peace Foundation for extensive distribution. The winner of the second award in the state will receive $25.00. Bucknell men have had their productions approved for five years and have represented the college upon the platform in state and group contests. Those who may aspire to oratorical honors in this line are requested to confer with Professor Smith concerning the conditions.

PROF. STOLZ OF MUSIC DEPARTMENT WEDS

MARRIES MISS LOUISE GRAFFIN OF ALLENTOWN, ON DECEMBER 29.

Wedding bells rang in the realm of the faculty during the Christmas holidays. Professor Paul G. Stolz, head of the Bucknell Music Department, and Miss Louise Graffin were joined in marriage at the home of the bride, 41 South 14th Street, Allentown, Pa., at 6 p. m. Wednesday, December 29.

Only the immediate families were present at the ceremony. Professor Rockwell, of the faculty, was best man, and Miss Mildred Graffin, a sister of the bride, bridesmaid. Following the ceremony the professor and his bride returned to their home at 38 S. 5th St., Lewisburg.

The bride is well known in Allentown music circles having sung in the Charmanade Octette of Girls. The Octette sang "O Promise Me" just before the wedding in a manner which added much to the effect of the ceremony.

REV. WEST, '89, TO VISIT BUCKNELL

COMING AT THE REQUEST OF Y. M. C. A.

WILL BEGIN SERIES OF MEETINGS JANUARY 23

Consideration of life Problems Will be Main Theme of Meetings.—Speaker One of Most Conspicuous Figures of Baptist Denomination.

January the 23rd will witness the return to Bucknell of one of its prominent alumni, Rev. Raymond M. West, '89, on a mission which it is hoped will leave an impression of great good on Bucknell. This mission will be to lead a series of meetings from the 23rd until the 27th in which a consideration of life problems will be the main theme.

Mr. West is one of the most conspicuous figures in the Baptist denomination today. After his graduation from Bucknell in 1889 he entered Crozer Theological Seminary from which he graduated in 1892, immediately becoming pastor of the Lehigh Avenue Baptist Church of Philadelphia. Here he remained eleven years, closing a most successful and happy pastorate in 1903 to accept a call from the great First Church of St. Paul,

Minnesota. In this pastorate which has been for all its incumbents a bishopric, he found himself and commenced to draw upon his reserve forces. His ministry and influence extended over Minnesota and all bordering states. During this pastorate he received the honorary title, Doctor of Divinity, from Denison University. In 1908 deciding to come eastward once more, he accepted the call of the Park Avenue Church of Rochester. In these two latter charges Mr. West was very active among the young men of the universities located in these places. At present he is State Secretary of the New Jersey Baptist Convention.

While in college Mr. West exhibited those all-around qualities which developed in the ministry have so characterized his splendid work in the service of the Lord. He was active in most every phase of college life being interested in the college paper in athletics and all other worthy activities. In the L'Agenda of 1914 the year in which the Junior year-book celebrated the 25th anniversary of its birth there appeared an article by Mr. West who as father of this publication portrayed its origin.

Every interest in school has been consulted by Secretary Hedge and it is earnestly hoped by those preparing the field for these meetings that the calendar will be clear while Mr. West is here, in order that the best possible results may come from the messages he brings.

HANN INSTALS NEW CHAIR.

The College Barber Shop has been fitte du with a regular do-or-die barber chair which supplants an ordinary straight-back in which it was necessary for all patrons to lay their heads against the wall in order to be shaved. The Hanns are to be congratulated on their latest red-leather addition.

Bucknell's 1916 football schedule from present indications will be about as heavy as that of last year.

MUHLENBERG AND STATE NEXT

Cockill's quintet has a strenuous task laid out for it this week. Muhlenberg will be tackled on Friday night on the home floor while on the next night the team will move up the line to State and engage in a battle with the Centre County Collegians.

S. A. E.'s. TO PLAY SUNBURY.

The S. A. E. quintet will play the first official game on its schedule tonight in Sunbury where the Tau Phi Sigma tossers will be met. Manager Geary has arranged quite a schedule for the fraternity team.

ATTENTION.

The management of the Y. M. C. A. lecture course desires settlement for all unpaid season tickets. Those who have not yet paid should see Rogers, 9 East Wing, before the next number which comes early in February.

BUCKNELL GIRL HAS NARROW ESCAPE

FALLS IN RIVER WHILE SKATING LAST MONDAY.

Skating almost proved fatal to Miss Helen Hoffa, '19, and Arthur Thomas her companion, last Monday. The two were skating on Buffalo Creek where this stream enters the Susquehanna river when the ice gave away and they dropped into the water which at this point was ten feet deep. Miss Hoffa was swept under the ice, but Thomas managed to get hold of her hair and to keep her above the surface of the water.

Three skaters attempting to rescue the struggling pair also fell in and it was some time before all were rescued from the icy waters.

Thomas and Miss Hoffa are both good swimmers, but were handicapped by heavy skates and clothes.

ENGINEERS TO MEET.

There will be a meeting of the Mechanical Engineers in the Mechanical Drawing Room at No. 13 E. W. at 6:30 this evening. It is urgent that all belonging to the Society be present.

D. T. U'S. GIVE CHRISTMAS DANCE

PLEASING FUNCTION HELD IN LEWISBURG CLUB ON DECEMBER 17.

Delta Theta Upsilon gave their formal Christmas dance on Friday evening, December seventeenth, 1915, at the Lewisburg Club. The ball room was tastefully decorated with the fraternity and university colors, and with banners and pennants of the various fraternities and colleges. Small electric lights in Christmas colors gave forth a subdued, but pleasing glow. A beautiful D. T. U. design in greek letter form, made from small colored lights, added much charm to the decorations.

From behind a bower of palms and greenery poured forth enchanting melodies which set all feet moving. From beginning to end, the Logue and Strait orchestra from Williamsport, kept up the strains in so pleasing a manner that they were forced to respond to repeated enchores.

Underneath a pergola of orange and blue, separated from the dancing floor, sat the patronesses, who were as follows: Mrs. P. M. Irey, Mrs. Carl Millward, Mrs. Frank M. Simpson, Mrs. Nelson F. Davis, Mrs. Lee Ranck, Mrs. J. B. Lewis, Mrs. William Leiser, Mrs. H. Grant Dreisbach, Mrs. Frank W. Nogel, and Mrs. A. W. Johnson.

Out of town guests were: Miss Margaret Smith, Pittsburgh; Miss Ruth Winton, Erie; Miss Sigrid Holinger, Columbia University, New York; Miss Rogers, Muncy.

Guests of the fraternity were: H. H. Difenderfer, James Zeller, Claude E. Kohler, Donald A. Haman, Harold W. Giffin, Russell S. Conrad, Oliver H. McFarland, Dwite H. Schaffner and "Tony" Murray, '13.

Among the alumni attending were: Fisher, '13, assistant coach at Dickinson, and Pangburn, '15, now attending the University of Pennsylvania.

COLLEGE ENTERS ON SECOND LAP

FALL TERM OPENS UP ON JANUARY 4.

ENROLLMENT ABOUT SAME AS LAST TERM'S

Several Old Faces Make Their Appearance on Hill.—Alumni Catalogue Also a Newcomer With Advent of New Term.

Bucknell entered upon the second lap of the 1915-1916 year on Tuesday, Jan. 4, with practically the same enrollment as last term. Sickness has kept many of the students from getting back during the opening days of the term, but at this time only a few remain who have not yet registered for the term's work.

Among the names of those enrolled the names of several former Bucknell students are to be found.

John R. Kurtz, of Myerstown, Pa., who entered in the class of 1912, is back on the "Hill." Former students will remember Kurtz as being one of the best basket-ball players who ever represented the Orange and Blue. Kurtz also played a good game at half-back on the Varsity football eleven.

Allan A. Earle, ex-'01, has returned to finish his college course. Earle has met with considerable success since leaving Bucknell, and was forced to resign from the presidency of Leland University at New Orleans in order to take up his work here again. He is a brother of Wade Earle, '15, who is now teaching in the Academy.

Alter, '16, Ackerman, '17, Johnson, '18, and Crawford, '18, have also resumed their studies after an absence of one term.

Together with the beginning of the term comes the publication of the Alumni Catalogue for 1916. This catalogue is published every five years by the University and is an excellent means of keeping the Alumni in close touch with each other. The names and addresses of the graduates and matriculate students from 1851 down to the present time have been placed in this bulletin. One of the features of the new catalogue is a geographical arrangement of the names according to the State and City in which the Alumni are now living. The number of Alumni up to the present time is given as 1792, of which 1631 are still living. Only one graduate of the years previous to 1858 is living today, John Morris Lyons, of Germantown, Pa., a member of the first graduating class, the class of 1851. The University has gone to considerable trouble to make up this catalogue, and the catalogue itself is ample proof of the painstaking care with which it has been prepared.

The new year of 1916 finds Bucknell with a larger enrollment, better equipment, and facilities for reaching a success even better than that of 1915.

MISS EDNA SHUCK BRIDE OF PROF. EDMUND CLINE

BEAUTIFUL CEREMONY PERFORMED AT HOME OF THE BRIDE'S PARENTS.

Edmund B. Cline, '15, joined the ranks of 1916 Bucknell grooms on December 16th, when he took for his bride Miss Edna Shuck, of Lewisburg. The wedding was solemnized at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. J. Shuck. The ceremony was performed by Rev. John C. Sanders, nephew of the bride's parents, and pastor of Trinity Reformed Church of Turbotville. The groom was attended by Dayton L. Ranck, president of the Senior class.

The Clines will live at Turbotville where the groom is principal of the High School.

SMOKING IN HALLS.

A practice continues at Bucknell which has met its death in many coeducational institutions in late years. This practice is that of smoking in the halls, especially between classes when the corridors are filled with young men and young women. The habit has grown to such an extent that it is well nigh time that those who have authority in the matter should proceed in such a way as to eliminate a practice which is obnoxious to many a fellow and to all the girls. Complaints as to the practice are not few and, as Dr. Harris said this morning, the Seniors should leave as their legacy this year a smokeless Main Hall.

THE BUDGET.

The first term of the budget's existence marks it as one of the best innovations of the year. It is hoped that the fellows will move right along and support the budget as they did last term. The budget apportionment may not be just as good as many desire it; but the fact that this is the first year of the budget's existence must lead all to consider all mistakes in that light. It is hoped that those who are budget subscribers will make it a point as stockholders to see that every man financially able supports the budget this term.

Lebanon Valley college has a wrestler in Jack Ozar, a Greek, who bids fair to make a name for himself in the intercollegiate world.

Percy Haughton, Harvard's successful football coach, has purchased the franchise of the Boston Braves. The purchase price is said to be in the neighborhood of $500,000.

Chancellor Samuel Black McCormick of the Uniersity of Pittsburgh spoke at he student assemly last Friday on "The Pan-American Scientific Congress" that met in Washington, D. C. recently. This was a large gathering of scientists and educators. The University was represented by many members of its faculty.

Alumni and former student of the University of Pittsburgh organized two clubs during the holidays. Those residing in the Monongahela Valley met at Charleroi. The Shenango Valley Club was formed at New Castle. Banquets were held at both places. The faculty of the University was represented at both meetings. These clubs bring the total of local alumni organizations up to five.

NEW REGISTERING SYSTEM.

A little change was made in the system of registering this term. The students were obliged this term to first enter the reading room to receive their cards after first signing up a sheet requiring the name, address, subjects, etc. The arrangement does away with much confusion as there is one stream of advancing students in contradistinction to the usual pushing and jamming in the two rooms of the registrars office.

PROF. STEWART VISITED BY A "WEARY WILLIE"

UNBIDDEN GUEST TAKES POSSESSION WHILE PROF. VISITS IN NEW YORK.

Among the many important and exciting events recorded in the historical annals of Bucknell University, the experience which Prof. Stewart had with a tramp during the holidays, should fill a prominent position. At the close of school before the Christmas holidays, not expecting to receive any guests during the vacation, Prof. Stewart accompanied by his family went to visit his brother in Corning, N. Y. After a week's visit the Stewart household returned and arrived at their home at about 5o'clock. A most unusual experience awaited them.

Upon applying the key to the hole in the door they were perplexed to find that this implement was not effective in an endeavor to unlock the portal. Looking in through a window the Professor was further amazed to find that the house was dimly lighted. Finally he gained admittance through the back door and thenee proceeded through to the side door to admit his wife and child. The rooms down stairs were in a chaotic state and the mystery grew more perplexing. As yet there was no clue as to the source of the insolvable state of affairs.

On entering the kitchen the mystery reached a critical climax. The sink was filled with waste and its outlet clogged, causing the floor to be covered with filthy waste water; on the stove was a kettle boiling and steaming with the flavor of an appetizing stew; canned provisions were sitting about opened, and the entire appearance of the room presented the picture of a very careless and untidy bachelor's abode.

Suddenly the attention of the professor was attracted by a large bundle, evidently a roll of blankets, under the table. By a further examination it was discovered to contain something alive; and indeed it did. For, comfortably wrapped in blankets, and sound asleep, evidently awaiting his supper hour was a man, of a moderate stature, badly in need of a shave, dressed in a suit of the professor's and wearing slippers belonging to the professor's wife. Gently disturbing his guest the professor said: "What are you doing here?" "Visiting" was the indifferent reply. Of course the professor should have been very courteous to his guest and made all manner of excuse for being absent at his arrival, but notwithstanding, this is what he said: "Well you get out of here, and do it pretty quick!" The gentleman addressed asked the permission to go up stairs to get his coat. The permission being granted they both went up stairs, and indeed, there was a strong resemblance between the first floor and the second. The visitor had used every room in the house. Having put on his coat, which matched the rest of the clothes he had on, he asked permission to go to the bath room where he had some clothes soaking before the wash. And there they were soaking in the bath tub half full of sutty water.

The professor set his guest at work wringing out the clothes while he advised his wife to call for the sheriff. The poor guest was not allowed to complete his washing before he was taken by the officer. He was taken and placed behind the bars to await the favors and kindness of the court.

The stranger claims to be a German Spy dispatched from Saxony, and it is surely to be regretted that it is necessary for him to be off duty, awaiting the action of the court. No doubt he holds a very important office in the German Government, and in that event he must have mistaken Prof. Stewart's residence for a power plant. However, we believe that he is more needed in Germany than here.

ERROR IN SCHEDULES.

Bucknell will not meet Lafayette as stated in the schedules issued by W. . Donehower. Arrangements for the game were never made, but by some error the game was entered upon the little slips as settled. It is hoped, however, that there may be anotner addition to the schedule in the form of a game with State College on the local floor.

Semester examinations will begin at the University of Pittsburgh January 31.

NORMAN R. HILL, EX-'16, A SUCCESSFUL PASTOR

BAPTIST RECORD COMMENTS VERY FAVORABLY ON HIS WORK.

"The Baptist Record" published by the Baptist of Iowa contains in its issue of December 11 an interesting comment on the work of one of its young pastors, Rev. Norman R. Hill, ex-'16, known in college as "Bull." These are the words which the editor of the "Record" uses in congratulating Hill upon his splendid work at Sac City, Iowa, where he is located.

"The Sac City saints are so well pleased with the splendid work of their pastor, Rev. Norman R. Hill, who has so successfully led them in freeing their beautiful new church edifice from debt that we asked for a "cut" of his face that Iowa Baptists might get better acquainted with him in appearance as well as reputation. So we present his good-looking face in this paper. But we caution the Sac City saints to be careful or some of our larger churches will take him away from them. Men who make things go wherever they labor are in demand these days."

This son of Bucknell is also commended in the same paper in another article by the clerk of the church in which he is serving. It tells of a church free of an indebtedness which has been running for five years, of improvements which make the church home one of the most beautiful in northwest Iowa and of the thankfulness of the congregation that their hard-working young pastor has come to them.

DR. DIXON ADVISES GRIPPE VICTIMS.

At a time when the majority of the people one knows seem to be suffering from grip, State Health ommissioner Samuel G. Dixon, '86M., issues a "little talk on health and hygiene" on "Spreading Colds." This timely talk is in keeping with former words of caution given by Dr. Dixon. He says:

"This is the season when colds seem to be a well nigh universal complaint. If you have been fortunate enough to escape, your neighbor has not. There are numerous factors which are responsible for the spread of colds at this period of the year. As in many other infectious diseases, one may be frequently exposed without any serious result.

"If the patient can remain in bed in a well-ventilated room and the discharges from the nose and throat are properly disposed of there is little or no danger of transmitting a cold to other members of the family, and as a rule this greatly reduces the chance of becoming very ill and saves time in the end . It is well to use cheesecloth or paper in place of ordinary handkerchiefs, because these may be burned after use.

"If the usual symptoms of colds are aggravated in character, a physician should be send for immediately, as the line between the severe cold on the chest and pneumonia is delicately drawn. If a cold is permitted to hang on, it easily becomes a predisposing factor to more serious ailments, tuberculosis in particular."

Varsity Defeats Muhlenberg; Falls Loses To Penn State

BREAKS EVEN IN ITS GAMES LAST WEEK.

Allentowners Taken Into Camp By a 23-14 Score; While State Wins 42-21.—Resumption of Relations Attended by Warm Reception.

Demonstrating the results of a hard week's practice, Bucknell easily defeated Muhlenberg on Friday evening, the final score being 23-14. The Varsity displayed a form much improved over that of last week, and played with a certain dash, which gives much encouragement for future contests.

After Muhlenberg had scored on two foul tosses, Capt. Brenner put his team in the running with two field-goals, scored in a quick succession. At this point Ritter, the Muhlenberg captain, tossed a pretty goal in scrimmage from the middle of the floor, but Musser and Brenner, with the addition of Garner's foul goal, brought Bucknell's score up to 9. The play became very spirited at this point, neither team being able to keep the ball in their possession long enough to score. Gaston threw three foul goals for Muhlenberg and Musser scored a two-pointer before the whistle blew, the score at half-time being 11-7. The Varsity's close guarding allowed the Allentown team but one field goal during this period.

Field goals by Garner and Musser soon gave the Orange and Blue a big lead at the beginning of the second half. Unable to score near the basket, both teams took many chances on long shots from almost any angle, but with no success, until Boyles, whose star playing was a notable feature of the game, dropped one in from near the middle of the floor at a nasty angle. Toward the close of the game Muhlenberg's passing became far more effective, with the result that Everett and Gaston scored three field goals before Bucknell was able to break it up. Musser and Brenner each tallied a field goal before the half ended.

The whole Bucknell team showed up well, with the work of Boyles and Bonham predominating. Capt. "Bill" Ritter did Muhlenberg's best playing.

Following is the score and line-up:

Bucknell	Positions	Muhlenberg
Brenner	forward.	Witmer
Garner	forward.	Everett
Musser	centre.	Ritter
Bonham	guard.	Gaston
Boyles	guard.	Fitzgerald

Substitutions—Muhlenberg, Hollenbaugh for Fitzgerald. Field goals—Bucknell, Brenner 4, Garner 2, Musser 4, Boyles 1; Muhlenberg, Everett 2, Ritter 1, Gaston 1. Foul goals—Garner 1, Gaston 6. Referee—Jackson.

BUCKNELL VS. STATE.

Following their hard game with Muhlenberg the Orange and Blue tossers traveled to State College, where, after a lapse of four years in which all athletic relations were discontinued, the Penn State quintet was met on the Armory court. The Blue and White won by the score of 42-21.

The game was a pretty exhibition to watch, both teams passing well and guarding closely. The first half found the Orange and Blue playing its best when this period was at an end State only held the lead by four points, the score standing 20-16. In the second half the members of the Bucknell team, some not in the best of condition having just recovered from the grippe, slowed down considerably letting the Centre Countains outscore them 3 to 1.

State's court is out-ofbounds on all sides and this coupled with its immense size handicapped Bucknell without a doubt. Notwithstanding these drawbacks the Orange and Blue played a very acceptable game and in justice to them it must (as is always

S. A. E's. LOSE.

The Sigma Alpha Epsilon team, comprised of Geary and Miller as forwards, Ziegenfus and Hopler as guards and Peale as centre, took the tail end of the score in their game with Tau Phi Sigma at Sunbury on Monday night. The score was 26-13. "Bum Referee" was their laconic reply upon returning.

PHI GAMMA'S WIN POOL TOURNAMENT.

A pool tournament between the D. T. U. and Phi Gamma Delta fraternities was held at the D. T. U. house on Wednesday and Saturday evenings. The Phi Gam's won both games, the first by a score of 150-122, and the second by a score of 150- 96. Johnson and Hassrick played for the D. T. U's and Davies and Winsor for the Phi Gam's.

"WATCH YOUR STEP" GOOD ADVICE ON WED. MORNING

SLEETY "HILL" PATHS OCCASION SERIES OF CURIOUS EVENTS.

The above was the "Castle-Tinneyan" advice which echoed about the Hill on Wednesday morning before the "Burpee Force" had strewn cinders and sawdust on the sleet-covered paths.

The paths due to Tuesday night's sleet resembled glass when the "Hill-topper" issued forth for breakfast. Several falls were recorded on the "hash trips," but the feature sliding match of the day was the one which took place when the chapel contingent commenced to ascend the hill. Acrobatics galore were seen on the upperclassman path when friend tried to help friend with the result that both "bit the ice." The longest slide recorded for the day was that of a freshman who fell from the path skirting the "natural grandstand" and slid to the athletic field without a stop.

"SOPHS" CHOOSE L'AGENDA DIRECTORS

CLASS MEETING HELD ON FRIDAY AFTERNOON IN CHEMICAL LABORATORY.

The sophomore class met on Friday afternoon in a class meeting for the purpose of electing an editor and manager for the the L'Agenda which will appear in Bucknell spheres in 1917.

Bower was chosen editor over Adams, while Hindman was returned a winner in the election for manager over Kitlowski and Rosenberger.

REGULAR MEETING GIVEN OVER TO MEMBERS FOR EXPRESSION ON SUBJECT.

Informality in the Y. M. C. A. meetings seems always to strike the hidden sources and bring out the best that there is to be had in the Association gatherings.

Secretary Hedge had announced on the bulletin boards that the meetings would be devoted to practicing the songs to be sung in the meetings starting on Sunday; but owing to a misunderstanding the books to be used were not available for the first scheduled use of them, so the Wednesday night meeting was turned over to those present to express themselves on the coming of Dr. West.

Hedge first spoke on the present great need of such a series of meetings illustrating well his point by examples offered on the "Hill." Oesterle followed the Secretary's talk with a few words on the need of much prayer and personal work in the days before the 23rd. Others who followed in rapid order with expressions of plensure that such meetings were to be held and with helpful hints as to preparation were: Bryant, Malin, Tilton, Duffee, Boswell and Boggess.

It is hoped that on this Thursday night the little meeting-place in West College will be filled in the last gathering before the coming of the man, in co-operation with whom the Y. M. C. A. expects to cleanse old Bucknell.

MECHANICAL ENGINEERS.

The Mechanical Engineering Society held their monthly meeting on Monday evening, January 15th, in Room 15. Professor Burpee was the speaker for the evening and gave an account of his trip to New York and attendance at the national convention of the American Society of Mechanical Engineers, last term. The local society has filed an application for membership in this society. The committee, appointed by the A. S. M. E. reported individually upon the consideration of the application and the prospects for a student branch at Bucknell are encouraging.

FRESHMEN GAZE!

"Freshmen who feel the restrictions of first year rules heavy, should take a look at the Princeton rules.

Freshmen should not wear college colors in any form.

Only black shoes, sox, ties may be worn. Freshmen should not turn up their trousers or have cuffs on them.

Shirts with soft collars are forbidden and fancy vests of every description are not to be worn.

After the nine o'clock bell has rung in the evening, freshmen are expected to remain in their rooms.

The above restrictions apply until Washington's Birthday only.

Until the third Saturday in May, the regulation head dress for freshmen is a black skull cap. After that date a straw hat may be worn.

Unless accompanied by visitors freshmen should not occupy seats in the grandstand at University Field.

Dr. West Will Begin Meetings This Coming Sunday, the 23rd

"SILENT PARTNER" AT LAB.

The students in Human Anatomy have received the "silent partner" in their course. His name while living was "Nick" Jockowitch. The fellows plying their dissecting implements in this interesting subject this term are: Davenport, '16, Follmer, '16, and Heinen, '16.

KAPPA SIGMA—PI BETA PHI.

The Kappa Sigma mansion was the scene of a very pleasant social occasion Saturday evening of last week. The members and pledges of the fraternity entertained the Pi Beta Phi girls at progressive five hundred, following which refreshments were served. Misses Mattern and Owens shared the honors of first place in the contest. Miss Hardesty and Prof. and Mrs. Lindemann were among the guests.

J. V. GIBNEY, '08, RECEIVES IMPORTANT PROMOTION

IS NOW ASSISTANT SUPERVISOR IN OFFICE OF VALUATION ENGINEER.

In a circular issued by the Pennsylvania Railroad System headed "Information For Employees and the Public," there appears a notice of the promotion on Jan. 1 of J. V. Gibney, '08, to Assistant Supervisor in the office of the Valuation Engineer at Philadelphia.

Mr. Gibney entered the service of the Pennsylvania Railroad on Feb. 17, 1910, as Rodman in the Construction Department and later was transferred in the same capacity to the Buffalo Division.

On February 1, 1915, he was appointed Transitman in the office of the Engineer of Maintenance of Way, at Philadelphia. From this position he was promoted to the one he now holds.

WILLIAMSPORT-BUCKNELL CLUB NOW FORMED

ORGANIZATION FORMED LAST TUESDAY AFTERNOON BY BILLTOWN STUDENTS.

Over twenty former students of Williamsport and South Williamsport High Schools met together on Tuesday afternoon, Jan. 11, and formed an organization to be known as the Williamsport-Bucknell Club. Practically all of the former Williamsport students, attending Bucknell at the present time, were on hand and helped with the organization.

The following officers were elected: President, Lester Lighton, '18; Vice President, C. W. Mason, '18; Secretary and Treasurer, Marie Volkmar, '18. A committee was appointed to draw up a constitution and by-laws, to be submitted to the Club at the next meeting. Much interest was shown on the part of the members, a fact which predicts success as an active organization at Bucknell. One main object of the Club will be to use its influence in efforts to induce more Williamsport students to enter Bucknell. Another meeting will be held in the near future.

Y. W. C. A.

The Y. W. C. A. services for 1916 were opened by Miss Ruth Barthold, a memeber of the cabinet. Her subject "Am I, As A Y. W. C. A. Member Discharging My Duties?" found effect in the plea for doing present duty well, living one day at a time and entrusting the future to the ever-guarding Father. It was a simple, straightforward talk applicable to all present. That it was appreciated was evidenced by numerous, favorable expression of opinion.

There was special music by the choir.

LEWISBURG GIRLS GIVE DANCE.

The Lewisburg Girls gave a leap-year dance in the Lewisburg Club on Friday at which several of the fellows from the Hill were present.

Y. M. C. A. EXPECTING BIG THINGS FOR BUCKNELL.

WILL FIRST ADDRESS STUDENTS IN THE BIBLE CLASS

Four Years Since Meetings of This Kind Have Been Held at Bucknell.—Personal Work Before Meetings Asked of All Interested.

It is four years since special meetings were conducted at Bucknell under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A. for the college students. When, at that time, two evangelists, Messrs. "Ted" Mercer and Pontius visited the student body for a few days, great interest was manifested and great good accomplished.

DR. WEST.
Who Comes Here on Sunday, January 23rd, to Conduct a Series of Meetings Under the Auspices of the Y. M. C. A. Hear Him!

That was four years ago, and that generation of students no longer remains to tell the tale of those meetings. Once more the Y. M. C. A. has realized that another series of meetings is needed and Dr. West, an all-round Bucknell man of the class of '89, is to visit the school next week. The history of Rev. West's religious career was given in last week's Bucknellian; and this week it is desired to give some information as to the meetings to be held on Sunday, Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, from Jan. 23rd to Jan. 27th.

These meetings promise to be interesting and beneficial to Bucknell students. Dr. West is specially qualified to conduct these meetings on account of his own college training, and his experience with college men at St. Paul and Rochester. These give him common ground with college men and hence a sympathetic attitude toward them and their problems. One who knows college problems and can offer help in their solution should be an attraction to all true Bucknellians. So it is hoped that a larger number will grasp this golden opportunity of hearing "good solid stuff" from one who is well able to give it.

Each night there will be special music, for which arrangements are already being made. Vocal and instrumental solos and quartettes executed by some of the best talent in the school will be heard at these meetings. The Y. M. C. A. meetings are now being largely taken over with the practicing of songs which will be sung in these meetings.

Talk these meetings over, fellows. Bucknell needs, as has already been said, just such an awakening as the coming of Dr. West presages. Every man who is a member of the Y. M. C. A., or who is interested in the welfare of this organization is needed in the preparation for these meetings to give a helping hand in the spreading of the news that Dr. West is coming.

A deadlock between H. A. Bruce, Lafayette's Physical Director, and W. R. Crowell, the Maroon's head coach, is tending to make Lafayette feel gloomy over its track prospects. Bruce demands full control of the track team which of course frees him from Crowell's jurisdiction and to this the latter will not give in. Hence the deadlock.

WHERE'S THE BAND?

Why is it that the band this year is not living up to its contract? Friday night's exhibition of the band, minus 15 or more pieces, has enlivened the question which last term went the rounds because of the inability of the members of the band corps to come out for the mass meetings.

Those in charge of the band must consider the fact that they are supported largely by the student body and that the student body in so doing expects adequate returns for that support. When it was deemed necessary to have suits the fellows on the "Hill" responded with loosenings on their pocketbooks. When the men in charge of the band desired a rebate on their budget in regards to the item of a nathletic fee, it was readily granted them. Whenever the Harrisburg trip has rolled around R. M. Darlington and others of the Senior class have always tried to make it a point that the band's expenses on that trip be paid by subscriptions from the student body or by a benefit of some kind.

We hope that the members of the band as often as they possibly can will give their full support and aid the Bucknell spirit in flowing full and free at the Athletic contests. Bucknell is proud of its band and jealous of its reputation; therefore it is up to the present members to see that it warrants the esteem ofthe students.

CLASS SCRAPS.

Class scraps during the past week claimed a lion's share of collegiate discussion because of the unfortunate incident at Penn's annual bowl fight which resulted in the death of William Lifson, of Elizabeth, New Jersey.

Bucknell's attention was drawn to its annual class rush which takes place between the Freshmen and Sophomores on the first Saturday of the fall term. Perhaps it was drawn particularly because of the injury which marked the struggle this year.

The danger attendant with this scrap will increase with the growth in the number of men who enter each year. It was plain to see that this fact was one which played prominently in the death of Lifson. The Bucknell scrap is as hard and rough a scrap, we venture, as the bowl fight; for in it every ounce of a fellows energy is used up, leaving him at the end in about the worst shape he ever was in during his life with his eyes open beforehand as to the results. In our scrap the freshmen new to his surroundings and consequently on a high nervous tension enters the scrap and fights for a full twenty minutes at his hardest. Under such considerations is it any wonder that a fellow is worse "all in", if that expression is permissable, than if he had done a day's work involving the hardest kind of manual labor?

This might be alright in a scrap in which the contestants find some delight, but this is not found to be the case since the delight is wholly settled amongst the witnesses. Ask any man who has gone through two scraps if he would for a minute entertain the idea of a third.

All these things lead us to doubt the advisibility of continuing our class scrap.

DR. HARRIS DISCUSSES "SECOND COMING OF CHRIST"

TREATS TOPIC IN BIBLE CLASS WHICH CLAIMS MUCH DISCUSSION.

The subject of Dr. Harris' address to his Bible Class yesterday was one which has claimed much discussion and wild speculation. "Speaking on "The Second Coming of Christ" the President gave his theory, based on the past experiences of the world.

"The time for the consummation of the age," said Dr. Harris, "can not be figured out in numbers; it will come when all men acknowledge Christ and accept his laws." As to the place where such a consummation will take place no definite site can be named. The symbolic language of the Bible should not be taken literally, but in the sense in which it was uttered symbolically or figuratively. The world will not experience any sudden change in the second coming of Christ; but the millenium will be the goal of a gradual process in the perfection of the world."

Answering the question as to why Christ came, the speaker said that in the course of man's evolution there came a time when a model and an instructor was needed. Then God sent Christ to help man to be a factor in his own evolution. Christ left earth in order that Christianity might spread throughout the world, rather than be confined to Jerusalem whither all believers would go to be near their divine instructor. He also left earth that man might be thrown upon his own resources and thus become a factor in his own evolution. Just as a continuous line of Washingtons, at the head of the United States government would have been detrimental in its tendency to discourage the rise of other great statesmen and leaders; so the everlasting presence of Jesus would have hindered the spread of Christian principles and the rise of great religious leaders.

Just as the perfection of the type comes at the end of the process so the Second Coming of Christ with its perfection will mark the elevation of man to perfect manhood. Moreover, the millenium must not be considered as being statical, the resting-stage after the completion of the process; but rather as a process in itself in which all men become Christlike.

When the millenium will come, we know not, but each can do his share towards the perfection of the human heart by cleaning up his own; so that humanity will be ready so much the sooner for the coming of the great resurrected One.

Next Sunday morning Dr. West will speak to the class. Advertisement of his visit will be found elsewhere in this issue.

COUNTY CHAIRMAN PROF. SMITH AGAIN ACTIVE

WILL WAGE ANOTHER CAMPAIGN AT HEAD OF THE ANTI- SALOON LEAGUE

The anti-saloon league is active in its campaign to place Union county in the dry column, and in anticipation of the approaching license court to be held next month, the campaign against granting licenses to the two Lewisburg hotels is on. County Chairman of the league, Prof. Bromley Smith, is in charge of the campaign, and the same bitter war that characterized the campaigns of the past years is to be waged. The licensed hotels in the county have been eliminated in the past five or six years by the process of refusing several at each court until but two remain, and the forces will be directed against both of these.

MISS CAREY RECEIVES DEGREE.

At their meeting last week the trustees conferred the degree of Master of Arts upon Miss Anna R. Carey of the Institute for work done.

Students at Columbia earned $103,-016.74 last year, about $40,000 less than was earned during the prior year.

Student resourcefulness is shown by the diversity of jobs. One student during Christmas week of last year sold his blood to one of the hospitals for transfusion purposes. Immediately a demand grew for more blood, and the price of this fluid shot up to $25 an ounce. Several students helped to pay their tuition in this way.

A new chapter of the Delta Zeta sorority will be installed at the University of Pittsburgh this week.

BASKET-BALL TEAM ROUNDING INTO FORM

OUTLOOK FOR A SUCCESSFUL SEASON IS VERY GOOD.

Although prophets and prospecies are scarce after such a season as was passed through in football last year, the Bucknellian feels that now with three games already played, to make a statement of the prospects of the present basket-ball team without erring ponderously, is pretty safe.

Prospects for a successful season in basket-ball are good. On the team which Cockill has moulded this year there are four who played regularly last year. The guard position left vacant by last year's captain, "Joe" Gdaniec, is being ably filled by Boyles, a freshman who entered from Steelton High. This may be called practically a veteran team.

At forwards "Freddie" Brenner and "Scow" Garner are working better with each succeeding game.

Musser at centre is rounding into an excellent pivot-man In the last two games "Mal" has not been able to play his best because of the condition in which a case of grippe has left him. Martin is another freshman who entered from Keystone Academy. He stands six feet and from what he showed in the State game will be a Bucknell standby ere he has graduated. Another likely candidate for centre is Gaenzel, another six footer who hails from the basket-ball town of Reading.

In Bonham and Boyles Bucknell has a couple of guards whose work has been commendable in all of the three games played thus far. Boyles can be depended on to make a basket whenever the opportunity presents itself. His shot in the Muhlenberg game was a dandy. As first substitute Peale, another six-footer, stands ready to jump in at either of the guard positions.

With such men in the lists chances for a successful team can be banked on. A crucial test will come next Friday when Cockill's pets will be pitted against the fast five which Gettysburg has gotten together this year.

INTERCOLLEGIATE NOTES

The student body of the University of Pennsylvania has taken decisive action since the death of William Lifson, of Elizabeth, N. J., who was killed last Wednesday in the Annual Bowl Fight. Both the Freshman and Sophomore classes decided unanimously to abolish all class fights in the future. Seven hundred students took part in the recent scrap, which proved to be one of the roughest in the history of the school. Three had to be taken to the hospital and over a score of others were injured to some extent. It is only a matter of time until class fights will come into universal disfavor among the colleges.

"Bill" Hollenback, former successful coach at Penn State, has been chosen to direct the Syracuse eleven for the next three years. Since leaving State he has been coaching at Pennsylvania Military College.

Lafayette like Swarthmore has added a monthly supplement to its weekly paper. This supplement is called "Le Marquis."

Dickinson's Inter-Class Basket-ball opened up last week, the Seniors opposing the Freshmen and the Juniors lining up against the Sophomores. Because of the absence of Inter-Collegiate basket-ball at Dickinson the games are well supported.

Penn took first place in the Intercollegiate Basket-ball League when Princeton went down to defeat by a score of 26-22 on Saturday night. Princeton had the lead during the first part of the game, but Penn came up from behind and won out in a five minute extra period.

The Gettysburg team which plays here on Friday night is one of the strongest in the history of the school They recently defeated Muhlenberg 51-34, and also walloped Lebanon Valley by a good score.

Susquehanna, scheduled for the 28th, won from Bloomsburg Normal, Saturday 38-15.

Wrestling next to football seems to be the most popular sport at Penn State. On Saturday the Seniors won the inter-class meet at the Centre County school. This week the Blue and White expects to wrestle with Princeton, the first time these institutions have met in this sport.

Trial debates have begun at the University of Pittsburgh. This is to prepare the men for a tour in the spring. A group of young women will take part in these trial debates against the men.

Lafayette will introduce a new course in its curriculum known as Chemical Engineering, at the beginning of the next collegiate year.

Four hundred and thirty-six men have petitioned the faculty of Brown University to authorize the resumption of basket-ball as a major sport. —"Beacon."

—Gettysburg's fast quintet will meet the Varsity in Tustin Gymnasium next Friday at 8:00 p. m.

DEBATE

Arrangements have about been completed for an intercollegiate debate with Swarthmore College on Thursday evening, March 2. The question for debate will be, Resolved, that an international police should be established to enforce international treaties and agreements and to preserve international peace.

Candidates for the team will contest on Monday evening, January 24, in Room 7, at 7:15. Candidates may choose either side.

It is requested that the speeches do not exceed five minutes.

KAPPA SIGMA'S TO ENTERTAIN.

VANDALS AT WORK.

Saturday night or early Sunday morning two of the East College windows were broken out by occupants of that building returning from points afar. The absence of these windows at such cold periods makes the halls very uncomfortable. East College students wish that these vandals would refrain from such destructive methods.

BASKET-BALL

done whether true or not, but in this case true) be said that the score does not show the relative ability of the two teams.

State was the first to enter the score column with a foul by Blakeslee, State's star. For a time it looked as if the Orange and Blue would fall behind as the Blue and White scored two field goals in succession before "Freddie" Brenner caged his first two pointer. In this half Freddie scored two ringers; Musser fared equally as well. All of Bucknell's shots were results of formations that State was unable to stop. Blakeslee and Bishop also scored equally; netting the ball 3 times apiece. Walten the Blue and White captain, added two more to this contribution pulling State's total of field goals to 8. Two of these shots were of the "Haps Benfer" kind, being landed from about the middle of the court. One of Musser's goals, one basketed from a difficult angle at the side brought lots of applause from the State students.

During the intermission the State students kept alive their spirit with one song after another. The spirit manifested by the State students towards Bucknell in the game was splendid, as was the treatment accorded the Bucknell group everywhere it happened to be.

The second half was not as fast as the first. State in this period pulling away from her opponents by means of the short snappy passes which characterized the Blue and White play throughout. Blakeslee, as in the first half, was the main thorn in Bucknell's side, getting away for 3 more field goals in this portion of the contest. Towards the latter part of the game Martin entered the contest in Musser's place, while Schaffner assumed Garner's post. Both performed creditably. The game ended with State having just doubled the score on the Orange and Blue five.

The contest was witnessed by a large crowd which filled the Armory.

Bucknell	Positions	State
Brenner (Capt.)	forward.	Blakeslee
Garner (Schaffner)	forward.	Wagner
Musser	centre.	Bishop
Martin	centre.	(Roberts)
Boyles	guard.	Bowes
Bonham	guard.	(Fast)
		Walton (capt.)

Goals from field: Bucknell, Brenner 1, Garner 1, Musser 2; State: Blakeslee 6, Wagner 2, Bishop 5, Walton 3. Foul goals: Bucknell, Garner 7 out of 17; State, Blakeslee 10 out of 25. Substitutions: Schaffner for Garner, Martin for Musser, Roberts for Bishop, Fast for Bowes. Referee: Rob't. Fluhrer, Gettysburg.

Among the grippe sufferers during the past week were: Case, '17, Estler, '18, Hayes, '18, Hulley, '18, and Orchard, '19.

Detwiler, ex-'18, visited at the Phi Psi house over the week-end. It is rumored that "Bugs" is considering returning to school.

Haman, '17, and Painter, '17, held fast in the house during the past week with attacks of grippe, have rounded into shape again.

Clark and Liebensberger, two more victims of the grippe, went to their respective homes in Canton and Williamsport on Sunday evening.

Menaker, '17, Thomas, '17, and Barnhart, '17, accompanied the team to State College on Saturday. Menaker acted as official score-keeper at the game.

"Johnnie" Hendren, '19, had the misfortune to seriously injure his ankle in basket-ball practice last week. This makes the second gridiron star trying out for a position on the basket-ball team who has sustained ankle injuries, "Joe" Dent being the other sufferer.

Mary DeWees, '18, Marie Volkmar, '18, and Martha Wetlaufer, '18, hiked to Mifflinburg on Saturday. They are not very "weary" and so accusations of "hookies" are in order.

Mr. Wetlaufer, of Williamsport, entertained his daughter, Martha, and Margaret Mattern, '18, Laura Thompson, '19, Ella Jones, '17, Mary DeWees, '18, and Marie Volkmar, '18, at the Cameron House on Thursday.

ORANGE AND BLUE LED 17-10 AT HALF-TIME

Contest Fast and Furious Every Minute.—Bucknell Outplayed in Second Half.—Garner Best Performer for the Varsity.

In the fastest and most exciting game of the season Gettysburg was able to win over Bucknell on Friday night by the scant margin of one point, the score being 23-22. Completely outplayed in the first half, the Battlefield Boys came back strong in the last period, and superior floor work, coupled with close guarding, gradually turned the tide in their favor.

At half-time, when the score stood 17-10 in Bucknell's favor, the Orange and Blue looked like a sure winner. Besides holding the Gettysburg players to a total of two field-goals, the Varsity exhibited a certain dash, which kept them in the game at all times and enabled them to enjoy a comfortable lead at the finish. During the second half, however, Bucknell seemed to suffer from over-confidence, individualism being evidenced by the number of shots tried from all angles of the floor, and five points was their total for the entire half. Unless the taking of almost impossible chances can be eliminated in favor of the more practical passing game, this feature will no doubt play just as important a part in the coming games, as it did in this defeat.

At the outset of the game after Gettysburg had scored two foul goals to our one, Brenner caged a field goal from underneath the basket. Garner made two fouls count, and then scored the prettiest goal of the evening at an angle from a point near the middle of the floor. Campbell, who is Gettysburg's particular star, then got busy and caged two goals on long shots, Mahaffie tossing a foul between times. The score was tied at this juncture 7-7, but not for long, as "Scow" Garner dropped a field goal and scored on a foul in quick succession. After Gettysburg had scored on a free toss, Bonham dribbled his way down the floor and threw a pretty goal from one side. Bucknell scored five points on Garner's three foul shots and Capt. Brenner's field goal, and Mahaffie made two fouls count, before the whistle ended the scoring at 17-10.

The band played several appreciated selections between the halves, and with the aid of the cheer-leaders, were able to keep things lively.

At the beginning of the second half, Gettysburg scored three points before Musser scored a field goal for his team. After a clever exhibition of passing Mahaffie finally scored from field, but Garner atoned for this a few moments later with a pretty goal. In the next few minutes of play, Gettysburg played all around the Orange and Blue quintet, scoring eight points before they could be stopped. This gave Gettysburg the advantage 23-21. Garner threw a foul, but despite the encouragement of the crowd, the Varsity could score no more, before the whistle killed off a promising rally for Bucknell.

Mahaffie and Campbell did Gettysburg's best playing, the former's work being especially noticeable in the last half, while "Scow" Garner was Bucknell's star.

RIFLE CLUB HELD MATCH SATURDAY AFTERNOON

FELLOWS MAKE VERY CREDITABLE SCORES WITH LITTLE PRACTICE.

The Rifle Club, Bucknell's newest activity, made its first appearance during the past week. Through the courtesy of the officers of the local troop of National Guards, the club was allowed the use of the Armory. A general practice was held on Monday evening, an elimination contest on Wednesday evening, and an indoor match on Saturday afternoon. The fellows making the ten highest scores on Wednesday evening were eligible to shoot in the match on Saturday. The results of the match were as follows:

Earle	145
Mackey	118
Sears	113
Greenleaf	103
Rummer	94
Jaco	89
Wilson	82
Gandy	79

These are creditable scores, when it is considered that the fellows had very little practice and that the targets used were extremely difficult. The club is planning to hold more of these matches in the future and also to take up out-door shooting as soon as weather conditions permit.

NOTICE! BUDGET SUBSCRIBERS.

All persons not having paid their budget dues for the winter term should do so at once. Tickets held by those who have not paid will not be honored at the next game.

INTERCOLLEGIATE NOTE

Ray Lyman Wilbur, A. M., M. D., was installed on January 22 as president of Leland Standford Junior University in a ceremony which, at the request of Doctor Wilbur, was notably simple. Doctor Wilbur is 40 years old and was one of the first students at Stanford, which is said to have the second largest endowment of any institution of learning in America. The inaugural address was given in the Memorial Chapel, the restoration of which, following the earthquake of 1906, has just been completed.

"STUDENT VOLUNTEER" ACTIVITIES

The Student Volunteer Band met last Wednesday evening with several other students, who have expressed their interest in Foreign Missionary activities. The President, Duffe, '19, lately elected to fill the vacancy caused by the absence of Stone, '18, opened the meeting by Scripture reading and prayer, after which he spoke on "The Spiritual Life of the Missionary." Open discussion followed, which dealt with the experiences of deep Spiritual life, the personality of the Holy Spirit and some methods of personal prayer. Those present have freely expressed the Spiritual uplift which attended this meeting.

MINISTERIALS WILL ADD NEW FEATURE TO MEETINGS

DECIDE TO PRACTICE READING OF SCRIPTURES IN WEEKLY MEETINGS.

The Ministerial Association held its first meeting of the winter term in the Y. M. C. A. Room immediately following the meeting of the Y. M. C. A. on Thursday evening, President C. E. Tilton presiding.

The regular business of the Association disposed of, the few members who were present discussed a new plan for the weekly meetings to be held this term. During the winter term of last year Henry Ward Beecher's Yale lectures were read and discussed by the Association, but those in charge this year feeling the need of something which would draw the members better, decided under the suggestion of a member of the faculty to devote the meetings to a reading of the scriptures.

Under this plan it will so be arranged that several members will be given portions of the scripture to read before the regular meetings. At the end of each reading a few minutes will be devoted to criticism and discussion of the passage read.

Dr. Phillips will be present at the first few meetings to give helpful hints. The first meeting will be held in Theta Alpha on Wednesday afternoon at 4:15.

Dr. West Addresses Large Number at First Meeting

STUDENTS THOROUGHLY ENJOY SPLENDID DISCOURSE.

Speaker Discusses Spiritualism vs. Materialism.—Good Singing at the First of Meetings Being Held by the Y. M. C. A.

Fully 215 persons, including members of the faculty and the male students of the college, crowded Bucknell Hall at 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon to hear Dr. West at the opening session of the meetings which are being conducted under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A.

A special choir composed of about 20 voices, directed by "Dave" Boswell, led the singing which was very enthusiastic throughout. The meeting was opened with two songs which were heartily joined in by every fellow and faculty member present.

Following his introduction by Dr. Harris, Dr. West read from a few verses from the 21st chapter of John and then lead in prayer.

At the close of the next song Dr. West took as the basis for his discourse the situation produced by the appeal of Jesus when he spoke to Peter saying, "Follow me;" and gave an inspiring heart-to-heart talk on his personal reasons for following Christ.

The speaker defined this appeal as a means of becoming a part of Jesus for the perpetuation of those things for which He died. With the closing of this statement Dr. West struck into the heart of his subject and commenced to state the reasons for following Christ which demanded him. These he said he wished to give because they were the products of having cast himself into the struggle and having watched the game of life.

"I like to welcome Jesus in this world where there is a struggle between the material and the spiritual," Dr. West gave as his first reason for following Christ. A struggle is on in this world between materialism and spiritualism and it is the duty of every man like Jesus to line himself up on the side of Spiritualism knowing that "Man's riches do not consist in the abundance of those things he possesses." Jesus was conscious of this struggle and because of it gave utterance to the words just repeated.

Dr. West as his second reason for following Jesus gave the fact that Jesus met the issues involved in the struggle. This was plainly evidenced in the answer which Jesus gave to those men of the scriptures who were so quick to judge a certain woman, "Let him who is without sin cast the first stone." With this answer Christ met the question of a double standard between the sexes and placed it under foot as a curse to humanity.

As his next reason for following Christ Dr. West stated, "Because of the dispute concerning the nature of God I like to follow Jesus." God, said the speaker, is somewhat like something we know. In the storms when a Father is needed,—not an It, not a Potency, but a Father—,then is God most real.

The fourth reason Dr. West gave for following his Lord was because this world is one in which the real value of religion is discounted. To discount such a theory, the speaker showed the practical value of religion. Religion, he said, should not be considered simply as a means of escape later on. No man can do base things, can not be a beast unless he has lost the value of reality in religion.

In his closing points Dr. West made clear that he followed his Master close when the nature of religion was in dispute. Religion with him is a thing deeper than any form or creed. Religion is true, adaptable to every condition of life, and something which keeps whether walking with God or man.

Because of Christ's cleansing of the temple and because of his constancy as a Redeemer Dr. West held his LAW CLUB MEETING.

Thursday night, January 22, the Law Club held a mock court. In the case of a landlord vs. his tenant, Fripician and Bender were the legal aid of the plaintiff, while Schaffner and Nancarrow took the defensive side. The case resulted in acquital. Reich and Ackerman were on the bench. At this meeting it was decided to have a picture taken for the L'Agenda.

PIEZ, EX-'13, WILL COACH NINE AT RUTGERS

PLAYED IN OUTFIELD ON ONE OF BUCKNELL'S FASTEST NINES.

Charles (Sandy) Piez, ex-'13, of Hammonton, New Jersey, will coach the Rutgers baseball squad next season.

Piez comes from a family of baseball stars, most all of whom learned the rudiments of the national pastime on the sand lots of southern Jersey and then made good elsewhere. While at Bucknell Piez played in the outfield on one of the fastest nines which ever represented the Orange and Blue on the diamond. On this team were such stars as "Jake" Northrup, Loveland, "Burt" Daniels and Clark. It was this team which met and conquered Yale, Georgetown and State.

Piez after leaving Bucknell played in one of the southern leagues where he was picked up last year by the New York Nationals. His wonderful speed and good batting eye will no doubt hold him a place on McGraw's string.

FIRE DESTROYS HOME OF MRS. JOHN SPEICHER

FORMER DEAN OF WOMEN'S COLLEGE SUFFERS GREAT LOSS ON WED. EVE.

Mrs. John Speicher, formerly Miss Mary G. Stanton, '09, dean last year of the Women's College, incurred an unexpected loss last Wednesday evening. Fire broke out in her home at the Indiana State Normal School, where her husband is head of the department of Psychology and Pedagogy, destroying many of the newly married couple's household effects.

The fire started at 6 o'clock while Mr. and Mrs. Speicher were at dinner at the school where they take their meals. At 6:40 the house was in flames. Mrs. Speicher was in the school library at the time reading when the fire alarm rang, but thinking nothing of it did not trouble herself to find out the place of the conflagration immediately.

The fire engine was delayed fully twenty minutes on its way to the scene, being stuck in the heavy mud and the Specher's had the trying ordeal of watching their belongings burn with help so close and yet unavailable. When the fire engine did arrive the firemen experienced trouble with the hose and as a consequence the house was burned to the ground.

The house was a cottage owned by the school in which Mr. and Mrs. Speicher and six girls lived.

The only things which were saved by the Speichers were their kitchen utensils and bedroom furnishings. All of their clothes were either burned or destroyed to such a degree by water as to be unfit for wear. Practically all of the essential furniture was destroyed in the flames.

Many willing hands have sprung to the aid of the couple in such sore straits. The school will provide new quarters for them.

DR. WEST.

Food for tho't is surely being served to those who sit under the splendid discourses which Dr. West is giving these days. Last night every young man who was present at the Baptist Church could not help but feel the challenge that rang from the pulpit when it was stated that God needed Men. It is great to feel within oneself that there are capabilities for possessing this world and of moulding it as a fit place in which posterity might dwell. To enter into life with such a big broad ideal means that success in its true sense is not far removed from the individual possessing such a motive.

We urge that every man in college will make it a special point to have a personal conference with Dr. West, as is the opportunity of every man on the Hill. Such a chance does not come often in a life time.

FORMAL OPENING OF COLLEGE INN, JAN. 24

FINAL TOUCHES HAVE BEEN PLACED ON NATTY LITTLE "BEANERY."

The formal opening of the College Inn will take place on Monday evening, Jan. 24, when the students and faculty of Bucknell University will be made welcome and every effort expended to accommodate and to please them.

The delay in opening was due to the trouble experienced in the completion of the inside furnishings of the building..

Inspection of the little beanery discloses a neatly arranged and cleanly establishment of which the students can justly feel proud. Comfort is expressed in each detail and the management has succeeded well in making their restaurant a place which appeals to the student.

Ample service is at all times evident, as 11 students are employed to wait on customers. The Inn will be open from 6 A. M. until 12:30 A. M.

The total investment now in this beanery is appraised at three thousand dollars. The latest addition is a new motor which will pump the water from a 90 feet artesian well in the rear of the building.

During the hour in which the meetings are being held in Bucknell Hall the Inn will be closed.

WHERE THE BAND IS.

Last week an article printed in the Bucknellian attracted the attention of every band member. The band wishes to answer this criticism, to explain at this time just what the band's position is relative to the student body at Bucknell.

In the past years the band had to depend wholly on subscriptions and what it could earn by giving concerts and hiring itself out at different occasions for its support.

In 1912, the student body in a subscription gave the band about $45 toward their "blazers," donated mostly by a couple of the fraternities whose members at that time constituted half of the band. Thus indirectly the greater part of that subscription was given by the members of the band, themselves. The rest of the money for the coats was raised from the town people, the faculty, and earnings of the band playing at memorial parades, political occasions and concerts. At no concert from that time on was the band given any kind of support by the student body. Rather, time and time again, the members had to "fork over" from their earning the amount necessary to defray the expenses of a concert. When the time came for the Harrisburg trip, the band had to worry about the financing of it. Always at a late moment "Bob" Darlington would have to come to the rescue by starting the ball rolling with a liberal subscription. The rest of the train fare was collected on the train—again mostly from the town people.

At the beginning of this year, the band started out bravely with nearly a $200 debt, covering a note on its last year's uniforms and music purchased up to that time. The greater part of this debt is now paid off. Why? On account of the installation of the budget, the band will now be assured of approximately $180 a year. For the first time in the band's history, it was able now to count on student support. What is expected of the band at this time? It surely had to pay off part of its debt leaving it nothing for the Harrisburg trip this year. Again it had to borrow $60 to make this trip.

Does any student thing he is giving too much for the band's support when he gives 50c a year? The band man has to give this amount towards his own support also. All a member receives for his service is free admission to the games at which he plays. Surely he doesn't play for this small remuneration. It is because he enjoys playing and is proud to belong to the organization that he plays at all. The band man even has to sacrifice "fussing" at the games. Athletes receive complimentary tickets.

Practically any member could earn several dollars if he were to play professionally the amount of time he puts in the band a week, which is an average of four hours or more. No, a band man does not play for free admission. Of course, there are several hangers-on in every organization of this character, but they are in a minority and can not be left out.

The band is handicapped as to instruments. Practically every instrument is owned by its player. Two altos, not worth the brass in them, a bass drum, being constantly overhauled by the members, and a snare drum are the property of the band. If any band man should happen to leave his instrument home, there is no instrument for him to play, and consequently he fails to show up at a game. The same is true if an instrument is broken.

Now, just because the band failed to make a good showing at the first two games of the season, someone criticises it. Let us hope it won't happen again.

The band has not had time to organize fully this term yet. Consequently some of the men did not show up. Then again, several of the men were sick. These did not show up. Then again, others are day students and it is inconvenient for them to be on hand every Friday night. These members were not at the games. At the time of the last game, several of the men got the chance to earn a few dollars towards their college expenses, and these failed to show up. Surely these are all legitimate excuses, especially considering what the band gives to the students and receives in return.

At the games, the band men are shoved in a corner, seated on uncomfortable boards, crowded by "fussers", and made to stand up during the game in order to witness it . Is this appealing to any man?

Let us hope that the student body, knowing now of the situation of the band and it relationship to the college, will come to appreciate the organization as much as we appreciate there help, for there are lots of things the management of the organization has to contend with, there being no "strings" on any of the members except Bucknell spirit.

Signed,
A BAND MAN.

BIBLE CLASS FIRST TO HEAR DR. WEST

HEARS A NEW VERSION PUT ON PARABLE OF "THE PRODIGAL SON."

Dr. West in his first appearance before Bucknell students on the mission which has brought him to the "College on the Hill," spoke to Dr. Harris' Bible Class on Sunday morning.

A large attendance made up of equal portions of young men and young women heard Dr. West put a new version on the story of "The Prodigal Son," as found in the 15th Chapter of Luke.

In the first of his discussion on this oft-repeated parable Dr. West first considered the two types as expressed in the prodigal and his brother. In these, he said, are found two types of departure from the plan of God; the first riotous and the second covetous. In the world the numbers of the second exceed the numbers of the second by far, the rate being 100 to 1. The prodigals are few and accessible to the good seed; but the brothers who stay at home are many and a type with whom it is exceedingly hard to work.

To the covetous prodigals, said the speaker, can be ascribed the laying of the many existing barriers in society; to these, the like of him who stayed at home, are due the tempests and stagnations found in the world today.

Continuing Dr. West spoke of the fact that the brother of the prodigal would not forgive and because of this placed upon the unforgiving one the accusation of being as big a menace to society as any libertine or drunkard. In him the basis of the Kingdom of God, Love, was lacking. His love was placed in the material, in the estate, while with the father the love of his two sons was supreme far and above a love for the estate. As with this father so should it be with all men. Material things must come second.

The elder son could not love. At this point the speaker asked the searching question, "Do we who love have that capacity to love those who cannot minister to our needs or increase our estate?" We are prodigals unless we can forgive those who transgress upon our estates for it is inability to love that makes us prodigals, said Dr. West.

As the third point, that portion of the story dealing with the father's entreaties with the elder son was dwelt upon. The fact was brought to light that there was no reason for love in the prodigal's case, but a need for ministry and it was this the elder son would not break from his reserve to meet. Love does not depend on ministries received and such a type of love, without which no fellowship exists, is what the world needs.

The only thing in common between the older son and the father was the estate. The elder son was a good keeper. Noting this relation, Dr. West, said with much emphasis that life was not to be able to handle so much earth, and with the next sentence stated with still greater emphasis that the cheapest thing he knew was the ability to make money. Life is love, mercy, justice and confidence in God. Woven in at this juncture was a very impressive illustration. Dr. West spoke of his reason for loving his son being not because of his son's ability, but because of the fact that his son was his and loved what he loved. Because of the father love God's heart breaks every time man refuses to love those things He loves.

In closing the speaker said that nothing in life counts if one has not the ability to love.

Dr. Harris announced that Dr. Becht will speak to the Bible Class on February 13.

DR. WEST'S ADDRESS

INTERCOLLEGIATE NOTES

The University of California and Stanford University have buried the hatchet and resumed relations after a severance of 6 months. Stanford has agreed to bar freshmen from intercollegiate competition, the point that caused the split, and both have accepted a scholarship standard for athletics.

The young women at Ursinus College have received permission to enjoy athletic priveleges as well as the young men of that college. Thompson Cage is to be placed at the exclusive control of the young women at specified times in order that they may play basket-ball.

Accepting a call from the First Baptist Church, of Pitcairn, the Rev. Edwin W. Rumsey will soon leave the pastorate of the Duquesne Heights Baptist Church. He will succeed Dr. J. S. Scott. Mr. Rumsey is an alumnus of Bucknell. He had a pastorate in Montgomery County before coming to Duquesne Heights.

The Amherst College football schedule for the season of 1916 is featured by the absence of a game with Dartmouth. This is the first time in a good many years that the Hanover eleven has not had a place on Amherst's schedule. This came as a direct action of the Student Council.

Miss Ella Freed introduced her remarks by placing a high valuation on the transforming and beautifying force of spirituality. Her talk concerned Dr. Kepler's influence chiefly.

Miss Mary Bubb was the second speaker and spoke on "I Have No Time." Missionary business was then introduced by the chairman, Miss Margaret Mattern. Outlines of this term's work in Mission classes were given and enrollment therein was made.

Concluding remarks were given by Mrs. Thomas, who heartily thanked the girls for their co-operation in making the New York Christmas boxes successful. Lack of time prevented speaking by the remaining leaders.

VOLUME XX. 20 LEWISBURG, PENNA., MONDAY, JANUARY 31, 1916. NUMBER 15

SUSQUHIES SUFFER SEVERE SQUELCH

VARSITY TRIUMPHS BY ONE-SIDED SCORE, 40-9

Contest Rough From Whistle to Whistle.—Entire Scrub Squad Enters in Last 6 Minutes of Play.—Musser Outplays Swope.

Outplaying their opponents in every conceivable way, the Varsity defeated Susquehanna in the gym on Friday evening by the overwhelming score of 40-9. It is the first varsity game, played here in many years, that one team's scoring could be represented by a single figure and the final result is more indicative of Bucknell's strength, than of Susquehanna's weakness.

Throughout the entire contest the Selinsgrove boys could score but a single field-goal, a record in Pennsylvania collegiate ranks for the season. The ball was in Bucknell's possession almost continually, and the close guarding of the Orange and Blue kept Susquehanna in trouble, when occasionaly they did have a chance.

Bucknell's all-around play was steadier than at any time this season, and although they were never hard pressed, there was a certain element of smoothness in their work, which helped in the scoring of many points. The number of called fouls does not show the amount of roughness, which characterized the game throughout, but the scrimmages at times were unusually hard-fought, and this fact can account for much of it.

Susquehanna started off well, when Hostetter caged what proved to be that team's only field-goal of the evening. A foul toss and Schaffner's two-pointer put the Varsity in a lead, which they never lost. After each team had scored twice on fouls, Musser, Murray and Garner tossed field goals in rapid order. Before time was called at the end of the period, Swope caged a foul for the down-river school, and "Mus" scored on two pretty field tosses. The score at half-time was 17-6.

The last period was opened with a rush by both teams and a long scrimmage resulted in Musser's field toss from under neath the basket. Garner tossed a foul and "Mus" scored again from field, after which Garner and "Tony" Murray, added four points to our score. During the whole period Susquehanna scored but three points and those on foul tosses by Swope, who had nine chances to turn the trick. After "Shaf" had caged two, Coach Cockill began making substitutions and it was but a short time before every Varsity man had left the floor in favor of the Scrubs, who showed their class by scoring seven more points before the game was ended.

Although Susquehanna appeared woefully weak at times, the Varsity must be given every credit for the victory. Their playing in every phase of the game, was the particular features of the contest. "Mal" Musser, who, besides scoring five goals from field, held the veteran Swope scoreless, and Schaffner were Bucknell's stars, while "Tony" Murray, after being out of the game for several weeks, came back strong.

WINTER CARNIVAL TO BE HELD AT DARTMOUTH

COLLEGE MEN WILL COMPETE IN A SKI AND SNOW-SHOE MEET.

The Dartmouth Outing Club will hold its Seventh Annual Winter Carnival at Hanover, New Hampshire, February 10-12, inclusive. The winter carnival this year as last will include an intercollegiate ski and snow-shoe meet.

The purpose of this gathering is rather to give impetus to the movement for outdoor sport in American and Canadian colleges by means of friendly co-operation rather than merely to conduct an intercollegiate competition. Last year seven colleges and universities participated in the Winter Carnival events; this year a much larger attendance is expected.

The carnival this year as planned by the club will eclipse any affair of the sort yet undertaken on this side of the Atlantic. The Carnival will be subsidized by endowment, thereby making possible the proper attention to all details.

As was the case last year, the feature of the festivities will be an intercollegiate ski and snowshoe meet, comprising a varied program of dashes and cross country runs for both skiman and snowshoer, and a ski-jumping contest. Prizes will be offered by the club for winners in all events.

Students in any American or Canadian college or university are invited to compete, and it is particularly hoped that teams of several men will be able to represent their institution. All competitors will be considered the guests of the club during their stay in Hanover, receiving board and lodging, and also complimentary tickets to all carnival affairs. The only expense incident to competing in the meet will be the fare to and from Hanover.

In addition to the out-door events, a program of various social and athletic functions has been arranged which includes performances by the Dartmouth Dramatic Association and the Dartmouth Musical Clubs, the Carnival Ball, a supper dance, an international hockey game with the University of Bishops College, and a basket-ball game with Yale. The festivities begin with the supper dance at six o'clock Thursday, February 10, and close Saturday night with the concert. The ski and snowshoe events will be held on the afternoons of Friday and Saturday, February 11 and 12.

WESTON SMITH, '13, SPEAKS TO PROHIBITION LEAGUE

LEAGUE PLACES COMMITTEE IN CHARGE OF ORATORICAL CONTEST.

Mr. Weston Smith, '13, addressed the Bucknell Prohibition League in Bucknell Hall, Tuesday afternoon. He told the league of some of the actual demonstrations of the effect of alcohol upon the bodily tissues which he had witnessed.

At the business meeting of the association a committee was appointed to take charge of the local oratorical contest. Mr. Robert Neal was named as chairman, with Miss Jones and Mr. Eugene Duffee as assistants. The contest will probably be held some time in March.

"By" Dickson, Bucknell's former coach has been chosen assistant to "Bob" Folwell at Penn.

ATHLETIC REFORM NOW IN SIGHT

HEADS OF 41 COLLEGES FAVOR SUCH A MOVE

Committee Appointed to Investigate Migration of Athletes For Athletic Gain.—Suggests That Colleges In Pennsylvania Adopt One-Year Rule.

At the annual session of the College Presidents' Association held at the University of Pennsylvania on Friday, Jan. 28, the presidents of 41 colleges or their personal representatives, denounced the migration of athletes from one college to another purely for the purpose of athletic gain. They suggested drastic reforms and appointed a committee to investigate and report on the situation.

The committee appointed to investigate was composed of Dr. J. W. A. Haas, Muhlenberg College; Dr. Edwin E. Sparks, State College; Dr. William A. Granville, Gettysburg; Dr. Isaac Sharpless, Haverford, and Dr. S. B. Lenhart, University of Pittsburgh.

At a conference in the evening this committee adopted a resolution suggesting that all colleges in the state adopt the anti-migration rule requiring that athletes entering one college from another of equal rank be required to reside one year before participating in athletics, and second, that no scholarships should be granted to athletes as a reward for their athletic ability alone.

Some of those who spoke during the progress of the meeting were Dr. E. E. Sparks, Dr. William A. Granville, Provost Edgar E. Smith, of the University of Pennsylvania and President Haas ,of Muhlenberg.

The keynote of discussion in all of these addresses was to make study more important to the college man than play. Play should be for recreation, its originally intended purpose, not for personal glorification at the expense of educational work.

WEST MEETINGS STIR COLLEGE

LAST OF SERIES HELD ON THURS. EVENING.

SPLENDID ATTENDANCE AT EACH GATHERING

Y. M. C. A. Well Pleased With Results of Five-Day Consideration of Life Problems.—Dr. West Refuses to Take Any Remuneration.

Dr. West with a plain, direct, talk brought to a close on Thursday evening the series of meeting held under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A. started last Sunday afternoon, the 23rd. All expectations were surpassed by the manner in which Dr. West gripped the hearts of his listeners at each gathering in which he was the central figure.

The chapel was comfortably filled each night he spoke; the average attendance being placed at 250. Splendid attention was paid on every hand.

During his stay Dr. West was on the move every minute addressing different classes, meeting various fraternity groups, "Hill" organizations, and conferring with individuals in his room in West College. At the request of the Woman's College Dr. West addressed the young ladies on three different occasions preparatory to his address in the evening to young men.

Had he been able to continue his work for a week longer it is generally felt that the results of his work would have been far greater. However, his work in New Jersey was imperative in its demands and Dr. West was compelled to leave. The effects of the meetings may not show themselves immediately, but the seed which was sown will inevitably break forth into blossom.

As a mark of appreciation for his services a collection is being taken among all the students which will be given to the Baptist Convention of New Jersey by whom Dr. West is employed as secretary. Dr. West himself refused to receive any remuneration outside of his traveling expenses and the cabinet decided at the close of the Thursday evening meeting to show its appreciation by donating their subscriptions to the Baptist Convention who so graciously released Dr. West to labor at Bucknell.

Following the Sunday meetings the next meeting at which Dr. West spoke to the students in general was held on Monday evening. The Hall was filled with fellows who, having heard Dr. West or heard of his ability on Sunday, turned out to hear some more of his valuable suggestions. The reading and prayer having been given by Weston Smith, '13, Dr. West took charge of the meeting and spoke on "A Human Necessity." He explained how we must be born anew; not over again, but anew. The new birth is to be just a normal change of attitude towards life and our fellowmen as the result of learning to see the reality of the spiritual life as well as of the material life. "You're going to be born this time because you wish it—not mechanically, but volitionally." So the birth anew is of our own choice. Dr. West drove home the fact that "You can be born anew with the same naturalness as you were raised from the protection of your mother." We are bound to realize the superiority of the spiritual life for "the inner voice of conscience tells you that beyond the hills of matter is something greater." The speaker also showed that the acceptance of Christ, the birth anew is necessary to the realization of God. "Don't marvel, if you refuse Christ, that God remains a mystery unsolved."

The Tuesday night meeting was as well attended as that on Monday night and all were interested in the concrete address that Dr. West gave. Taking as the subject of his discussion, the words of Jesus regarding the last judgment for those who serve him and those who serve him not;

HOOTING.

The unsportsmanlike act of hooting an opposing foul shooter while he is attempting to tally a point for his team from the 15 foot mark, cropped out again in the Susquehanna game, on Friday evening. Twice on that evening was the unfairness of such an action brought to our attention; first by the occurrence of the yells themselves intended to unnerve the opposing player, and again by the remonstrance made by the Susquehanna manager himself.

Visiting teams work under enough disadvantage let alone being encumbered unfairly by diverting cat-calls and yells emitted at a time when they should be restrained. When the home foul-tosser toes the mark on an attempt to convert a foul into a point, due respect is shown him in the silence which persists while he is tossing the sphere into the basket. The fact that this is done tends to show that the one shooting fouls is enabled to do his best under such circumstances. Because of this, one's sense of fair play should come to the fore to prompt him to give the opponent a like show to make his point.

Such actions should and can easily be discouraged if only a few will plainly make known their disapproval of them. Even under the stress of great excitement let us always have fair play uppermost in our minds.

MOVIES AND COLLARS SOAR.

Fussers at Bucknell are a hard hit class just now and without a doubt will soon be a hard-up clan because of a raise in price of certain articles of dress and diversions intimitately connected with their activities.

A supreme requisite in the toilet of every devotee of the fussing cause is that he wear an immaculate collar. An occasional requisite of this social practice is that the fusser ask the one fussed to sit with him thru an hour or two of silent drama at the Orpheum. To acquire the effect produced by a pure neck-band and to enjoy the movies it has cost the gallant heretofore just 22 cents; but things have changed. The laundryman after February 7 will extract 3 cents for every cleansed collar and already the movie magnates have raised their admission 5 cents per capita for seats in "Fusser's Haven." This means that the fusser will be compelled to part with an additional copper and jitney each time he sallies out for the Sem from now on.

In your dire distress we can but recommend several subterfuges. Try a rubber collar, or reverse English on your linen one. Pluck up courage to face the movie manager with a personal remonstrance. Wait till the spring term, when walks to (and by) the red schoolhouse eliminate desires for movies and permit of the donning of soft collars.

Considerable interest in debating has been aroused among the students of Dickinson College. A schedule including State College, Franklin & Marshall, Juniata and University of Pittsburgh has been arranged for the debating team.

WOMEN HEAR DR. WEST

SPEAKS AT WOMEN'S COLLEGE ON WED. AND THURS.

On Tuesday evening after hearing Dr. West a committee composed of cabinet girls and cabinet members asked Dr. West to have a short series of meetings with the girls. Owing to several important engagements he was unable to stay longer than Thursday, but kindly agreed to speak to the girls on Wednesday and Thursday evenings before addressing the men.

On Wednesday evening Dr. Phillips opened the meeting and explained the purpose of the cards given out, following which Dr. West spoke on the debt women owe Jesus Christ. He portrayed womanhood in lands that do not know Christ and then in Christian lands, closing with an appeal for the girls to realize their debt and endeavor in some way, the best way they know how, to pay it. Cards were then passed around and collected by the committee later in the evening.

On Thursday evening Dr. Phillips again took charge of the opening exercises and Dr. West spoke to the girls on "Betrayal and Its Price." He spoke of the different ways in which girls deceive their parents and then when they have gone away the inadequacy of the price. In closing he said, "Now is the time to start to live up to your ideals, not some later day. Louise Hahn sang "The King of Love My Shepherd Is." Dr. Phillips dismissed the meeting with a benediction. It is felt at the Women's College that some have received great good from these meetings and all have received some good. Over 100 cards were signed and handed into the president.

COACH VISITS FRANKLIN FIELD.

Coach George Johnson, of Bucknell, paid a visit to Franklin Field Friday afternoon. He is trying to arrange a game with the red and blue eleven for the Saturday before the Cornell game. Although Johnson has a hard schedule, he would like very much if the officials at Penn would give his team a game. Johnson is an old Penn star, playing substitute to Vince Stevenson. Later he coached Northeast High School for six years, having one of the best schoolboy elevens in the east.—North American.

COCKILL AFTER MANAGERSHIP.

News comes to Bucknell thru the columns of the Harrisburg Star-Independent that Cockill's efforts to return to the Capitol City as manager of the baseball team which hopes to secure a New York State League franchise, are looked upon with much favor in Harrisburg. George has placed two pennant flags in Harrisburg and the people in that section pin their faith on and swear by the popular Bucknell coach. Success to yuh! Coach.

FRESHMAN ORATORY.

On account of the large number of excellent speakers in the Freshman class a second preliminary contest has been arranged. The men finally selected will enter a declamation contest in the Spring term.

INTER-CLASS GAMES.

The inter-class schedule in all probability will be announced the early part of this week.

INTERCOLLEGIATE NOTES

A course in Classical Archaeology will be introduced at Franklin and Marshall next semester. This year's course will include the study of Greek Art and Civilization.

The latest candidate for football coach at Muhlenberg is Harry A. (Haps) Benfer, who for the last four years kept Albright in the athletic spot-light.

Hastings and DeHart; two stars on Pittsburgh's 1915 eleven, have taken an active interest in the Y. M. C. A. work of the Smoky City. Their talks to high school students on "Clean Living" have had a wholesome influence on these students. Both athletes have charge of a boys' club in the city.

WEST MEETINGS

Mr. West spoke on "The Centre of Interest Changed." He spoke about changing the centre of interest from things to men and showed the meaning of life and its possibilities. "It's what you do with your life that settles your eternal destiny." "If Christ can't change your centre of interest from things to men, He's not going to bother with anything else." The speaker showed how this transfer of interest is the centre of moral life. After the change of the centre of interest from things to men our lives will be lives to our fellowmen. "Face the proposition!" cried Dr. West with an earnest challenge that went home. "If you turn your back on the proposition, God will turn his back on you."

"Have Confidence in God," was the theme of Wednesday night's address. "Without faith," said Dr. West, "you look fine till you get a load on; and then you go to the devil." Faith isn't just cold belief in the truth of Christianity, it's confidence in God as a greater, more powerful One. Just as the engineer to be successful in his bridge building must "have confidence not in self, but in the strength of materials and the stability of physical arrangements in nature;" so we "to live the higher life, must have confidence in God." "You can do things just as big as yourself if you have confidence just in yourself; but if you have confidence in something bigger than yourself you can do things greater than yourself." The concrete illustration of the man whose life had been lived without confidence in God and who said "When I was in college I had great ideals, great emotions, great ambitions; but I've not done anything after all," was very pertinent. But in conclusion Dr. West said "Do things you need to do for yourself before you do things for the world. You know you've been licked by temptation. You've been up against something that's bigger than yourself and it says 'Come along!' and you go. You can't stand with indifference to Jesus Christ and win that victory. And so, for the mastery that you covet, for the power that you crave; build upon the assumption that God will put power into you if you have confidence in Him."

The last address, on "Our Many Sins," was a very powerful address, which was directed against the three arguments of the college student to support his sinfulness. First in regard to the necessity of "a good time" the speaker said, "If you think you need 'a good time,' you're a liar." Against the second plea he sent this arrow: "If you think that you can keep a ledger of virtue and vice and say 'My virtues balance my sins' you are gravely mistaken." The third plea, that of the idea of having 'a good time' at college and then settling down, was answered when he said "If you sow wild oats you're bound to reap the crop." But in conclusion he spoke of the forgiveness of sins. "Forgiveness of sins isn't just cleaning the slate, but it's giving your strength for the next trial; and only God can forgive like that." "Would you rather be altogether right or like an apple that is good on one side and rotten on the other? Remember Christ can make you whole."

STATE Y. M. C. A'S. TO MEET AT READING

CONVENTION WILL BEGIN ON FEB. 17 AND LAST UNTIL FEB. 20.

The forty-eighth annual convention of the Young Men's Christian Associations of Pennsylvania will be held at Reading from February 17 to 20 inclusive. The convention will open at 4 p. m. on Feb. 17.

The general theme of the convention will be "The Church Program for Safeguarding the Manhood of Pennsylvania." This will bring into discussion such organizations as Brotherhoods, Sunday school Older Boy's Bible Classes, Men's Bible Classes and Federated Movements and lastly the Young Men's Christian Association.

Some of the speakers at this gathering will be Fred B. Shipp, Metropolitan Secretary of the Y. M. C. A. in Pittsburgh; Charles R. Erdman, D. D., Professor of New Testament Literature, Princeton Theological Seminary; Dr. George J. Fisher, Secretary Physical Department, International Y. M. C. A. New York and others of equal note.

Y. W. C. A.

The first of a series of three talks by Dr. West took the place of the regular Y. W. C. A. service. A beautiful opening anthem was sung by the choir. The scripture lesson and the opening prayer given by Dr. Phillips were followed by a well rendered duet sung by Ruth Williams, '16, and Helen Brown, '17. Dr. West spoke with directness and force. He took as his subject the passage teaching, "Martha, You Are Wrong; Mary, You Are Right."

He strikingly pictured this world likened to a great house—the house of God. Why there should be things of harm and hurt in this world he said, we do not know, but neither, for instance, does the child of six know the wherefore of a razor or a coolstove in any household—articles of use in one way and harm in another. God's purpose is in and thru all. We should trust Him.

Dr. West has reached strong convictions after years of rich experience and earnest endeavor and, as he has said, it is to save from the sin, the degradation and torture of the present brought about by willfulness, negligence or ignorance that his works are directed.

BIBLE CLASS

In the opening words of his talk before the Bible Class on Sunday Dr. Harris explained a question concerning the Judgement. Taking as a basis for his belief two passages of the Bible in which Jesus said, "He who is not with me is against me," and "For judgement I am come," the president explained the theory which he holds.

The Judgement, he said, is a perpetual progress. Some are drawn in this progress to the left, others to the right. Jesus stands as an attractive force, to whom those choosing the right path are drawn. The choice of which road to take is entirely volitional and those who choose the left do so of their own free will.

The rest of the Sunday morning address was taken up with a discussion of the liquor question as found in wards. Dr. Harris first spoke of the Arkansas Ward Law in regards to a bar. In Arkansas if a majority of the white voters declare themselves for a bar it is granted. However, quite different from the situation in Pennsylvania, those who do not vote in such an issue are counted as against the proposition. In Pennsylvania such a neutral position can not be assumed as the non-voters are counted as in favor of the proposition The speaker then proceeded to show that the legal basis for a remonstrance which would spell defeat for the liquor problem in Lewisburg reposes in the North Ward.

Next Sunday Dr. Harris will address the class on the subject of "Preparedness."

Coach George McCan has resigned as football coach and physical trainer at Muhlenberg College. It has been decided to separate these departments and a separate coach for each will be engaged in the near future.

Varsity Playing Wonderful Game Makes Clean Sweep on the Three-Game Trip

MOST SUCCESSFUL TRIP IN YEARS FOR O. AND B.

URSINUS, MUHLENBERG AND ALBRIGHT FALL VICTIMS

Every Member of Team Stars On the Remarkable Foreign Invasion.—Albright Beaten for First Time in Four Years.

With an overwhelming victory over "Benferless" Albright on Saturday night the Varsity brought to a triumphal close one of the most successful athletic trips ever taken by an Orange and Blue team. In three games in as many nights Cockill's invincibles came out victors in rapid succession over Ursinus, Muhlenberg and Albright by the respective scores of 31-12, 35-32 and 44-30.

The team's work on this remarkable trip abroad was nothing short of wonderful. Excelling in every department of the floor sport the Varsity was able to gain clean-cut and deceisive victories over all three of its opponents. Its passing was a pretty exhibition of skill in this pnase of the game and completely bewildered those who tried to break it up.

Forty field goals fairly well distributed among the whole team demonstrates how well-fixed their eye was glued on the basket. From the 15 foot mark Garner had a good edge on his rival in each encounter. Exhibiting such a clever scoring, close guarding and smooth floor working combination the Orange and Blue looked nifty in every battle of its great conquest.

Another unique feature of the trip was the fact that there were no substitutions for the Varsity on the whole trip; Garner, Murray, Musser, Schaffner and Boyles playing every minute of the three games.

Ursinus Game.

Playing championship ball the Orange and Blue opened up its three-game trip, including Ursinus, Muhlenberg and Albright, with a brilliant victory over the Ursinus squad by the score of 31-12.

At no time during the contest did the tossers from Bucknell have any appearance other than that of a winner. Their passing was excellent, of a smooth nature which made them look like big league stuff. In their shooting also they were equally as good and found the basket with many well directed shots which brought forth much applause.

The first half ended 12-3 in favor of the Orange and Blue principally thru the splendid work of "Scow" Garner, ably supposted by a goal from each of his team-mates. "Scow" scored 8 of the twelve points tallied during this period.

Ursinus in the first 20 minutes of play was guarded so closely that their field goal column was vacant when the referee's whistle blew for the half time breathing spell.

In the second half Ursinus started off with a rush scoring four times before the Varsity got on its scoring stride again. Then Shaffner "got going" and there was nothing in the Ursinus line-up able to stop him. Five field goals in this period were the results of "Schafs" garrison finish. Boyles, "Schaf's" fellow-guard, with another ringer in this half demonstrated that Bucknell's scoring strength is well distributed throughout its entire line-up. Various substitutions were made by Ursinus in the second half, but the Varsity was never in the slightest danger of being headed.

The score:

Bucknell		Ursinus
Garner	forward.	Light
Murray	forward.	Wiest
Musser	centre.	Kerr (Will)
Shaffner	guard.	Schaub
Boyles	guard.	Will (Adams) (Hayne)

Field goals: Bucknell, Garner 2, Murray, Musser, Schaffner 6, Boyles 2; Ursinus, Light 2, Adams. Foul goals: Garner 6 out of 13; Light 6 out of 12. Substitutions: Ursinus, Adams for Will, Will for Kerr, Hayne for Adams. Referee, Brolaw, U. of P. Time of halves: 30 minutes.

Muhlenberg Game.

The game at Allentown resulting in the second victory, 35-32, on Friday evening with Muhlenberg was the closest, the best played and hardest fought of the whole trip. It was staged on the gym floor of the new Allentown Preparatory School building and was witnessed by a large crowd.

The first half ended with both teams deadlocked in an 18-18 tie. The opening stanza of this game was marked by splendid passing by both sides. Garner was the big Orange and Blue performer in this portion of the game, his four field goals being of the sensational type. At one time the Varsity drew away from the Muhlenbergers by three points lead by the score of 14-11; but good work by Afflerbach and Ritter reduced this advantage to the tie which resulted at the close of the first half.

At the start of the second half Ritter, taking Gaston's place at the 15 foot mark tossed in a couple of fouls, putting his team-mates in the lead. The Varsity soon caught this lead thru Garner's and Musser's clean shots and from then on until the final whistle the contest grew faster and more furious. As the battle grew warmer the guarding of Boyles was exceptionally noticeable, the freshman member of the squad coming out of scrimmages under his basket with the ball repeatedly. With the score tied and six minutes to go the Varsity put forth its best effort. Murray, with the best shot of the game dropped a basket in from the centre of the floor which Schaffner, in a minute or two, followed up with a "bat-in" from the side of the basket. Ritter, however, kept his team close with a couple of overhead shots which were especially fine. With a three point lead to their credit the Varsity in the final minute of play kept the ball from their opponents with some excellent passing and the game was clinched.

The playing of Garner, Boyles and Schaffner were the features of this, the feature game of the trip. Ritter starred for Muhlenberg.

Bucknell		Muhlenberg
Garner	forward.	Afflerbach
Murray	forward.	Witmer
Musser	centre.	Ritter
Schaffner	guard.	Gaston
Boyles	guard.	Fitzgerald

Field goals: Bucknell, Garner 5, Murray 2, Musser 3, Schaffner 4. Muhlenberg, Afflerbach 3, Witmer 2, Ritter 7. Foul goals: Garner 7 out of 15; Witmer 0 out of 3, Ritter 4 out of 4, Gaston 4 out of 10. Referee: Mitchell.

Albright Game.

In the last game of the trip Albright was towed into camp by the score of 44-30, the first time in 4 years that the Myerstown team has been beaten on its own floor. The Varsity had little trouble in disposing of the team which had up until this time won 7 straight games from the Orange and Blue.

In the wind-up contest Musser and Garner played a ripping game, raining the basket for 38 of the team's score of 44. Some of "Scow's" shots from field, especially in the second half, were of a circus type, while from the foul line his aim was just as good, the Orange and Blue forward bagging 16 out of 24 tries. Musser was the big star of the evening, cashing in 7 big juicy baskets, five

STUDENTS HEAR DR. SCHAEFFER

GIVES EXCELLENT ADDRESS IN BIBLE CLASS

LARGE AUDIENCE PRESENT AT SUNDAY SERVICE

Speaks on "The Bible As a Foundation for Ethical Instruction."—Also Touches on Moral Side of Preparedness.

A large crowd of students attended the Bible Class yesterday morning to hear an interesting and eloquent address by Dr. Schaffer, the Superintendent of Instruction in Pennsylvania. The main topic of the address was "The Bible As a Foundation For Ethical Instruction;" though he spoke for a few moments at the end on the moral side of the preparedness question.

He opened his discussion by asking the question, "Why is not the reading a portion of the Bible each day sufficient for moral training?" The answer was threefold. First: the Bible is very often used wrongly by those who do not seek the ethical instruction it affords, or by those who confound the moral instruction with instruction in Bible knowledge. Some teachers make their pupils learn the number of the chapters in a certain book and the number of verses in the chapters. This is simply Bible knowledge and does not help us in our moral problems, especially since the division of the chapters into verses was the invention of a man who made the division to help him in concordance work.

Again, there are in the Bible certain portions of Scripture which do not have any ethical value. Stress should not be laid on these parts; but should be directed to those portions which contain valuable ethical instruction.

The teaching of the Bible should be supplemented by other instruction. For instance the literature of the ages contains much material of great moral value. But the best of all the books of literature is the Bible which contains ethical instruction of greater quantity and quality than any other book. Ethical teachings can be taken from its precepts of which so many are found in the Proverbs. These precepts, recalled at the moment of temptation, often save the tempted one; the youth tempted to tell a lie may be saved by the proverb; "Buy the truth and sell it not." In the characters of the Bible we find valuable fields for study along ethical lines. The life of Daniel presents a powerful example of a good life and one which we will do well to study. In the New Testament we come to Christ, the perfect example. His life is commended on the witness of the three sources of character-testing—friends, enemies and disinterested people. Christ's life was commended by the words of his friend Peter, who said that He "Did no sin nor was guile found in his mouth." The testimony of his enemies who, as exemplified in Judas found no accusation upon which to arrest Him and again commends His life. Then Pontius Pilate, who was disinterested in Jesus' quarrel with the Jews, said "I find no fault in this man;" and the centurion at the temple when the curtain was

On Saturday evening, February 5, at their house on the corner of Seventh and Walker Streets, Delta Theta Upsilon entertained Pi Beta Phi. Following a novel get acquainted scheme, a unique guessing contest was held, the prize for which was won by Miss Amanda Whitaker. Cards were the chief diversion. During the evening, Miss Camilla Reed favored those assembled with a number of beautiful violin selections. FRESHIES CAPTURE OPENER IN INTER-CLASS LEAGUE

DEFEAT SENIORS BY THE SCORE OF 64-17 ON FRIDAY EVENING.

In the first of the inter-class games, the Seniors were humbled by the lowly Freshmen on Friday evening by the score of 64-17. At no time during the contest did the Seniors have a chance, being completely outclassed from start to finish. The Freshmen team played well throughout and demonstrated that they will be a sure contender for the school championship. The work of Martin and Mangin deserves mention for the Freshmen, while Atchison did the Senior's best playing.

Davenport	forward.	Heinrich
Atchison	forward.	Mangin

Nancarrow	guard.	Williams
Miller	guard.	Gerhart

THAT TRIP.

The Hill was surprised beyond measure, and agreeably so, upon picking up the Sunday sporting columns to find where the Varsity had made a clean sweep of the three games in which it participated last week.

The feat, as far as we have been able to gather, is one which few Orange and Blue basketball teams have ever attained. At least the present generation of students cannot remember the time when such glad news ever came to their ears. It is a feat of which the victorious squad may well be proud for its consistent work in all the games on its recent strenuous trip was a pretty sight to behold.

With five games in the "Won" column and but two in the "Lost" division the season in basketball has taken a very successful aspect. Everybody out to Susquehanna on Saturday night to help boost the "Won" column to six.

Mission study was observed during the last Y. W. C. A. service. rent in twain said, "Surely this is a righteous man." The lives of such men as Jesus and Daniel give us real examples of the ethical and moral life.

In conclusion the speaker said that ethical knowledge goes below the level of the intellect to the heart "out of which are the issues of life. Such knowledge will bring forth truth which in speech is veracity and in action is honesty and uprightness. People whose lives are founded on truth are what our country needs. If we are to be prepared in the proper way the national life must be grounded in truth, justice and righteousness."

Next Sunday morning the class will be addressed by Dr. Becht of the Department of Instruction, and it is hoped that as large or even a larger number will come out to take advantage of this second opportunity of hearing an address by one who speaks from knowledge and experience.

Report of the Advisory Committee of University Presidents on the Summer Military Instruction Camps For Students

November 17, 1915.

These camps have now been in operation for three successive summers. In their growth and admirable management during the past two summers of 1914 and 1915, they have more than fulfilled the expectations of those endorsing them, based on the first year's experience in the summer of 1913. The camps of 1913 and 1914 were held before the breaking out of the great war abroad, which has brought into greater prominence than before their value to the nation.

We repeat the hearty endorsement given in our reports on the camps held in 1913 and 1914. This year they were visited by a number of the members of our committee, and the committee as a whole has given attention and thought to their educational usefulness in the summer season.

The students attending are under careful oversight. The excellence of food, sanitation, and medical care, has been well maintained. The students have an ideal five weeks outing, pleasurable and beneficial to them; and the instruction, drill, cavalry exercises, field manoeuvers, field surveying and field work generally, give them in the continuous five weeks training, an insight into military matters. They are in addition to this regular work, given ample time for recreation and rest.

We commend the camps to the authorities and students of the Universities and Colleges of the country. We believe that the training and instruction which the students attending receive not only emphasize the dangers and losses of wars lightly and unpreparedly entered into, but we also believe that the training given is excellent, and a great benefit, mental and physical, to the students attending.

STUDENT VOLUNTEERS ARE VERY ACTIVE

TAKE IN NEW MEMBERS AND MEET AT THE HOME OF DR. STEPHENS.

On Friday evening they met informally in the home of Dr. Stevens, where, with other students they were entertained and spiritually benefited with talks by Mrs. Leslie and Dr. Stevens.

After the meeting had been opened with Scripture reading by the president, Duffee, '19, and with prayer by Shoemaker, '18, and several hymns had been sung, Mrs. Leslie told the latest news from her field and expressed her joy in the splendid and almost incredibly good results of the mission work there. Dr. Stevens, then, enjoined effectively on the group a serious and prayerful consideration of the various temptations and trials that are likely to beset the pathway of any Christian worker, especially in missionary activities. His talk was appropriately climaxed by a recital and representation of the rewards that await those who are approved of God. After a brief prayer by Dr. Stevens, the company entered upon the more informal part of the evening. General conversation and the reading of ancedotes were indulged in and light refreshments served, after which the Student Volunteers and their friend bade "Good-Night."

Those that met with the "Band" are: Misses Superka, '16, Beatty, '18, Mattern, '18, and Stevens, '18, and Messrs. Neil, '18, and Cloward, '18.

VARSITY VS. SUSQUEHANNA.

When the Varsity starts for Susquehanna on Saturday night it is hoped that a goodly representation from the "Hill" will accompany them. The Varsity has struck a winning stride and will doubtless come thru with a win at Selinsgrove when they line up against the Kelchner quintet. Cockill's squad pulled thru a hard trip without the aid of a cheer last week and the students should see that they are not lacking in this respect when they play Susquehanna.

NEW INTEREST SHOWN IN DEBATING

DEBATING BOARD ELECTED LAST WEEK BY INTERESTED STUDENTS.

Students interested in debating met together last week and elected a Debating Board to take charge of debating activities, and arrange if possible for contests with other colleges. The following officers were elected to serve in this capacity: President, Herman F. Reich, '17; Vice President, Francis J. Beckley, '18; Secretary, George W. Potter, '17; Treasurer, Harold A. Beers, '17.

Considerable interest has been shown in debating of late and a large number of students have expressed trials. In former years Bucknell has always been represented by a first-class team, and many interesting debates have been held both here and at other schools. If the interest shown at the present time keeps up, Bucknell should be represented by a team which will compare favorably with the teams of other years. All students who have any talent along this line or are interested in debating work are urged to come out for the try-outs.

The try-outs will be held some time during this week. Watch the bulletin board for the notice and come out and support those who have been working to form a successful debating team at Bucknell. Prof. Fries has been negotiating with several other colleges, and in all probability several contests will be staged either during this or next term.

State College has prospects for a good wrestling team again this year. Levi Lamb's place in the heavyweight class will be filled by Zarney, a football star of the past season.

BUCKNELL WINS THREE GAMES

of which came in the second half. "Mal's" shots were exceptional also, most of them dropping in from difficult angles. One of the lanky centre's shots, caged by a quick side movement while on the dead run, even brought from Coach Kelchner a "you won't see them any better." Murray's passing was above the ordinary as was the guarding of Schaffner and Boyles.

The first half neded 19-12 in favor of the Varsity, whose lead throughout this period, because of "Scow's" foulshooting, was never in dispute. At the close of the first period Captain Zinn, of Albright, was severely injured in a scrimmage under the Orange and Blue basket and had to be carried from the floor.

With the beginning of the second half the Varsity gradually edged away from Albright, who showed flashes of rally several times, and doubled the margin it had over the Myerstown quintet at the end of the first half.

The score:

Bucknell		Albright
Garner	forward.	Hartzler
Murray	forward.	Zinn (Henry)
Musser	centre.	Yost
Schaffner	guard.	Hoffman
Boyles	guard.	Walmer

Goals from field: Bucknell, Garner 4, Murray 2, Musser 7, Schaffner. Albright, Hartzler 4, Yost, Hoffman 2, Walmer 2, Henry 2. Foul goals: Garner 16 out of 24, Hartzler 0 out of 2, Zinn 4 out of 11, Hoffman 4 out of 9. Substitutions: Albright, Henry for Zinn, Greenough. Referee: White, of Steelton.

President Harris presented a set of Encyclopedia Britannica to the Woman's College. These volumes will be placed in the Dean's office for the use of the students. Dr. Harris' gift is very much appreciated by the girls and will find much use for reference work. A vote of thanks was extended to Dr. Harris at the Student Government meeting.

Student Government Meeting.

Wednesday evening at seven-thirty the members of the Woman's Student Government Association met in the school room. The theme of the meeting was "Individual Responsibility." The meeting was lively with discussions as to how Student Government could be secused. A committee to encourage athletics was appointed by the President, Dorothy Bunnell. The girls are hoping to have a hockey team and also to have inter-class volley ball. The girls sang many of the college songs and each member of the Association was impressed with the slogan, "Remember that at all times you represent Bucknell."

INTERCOLLEGIATE

Wesleyan University students Jan. 31 voted to abolish the historic "cannon scrap," which has been an annual affair between the freshmen and sophomores for half a century. While there has been occasional opposition to the scrap, on account of danger to the participants, the objection did not take definite form until the fatal outcome of the recent bowl fight among University of Pennsylvania students. The scrap has been held at midnight preceding Washington's Birthday, the freshmen endeavoring to bring the old Douglas cannon upon the campus against the efforts of the sophomores. If the gun was held on the campus for a given time without being spiked, the freshmen were allowed to fire a salute and to carry class canes.

"Tad" Jones has signed a contract to coach the Yale football team for the next three years. Jones played a star game at quarterback on three consecutive elevens, being captain of the 1908 team. Since leaving school Jones has turned out winning elevens at Phillip's Exeter Academy. His choice as head coach meets with the popular approval of the students.

The rifle teams of Michigan Agricultural College, Massachusetts Agricultural College and Washington State College made perfect scores of 1000 last week in the intercollegiate rifle matches, held under the auspices of the National Rifle Association. Several other college teams almost equaled the perfect record of these three teams.

FIVE STRAIGHT FOR THE VARSITY

WINS AT SUSQUEHANNA BY SCORE OF 49-27.

GARNER AMASSES 33 OF TEAM'S POINTS

Cockill's Squad Now Traveling at a Fast Clip.—Whole Team Working As One Man Easily Defeats Susquehies for Second Time.

The Varsity proved conclusively, beyond all shadow of doubt, that their recent conquest of three straight victories was no "streak" when they trounced Susquehanna University's quintet, 49-27, on the latters own floor. This is the second time that the Orge and Blue has given the Selinsgrove team a good lacing this season; and after the manner in which the Susquehies have acted personally and thru the columns of their weekly paper, this second trouncing was exceptionally pleasing to Bucknellians.

Cockill's fast traveling group of tossers displayed better form than they have exhibited at any time this season and Susquehanna never had what might be termed a "look-in." They went after the down-river group with a dash right off the reel and when the first half was played were in the lead by 19 points, the tally sheet registering the count of 30-11.

Garner was the big man of the evening. "Scow" was here,there and everywhere, basketing 13 goals from field and caging seven one-pointers from the foul line.

With the first toss-up by referee Fluhrer Musser got the jump on Swoope and in a twinkling Garner had basketed Bucknell's first tally before Susquehanna had even awakened to the fact she was playing. Murray followed this first assault with a goal from deep centre which went thru the ring labelled a "daisy." Before two minutes of play were passed "Scow" came thru for the second time with another two pointer. Susquehanna was then put in the running when Shannon broke the ice for his team with one of the prettiest goals of the evening. Boyles, whose reputation as an All-American guard increases with each contest, then dribbled up the floor and added two more counts for his team-mates. "Scow," standing under the basket, raised the score two points and followed this soon with a beautiful side shot after receiving the ball from a lively scrimmage. Musser, outplaying "Red" Swoope once more next caged a one-hander upon receiving a pass from "Shaf" who had dribbled the length of the floor. The passing of Cockill's squad was great at this point, having the Susquehies completely non-plussed. Musser in a

THETA DELTA TAUS INITIATE ON SAT.

SOPHOMORE HONORARY FRATERNITY TAKES IN 11 NEW MEN.

The annual open initiation of the Sophomore Society Theta Delta Tau, was held on Saturday afternoon on Market Street and at the Orpheum. The initiation was concluded on Saturday evening at the Mansion House, Watsontown, where an excellent banquet was served to the active members of the organization.

In the parade, which traveled down Market to Sixth St., along St. George to Third and then back to Market, there were costumes, both comical and elaborate, in the extreme. After a few clever stunts given by the initiates in front of the postoffice, they were all taken over to the Orpheum where they demonstrated their theatrical abilities in closing the afternoon's fun.

At the banquet which was convened at 9:30 John A. Heberling presided as toastmaster. The following men were initiated: Thos A. Eshelman, R. Downing, A. L. Benton S. J. Peale, Walter Lees, S. D. Spotts, C. D. Maurer, M. C. Lewisson, E. G. Kase, M. M. Musser, and Daniel Steele.

DELTA THETA UPSILON ENTERTAINS TRI DELTA

On Saturday evening, February 12, Tri Delta was entertained by Delta Theta Upsilon at the D. T. U. House. Valentine cards played an important part in the get-acquainted scheme, and afforded much amusement. Two guessing contests followed, the prizes for which were won by Miss McGee and Miss Hawes. Cards were the chief diversion. Miss Mame Kreamer, of the School of Music, was chaperon for the occasion. At ten o'clock the Tri Delta's started on their homeward way, but slippery walking made their safe arrival doubtful.

SECOND CLASS GAME A VICTORY FOR SOPHS

SECOND-YEAR MEN WIN FAST CONTEST BY SCORE OF 32-23.

As further evidence of the interest which is being taken in the inter-class series, a fair-sized crowd saw the Sophomore quintet win a well-played game from the Juniors on Wednesday evening in the "gym" by the score of 32-23. The contest was exciting throughout and it was not until the final minutes of play that the victory was made certain by the Sophs.

The first half was a hummer with neither side being able to gain a safe lead. The Sophomores played a better passing game, and displayed the results of greater experience; but the stiff defence of the Juniors kept the score down to 16-13 at half time. Toward the latter part of the game, however, the Sophs began to do things and with four successive field goals soon enjoyed a comfortable lead. Substitutions within the last few minutes seemed to give the upperclassmen a new lease on life, and the final whistle broke up a rally which appeared promising for the Juniors.

DAVID P. LEAS DIES IN PHILA.

LOSS GREATLY FELT IN MANY INTERESTS.

BUCKNELL TRUSTEE PASSES AWAY FEBRUARY 9

Served As Treasurer of University For Many Years.—Dr. Harris Pays Tribute In Chapel Services On Thursday.—Burial on Saturday.

David Porter Leas, Bucknell trustee and devoted friend of all Bucknell interests, passed away at his home in Philadelphia, Wednesday, February 9, after a short illness. Mr. Leas graduated in the class of 1863, and since that time has worked unceasingly for Bucknell's advancement. As treasurer and trustee he proved to be vitally interested in all Bucknell problems, and ready to aid any movement toward Bucknell's betterment withliberal financial support. Every Bucknell alumnus and friend knows what the work of Mr. Leas has been to the college. The absence of his activities will be felt for years to come.

Mr. Leas was born on September 11, 1842, at Shirleysburg, Pa. After graduating from Bucknell in 1863 he attended Rochester Theological Seminary, from where he graduated in 1866. A year later he entered his father's business in the firm of Leas and McVitty, leather dealers of Philadelphia. His life work, however, was not wholly absorbed in his business, for besides his connections with Bucknell, he was actively engaged in the religious and educational work of Philadelphia, and as a well-known leader of the Baptist denomination. He served as trustee of Crozer Theological Seminary, President of the Pennsylvania State Baptist Convention, member of the Board of the American Baptist Publication Society, and President of the Baptist Social Union. In addition to his religious activities he took a prominent part in the social work of Philadelphia.

A Bucknell Commencement Week without Mr. Leas will seem very strange to those who are accustomed to coming back for that week. Mr. Leas was always a prominent figure at Commencement time, and his influence and pleasing personality will be greatly missed by his many friends.

THE LATE DAVID PORTER LEAS

'VARSITY OFF AGAIN.

The Varsity will take its second trip abroad this week when it will tackle Mt. St. Marys, Gettysburg and Lebanon Valley in the order named. This will be the last appearance on foreign floors for the Varsity as all the remaining games will be on the home floor.

The Forum basket-ball team proved to fast for the Wagner Club team last week in a game on the gym floor and won by the score of 40-11. Rogers, Williamson and Reed were heavy scorers for their team.

YOUNG, UNIQUE VIOLINIST COMING TO BUCKNELL

CAUSES THE BIRDS AND THE BEASTS TO RESPOND TO HIS MUSIC

Roy Young, a Missouri violinist, who has made a study of reproducing the voices of birds and animals upon his violin, played before the cages of various animals in the Philadelphia Zoological Gardens on the 4th of October, 1915. In every case Young succeeded in bringing the animals to the bars of their cages and succeeded in almost every instance in making them respond. Mr. Young uses a 1512 Duffonprugcar violin.—Philadelphia Inquirer.

Roy Young, said to be the world's greatest descriptive violinist, entertained an audience here on Friday evening with one of the finest, as well as one of the rarest violin recitals ever heard here. Mr. Young gave an intrepretation of classical numbers after what he termed the "Pagagini Style." The talented musician claims that Paganini composed and played his music after the manner of singing birds.

The virtuoso showed exceptional technique, rare and unrivaled by few world known artists. As a climax to his program, the violinist gave several selections imitating the wild canary, blue jay, woodthrush, etc. In the bird music he played a short strain of "Home Sweet Home," after the fashion "it might be sung" by each of the above mentioned birds.

The members of the Senior class of the high school, under whose auspices the concert was given, were so well pleased that they engaged Mr. Young for a return recital in May.

But recently in New York, Mr. R. Young created a sensation by playing his own accompaniment on the violin. He does not use a piano as an accompanying instrument at all.—Stroudsburg Daily Times, Jan. 22.

Mr. Roy Young will appear in Bucknell Hall on February 23, in the most wonderful and instructive violin recital ever given in Lewisburg. It will be entertaining for music lovers, educational for bird lovers and instructive to students of the physics department, as well as a charming evening for everyone. It is an opportunity that no student should miss, and that should attract many people from town. The admission is so small that no one can afford to miss the concert. The admission is 25 cents, in Bucknell Hall, February 23, 1916, at seven o'clock.

WILLIAMSPORT CLUB MEETS.

The members of the Williamsport Club held an important meeting on Thursday of last week. During the course of the meeting a constitution and by-laws were adopted, and a motion passed to have a photograph of the club taken and a cut placed in this year's L'Agenda. Plans were discussed for entertaining the Senior classes of Williamsport, South Williamsport High Schools and the Bucknell Alumni of these schools, some time during the Easter vacation. The members expressed themselves as heartily in favor of this plan, as well as willing to help in its success. The next meeting will take place on Thursday, Feb. 24 at 4:15 when further action in this direction will be taken.

GLEE CLUB TO VISIT STATE.

The Glee Club will take its first trip of the season when it will appear in a joint concert with the Penn State Glee Club on March 10 at State College.

"PREPAREDNESS" DR. HARRIS' THEME

DR. BECHT UNABLE TO ADDRESS CLASS

Detained at His Home on Account of Sickness.—President in Address Says He Will Offer Himself For Service if Necessary.

The speaker-to-be in the Bible Class for yesterday morning, Dr. Becht, was unable to come on account of illness; of which Dr. Harris was informed on Saturday night. A large number of students had come out to hear the President of the State Board of Education; and a good reception was awaiting the speaker. The students now look forward to a visit in the future when Dr. Becht recovers from his illness.

President Harris spoke on the live topic of "Preparedness" and interested his hearers with a clear analysis of this all-important problem.

"The people of Europe," said Dr. Harris, "envy our United States of America, and wish that theirs was a United States of Europe." The authority of our federal government over the several states lies in the power which lies belind the decesions of the Supreme Court. The weight of the demands of a Jackson, a Grant or a Taylor lies in the realization of the power by which those demands are backed. The weakness of China is simply her lack of power to enforce her claims in international relations.

Only when the crisis comes do people appreciate the importance of agitations. If someone had arisen and agitated the reservoir at Johnstown and secured its removal before the flood swept over the city little appreciation would have been manifested of the importance of the movement. But had the agitation failed and the flood resulted then people would have appreciated the moment of the question of removing the reservoir with its millions of gallons of water, which carried hundreds to their death. In the present state of world affairs the crisis has been reached in Europe and the agitation is on in America.

DR. GEORGE NASMYTH TO ADDRESS BIBLE CLASS

IS ONE OF THE FOREMOST YOUNG LEADERS IN AMERICAN PEACE MOVEMENT

Dr. George W. Nasmyth will address the College Bible Class on Sunday morning, the 20th. He will also speak to the students of the University and its friends at 3:00 P. M. in Bucknell Hall.

Dr. Nasmyth is one of the foremost leaders among the younger element in the American Peace Movement. While studying at Cornell he was largely instrumental in organizing Cosmopolitan Clubs in colleges and universities and they have already exerted a wide influence throughout America. He studied three years in the Universities of Berlin, Gottingen, Heidelberg, and Zurich and has visited the universities of twenty-two countries. No man has done more to develop an international student movement than is his rightful claim. As leader of the international student movement Dr. Nasmyth has been president of the National Association of Cosmopolitan Clubs and the International Federation of Students. He was president of the World Student Congress which met in the United States in 1913 and elected Director of the International Bureau of Students which he now holds. Dr. Nasmyth has recently visited all of the European nations, the Balkans and Turkey, and since the war has made a study of conditions in England and Germany. He has had many interesting discussions with leading statesmen and his personal experiences add interest to the conclusions which he has reached regarding the entire situation.

"LIVES OF GREAT MEN ALL REMIND US."

The departure from this world of David Porter Leas, '63, while keenly felt by all loyal sons and daughters of Bucknell, should serve to place vividly before the minds of us all principles of life which stamp men and women as truly great; and at the same time help us to inculcate those principles into our characters while the moulding process is most adaptable.

Loyalty to Bucknell was expressed in numerous ways by Mr. Leas. As to an exhibition of this trait of his character in the larger interests of the school the words spoken in the chapel services on Thursday morning serve admirably as proof. Down even into the smaller interests his loyalty was evident as much as in the greater interests, and to but mention the Y. M. C. A. shows another phase of Mr. Leas' loyalty.

With the clasp of the hand upon his diploma too often does the graduate allow his interest in his Alma Mater commence to dwindle and wane. As is found in the case of light decreasing as the square of the distance so it is too often with the interest and loyalty of the alumnus as he draws away from the surroundings in which the base for all his future lies. As in the case of our departed friend, loyalty in the form of influence, of financial aid, attendance at Commencements and at other periods of the school year, should never be allowed to become a forgotten thing.

To the student in college, this life reminds us to be at all times loyal to our school in all its phases even when the stress of criticism bears hard upon us; and that now is the time when the resolve to mean something to Bucknell as an alumnus should be taken.

COMMUNICATION.

To the Editor of the Bucknellian:

At the election of senior council men by the non-frats this past week, the "proxy" question again presented itself for solution: Is the "proxy" method of voting the best we can do? If so, the majority of students will also admit that under its present execution it is a mighty poor "best."

It is evident that any voting system to be good must aim:

1. To get the men to vote.
2. To allow the voter a large amount of privacy and freedom of thought while voting.
3. To eliminate all possibility of frauds or illegalities.

The "proxy" system does get men to vote, but let us consider it in relation to the other aims. Pardon my brevity, I mean merely to suggest lines of thought and action and not to make a plea.

Just how much freedom and privacy does a fellow have when the candidates themselves collect the votes, and, moreover, look on as the proxy is being written? Why not have some dis-interested person collect, or may not two call at the same time, one from each side?

It hurts to speak of frauds that are possible, leaving aside those that are actually executed. Though many of those possible may never be committed, it is well to attend to them now. Wisdom prompts us to build our dams before the flood comes.

Though multiple voting is due to carelessness in registering votes, it is the fault of the system in so far as it fosters carelessness by its loose or complex organization. The Proxy system here is in combination with Ballot at meetings. On account of this combination there is possibility, through careless registry, for a person to send in a proxy and vote at the meeting also. Do the tellers have time and opportunity in a meeting to attend to such a matter?

Votes may also be side-tracked. Let me illustrate, A. and B. are two competing candidates for an office. M is a voter who is thought to side with B and who can not attend the meeting. A procures a secret helper, X, who then calls on M, telling him that he is collecting proxy's and advises the election of B for certain good reasons. M makes his proxy in X's presence and probably under his gaze. X pockets it. The proxy may easily be destroyed and another written in its place. Just where is the rigidity of the Proxy system as we have it? Is it safe? It is well that we think of this, however, we may dislike to. That senior council which makes consideration of this and recommends to the organizations of the University such changes as may be needed will be worthy of high honor in the history of Bucknell.

A JUNIOR.

MINISTERIAL MEETING.

The first Ministerial Association meeting of the winter term was held on Wednesday, Feb. 9, in the Theta Alpha Hall. The work for the remaining part of the term was discussed with much vigor and interest. On Wednesday of this week at 4:15 in the same place, four members of the Association, Tilton, '16, Boswell, '18, Cooper, '18, and Boggess, '17, will read portions of scripture from Exodus, Mark, Romans and Philemon.

MECHANICAL ENGINEERS

The regular monthly meeting of the Bucknell Branch was held Monday evening, February 7. James gave a very interesting talk on "Scientific Management of Machine Shops," discussing the old and new methods and describing the process of transforming a shop under an old system into an efficient organization by new methods of management on a scientific basis. Kriner and Prof. Burpee also entered into the discussion.

DR. HARRIS ON PREPAREDNESS

We are fortunate in seeing the crisis and the agitation side by side. We must appreciate the importance of this national question before it is too late; for if we heed not the warning, then, according to the scripture upon which the discussion of the topic is based, "Our blood shall be upon our own heads."

Three stages of military preparedness are seen in history. First, the stage of absolute unpreparedness when the fate of the nation or tribe rested upon the success of a levy-en-masse. With this stage comes lack of organization with its accompanying disastrous loss of life Caesar tells us in his Commentary that out of 360,000 Helvetians who came out against the Romans only 90,000 survived.

The second stage is that of the professional standing army—the eyesore of the English who suffered oppression at the hands of the mercenaries. All the wars of modern European history have been brought on by rulers with the aid of their professional soldiers. This is the present American stage.

The last stage, which dates back to the French Revolution, is that in which the male population of the country receives a military education lasting from six months in Switzerland to three years in France. This system would be impossible in America.

We must in this question distinguish between justifiable homicide which is committed in defense of self and friends and of the weak; and unjustifiable homicide which is aggression. It is to be hoped that all will be ready to defend themselves and friends or they are worth very little.

In conclusion Dr. Harris said, "I hope that I am the president of an institution in which all the young will rise up when the call comes and offer themselves for service to go to fight for their country; and if necessary I'll go along."

WOMEN'S COLLEGE DEPARTMENT

Establish New Club.

Camp Fire established a Blue Bird Club for younger girls in town. This organization is a preparation for membership in Camp Fire. The purpose of the Blue Bird is somewhat similar to that of the Camp Fire, seeking mental, physical and spiritual development. Feathers are substituted for the Camp Fire beads; every feather is given as a reward for some deed of kindness or some achievement recorded by the guardian. All success to the Blue Birds.

State Law Applies to College Girls' Reception

The rigid enforcement of the State Law for the prevention of fire has made the College Girls' Reception Committee "sit up and take notice." Some plans must be made omitting any decoration that might cause fire. The girls realize the importance of these laws and want to carry them out to the letter.

DAVID PORTER LEAS

Realizing the work which Mr. Leas did for Bucknell, Doctor Harris paid him a fitting tribute when he said in chapel Thursday morning, "Whenever I wanted to go ahead with some movement for Bucknell's advantage, I always went to Mr. Leas first, and he never failed to lend his willing support. He gave not only the weight of his influence, but also his financial support to these projects."

Mr. Leas was always a generous contributor to the support of the Bucknell Y. M. C. A. In all his giving, however, he wished to keep himself in the background, not wishing for personal glory, but acting in accordance with his generous nature and from a genuine interest in men.

Bucknell's loss in Mr. Leas' death can not be properly estimated, and what is Bucknell's loss is only a part of the world's loss. Truly can it be said that he lived for others. The life work of David Porter Leas, educator, religious leader and true friend, will continue to live. He knew the meaning of true success.

He was buried on Saturday, his burial being attended by several from Bucknell.

ELOCUTION RECITAL.

A most interesting recital was given in the study hall of Women's College on February 11. Several of Miss Schillinger's pupils, including Miss Ora Smith, Mr. Beaver, Miss Dorothy Kanter, Miss Hilda Dinterman and Miss Jessie Potts, made up the programme. Following is the programme:

Y. M. C. A.

The regular Y. M. C. A. meeting, as in the past few sessions, kept its informal nature. Secretary J. W. Hedge conducted the meeting in the form of the regular Sunday evening Bible classes, talking and asking questions on the chapter, "The Laws of Achievement, found in the book, 'Student Standards of Action."

BIG AUCTION SALE.

First floor East College was the scene of a big auction sale on Thursday evening. Crawford, 18, was responsible for the great sacrifice sale. MacDermott, '18, performed capably as auctioneer, while Mangin, '19, kept a pencil and pad hot acting as clerk.

DEATH OF DR. MacMACKIN, '74.

Rev. Dr. Bernard MacMackin, died at his home in Ridley Park, Pa., on Saturday last, aged 62 years. He was for 20 years superintendent of City Mission, Philadelphia, and a widely-known Baptist minister.

short while came thru with another shot, an underhand one this time, which squared him away with Swoope, who the minute before had tossed in his team's second goal. Boyles, refusing to be a back number, fought like a tiger and paved the way for "Scow" to register two more field goals by breaking up plays with great abandon. Toward the close of the half "Scow" ripped off a couple more baskets, the first as a result of following up a shot which failed to penetrate the rim and the second as the result of a neat pass which the fleet forward converted into two points. The half ended 30-11 with Susquehanna backers low in their seats.

Swoope started proceedings in the second half with a deliberate dirty trip which Garner transformed into a one-pointer from the 15-foot chalk mark. Shaffner charged up the floor next for the first of his three goals in this session. Garner, refusing to let up a minute, boosted the score ever higher with another nice shot. Middlesworth drew first blood for the down-river bunch with a foul-toss and gave Shannon the needed impetus to drop the second of his fine overhead shots whizzing thru his basket. Boyles forged thru the whole line-up after a scoreless lapse and tossed to "Scow", whose aim served him true in his attempt at his 11th basket. The Orange and Blue guarded like sentinels as the final minutes of play began to tick off on the timer's instrument. Susquehanna hustled up a little after Garner, Musser and Shaffner had tallied from field and scored three goals in succession before a "time out" was called for. With 3 minutes to go the contest assumed a grand wind-up style. "Toney" Murray bounced one in from a point quite distant from the basket, which Middlesworth followed up with the last shot of the game, a long goal from field.

About 60 Bucknell rooters accompanied the victorious squad to Susquehanna and kept their favorites keyed to their best with some spirited rooting.

The line-up:

Bucknell		Susquehanna
Garner	forward.	Shannon
Murray	forward.	Middlesworth
Musser	centre.	Swoope
Shaffner	guard.	Harkins
Boyles	guard.	Farrel (Hostetter)

Field goals: Bucknell, Garner 13, Murray 2, Musser 2, Shaffner 3, Boyles. Susquehanna, Shannon 4, Middlesworth, Swoope 2, Harkins. Foul goals: Garner 7 out of 16, Middlesworth 11 out of 21. Referee: Fluhrer, Gettysburg. Time of halves, 20 minutes.

Y. W. C. A.

The parlors of Women's College presented both a cozy and lively appearance Tuesday night when the "Sem" postponed lessons long enough to hear a talk given by Miss Mary Hoffa, one of the advisory members of the Y. W. C. A. cabinet. Her theme was, "What is the Meaning of Christianity?" "Be true to Jesus" rang out thru her words. She quoted many instances of righteous lives and how their deaths were only a promotion or translation to another state.

As a final exhortation she urged joining the League of the Golden Pen which means writing a cheery letter to some shut-in at least once a month. The choir sang a pretty selection.

Miss Cathrine Foresman, a State worker, spoke to the girls a short time Friday evening on "Influence." A meeting for all those interested in forming an Eight-week's Club during the summer was held directly afterwards. Another enthusiastic meeting was held Saturday morning. Miss Foresman has been busy helping the cabinet and the Social Service Committee in laying interesting and practical plans for an organization to be made in the near future.

Dr. Harris was present at the banquet of the Young Men's Republican Club of Williamsport on Friday night and responded to the first toast of the evening, "Lincoln," with a glowing tribute to the country's matyred president.

Varsity Completes Another Successful Trip Abroad

TAKES TWO OUT OF THREE GAMES PLAYED.

LEBANON VALLEY NOSES OUT VICTORY BY A POINT

Mt. St. Marys and Gettysburg Beaten By Good Scores.—Team's Record Is Now. 9 Out of 12.—Albright Will Appear Here February 25.

Bucknell's sterling basket-ball quintet wound up its campaign on foreign floors in a glorious fashion by taking two out of three in its recent trip to Mt. St. Marys, Gettysburg and Lebanon Valley. The Orange and Blue squad came within an ace of making a clean sweep of the second of their three-game trips; but fortune smiled upon Lebanon Valley who won out in the final game by the close score of 27-26.

Mt. St. Marys was beaten by a score of 25-17 while the fast Gettysburg five was outgamed and outplayed in the second game, the score being 32-23. The victory over Gettysburg marked the seventh straight victory for the Varsity, six of which were annexed while on the road, a record which it can safely be wagered, Bucknell teams will have one monstrous big time duplicating.

The Varsity, as in all contests since it struck its winning stride, kept up its clean passing and smooth all around team-work and looked far better on the floor than any team against which it was pitted.

Boyles, the coming freshman guard, was the particular star of the trip. His total of field goals numbered eight, four of which came at Mt. St. Marys, three at Gettysburg and one at Lebanon Valley. In addition to this Boyles, taking Garner's place at the 15-foot mark in the first two games,—"Scow's" arm being injured—shot fouls with fine accuracy. That he earned his full dress suit is beyond all dispute.

Mt. St. Marys Game.

The Varsity opened up its Southern trip with a victory over Mt. St. Mary's College by the score of 25-17. In annexing this game Cockill's squad hung up its sixth straight victory, five of which ,remarkable to say, have been registered on foreign floors.

The game with Mt. St. Marys was a bitterly contested battle whose result was very pleasing to the squad because of the fact that to beat this team on its own floor is a stunt which a basket-ball team from Bucknell has not pulled off in some time.

The opening of the first half took on the appearance of a walk-over when the Varsity in the first two minutes of play rolled up 8 points to Mt. St. Marys' two. Bucknell's points were produced by the Orange and Blue guards, Shaffner and Boyles, who were the heavy scorers of the fracas. Boyles led off the rush with a one hander which dropped in clean as a whistle and came back with another of the same kind when "Shaff" followed his first one with a "two-counter." After Boyles had caged his second basket Shaffner evened up matters with his second one by gaining possession of the ball from the tip-off and working it down to the basket, where he tallied with a nice shot. Boyles shot fouls in Garner's place and landed 4 out of 5 in the first period. McHugh and Crilley scored goals for their team in the opening stanza with commendatory shots. The first half ended with the Varsity on the long end of a 12-9 score.

Whettle drew his team to within one point of the Orange and Blue at the outset of the first half when he caged a splendid shot from field making the score stand 12-11, the closest Mt. St. Marys ever got to the Varsity. Boyles came back strong by netting a basket with some close following of the ball. He had just missed a foul and rushing in grasped the ball on a grand scoop and turned the ill-directed foul shot into a field goal "Toney" Murray and McHugh engaged in a fistic duel at this juncture in which both swung wildly and finally clinched, to be banished from the game by the referee. Sipley took "Toney's" place and played excellently during the remainder of the game. Following the fisticuffs Boyles set the team on a road to victory with his fourth basket of the evening. "Shaff," Musser, and "Scow" Garner landed the 3 remaining goals which put their team-mates in the comfortable lead upheld till the final whistle. Leary played well for Mt. St. Marys, but spoiled a good exhibition by his continued roughness.

The score:

Bucknell		Mt. St. Marys
Garner	forward.	Whettle
Murray (Sipley)	forward.	Crilley
Musser	centre.	McHugh (Karney)
Shaffner	guard.	Leary
Boyles	guard.	Sheridan

Field goals: Bucknell, Garner, Musser, Shaffner 3, Boyles 4; Mt. St. Marys, Whettle, Crilley 2, McHugh 2, Leary, Karney. Fouls: Boyles 7 out of 12; Leary 3 out of 7. Referee: Derr, of Frederick. 20 minute halves.

Gettysburg vs. Bucknell.

The Orange and Blue put a crimp in the Junior Week festivities at Gettysburg by lacing the battlefield boys in the fastest game of the whole trip by the wide margin of 9 points, the final score registering, Bucknell 32,

Y. M. C. A. HEARS LIVE TALK BY FAHRINGER

BIG CROWD OUT TO HEAR "FREDDIE" ON "MAKING CHRIST REAL."

The speaker at the Y. M. C. A. last Thursday night was "Freddie" Fahringer, last year's General Secretary. His audience filled the Y. M. C. A. room and chairs were not sufficient to hold the number of fellows. "Freddie" took as his topic "Making Christ Real" and showed by his attitude during his entire address that Christ was very real to him.

His remarks were mostly reminiscent. He recalled his own troubles, and in this way was able the more successfully to drive home the lessons his speech conveyed. The scripture reading upon which "Freddie" based his talk was the account of the storm on the Lake of Genesaret; and the words of Jesus to the waves—"Peace, be still."

"Take Jesus in the boat with you," said the speaker; and then he added, "But for this, Christ must be real to you." "It's a personal Christ that wins our battles;" and so success depends upon the reality of Christ to us. We must recognize the presence of Christ in the storms of life; if we look for Him we shall find Him.

Three great storms come in the life of every normal man. The first is the storm of doubt. From the matter-of-fact religion of boyhood we come to

RIFLE CLUB RECEIVES ITS SHOOTING IRONS

SUPPLIES FROM GOVERNMENT ARRIVED LAST THURSDAY.

On Thursday afternoon a small load of wooden boxes arrived at the Hill. From a short distance they looked like any ordinary boxes, but closer examination revealed the fact that they contained the "Shooting Material" for which the rifle club has been anxiously awaiting since November. These foresaid boxes contained 14 new Krag-Jorgeson rifles and 5600 rounds of high-power cartridges which were issued by the government to the Bucknell University Rifle Club, in order that the students of the institution might learn the art of handling the military rifle. It is needless to say that the club members are rejoiced to know that they will have an opportunity to do some "real" shooting as soon as weather conditions permit.

The club will meet in the Y. M. C. A. Hall on Monday evening at 8 o'clock to receive instruction on the use of the new rifles, and to discuss plans concerning target shooting. It is very important that all members be present at this meeting.

FORUM PARTY.

On Friday evening, February 18th, the Forum entertained a number of town and out-of-town girls at a Washington Birthday party. The evening was taken up with contests and musical numbers. The decorations consisted of the stars and stripes in flags and bunting.

"LAMBDA CHI'S" ENTERTAIN.

The Lambda Chi's entertained a number of town girls on Saturday evening, February 19th. The evening was spent at 500. Refreshments were served, after which the company adjourned, allowing a sufficient margin so as not to encroach upon the Sabbath.

"SIGS" ENTERTAIN.

The Sigma Chi Fraternity entertained the Phi Kappa Psi Fraternity at a smoker given at the "Sig" House last Tuesday evening, February 15.

THE COLLEGE INN

College Girls Give Annual Reception

STUDENTS AT COURT.

Many of the students took advantage of the opportunity to attend the license court of last week. The proceedings were especially interesting this year, due to the systematized opposition against the liquor forces. The decision of Judge Johnson, taking away the licenses from Lewisburg's two remaining hotels met with the approval of the majority of the students. A dry Lewisburg will undoubtedly prove a drawing card for new students who will be a credit to their college.

CORNELL FIRE.

Cornell suffered a severe loss last week when Morse Hall, containing the University's valuable chemical laboratories and scientific equipment was destroyed by fire. The cause of the fire is unknown. The loss will probably total about $400,000. The danger of exploding chemicals and the lack of water pressure hindered the work of the firemen to a great extent. Valuable chemicals, which can not be replaced while the war is going on, were consumed. As a result of the fire, over 2500 students will have to rearrange their schedules, as every course at Cornell, except the course in law, requires a certain amount of chemistry.

FRESHIES PROVE TOO FAST FOR JUNIORS

CAPTURE THEIR SECOND GAME IN INTER-CLASS SERIES.—SCORE 25-24.

After a most exciting and hard-fought contest, the referee's whistle found the Freshmen leading the Junior team by a solitary point on Wednesday evening, the final score being 25-24. The result was not decided until the last minute of play, and, consequently, the supporters of each team did all in their power to bring victory, with spirited yells and songs.

At the outset the Freshmen seemed to have a distinct advantage, and the score soon stood 7-1 in their favor. The Juniors tightened up at this point, however, with the result that the "Freshies" scored but a single field goal during the remainder of the half. In the meanwhile two field goals and a foul toss had been registered by the Juniors who seemed to improve with the progress of the game. The Freshmen had the long end of the 9-6 score at half time.

The second period was full of thrills from the toot of the whistle. The Junior forwards started off with a rush and before they were temporarily checked, the score was tied, 12-12. From then on it was nip and tuck, with first one team taking the lead then the other. Hendren's ability to shoot fouls helped the first-year men out of several bad holes, and, coming always when it was most needed, was the deciding factor of the contest. The score continued to alternate up until very near the close with both teams grasping every opportunity to score; at this juncture, however, two long shots by Gearhart and Martin gave the Freshmen a three point lead which the Juniors could come only within one point of reaching before the game was ended.

Despite the fact that he will be ineligible to play, Arthur M. Milburn was re-elected captain of Yale's baseball team for this spring. It is likely that he will direct the team from the bench.

LARGE ATTENDANCE AT BANNER "SEM" EVENT.

SEMINARY PARLORS AGLOW ON FRI. EVE.

Over Four Hundred Present at Most Successful Reception Given in Years.—Phi Gamma Delta Orchestra Furnishes Music.

The girls of the Womn's College maintained their usual high standard of entertainment at the Annual College Girls' Reception which was held in the parlors of the Woman's College on the evening of Friday, February eighteenth. Excellent music, combined with a spirit of unalloyed cordiality lent to the affair an atmosphere which is always attendant upon Bucknell's social functions. Despite the wintry breezes outside, a warm breeze of genial merry-making was born aloft on the cheery voices of the numerous college girls and their guests.

The reception was attended by about four hundred students, together with a score of faculty members and their wives. Other invited guests were present and entered heartily into the spirit of the occasion. The number of those prsent far surpassed the attendance of previous receptions, making this year's reception the largest affair of the kind in the history of Bucknell. The success of the affair was in proportion to the numbers, and every Bucknellian fortunate enough to have been among the gay promenaders will agree that there was never before such a gala night in his college experience, the memory of which will last long in his mind. Too much credit can not be given to the Reception Committee who surely spared no effort to make the reception of 1916 the most successful in years.

At eight o'clock the guests began to make their appearance at the old "Sem" gate, and after checking their hats and overcoats at the office were shown up to the parlors, where they were cordially received by the representatives of the Woman's College, and members of the faculty. From the parlors the stream of men poured over to the study hall where they met their partners for the evening. This room was tastefully decorated to represent a large living room in one of our modern palaces. Neat drapery hung down over the windows, and here and there about the room were mission tables with bouquets of fragrant flowers. Subdued light from above added effect to the already pleasing picture. In one corner was the Phi Gamma Delta orchestra which was to furnish the music for the evening.

Each guest was then provided with a program, tastefully decorated with hand paintings, which designated his partners for the twelve promenades of the evening. Shortly after eight the opening strains from the orchestra announced the beginning of the promenades. At this sign the partners for the first "prom" slowly made their way through the reception room and parlors or chatted here and there with friends in the numerous cozy seats about the edge of the rooms. The promenades continued throughout the evening, accompanied by appropriate music from the orchestra.

At times groups of promenaders would make their way to the dining room below where, seated in groups about the room, they were served with dainty refreshments. After partaking of the refreshments they returned to the reception rooms, and continued their promenading.

The stroke of twelve announced the hour of parting, and came upon the guests as a surprise for the evenings entertainment seemed only well begun. After expressions of appreciation all departed feeling that the mutual desire for a good time had been gratified to the satisfaction of all.

AGAIN! THE BUDGET!

The budget is as conspicuous this term for its lack of support as it was for its abundance of backing last term. Those who have paid up their assessment this term number a hundred less than those who received a "paid" slip in the opening term of school.

It is hard to understand just why the budget is not receiving support when ninety-nine per-cent ofthe students last year pledged their rsupport by affixing their signatures to papers which were passed through the student body for the express purpose of ascertaining whether or not the students desired the budget system to be introduced at Bucknell.

That the budget system is the means of saving money for Bucknell students is, as we have said many a time, far from a shadow of doubt. Just take up your pencil and pad and figure the actual amount saved by the introduction of the budget here at school. Those who have not paid this term's assessment and do not intend to, but desire to attend a reasonable number of athletic contests and entertainments included under the budget, just for the rest of the year, are especially asked to figure up how much they will save by such an act.

Some claim that the apportionment is not as it should be. Is it possible in one years time to introduce and to perfectly manipulate such a system? Consideration is all those lodging such a complaint need to show in their actions.

Others claim the football schedule does not given the students adequate return for the support they are pledged to give. The Varsity will be seen in action four times where heretofore their times of appearance have only numbered three. Did not the Athletic Association do well when they had to turn down over 35 invitations from teams to play on their fields? In regards to the Thanksgiving game. Has the fellow who has the money to go home at both Thanksgiving and Christmas any license to register a kick over the failure to see one contest?

The Athletic Association has done its best to give the students full value for the added support they have attempted to give and should the budget fail this year the students will plainly see the difference next fall.

The fraternities and organizations which are benefited by the budget system should get alive to the situation and see to it that the budget does not suffer extinction this year. The students in general should rise to the occasion and make a special effort to make good their promise of last spring.

The annual Army—Navy football game will be played in New York in 1916, and probably in all succeeding years. The reason for the change is the need of more seating capacity, as Franklin Field Philadelphia, has proved too small to accommodate the enormous crowds which desire to attend this game annually.

—School will not convene on February 22.

GLEE CLUB PUTTING ON FINAL TOUCHES

ARE GETTING IN READINESS TO TAKE TRIP TO STATE ON MARCH TENTH.

Since the beginning of school last September, those members of the student body who are interested in a College Glee Club at Bucknell, have been straining every means to reorganize a club for the present year; and much to their credit they have greatly succeeded. In view of the fact that several of the old men were graduated last year, the very first consideration was to interest new men in the glee club. At first this presented some difficulty, but by the commendable efforts of the old men on the club, many new men appeared at the practices to tryoue. From the old and new there has been selected an excellent and talented glee club.

Only two years ago, there had been no glee club at Bucknell for a period extending over several years; but since that time, by the good work on the part of a few industrious students, Bucknell has had a good club each year. From the preceding statements it is readily observed that the present glee club is a very young organization, and consequently has not had time enough to firmly establish a very broad reputation. It is true that this year's club shows a marked improvement upon that of either of the two preceeding years, and from this it may rightly be inferred that the glee club will continue to improve.

Two weeks ago tonight the final members of the club were chosen by a committee appointed by the president, Jeffry, '16, and these members are now putting forth all their effort to work-up a good program to be rendered at the concerts which are to follow during the rest of the year. With an occasional lift by Prof. Stolz and the careful and arduous work on the part of Pedigo, '17, the leader, the club is making grand progress with the selections which have been chosen for our program. Wherever the club has journeyed in the past two years, they were always given a cordial invitation to return, and, it naturally follows that the present club havin ghad more experience, and having more talented members will fare at least as well and inevitably better. Furthermore, the fact must not be lost sight of, that a glee club tends to advertise and advance a college as well as an athletic team or other traveling student organization, and for that reason justly merits a vast amount of credit and encouragement from the students and school as well.

The first trip that is scheduled for this year is that of State College. Last year the State College Glee Club contracted to give a combined concert in Lewisburg provided that Bucknell would give them a return concert this year at State College. Consequently they have arranged for a trip on March 10. Shortly after their return from State, the Club has arranged to give a concert in Lewisburg. The exact date is not known as yet, but will be made known soon after the State College trip.

The Penn track team lost two middle distance stars last week when McHale and Boughton failed to pass off all the required examinations. Both had made enviable records in their high schools, and much was expected of them at Penn in the middle distance runs.

reason, and there the invisibility of Jesus takes our faith to a great degree. But upon careful thought we shall find that all thoughts eventually come back to Jesus Christ.

Then comes the desire for money rather than service But here we must realize that in Christ we are rich, for real riches are those which we can take into Eternity. Money is perishable, but even so can become the source of great good if properly used. "The LOVE of money (not money itself) is the root of all evil."

The third storm of passion can be conquered by the power of Jesus. "Sin is the indulgence of natural desires in forbidden paths," said Fahringer in definition. A man with passions is like a ship at sea with no pilot. The wind that would take the unpiloted ship on the rocks will take the piloted ship on its course. So Christ can make great men of those whose passions are conrtolled by Him."

Rev. Spangler, of Milton, closed the meeting with the benediction.

Gettysburg 23. The game was close in the first of the opening period; but toward the latter part of this half the Varsity drew away into an eight-point lead which they steadily held until the close of the game when they increased it to nine.

Boyles broke open this game with a neat shot from the middle of the floor which gave the team a decided brace. Mahaffie broke away for a goal which kept Gettysburg close. Gettysburg forged ahead two points; but Boyles, shooting with deadly accuracy, came up the floor and bagged a nice clean shot which tied matters up. When Baker netted Gettysburg's second basket Murray and Boyles retaliated with a goal apiece, which, attached to Boyles shots rung in as regularly as clock work, gave the Varsity a good lead. The score heaved to 15-9 as Shaffner and Murray in quick order basketed the sphere. Boyles shot another which touched neither "hide nor hair" before "Bill" Mahaffie scored again for his team. At the close of the half Garner caged his first two-pointer, putting the Varsity in its half-time lead of 8 points, the score at that time standing 20-12.

Gettysburg entered the second half with a determination to guard and guard they did for a time. Mahaffie was the first to score and when Campbell shot 3 fouls in as may tries the teams were only separated by 3 points. Musser and Garner rose to the occasion with a couple of dandies, however, and things looked promising for the Varsity. "Scow's" shot was the nicest of the evening. After a lapse in which there was much passing, but no scoring, Garner netted the second of his goals in this period immediately after Williams had tallied for Gettysburg. Campbell next shot Gettysburg's final basket of the evening and then the Orange and Blue started to put the game on ice. Garner and Musser each contributed a basket as the time of the last half dwindled away and the gamed ended with Bucknell a winner by the score of 32-23.

Bucknell vs. Lebanon Valley.

In their final game the Varsity was pitted against the heavy Lebanon Valley team and lost out by the measley margin of one point, the score at the final whistle totaling 27-26.

The Orange and Blue squad was not able to do its best because of a multitude of handicaps. Lebanon Valley's floor was about the greatest handicap Cockill's five had to contend with. Exceedingly small and cramped, the Annville court might servebetter as a ten-pin alley than as a basket-ball floor. Added to this the squad was more or less fagged out from its hard games with Mr. St. Marys and Gettysburg which games were accompanied by long and fatiguing rides.

The team was not able to play "signals" at all because of the size of the floor but notwithstanding their attack and defense was unusually strong.

Lebanon Valley started off strong and had piled up 3 baskets before Garner with a foul toss put his team in the running. Boyles was the first to count for the Orange and Blue with a toss from field, and whn he did Murray soon took a similar notion and duplicated Attick's trick of a few minutes before of basketing two field goals in rapid order. "Toney played well in this the final game of the trip. The first half ended 17-11 in favor of Lebanon Valley.

The Varsity made things hum with the beginning of the final stanza and soon tied the score, 18-18, thru excellent shots from field by Murray and "Scow" Garner's shots from the foul-line. At one time the Orange and Blue forged ahead a point; but soon relinquished this lead when Swartz tallied with a field goal and Loomis commenced to shoot fouls in place of Hollinger. The Varsity drew up again thru goals by Murray and Musser and tied the score once more. With but 28 seconds to go and the score "even steven" at 26, time was called. On resumption of play a foul was called on the Varsity and as the whistle blew Loomis, standing on his own 15-foot mark, converted the foul into the point which gave his team the victory.

MEDICALS MEET IN SOCIAL GATHERING

PROF. STEWART, MENAKER AND DAVENPORT PROVE GOOD ENTERTAINERS.

The Bucknell Medical Society met in a social session last Monday evening in the new Biology Laboratory. Tables were set for a luncheon which was partaken of by the members of the Society and friends. Following the luncheon a business meeting and an entertaining program was carried out. Several selections from a Victrola were heartily enjoyed by all. Menaker, '17, entertained with several well executed card tricks, and Prof. Stewart read many interesting poems, besides relating some of his experiences in the Canadian woods. Davenport, '16, read a paper on "The Educational Function of Hospitals;" drawing his material from a discussion on that subject written recently by Dr. Jas. B. Herrick, Professor of Medicine in Rush Medical College, Chicago, Ill. He said in part:

"The central figure in every hospital is, or should be, the patient. Whatever use is made of the hospital as a means of education it should be self-evident that whenever the sick man enters its walls, he has a right to expect and demand the most skilled treatment its staff can offer. We physicians believe that the best treatment will be in the hospital that clearly recognizes its educational function. But if the patient be utilized for the instruction of nurses, undergraduates or graduate medical students, or in the working out of some scientific problem, there must be assurance that his life is not endangered thereby, or his health impaired. We may use him as 'material,' to employ the word that unfortunately has become fixed in our medical vernacular; but not as we use a guinea pig or rabbit. We claim that it is our right and duty to experiment with inanimate apparatus, and, when we are humane—with the lower animate bodies, even though the rabbit dies. But a human being is neither a guinea pig or rabbit. We may study his disease, even experimentally but we must treat him as a fellow-man.

"A modern hospital fully awake to its privileges and with the high aim to do the possible amount of good will strive to educate:

"(1.) Undergraduates; (2.) Interns; (3) Resident Physicians and Surgeons; (4) the Attending Staff; (5) Nurses; (6) Research Workers; (7) the Patient; (8) the Public."

Y. W. C. A.

The meeting on Tuesday night was held in the parlors under the leadership of Dr. Llewllyn Phillips. His topic was the association work. He read a notice that appeared in "The Mirror" February, 1886, "A Young Woman's Christian Association has been started at The Woman's Seminary. It already has many members and promises to be of much benefit."

This little notice thrilled the girls and they were glad to think that they were now carrying on a work started thirty years ago. Dr. Phillips said he thought that the phrase, "and promises to be of much benefit" had been fulfilled. He could see a steady growth as he looked back over the work of the association during these years and at some of the girls who have gone out to do their work.

He made special mention of Miss Anna Catharine Carlisle of his own class of '92. Miss Carlisle had a great influence upon the girls while in college and the report of this remarkable influence here reached the state department. Upon finishing her college course she was asked to become the first Y. W. C. A. secretary for the colleges of the state, and to impart to the girls of other colleges some of the influence that had been felt here. After only one year of work her brilliant career was closed by her sudden death.

Dr. Phillips also mentioned a girl who is known by many in college at present, Rachel Davis Dubois, '14, and of her work in the rural district of her own home. He urged the girls not to neglect its opportunities for work and good that is afforded by the association. The service was closed by a solo by Louise Hann.

Igler, '12, visited his Demosthenean brothers over the week-end. At present he is a graduate student at Rochester University.

Shilling, '18, visited Sharon during the past week.

ALBRIGHT PROVES AN EASY MARK

COULD SCORE BUT ONE LONE BASKET.

VARSITY AND SCRUBS ROLL UP 51 POINTS

Kelchner's Squad Only Able to Amass 8 Points.—Ball in Possession of Cockill's Squad Greater Part of the Game.—Murray Stars.

Celebrating their first home appearance after the victorious invasion of foreign floors during the past few weeks, the Varsity administered a severe beating to the Albright College five on Friday evening in a fast, but one-sided contest. The final score was, Bucknell 51—Albright 8.

During the entire game Bucknell's play was lightning fast; so fast, in fact, that Albright was unable to score their lone field goal, until after four Varsity players had been relieved by subs toward the close of the second period. The team-work, as displayed in the Varsity's great passing and shooting, stands unsurpassed by any Bucknell team in recent years, and,—this quality being an all essential to good basket-ball,—the Orange and Blue followers may feel assured that their five stands well up among the best of college teams.

As the score indicates, the visitors were completely outclassed from the very beginning. After Garner had tossed a foul, Boyles, receiving the ball from the toss-up, dribbled down the floor and unimpeded shot a pretty goal from the side of the basket. Albright scored for the first time on Hoffman's two foul throws. At this juncture Bucknell opened up their system of passing, which held the Myerstown boys completely at bay throughout the game. Garner scored two of the prettiest goals of the game on shots from near the middle of the floor, and followed up with a field-goal underneath the basket, all coming in rapid succession. "Shaf" and Murray raised Bucknell's score to 13 by ending two goals in quick order. Two more foul-tosses ended Albright's scoring for the half, but Murray, Boyles and Garner scored two-pointers for Bucknell, before the whistle blew. The score at half-time was 21-4.

The Varsity fairly drove poor Albright off its tottering feet at the beginning of the second period by scoring four field goals in less than three minutes time. Whenever Albright did secure the ball, which was seldom, there was always some Bucknell player near to break up any attempt at passing or dribbling; consequently the visitors tried in vain to score from almost any point on the floor. After Hoffman had scored on a foul for Albright, Shaffner, Garner and Murray, the whole team playing with machine-like precision, added 15 points in order, before Coach Cockill decided that it was time to let up. Garner, Murray, Musser, and Shaffner were removed in favor of Sipley, Gaenzel, Gerhart and Hendren. At this point Albright secured the ball beneath their own basket and, amid great applause, Greenough scored their only field-goal of the game. The "Scrubs" showed their worth by scoring three field goals before time was called.

It would be impossible to pick out an individual star in this game, as every Bucknell man displayed excellent form. "Tony" Murray led in the scoring with six field goals to his credit.

VIOLIN CONCERT PROVES A GREAT SUCCESS

PROF. YOUNG, OF OKLAHOMA UNIV., CAPTIVATES MUSIC LOVERS.

Prof. Roy Young, of Oklahoma University, favored the patrons of the Musical Artists' Course given during this school year, with a highly instructive and decidedly entertaining program in Bucknell Hall on Wednesday evening, February 23rd. His large audience was pleased with the rendition of Nevin's "Rosary" written by Mr. Young in the Paganini style, illustrating thirds, sixths, octaves, double octaves, and tenths, in a masterly fashion. The Sextette from "Lucia" was treated in a similar manner. The quartette from "Rigoletto" was played to show the style of the early master Lubin; the performer had no trouble in convincing his listeners of the true imitation of Paganinni's style by Lubin.

The best representations of musical compositions of the various countries were played. Of these the "Home Sweet Home" of the Spanish, introduced to the public for the first time by Mr. Young, met with the sincere approval of all. The well known "Perfect Day" of Carrie Jacobs Bond was the American selection. This was arranged and played in the style of Paganinni by Mr. Young. The fight between the horse fly and the bee was vividly shown in a tone picture; as also was the railroad train starting on a slippery track, getting up full speed, and finally arriving at the station two hours late, and stopping with a squeak. Mr. Young also illustrated to his audience the relative song pitch of the gnat and the bee, as a difference of only one half step.

Mr. Young, by his pleasing personality and great artistic ability, held his audience bound for an hour and a quarter, demonstrating repeatedly violin technicalities. The concert was instructive to students of physics, and those who missed it, missed one of the most instructive and entertaining concerts ever given in Bucknell Hall.

JUNIORS NOW HOLD STAGE

WILL CELEBRATE ALL THIS WEEK.

PROM WILL BE HELD ON FRIDAY EVENING

Festivities Will Commence Tomorrow Evening When Junior Girls Will Be Entertained.—Smoker to Seniors on Thursday.

When the men of the class of 1917 entertain the female members of their class tomorrow evening at an informal gathering in Tustin Gymnasium Junior Week will be officially opened.

In the opening event of the week annually turned over to the Junior Class the Juniors will continue the custom established by the members of 1916 in their Junior days. Chairman Abbott has arranged for an evening's fun which embraces a play to be given by various tragedians of the class, games of various sorts, etc.

On Wednesday evening the Juniors will continue their celebrations by turning out in as great numbers as possible to the class game in which the Juniors and Seniors will be the chief contenders for honors.

The annual smoker given to the Seniors holds the third place on the card of events. Chairman West has this Thursday night occasion in hand and promises a rattling good time to all.

The premier event upon which Junior Week swings, namely the "Prom," will as usual take place on Friday night, begining at 9:30. Prior to this the banner "hop" of the year the third year men will commence their big night with an attendance at the Varsity-Geo. Washington Univ. basketball game which will start at 8 p. m.

Saturday night finds no other place on the schedule of the Junior men outside of a generally understood evening of recuperation.

PATHS LIKE GLASS.

The paths on the Hill and elsewhere were as slippery as the surface of any mirror on Thursday morning. Considerable difficulty was had by many students in ascending and descending the different paths to the college buildings. Snyder, '16, was the hero of the day when he responded to several S. O. S. messages from many floundering feminines at the junction of the prep, the upperclassmen and west college paths, and helped those in distress to points where walking was not so precarious.

IMPORTANT!

There will be a meeting of the Freshman Class on Wednesday at 4:15 in Bucknell Hall. Very important business will be transacted. Every freshman out.

1918 HOLDS ITS SECOND ANNUAL BANQUET

SECOND-YEAR MEN BANQUET AT PARK HOTEL IN WILLIAMSPORT.

The Sophomore Class held its second annual banquet at the Park Hotel in Williamsport on Friday evening, February 25. About 35 members of the class entered into the festivities usually connected with the class banqueting seasons.

The Sophs were admitted to the dining room at the hour of 9 and until the hour of 12 replenished themselves with the excellent "feed" served by the Park and made merry with toasts. Those who responded to toasts were: R. C. Umlauf, S. F. Puff, A. W. Elliott, L. G. Clark and Chase. J. Lafayette Miller, sophomore president, officiated as toastmaster.

Those who comprised the banquet committee were: N. K. Hurley, E. T. Jones, B. L. Banks, W. R. Heckendorn, Lester Leighton, M. J. Bonham, S. D. Spotts, C. W. Mason, E. W. Hewitt and L. A. Eaton.

Dreyer, '19, paid the "Sophs" a little call as they reclined at their feast and was treated in a most hospitable manner. "Bill" responded with a toast.

KEYSTONE CLUB WINS.

A number of Keystone graduates journeyed to Factoryville and defeated the basket-ball five of Keystone Academy in an exciting game by the score of 25-24. The last part of the game was especially interesting, the scoring being tied at several stages of the game. The Alumni team was composed of Sipley, Martin, Harris, Grice and Sprout, with Harris and Sipley doing the heaviest scoring. Those from Bucknell who saw the game were: Pearson, Copeland, Cruse, Hedge and Heikes. After the game a reception was given in the school parlors, where old acquaintances were renewed among the students and faculty.

JUNIOR SMOKER.

JUNIOR GIRLS SHOW REAL "1917" SPIRIT

PLAN BIG WEEK OF ACTIVITY TO COMMENCE THIS EVENING.

"Stand them on their heads
Stand them on their feet
1917 can't be beat."

Such is the spirit of the 1917 girls which prompts them to plan their celebration of Junior Week. Just because they are "co-eds" isn't any reason why they can't be "in the swim." Accordingly committees have been planning and as a result a big time is expected at the Woman's College this week—for Juniors only! Much curiosity among the other classes has been manifested, but the Juniors have kept their plans secret.

Monday evening at eight-thirty the fun begins, for at that time the Junior girls will hold their Promenade. Helen Brown is chairman of the Committee and with her partner will lead the Cotillion. The orchestra promises splendid music and 1917 is really sorry that this is for Juniors only. The class has invited Miss Brown and Miss Way as guests.

Tuesday evening at seven-forty-five the Junior girls, with Miss Hamler as chaperone, will be the guests of the Junior men at a Reception given in the Tustin Gymnasium. The girls are most grateful to the men and are anticipating a "Big Time!"

Wednesday is a red-letter day in the program. That evening the girls are having their dinner in the Woman's College dining room. Lora McQuay, president of the girls, will act as Toast Mistress and a number of 1917 girls will respond. After dinner the girls will go to the basket-ball game and root and root "and then some" for the Juniors. Every Junior girl will be there to back the Junior team.

Thursday will see the last of the celebration. On Thursday evening there will be a theatre party followed by refreshments at the Bay Tree Inn. Miss Carey, Dean of the Woman's College, and Miss Rainey will be the guests that evening.

From this program one can see a busy, jolly week for the Junior girls. The 1917 class was the first to have an organization among the girls and since that organization 1917 has "done things." This celebration is an innovation of 1917 and if successful will be handed down from Junior class to Junior class!

STUDENT VOLUNTEER ACTIVITY

On Thursday afternoon the Student Volunteers met with some friends in a meeting of the Band at Dr. Leslie's home on North Fourth Street. After Scripture reading and prayer Dr. Leslie presented to his hearers in a simple and forceful manner a discussion on that great and vital subject, "The Personality of the Holy Spirit." It was impressed upon his listeners that this is not so much a subject in theological criticism as a living fact which is at the basis of our Christian faith and that it should be recognized by every individual as such. The talk was followed by informal discussion, which served to deepen the conviction already made. It was suggested and generally approved that the same subject of thought should be carried on to several meetings following this one. The gathering was then dismissed by Dr. Leslie.

ALUMNUS DIGS UP INTERESTING RELIC

SENDS IT TO BUCKNELLIAN FOR INSPECTION.

IS A "BURLESQUE" WRITTEN BY THE CLASS OF '61

Discloses Custom Followed in Those Days at Time of Junior Oratorical Exhibition.—Henry F. Grier, '63, Donor of Pamphlet.

A week or so ago the management of the Bucknellian received a pamphlet, which upon inquiry has shed some very interesting light upon a rather unusual Bucknell custom of more than fifty years ago. Henry F. Grier, a member of the class of 1863, who now resides in Chicago, has forwarded the paper with the expressed intention that we "may know something of the Indians," who then held the camps in which we now dwell. For information regarding the paper the Bucknellian is indebted to T. R. ones, '62, who is at the present time a resident of Lewisburg.

The pamphlet, itself, is a good example of the burlesques, written each year by the Senior class concerning the Juniors and freely distributed on the event of the Junior Oratorical Exhibition. These papers became so popular in time, that their composition was no longer confined to one class, but very often various groups would issue a "burlesque" on individuals at random. This particular burlesque, issued by the Class of 1861, had the Class of '62 as its target and was circulated at the Junior Exhibition, given in the old Baptist Church, which stood opposite to where the Phi Kappa Psi house now stands. The date of the Exhibition was March 26th, 1861.

After announcing the occasion of its appearance and that it had been printed "under the auspices of the American Colonization Society," the burlesque begins with a short article on "Combined Piety and Ta(i)lents of the University." The attack is here directed against the piety of the Doctor" (meaning either Dr. Malcolm or Dr. Loomis), which had caused it to be decreed at a Faculty meeting, that Miss Tailor, who was at that time Principal of the Female Seminary, should "pull the strings" a bit tighter in order to aid the Doctor in his alleged ambition of creating wax figures. The above appears to have been meant as a foreword to the program of the evening's entertainment, which immediately follows under the title of "Disorder of Exercises."

Music, to which was given a very ridiculous title, was the opening number of the program; then followed the announcement of each speaker in his turn, accompanied by a short, but most uncomplimentary sketch of his character. Thos. R. Orwig, described as "Our-wig," was the first speaker of the evening, followed by Andrew Gregg Tucker (Tuck-her), whose oration, entitled "Right of Freemen" was said to have "greatly overcome the audience." Excepting the several interruptions of music, the following men were announced and accordingly characterized: William H. Beck, the "gnashional example," William Conrad, W. G. Walk-her, Thos. R. Jones, A. J. Rolland ,David M. Nesbit, Harry Bray, and Daniel B. Miller. The pamphlet concludes with the kindly admonition that the audience may rest assured that "if any other document than this is distributed, it is a detestable burlesque, not having the peculiar marks of genuineness or originality."

After the conclusion of the Exhibition, it was customary for a Junior Supper to be held. On this particular occasion the members of the class were invited with their ladies to the home of Daniel Bright Miller, where the supper was served, followed by a general good time. It is interesting to note that Thos. R. Jones, a member of this class, now resides in the very house, in which the merry-making took place. No. 43 South Second Street, and the young lady who ac-

ATHLETIC FIELD.

The rumor that the Senior class memorial this year is to be a section of concrete grandstand to which future classes may add until the natural grandstand of Bucknell will become a thing of the past, makes us think of George Graham, who for many years has made sport of Bucknell's athletic field.

This year the resurfacing of the athletic field, which has transformed our field from a mediocre ground of battle into one because of which no Bucknellian ever need hold his head in shame, gave this sporting editor no chance to talk of stones and broken bones. Each year while the field was in poor condition Graham never failed to lay much stress on this feature in his write-ups on various college teams; but failed to notice the improved condition this year for some reason or other. Perhaps he will if the Seniors further beautify the field with such an improvement as they have in view.

GIRLS TO FEAST AT JUBILEE BANQUET

MISS ANNA SEESHOLTZ WILL SPEAK AT Y. W. C. A. FESTIVITY.

The National Y. W. C. A. is celebrating its fiftieth birthday and the Bucknell Student Association has been observing this Jubilee season with other associations. On Friday evening the Jubilee banquet will be given at the Lutheran Church, and all the members of the association, the advisory board and friend and former Y. W. C. A. workers are invited. The speaker for the evening will be Miss Anna T. Seesholtz, the student secretary for this district. This will be Miss Seesholtz's first visit to Bucknell and the girls are anticipating her visit with much pleasure. The purpose of the banquet is to bring the girls into a closer fellowship with one another and with the state and national Y. W. C. A's. The Y. W. C. A. is trying to make this one of the most important things of the year to the college girls and the committee in charge is doing all it can to make it a success. The local Y. W. C. A. anticipates a good time, socially and educationally, and feels that all who do not take advantage of this opportunity to hear Miss Seesholtz will miss a rare treat. Some of the girls have met and heard Miss Seesholtz at Eagles Mere and Gettysburg and they assure the girls that a great treat is in store for all who attend.

INTERCOLLEGIATES

College songs of the most approved type are to be recorded by State College's glee club for a manufacturer of phonograph records.

FOLK SONG RECITAL GIVEN IN BUCKNELL HALL

MADAME DE SYLVA-SCHOEN GIVES LAST OF SIX ARTISTS' RECITALS.

The last of the six Musical Artists' Recitals offered by the School of Music during this school year, was given on Thursday evening, February 24th, 1916, in Bucknell Hall, by Madame De Sylva-Schoen in Folk Song. The Madame presented her program in four parts. Her voice is adapted to selections requiring soft tones, as well as selections requiring voice to fill the largest auditorium. Special comment must be made on the mellow, tones the Madame used in "All Through the Night" and the charming presentation in a recitative style of "Comin' Thru the Rye." The old Bretagne air "L'Angelus" was the most effective of the second group. In the third part "The Cuckoo" proved the masterly ability of the singer in enunciation, while the "Waltz Song" without a doubt was the most complicated and showed the greatest number of vocal technicalities and artistic rendition. Justice was done to the American Indian songs, because the artist properly interpreted the story of the songs with a rich shading and coloring of her tones. The Spanish songs of the last part, accompanied on the guitar by Mr. Clinton I. Sprout, were quite fitting for the close of such a masterly program.

Miss Priscilla Richardson Hardesty presided at the piano and assisted the Madame in an exact and most efficient manner.

OSTRICH EGG ON EXHIBITION AT COLLEGE INN

STUDENT BODY, FACULTY AND TOWNSPEOPLE INVITED TO INSPECT.

On Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, of this week there will be on exhibition at the College Inn, an egg the size of which would take three dozen chicken eggs to fill, weighing about four pounds.

This oval object was layed by a bird weighing between four and five hundred pounds, with legs about three inches in diameter, and four feet long, —strong enough to break an ordinary plank—a neck of about the same dimensions, all of which is controlled by a head the size of a hen's egg. In other words this species of the bird family is known as an ostrich.

From Abyssinia, and the river of the Blue Nile, in far off Africa, the mother of this egg was brought to America five years ago and together with twenty others comprises a flock of the only full-blooded African ostriches in America. It is impossible to further import these birds on account of laws made by both the British and German Governments which restrict their exportation. They are now on the farms of the Pennsylvania Ostrich Farm & Sales Co, at Bloomsburg, Pa., and are the only birds of their kind living in a cold climate.

The circumference of this egg is nineteen inches and holds the record as the largest one laid on the farm up to this time. It is almost pure white, differing from the South African egg which has a brown tint. The shell is about one-eighth of an inch thick.

There will also be on exhibition a young bird four days old, which resembles a turkey more than an ostrich It was hatched out last summer and no doubt would have lived had its leg not been broken from unfortunate circumstances.

The faculty, student body and townspeople are invited to inspect the egg and bird.

Teachers in the upper Ohio Valley will gather at the University of Pittsburgh Saturday, March 11, for a day's educational conference. Sectional meetings will be held in the University buildings in the morning. Among the organizations that will be in session that day are: Secondary School Association of the Upper Ohio Valley, Classical Association of Pittsburgh and Vicinity, the Schoolmasters Club, and the Principals Round Table of Allegheny County. Dr. Cheeseman Abiah Herrick, president of Girard College, Philadelphia, will speak at the luncheon at noon. The University expects a large attendance.

DR. NASMYTH SPEAKS ON "MILITANT CHRISTIANITY"

BIBLE CLASS ENJOYS TALK BY ADVOCATE OF PEACE MOVEMENT.

Bucknell students were privileged on Sunday, Feb. 20th to hear Dr. Nasmyth, the Director of the International Bureau of Students. He spoke on "Militant Christianity" and plead for a movement of all Christian people for international peace. "It is time," he said, "for the Christian statesmen of our country to take care of our foreign affairs and to Christianize our relations with other countries."

The speaker first of all defined the peace movement and explained its plans. "The peace movement," he said "is a movement for world confederation. This is in accordance with the idea of the fatherhood of God and the brotherhood of man."

One peculiar feature of the present war is its contradictory nature. The different nations thank God for victories in which hundreds or thousands of the enemy have been killed. The people of Europe are praying to a God of war when really He is a God of love. And so the plans of the peace movement are four in number and may be enumerated as follows:

1. Get America to take the lead in instituting an international court of arbitration.
2. Establish an international council for the settlement of disputes not in the realm of international law.
3. Submit all international disputes to the court of arbitration or the council of disputes.
4. Establish an international police force, to consist of all the nations of the world; so that if one nation shall declare war on another nation without first referring the dispute to the assembly of nations, then the world shall make common cause against that nation.

By this plan the three divisions of government are provided—the judicial, the legislative and the executive.

This plan is not a new one, for William Penn and Emanuel Kant advocated international peace under similar conditions. The German Socialists, English Labor Party and French Socialist Party all arrive at this plan. It is not the intention of the League to try to stop war at once; but to persuade the nations and to wait a year before declaring war. In this way "jingoism" will be given a chance to fade away; and a great majority of the wars will be avoided.

But this principle has a wider application than the international aspect; for the social problems depend for solution upon the solution of international problems. The old truths must be re-interpreted in accordance with the prevalent thought; and so today all truths are considered from the scientific and national standpoint. Tragedies have resulted from ignorance and misinterpretation of great truths. War has resulted from ignorance of the laws of association. When the Golden Rule has been broken war has resulted; and when the Christian principles have been subordinated to national interests calamity has resulted. "The truth shall make you free."

Dr. Nasmyth spoke in Bucknell Hall at 3 p. m. on Sunday.

Y. W. C. A.

Following once more the Jubilee programme the Y. W. C. A. held its regular meeting on Tuesday evening. Miss Annie Van Gundy addressed the meeting, choosing as her subject "Service," and as her text the 13th chapter of I Corinthians. The talk was frank and sincere, proving helpful to the girls as all such addresses invariably do.

companied him on that occasion is now his wife.

With the outbreak of the Civil War later in this same year, it is a significant fact, that this same Junior Class enlisted in the Union army almost to a man. From the vein of thought, which seems to lie beneath the title of each oration, it is clear that the issue of slavery was rapidly coming to a head; and thus when the call to arms eventually came; '62 acted upon their words with a liberal and immediate response.

WOMEN'S COLLEGE DEPARTMENT

Washington's Birthday Celebrated.

Martha and George Washington entertained the college girls at a delightful dance in the Gymnasium on Tuesday evening. Many quaint costumes, Martha Washington style, were among the attractions of the evening. "George Washington" and many of his friends were there. The Grand March and the "Paul Jones" and other square dances were much enjoyed by all the girls, who danced from eight to ten o'clock and were sorry when the quiet hour bell rang; for their Washington's birthday and its celebration were of the past.

The college girls thank their Dean, Miss Carey and their Matron, Mrs. Hamler, for making February twenty-second a red-letter day at the Woman's College.

SENIORS, STILL SLIDING, LOSE TO SOPHS 57-12

GAME ON WEDNESDAY EVENING A WIERD EXHIBITION.

The gym was the scene of a rather wierd exhibition of basket-ball on Wednesday evening, when the Sophomores took the Seniors into camp by the score of 57-12. From start to finish the upperclassmen were completely outclassed, being utterly unable to check their opponents in scoring, or to pierce their stalwart defense.

The Sophs have developed an intricate system of passing and in this game they presented the best exhibition of team-work seen in a class game this year. Besides their ability to play together, the second-year men have several excellent shooters on their team; the combination of these two forces makes them a formidable foe for the Freshmen, when they meet to decide the school championship.

CLOSE THEIR FESTIVITIES WITH SPLENDID DANCE.

SMOKER ENLIVENED WITH BOXING AND WRESTLING

Girls Entertained In Royal Fashion At The Gym.—The Prom Proves To Be One Of The Best Dances Given At A Junior Week.

Junior Week came to a close on Friday evening with the annual Prom which, this year, proved to be as successful a Junior Week dance as has been held at Bucknell in many moons. About 50 couples enjoyed the "hop." Not content with stopping at the usual hour the Juniors and their friends took up a collection and secured the services of the Ne-Cal orchestra until the hour of 3:30.

Junior Party.

The young ladies, chaperoned by Miss Hamler, arrived about 7:30 and from that time on there was plenty of entertainment for all. Pres. "Tony" Murray made the guests welcome with a few well-chosen remarks, in which he said that such an event occurred but once in four years and that the date for the occassion, Feb. 29th, had been chosen on that account. A one-act playlet, entitled "A Woman's Way," was then very ably presented by the Elocution School, and, to speak plainly, it made a big hit with everyone. After all had been served with dainty refreshments, a short time was given over to sociability, before the clock on the Hill struck ten, thereby putting an end to the fun.

Junior-Senior Game.

The Junior basket-ballers on Wednesday evening not willing that anything should mar their week took the Senior team into camp by a score of 32-17. The Junior girls were out in force and yelled madly for victory and they gained their point.

Junior Smoker.

The Junior Smoker on Thursday evening was fraught with more things than pipes, tobacco, and cards. After the crowd had assembled and had become thoroughly mixed, through wanderings about the floor and intermittent dances whenever the band struck up a danceable tune, the gym mats were dragged forth and a match for the wrestling championship of the 1917 class staged. The opponents were "Bluebeard" Donaldson, of Dubois, and "Cy" Kepple, of Greensburg. Menaker took it upon himself to referee and gave a good account of himself as the chief official. Donaldson by taking two out of three falls from Kepple was accorded the crown of champion. Donaldson wore his title for a short 15 minutes until "Louie" Eyster disrobed and challenged his worthy rival. By dint of superior strength and agility Eyster made quick work of the champion-for-a-minute and gained two straight falls and the crown. No one disputed "Louie's" superiority, so a boxing bout was then quickly arranged by a couple of Junior promoters. Articles were signed, training camps broken and the ring arranged all in a brief space of time and "Leonore" Glass and "Smiling" Mink appeared trained to the minute for a three-round bout as the next attraction on the Junior Smoker bill. Glass possessed the greater knowledge of the fistic game and tattooed Mink at will thus earning an easy erdict. Clam Bouillon acted as an official once more and performed ably, except for one instant when he allowed himself to draw in to closely to the fighters and was clipped smartly on the nose with one of Leonore's haymakers.

The boxing bout over with, the call to a sandwich feed was issued by the committee in charge and a disgraceful rush ensued which resembled a rush for a soup house in time of a dire famine. Those who entered into the jam profited little, for the manner in which the distributing committee was assaulted prevented them from maintaining any system of distribution. Finally when the jam grew tightest the committee threw the remaining sandwiches like so many straws into the air and let the mob scramble for them. The party broke up at about 11:00 o'clock.

The Junior's restrospect of Junior Week ought always to be a pleasant one for it was pleasing in every detail.

MASS MEETING.

There will be a Freshmen Mass Meeting at 4:15 on Wednesday afternoon. Pep for the game is the dope.

PHI GAMMA DELTA HOUSE IS OPENED

MANY VISITORS INSPECT HANDSOME FRATERNITY HOME ON FRIDAY.

Beginning with the opening of the doors to visitors on Friday evening, and the transfer on Saturday, of furnishings and baggage from their habitations on the "Hill," the Phi Gam's have made a good start toward taking up their residence in their new house on University Avenue. Friday evening was set apart as the time when the curious ones and those interested might have a first glimpse at the interior of this imposing structure. A great many availed themselves of the opportunity, among the number being visitors here for the Junior Promenade. The fraternity orchestra made things lively for the occasion.

To anyone who appreciates beauty of design and architecture the appearance of the house, both with respect to interior and exterior, is surely most pleasing. On the first floor there are two spacious rooms and several smaller ones. The larger rooms each have a very neat fireplace at one end. On the second and third floors there is sufficient room to accommodate at least twenty-five members of the fraternity. The floors and finishing throughout are of beautiful oak. Surely when the furnishings for the various rooms have been completed the deepest satisfaction and pride may be felt on the part of the Phi Gam's in possessing such a home. It is a model fraternity home and adds greatly to the appearance of the property line along University Avenue.

Although the boys have only made a good start at moving in, they should be well established and "at home" by the beginning of next term.

The class of 1910, University of Pittsburgh has started a fund to be lent to freshmen who are working their way through the University. Already $50 is available for the first student.

DEMOSTHENEANS GIVE THEIR ANNUAL PLAY

LARGE GROUP OF GUESTS THOROUGHLY ENJOY PRODUCTION.

The Demosthenean fraternity entertained a large company of guests at the production of their annual play on Saturday evening, March the fourth. Judging from the way in which the Halls rang with laughter from the opening to the close of the play the "Deme" actors succeeded in attaining and even surpassing the "Deme" standard in dramatics.

The play chosen this year was a rip-roaring comedy, "The Efficiency of Man" and was enacted by Messrs. Tilton, Snyder, Sprout, Blackburn, Reich, Lighton and Boswell. Snyder, acting in a part especially adapted to him, received many "hands" with his clever interpretation of his part.

Guests from the faculty, the Woman's College and the Hill were present. The representatives from the fraternities and the non-fraternity group were: Maurice B. Cook, Russel S. Conrad, Hildred Hann, Eric A. Oesterle, Harold Giffin, Edgar Campbell, Joseph Malin, Kenneth C. Ritchie, Cyril Lewis, Samuel M. Bryant, Bruce E. Butt, and Lester A. Switzer.

VARSITY GAME IS CANCELLED

FOLLOWERS OF THE TEAM ARE DISAPPOINTED.

GEO. WASHINGTON TEAM BRINGS BUT THREE MEN

Other Two Members of Visiting Team Fail To Show Up.—Lack of Proper Management Painfully Evident In Mix-up.

The patrons of basket-ball were treated to a disagreeable surprise on Friday evening when the announcement went the rounds, between the hours of six and seven, that the game between the Varsity and the team of George Washington University was called off because of the failure of the whole of the visiting team to show up.

The cancellation could not have come at a more inopportune time as the followers of the Orange and Blue because of the few times the Varsity quintet has yet to appear this season were extremely anxious to see them in action against a team of some merit. Then again it was Junior Prom night and a record crowd was expected to witness the contest. Those in authority at Bucknell are to be exonerated from all blame since George Washington is the culprit.

At 5:30 a telegram reached those in charge stating that two of George Washington's men had missed the train for Lewisburg at Harrisburg and would arrive at 9:30. Three of the members of the squad arrived on the 6 o'clock train over the Pennsylvania line and were considerably surprised that their team-mates had not arrived.

With such conditions staring them in the face the heads of the Athletic Association declared the game canceled because of the failure of the visiting team to put a full team on the floor after having ample time within which to do so.

Something must be radically wrong with the Athletic Association at George Washington. The team was sent on its trip north, including games with Delaware College, Temple University and Bucknell, with but 5 men making up the party. Such an act in itself is deplorable especially so when a team will need at the least two or more substitutes on a trip in which successive games are to be played. At Temple on Thursday evening one of their men was taken sick while another was injured. These were sent home and a night letter immediately dispatched to Washington asking that a couple of men be sent to Lewisburg to complete the team for its appearance here. These two arrived at Lewisburg at the time when the game should have been at a close at least an half hour.

Had those in charge had ample notice a contest with another team might have been scheduled.

SOPHS AND FRESHIES TO CLASH ON WED.

LARGE AMOUNT OF INTEREST CENTERS IN CHAMPIONSHIP MATCH.

The class basket-ball championship will be settled on Wednesday at 8:00 o'clock p. m. in what forebodes to be a great game when the Sophs and Freshies, still undefeated, clash with one another in the gym.

A glimpse at comparative scores and at the teams themselves confirms one in the belief that to bet either way is more or less a hazard. The freshies are confident of sucess while the sophs possess an equal amount of confidence that their team can pull thru with a victory and thus decree that their understudies keep their green buttons studded to their cute little lids.

In all probability an out-of-town referee will be chosen to officiate at the contest.

DECLAIMERS ANNOUNCED.

ANNUAL UPPERCLASS GAME ENDS IN VICTORY FOR JUNIORS, 32-17.

In the annual game between the upperclasses, the Seniors went down before the Juniors on Wednesday evening by the score of 32-17, and as a consequence of this defeat they occupy fourth place in the standing of the inter-class teams.

The game was exciting throughout, but the third-year men managed to hold a substantial lead at all times. In justice to the Seniors it must be said that they presented their strongest line-up of the season and their playing was a vast improvement upon their preceding performances. The long shots of Sipley and Miller, some of which were the most spectacular seen in the gym this year, were the features of the game. Switzer also played an excellent game for the Seniors.

Score:

Juniors		Seniors
Sipley	forward.	Switzer
Seaman	forward.	Atchison
Felton	centre.	Alter
Donaldson	guard.	Davenport
Swope	guard.	Miller

TIMELY INTERVENTION SAVES CHEMICAL LAB.

FIRE DISCOVERED BY D. T. US. AT 12 O'CLOCK.—QUICKLY EXTINGUISHED.

What might have been a disastrous fire at Bucknell was averted by the timely discovery of some members of the Delta Theta Upsilon Fraternity at midnight on Thursday.

A slight blaze in the Chemical Laboratory was noticed by the members of the fraternity who quickly rushed out, broke into the building and extinguished the rapidly spreading flames.

Someone had left a gas jet burning under an oven and it is believed that the latter grew so hot that the heat was reflected to a connecting rubber tube which ignited and caused the flame which spread to the top of one of the Lab. desks and gave the blaze a good start.

The alarm was quickly turned in and at the sound of the fire bell most every student on the Hill was out of bed and on his feet in a trice. Commotion reigned in the halls; wild conjectures as to the place of the fire being made as the fellows jumped into the few "duds" necessary to make an appearance in the midnight air. Some reached the Lab. in time to have a hand in the work of extinguishing the blaze while others were met at he top of the Hill with a "It's all over, small fire in the 'Lab.'"

SCHOLARSHIPS OFFERED STUDENTS

AVAILABLE TO ANY STUDENT OF GOOD CHARACTER.

AWARDED BY REVIEW OF REVIEWS

President Wilson And Five Other College Presidents Have Endorsed Plan Of Awarding Free Scholarships To Students.

College men who earn a large part or all of their college expenses will doubtless be greatly interested again this year in the free cash scholarships offered under the direction of Mr. H. W. Frey, to self-supporting students. During the past seven years over 1600 students have won free cash scholarships worth $100 to $1500 apiece.

President Wilson, together with five prominent college presidents, has endorsed this plan of awarding free scholarships to ambitious students. A certificate of such endorsement is placed in the hands of every student whose application for enrollment is accepted.

These scholarships are not competitive in any sense of the word, but are available to any student of good character. Each student is apportioned an exclusive radius. The Scholarships are won, not for class room proficiency, but for practical work during the summer months or in spare time through the college year.

College employment bureaus from Maine to California recommend this plan as a sure means of meeting college expenses for self-supporting students. The work possesses a dignity and distinction which invariably appeal to the ideals of college men. It is always congenial and eminently satisfactory financially. Over 400 Scholarships were awarded students the past summer, Mr. Randolph Christie, of the University of California, winning a $1500 scholarship by 14 weeks work.

Any self-supporting student can secure full particulars and a copy of "Pepper of Princeton" which tells the story, by applying personally to the local Scholarship winner, David L. Mink, D. T. U. House, Lewisburg, Pa.

INDOOR TRACK MEET.

Prof. Bromley Smith has arranged for an indoor meet in the gym for March 15. The list of events to be run off will be: 15yds. dash, standing broad jump, standing high jump, running high jump, pole vault, high dive, shot put, rope climbing, wrestling (three classes, lightweight, middleweight and heavy weight), and boxing. All who wish to enter are requested to hand their names to B. H. Mackey before the date of the meet.

STUDENT VOLUNTEER ACTIVITY

"The Personality of the Holy Spirit" was the subject of study in the Student Volunteer Meeting on Wednesday evening. It was the second meeting in a series with the same subject and the first in the study of the book, "The Three-fold Secret of the Holy Spirit," by James H. McConkey. Duffee, '19, lead the meeting. Several friends were present.

BASEBALL SCHEDULE.

The baseball schedule which is being made up by Roscoe Davis is coming along in good shape. All but about four games have been definitely arranged for. Those already scheduled include some good home attractions. The University of Pittsburgh is among these.

An interesting table of figures has been arranged by the Student Weekly at Franklin and Marshall, comparing the scholastic grades of the football men with the average grades of the student body. The comparison shows only a slight difference between the two lists of figures.

RESPONSIBILITY.

Among the many things we learn while pursuing our college courses there is none which will be respected more in our lives here at school, and more particularly in the world outside, than responsibility for the tasks assigned us.

Here is a trait which finds as great an expression in the little things of life as in the great things. The man who cultivates this trait is generally the man whom men mark as "the man who can be depended upon." The fostering of such a trait engenders confidence in the lives of those with whom we come in contact. When we gain the confidence of men then it is that we commence to have an influence over their lives. As we go about preparing to become leaders let us remember that responsibility for the tasks which devolve upon us here at college should be placed at a high premium.

PATRIOTISM

A nation is made great, not by its fruitful acres, but by the men who cultivate them; not by its great forests, but by the men who use them; not by its mines, but by the men who work in them; not by its railways, but by the men who build and run them. America was a great land when Columbus discovered it; Americans have made of it a great Nation.

In 1776 our fathers had a vision of a new Nation "conceived in liberty and dedicated to the proposition that all men are created equal." Without an army they fought the greatest of existing world empires that they might realize this vision. A third of a century later, without a navy they fought the greatest navy in the world that they might win for their Nation the freedom of the seas. Half a century after they fought through an unparalleled Civil War that they might establish for all time on this continent the inalienable right of life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness. A third of a century later they fought to emancipate an oppressed neighbor, and, victory won, gave back Cuba to the Cubans, sent an army of schoolmasters to educate for liberty the Filipinos, asked no war indemnity from their vanquished enemy, but paid him liberally for his property. Meanwhile they offered land freely to any farmer who would live upon and cultivate it, opened to foreign immigrants on equal terms the door of industrial opportunity, shared with them the political equality, and provided by universal taxation for universal education.

The cynic who can see in this history only a theme for his egotistical satire is no true American, whatever his parentage, whatever his birthplace. He who looks with pride upon this history which his fathers have written by their heroic deeds, who accepts with gratitude the inheritance which they have bequeathed to him, and who highly resolves to preserve this inheritance unimpaired and to pass it on to his descendants enlarged and enriched, is a true American, be his birthplace or his parentage what it may.

LYMAN ABBOTT.

SAVE THE TREES.

It has been noticed by the writer that some of the fellows on the Hill who have been practicing with their rifles on the campus have placed targets on some of the trees. One tree has suffered from serving the marksmen of the school to the extent of having in it at least 200 indentures from bullets. This particular tree is a basswood tree near the library which has an interesting history. It was first planted and did not thrive. Dr. Davis transplanted it just twenty years ago and has been pruning it and taking care of it in many other ways ever since that time which was twenty years ago.

We are here for only four years and we know how much we have enjoyed the shade and beauty of these trees on the campus. Isn't it just that we take steps to protect these trees so that others who come after us may enjoy them in the same way that we have?

With a little care our trees on the campus are good for at least fifty years. Do we want to shorten their lives to a period of eight or tne years?

One way we can protect our trees and insure their long life is to use a little common sense when we want to practice with our rifles. A post is just as good as a tree on which to place our targets. I believe that any fair-minded person who reads this article will agree that we should save our trees by eliminating one of the causes that will certainly destroy them.

Y. W. C. A. ENJOYS JUBILEE BANQUET

HELD IN LUTHERAN CHURCH ON FRIDAY EVENING.

Friday evening in the Lutheran church was a time of much benefit and pleasure to the Y. W. C. A. girls and their friends. A very delightful time was enjoyed by all. Miss Anna G. Seesholz was the speaker at the banquet. Her charming personality made her at once a most welcome guest. Miss Seesholz is a District Secretary of the Y. W. C. A., visiting the colleges in the eastern district. Her address was a brief review of the Y. W. C. A. from a national point of view. From the first small meeting of the Y. W. C. A. a great organization has grown with members in every nation of the work. A great organization with the purpose of "the extension of the kingdom" has resulted from the vision of a few far-sighted Christian women. Miss Seesholz paid a beautiful tribute to Miss Grace Dodge who was the late president of the whole national Y. W. C. A. Miss Dodge gave generously to the work of the Young Women's Christian Association. Every girl who heard the tribute felt a keener appreciation of Miss Dodge's life so beautifully lived in the interestof others.

To say that the girls enjoyed the banquet served by the ladies of the Lutheran Church is almost unnecessary; for every girl was quite ready for the delicious things served. Many friends of the Association were there Among these were: Mrs. John H. Harris, Mrs. Charles Gundy, Miss Annie Van Gundy, Mrs. Norman Stewart, Mrs. LeRoy Stephens, Mrs. Thomas Edwards, Miss Brown and Mrs. Llewelyn Phillips. The members of the advisory girls present were: Miss Hoffa, Mrs. Judd and Mrs. Thomas. The girls were glad to have two members from the Y. W. C. A. club in town, the Tamasseyah Club, Miss Mary Wolfe and Miss Emma Boyer.

Such a banquet can not be held without drawing the girls nearer in the broadest purpose of the Association, the extension of the kingdom.

Juniata's debating team was successful against Swarthmore in a debate held at the latter institution on Feb. 25. The question debated was: Resolved that an international police force should be established to enforce the international treaties and agreements and to preserve international peace.

FRESHMEN MEETING.

Almost every freshman turned out to their class meeting on Wednesday afternoon. President Ranck and Samuel Bryant, of the Senior Class, gave stirring speeches. Davies and McDermott were selected to lead cheers at the game on Wednesday night.

BIBLE CLASS

At the College Bible Class on Sunday morning President Harris gave an interesting discourse on "The Historical Material Relative to World-wide Judicial Bodies." The talk was preparatory to a lecture to be given at the Bible Class next Sunday on "A Supreme Court of the Nations."

He said, "Up to the present time there have been two courts similar to the one now proposed . Both have been religious in their character. The first was the court of the Jewish nation. At the time when this court held sway, the greatest punishment that could be imposed was expulsion from the synagogue with all its attendant religious and social privileges. At this time such action meant cutting the individual off from all social standing and making him an outcast from society.

The second court was the papal court with its seat at Rome. The influence of this court reached out over the greater portion of the then civilized world. Questions of religious, social, and political import were all submitted to the court for settlement. When there were disputes about the succession to the thrones of the various nations the matter was taken out of the hands of the people and decided by the court of the Pope.

To make these courts efficient there had to be a sufficient force present to compel obedience to their decisions. For this purpose both the force of arms and the rigorous enforcement of the religious means, expulsion from the synagogue by the Jews, and excommunication and interdict by the papal representatives, were successful. Nations were also pitted against nations that the authority of the papal court might be sustained. If such a court was established at the present time this method is suggested for the carrying out of the decrees of the international judicial body."

Y. W. C. A. HIKE.

A group of college girls under the direction of the Y. W. C. A. hiked to Montour on Saturday. They followed the Stony Lane until they reached an ideal place for a campfire. The fire was soon built and a lunch eagerly prepared and eaten. The trampers came down the mountain after lunch and stopped at the "house by the side of the road" to return a knife borrowed on the way up, and "the friend to man" invited them into her cozy sitting room to get warm. An enjoyable hour was spent around her cheery stove chatting and listening to various selections, classical and otherwise, on her Victrola. The "friend to man" was Mrs. Vogt, of Chillisquaque and on leaving the girls gave a Bucknell-ell-ell for their hostess. Thus cheered and warmed they started back and reached Lewisburg about 4:30, tired but refreshed and happy.

NATIONAL HIGHWAY BILL

A bill to acquire, construct and maintain a National Defense Highway; to provide employment for citizens of the United States, and to physically and mentally educate them for defense has been recently introduced in the House of Representatives by Wm. D. Stephens, a member from California. The provisions in the bill would greatly add to our nation's defense in time of war, and prove useful in the time of peace. The bill deserves the careful consideration of every American citizen. Its provisions if adopted would result in:

A National Highway circling the United States within its borders, and running strategically near the Atlantic, Pacific and Gulf Coasts, as well as our Northern and Southern Boundary lines.

A National Highway, to be used in times of peace by automobiles, auto trucks and other vehicles for commercial and healthful purposes.

A National Highway extraordinarily useful, when war threatens or we are attacked. Over it men in greatest numbers and munitions and supplies can be transported quickly to any point North, South, East or West.

A National Highway, 10,000 miles long, that will give work at good wages for many years to at least 100,000 American citizens in good times and to several times that number in "hard times." The employment of new men periodically, will add greatly to our trained reserves.

A National Highway providing physical and mental drill for all manual and clerical employes—thus fitting hundreds of thousands of young men for National defense—and to be better heads of families.

Y. M. C. A. HEARS DR. LESLIE ON "PRAYER"

ASSOCIATION IMPRESSED WITH DEEP SPIRITUAL POWER OF THE SPEAKER.

The regular weekly meeting of the Y. M. C. A. was held last Thursday night in the Y. M. C. A. hall, the speaker of the evening being Dr. W. H. Leslie. Dr. Leslie is home on furlough after many years of hard and valuable service in the most barbarous part of Afrlca. His work of recent years has been carried on in the cannibal region of the Belgian Congo. Having passed through many trying and dangerous experiences during his work as a medical missionary, Dr. Leslie was well able to speak on his chosen topic, "The Power of Prayer."

"Prayer," said the speaker, "is as immutable as the law of gravitation Every intelligent being prays at some time—whether it be in a crisis, or danger or other trouble. Prayer is the practice of the presence of God."

We must always bear in mind the dual nature of the converted Christian —the old man and the new man. If the old man is to be subjugated the new man must be nourished. Prayer cleanses and sustains the better man. In praying we must simply open our hearts to God. The seeking after God is often a hindrance, for God is seeking us.

There are many difficulties which arise in considering the value of prayer. First, "Can God think of me as an individual." In answering this question we must bear in mind that God's knowledge is infinite. He knows our every need. This should be stimulus to prayer. The unanswered prayer is a second difficulty. But we must consider whether our prayers have contained just requests. "If my word abide in you" was the condition placed upon answerable prayer.

God has a plan for each life. He can do nothing for us unless we connect up with Him in prayer. In prayer we are not overcoming God's reluctance, but freeing his power. These facts we must bear in mind; and then throw back our burdens on God when we are doing all we can.

INTERCOLLEGIATES

Lebanon Valley has a great wrestler in Jack Ozark. Recently Ozark threw Tom Draak, the Holland champion, in 42 minutes and with such force as to dislocate his opponents shoulder. Draak weighed 45 pounds more than Ozark.

The rumor that Eddie Mahan, captain of Harvard's football team of last fall, had been selected as backfield coach of the University of California has been denied by the authorities of that college. Mahan's name has been considered, but no steps have been taken toward securing his services for next fall.

Barrett, Cornell's star quarterback, has been declared ineligible for further participation in athletics at Cornell on account of deficiency in scholastic work. Barrett is a star baseball player and will be greatly missed on the Cornell nine. It is rumored that he will enter Syracuse for the next term.

VARSITY BUCKLES ANOTHER SCALP

Registrar's Office

CHALKED UP ELEVENTH VICTORY OF SEASON.

WINS HANDILY FROM URSINUS FIVE 52-19

The Varsity added another victory to her already long string by defeating the Ursinus College quintet on Friday evening, March 10, in a fast, but one-sided game, the score being 52-19. Although they displayed some excellent floor work, the visitors were outclassed from the very beginning, and at no time were they able to overtake Bucknell's early lead.

Using excellent judgment both in passing and shooting, the Varsity worked together with clock-like precision, with the assuring result that twenty-three field goals was their total for the evening. Besides scoring heavily, Bucknell guarded closely enough to hold Ursinus to six two-pointers.

Bucknell started off with the usual rush, "Scow" Garner caging a shot ten seconds after the whistle had sounded. After some fast dribbling Shaffner tossed one from beneath the basket and Musser followed up with a pretty goal from the side. Boyles and Garner then contributed three points with a field toss and a foul, after which Ursinus opened up its scoring column with a foul-goal by Light. Passing from one side of the floor to the other, "Shaff" and Murray scored in rapid order on long shots from the field. After Ursinus had scored on another foul, Shaffner, who by the way, was "making 'em" from all angles, and "Tony" sent two more through the net. At this point Ursinus stimulated by another foul goal, seemed to pull together, and Light's shot from the floor was the immediate result. Musser, Boyles and Shaffner each scored for Bucknell before time was called. Wiest scored from the field for Ursinus within the closing minutes of the period. The score at half time was 28-9.

After Boyles had scored early in the second half, the Varsity seemed to temporarily loose their eyes, many shots going wide of the mark during the first ten minutes. Ursinus scored on Kerr's pretty shot and added one more a moment later on a foul. Garner converted two Ursinus fouls into points, before the Collegeville team scored on two fouls and Light's field goal. Returning to their old form at this juncture, the Orange and Blue team, with the single interruption of a Ursinus foul, scored ten goals from field in rapid succession with every player having a share in the attack on the basket. Dribbling down the centre of the floor, Wiest scored a spectacular field-goal for Ursinus a moment before the final whistle blew.

The playing of Shaffner for Bucknell, and Wiest for Ursinus were the features of the contest. "Shaf" had a big night with nine field-goals to his credit, while Wiest was one of the fastest floormen seen in the gym this year.

The score:

Ursinus		Bucknell
Light	forward.	Garner
Wiest	forward.	Murray
Kerr	centre.	Musser
Schaub	guard.	Boyles
Havard	guard.	Shaffner

Field goals: Light 2, Wiest 2, Kerr 2; Garner 2, Murray 5, Musser 3, Boyles 4, Shaffner 9. Foul goals: Light, 7 out of 11; Garner 6 out of 12. Referee: Jackson.

ANNOUNCES HIMSELF AS A CANDIDATE

Mr. Clair Groover, '15, of Lewisburg, has announced himself as a candidate for the State Assembly on the Democratic ticket.

HAS INTERESTING ARTICLE.

Heber W. Youngkin, '09, has an interesting article on "The Importance of Drug Plant Cultivation in the United States," in the last number of "The Mulford Digest," a medical magazine published in Philadelphia. In his article he emphasizes the need of cultivating drug plants in this country since the war has practically shut off all such imports. The conditions which must first be taken into consideration are the nature of the soil, climate and proximity of other plants in the section intended for cultivation. Several illustrations, reproduced in their natural color lend attractiveness to the interesting and well written treatise.

MEDICAL SOCIETY VISITS THE DANVILLE ASYLUM

INTERESTING DAY SPENT AS GUESTS OF OFFICIALS OF INSTITUTION.

On Saturday morning a party of twenty-two medical students and others left Lewisburg with Prof. Stewart to inspect the State Hospital for the Insane at Danville. Superintendent H. B. Meredith, M. D., received the delegation in the board room of the main building and extended a very cordial welcome to the society. He gave a most instructive account of the aims, equipment and methods of the institution which led the students to an intelligent appreciation of what they later saw in wards. Following his lecture luncheon was served in the amusement hall where on three evenings each week entertainments are given the patients. The very finest of ice cream, cake and coffee were included in the menu. The party then divided, one to visit the men's wards, the other the women's; later all visited the commissary, industrial and farm departments. Doctors Meredith, Hammers, Shellenberger, Chamberlain, Askenhurst and McCormick accompanied the society on a tour of inspection which for thoroughness is seldom offered to visitors. Three main types, idiot, imbicile and dement were designated, while their particular diseases, as infective exhaustive psychosis, intoxication, phychosis, manic-depressive psychosis, etc., were described in many instances. The acute wards, the convalescent wards and the drotherapeutic departments were of special interest from the medical standpoint, while other departments, as the industrial and commissary, testified to the great size of the daily operations of the plant.

The 1620 patients make this one of the six largest asylums in the State. It takes 300 gallons of milk, 130 dozen eggs, 800 loaves of bread and 2 to 4 car loads of coal (80 to 160 tons) a day to supply their needs. 600 pounds of meat and 18 bushels of potatoes are required for a single meal. The weekly wash includes 30,000 pieces. An oven was seen which can accommodate 300 turkeys at a time. The chapel seats 600. The hospital has an annual budget of approximately $400,000. It employs eleven physicians and surgeons, besides 90 men and women nurses. The oldest case is one of thirty-four years standing. This single man has cost the State about $15,000. These few facts give a glimpse in to the extent of the undertakings of this hospital. Those who took the trip feel that it was a most instructive day and everyone appreciated the cordial hospitality extended the socict by Dr. Meredith and his staff.

GLEE CLUB AT STATE COLLEGE

RETURNS VISIT OF STATE CLUB LAST YEAR.

GIVES JOINT CONCERT WITH STATE SINGERS

Local Club Acquits Itself Splendidly.—Entertained At a Dance After the Concert.—Concert to be Repeated Next Year.

The purpose of the daily rehearsals of the glee club during the past two weeks was made clearly evident on Friday afternoon when this group of songsters gathered at the Pennsy station in time for the 1:45 train for State ollege. There were twenty-five in all, including a violinist and a pianist, and all were tuned up and regulated to the best possible quality of tone. They reached Lemont at 4:30 p. m. from which place they were taken to State College in automobiles. Here they were cared for and cordially entertained by the different fraternities in their beautiful homes.

Immediately after dinner, or about 6:30 Friday evening, the members of the State Glee Club congregated with the Bucknell Glee Club in the large auditorium where a final rehearsal was held before the concert. Mr. Robinson, the instructor and leader of the State Club, took charge of the rehearsal.

The doors opened at 7:30 and about 1500 people were admitted to an excellent entertainment. The concert was given with a great degree of success and each number was heartily and enthusiastically applauded. Though it was announced before the concert that there was to be a dance and reception for the Bucknell Glee Club at 9:30 and that there would therefore be a lack of time for encores, notwithstanding, after the seventh number of the program rendered by the home club, the audience continued in their applause until an encore was given them. Between numbers the Bucknell Club sat at one side of the auditorium and the State Club directly opposite, thus giving the clubs themselves opportunity to enjoy each others' selections. Among the most enjoyable numbers was that rendered by the State Mandolin Club, which was surely evidence of a great leal of practice and culture After rendering a classical selection they concluded their number by playing some very good and up-to-date rag time pieces. Eshelman, '18, rendered a most pleasing violin selection, while Adams, '18, was equally good at the piano. It should be known that the State College Glee Club won the second place at the intercollegiate Glee Club Contest held in New York not

BIG FIVE WILL BE LAST ATTRACTION

TO PLAY THE VARSITY ON THIS WEDNESDAY EVENING.

The Varsity basket-ball season will be brought to a close on Wednesday evening when the Big Five team of Williamsport will be the feature at 7:30 in the gym.

The Big Five has established an enviable record for itself this season, having lost but one or two games. The majority of its games have been on foreign floors and judging from the manner in which they have been bringing home the bacon to the Lumber City shows that they have a team worthy of giving the Varsity a great battle.

The Varsity since it struck its winning stride has not been pushed to any degree to win in its games on the home floor, but with such an opponent as the Big Five they will have to extend themselves to win. A good fast clean game can be expected on Wednesday night

The gym meet which was scheduled for Wednesday night will be moved up to Friday night.

DRAMATIC TRIO.

The Dramatic Trio, composed of Miss Hamler, '15, Richards, '14, and Campbell, '16, journeyed to Picture Rocks and delighted a large audience in the Baptist church of that town on Friday evening, March 10. Regardless of a cold evening a large house greeted the Trio when they made their appearance, and judging from the hearty applause the numbers were very well received. After the entertainment the Trio adjourned to J. W. Little's studio, where they were shown some of Mr. Little's splendid landscape paintings, recently sketched on the Pacific Coast. A hearty invitation was extended to the members of the Trio to return for another engagment at a future date.

STUDENTS HEAR LECTURE ON PHYSIOGNOMY

DELIVERED BY PROF. A. E. WILLIS. A NOTED PHYSIOGNOMIST.

A large number of the students were present at the lecture given Friday afternoon in Bucknell Hall by Prof. A. E. Willis, a prominent physiognomist from New York City. Prof. Willis is now on one of his lecturing tours through the State speaking in the various high schools and colleges. In his lecture on "Physiognomy" he said:

"Physiognomy is a science founded on observation. It is in reality the connecting link between natural history and psychology and consequently should be studied in connection with these branches.

There are five ways of sizing up a man; by form, color, expression, action, and sensation. His form is the tangible expression of the soul within. The character, personality, and soul mould the body and their cultivation are manifest in the changing features. As there are no two souls alike there are no two faces alike, the face being the indicator of the inner-self, and as changes of character change the features, so do changes of thought change the facial expression. Thought precedes action and action of the facial muscles produces the expression. There are three kinds of expression: muscular, due to voluntary action; nervous or physeological, due to the feelings; and the expression fixed by the form of the face. When this latter expression is changed by the dermatologist the person treated is forced to wear a lie upon his face. Form is also an indication of character in that its utility and adaptability are shown. A broad flat head indicates selfishness, voracity in men as well as in the animal. Likewise a long, sharp head is the indication of a timid, harmless, inoffensive being.

The shape of the head is important. Great width at the ears shows temper and executive ability; when the head is narrow here it indicates an unselfish and humane character. A high, broad, forehead shows poetic imagination. A high head at the back indicates will power and control of men; low here marks lack of initiative and lack of control; broad and high here shows pride and vanity.

The nose, eyes and mouth also are marks of character. A business man is characterized by executive ability shown in thin lips, broad nose at junction with face, broad forehead, broad head at the ears. The eye is the indication of the intelligence and in an intelligent man brightens the whole face. A small, light eye is secretive, while the large brown eye talks too much. The thick lips of the negro shows an overemotional nature needing to be cooled down by education; the thin lip shows a deficiency of emotion, almost fully controlled by the intellect.

NO BAND IN SUNDAY BIBLE PARADE.

PATE-KNOBS OF GREEN DISAPPEAR

FRESHIES BY VIRTUE OF VICTORY LOSE BUTTONS.

SOPHS BEATEN IN ANNUAL CAGE GAME 26-25

First-year Five Accorded Title of "College Champs."— Free-for-all Ensues When Freshmen Start a Parade Between Halves.

The inter-class basket-ball series was brought to an auspicious close on Wednesday evening, when the Freshmen defeating the Sophs by the score 26-25 won the school championship. Because of the intense interest which this contest had excited, not only on account of the calibre of the two teams, but also on account of the principle of the green button at stake, the gym was filled to its utmost capacity. Each class was represented by a large delegation of members, male and female, who encouraged their favorites with almost continued cheering, the liveliest heard at Bucknell in many moons.

As to the game itself, it was a struggle from start to finish, and although very rough at times was as good an exhibition of the cage game as has been given in the gym this year. The Freshmen, by virtue of superior passing and the steady foul-tossing of Hendren, took the lead early in the game and much to their classmen's delight they had a distinct advantage when the whistle blew at half time, the score being 17-12. The close guarding of the Freshies was too much for the Sophomore attack to fathom, two goals from field being their total for the half.

Between the periods a Freshman parade headed by the 1919 band sought to march across the floor, but pandemonium broke loose when the Sophs rushed the line, and a free-for-all ensued. It was several minutes before order was restored between the rival forces.

The first part of the second half was marked by little scoring, both teams covering up too thoroughly to allow many open shots. Referee Jackson was kept busy calling fouls during this time, which coupled with several accidents caused short delays. Toward the close of the game the Sophomores staged a brilliant rally which fell but one point shy of tying the score. Bonham, Elliott and Shilling each scored from the field within the last few minutes of play; but the rejuvenation had come too late.

Freshmen		Sophomores
Mangin	forward.	Harris
Gerhart	forward.	Hurley
Martin	centre.	Peale
Hendren	guard.	Bonham
Heinrich	guard.	Elliott

Substitutions: Shilling for Hurley; Gaenzel for Gerhart. Field goals: Mangin 3, Martin 2, Hendren 2, Harris 2, Hurley 1, Bonham 1, Elliott 1, Shilling 1. Foul goals: Hendren 12 out of 20; Harris 13 out of 22. Referee: Jackson.

CLASS MEMORIAL.

A great need at Bucknell has been met by the Senior class in its selection of a class memorial. The monument which the class of 1916 intends to leave to its Alma Mater is a concrete section of grandstand which will seat at least three hundred persons. To this future classes may add until Bucknell's athletic field will be graced with a stand which will accommodate quite comfortably all who may desire to witness an Orange and Blue contest.

The selection meets with the solid endorsement of the faculty, the alumni, and the student body since it will mean an addition to the campus possessing not only beauty but properties of usefulness as well.

With this inauguration of a section of grandstand which will in a few years take unto itself other like sections, another of the thorns in Bucknell's athletic side will be removed. Last year saw the removal of one of the greatest of disabilities under which athletics had to suffer when the field was placed in a fit condition for every branch of sport.

The ball has started to roll and it is hoped that it shall continue to do so because of gently applied shoves from the classes who will show an insight to the existent needs at Bucknell such as has been exhibited by 1916.

The Memorial Committee is to be congratulated on its selection.

SENIORS MEET AND SELECT MEMORIAL

CLASS MEETING HELD IN THE CHAPEL THIS MORNING.

The Seniors met in a class meeting this morning directly following the class in Political Ethics at 8:15 in the chapel.

President Ranck called the meeting to order and as the first business of the meeting announced the following committee on invitations, Chairman C. E. Tilton, Hiram Norman, John DeHaven, Helen Jenkins, Ruth Mattern and Mary L. Jones.

Following the report of C. E. Butt treasurer of the class, Samuel M. Bryant gave the report of the Senior Memorial Committee containing the decision to which the members had come concerning a class memorial and which was to be submitted to the class for approval. Their selection was a section of concrete grandstand to be erected on the athletic field. The selection of the committee was submitted to a vote of the class and unanimously endorsed.

With this the meeting adjourned.

FRESHIES APPLY THE TORCH TO BUTTONS

BURN CAP TRIMMINGS IN BIG BON-FIRE THURSDAY MORNING EARLY.

Elated over their well-earned victory in their annual basket-ball game with the Sophs, the Freshmen made merry during the early hours of Thursday morning. Gathering wood, or anything which looked like it from all parts of the campus and town they soon had a roaring fire on the athletic field to aid in their celebration of the victory.

The little green buttons had been cast aside immediately after the game; but there still remained enough to do in order to keep things moving. An old-fashioned war dance served to liven the first-year men up somewhat, after which they all took a turn at speech-making and entertaining the crowd. When the blaze had died down a trip around town, mixed with Bucknell-el-el's and good-bye buttons put the finishing touches to a night long to be remembered by the class of 1919.

COLLEGE BIBLE CLASS

Dr. Harris spoke on "The Supreme Court of Nations" yesterday in his regular Sunday morning Bible Class. The attendance yesterday was not as large as usual, but those who were present greatly appreciatd the tone of the President's address.

In his early statements Dr. Harris defined the difference between morality and law. "Morality," he said, "is that which says you ought while law is that which commands that you must. The Golden Rule and the Sermon on the Mount are the basis upon which universal morality rests and upon this morality it is possible for international law to be established. International law is not really a law, but morality as set forth by great writers, such as Justinian, Koch and Marshall."

"International law," continued Dr. Harris, "is made up treaties and agreements between nations. The speaker then proceeded to show the power of the Court of Christendom which settled points of dispute between kings. The Pope was at its head and was elected by the College of Cardinals who could depose him on certain grounds. In 1216 this body reached its climax with Innocent III."

The next point brought out was in regards to laws. Dr Harris said, "There will be no laws yet." Some cases which arise under the international court will, however, be justiciable, that is settled with money. As an instance of this he cited the present Prize Court which disposes of ships which are captured on the ground of carrying goods contraband of war. Cases are not justiciable where blood is shed. At this juncture Dr. Harris spoke of our agreement with England which declares that we shall not declare war against one another until one year of investigation has been made. The speaker commented on the possibilities of having averted this present European conflict had nations done this.

Dr. Harris in conclusion declared that the Supreme Court of Nations would not work, and used as proof for his statement a case which might involve Russia. "Russia," he said, "in 40 years from now will have three hundred millions of people and be able to put fifteen millions on the field. Should Russia by contempt of the court become the culprit to be punished, the Court would have a monstrous time marshalling together enough policemen to enforce her mandates. The question then is, 'How are they going to enforce orders?'" The President then said he could see nothing in it.

Next Sunday Dr. Harris will speak on "The Mexican Situation."

FOUNDER'S DAY BANQUET.

The S. A. E's. observed Founder's Day at the house on Thursday evening with a sumptuous banquet which started at 6:30 and lasted until about 9 o'clock. Mr. Leroy T. Butler acted as toastmaster.

long ago, and the Friday night's concert was given to celebrate the first visit of a Bucknell Glee Club at State, and State's winning of second place in the great New York Contest.

After the concert, as has been previously stated, there was a dance given in honor of Bucknell's Glee Club in the Armory. It was largely attended by students and towns-people. The Penn State Orchestra furnished the music for the evening. This was a great treat for the visitors as well as those who had already heard it. The Madolin Club played for two of the dances, which was one of the novel features of the entertainment. This event ended about 11:30 p. m. according to one of the rules of the College.

So far it had been a very interesting and exciting evening for the glee clubs and all were glad to retire upon their return to their lodging places. After breakfast the following morning, the Bucknell men were politely conducted about the buildings and other points of interest at State College by very recent acquaintances. This was a great treat for the club, as a great majority of them had never been to State College.

After lunch, they said good-bye to their kind friends, and left for Bucknell, with their hearts filled with gratitude and good feeling for State. Surely a good time was had by the home club and it is sincerely hoped that it can be arranged to have another joint concert next year.

BUCKNELL UNIVERSITY.

FINAL GAME A VICTORY

MARKS TWELFTH VICTORY FOR THE TEAM.

BIG FIVE OF WILLIAMSPORT BEATEN 27-18

Game One of the Fastest Witnessed On Gym Floor This Season.—Visitors Prove Fast Passers.—Murray and Boyles In Fine Fettle.

The game between the Varsity and the Williamsport Big Five team which was substituted on the schedule for the annual Alumni contest, proved to be one of fastest seen on the gym floor this season, the Varsity winning out by the score of 27-18.

The visitors, although somewhat outweighed, put up a defence, which made the Varsity work hard for every point, and it was only their long field shots that enabled Bucknell to win. Being naturally fast on floor-work, the Williamsporters were in the game every minute of the time, the result being that the Orange and Blue team was unable to roll up its customary fifty points.

Suffering, perhaps, from lack of practice, the passing and shooting of the Varsity was somewhat off color; but their playing clearly demonstrated that they had a certain reserve strength, which they could always bring to light, when the critical moment arrived.

Williamsport was first to score, when Cornwell tossed a foul, but their lead disappeared when Garner scored on a foul shot and a goal from field. After another foul goal, Stabler made a pretty shot from the middle of the floor, and Cornwell added one more foul goal to his credit. Boyles and Murray put Bucknell in the running with cleverly basketed shots which came in quick succession. Two more fouls had made points for Williamsport, when Murray caged another goal. After Musser had counted on a shot from the side of the basket, each team scored on foul shots before the half ended. Bucknell totaled five field goals to the visitors one, but Cornwell's foul shooting held the score to 14-8.

The Big Five had scored twice on fouls before Murray and Garner scored two-pointers at the beginning of the second period. The Williamsport guards were working hard at this stage, and it was only after a spirited scrimmage that "Tony" scored from beneath the basket. By some clever passing Earnest secured the ball at a point past the middle of the floor and scored on the prettiest shot of the game Cornwell added two more points to the Williamsport score on foul shots, after which Garner and Boyles counted on open shots from the field. Stabler scored on a field goal and Boyles tossed a foul. The whistle blew just after Boyles had scored on a long shot from the floor.

Murray and Boyles did Bucknell's best work, while Speaker and Cornwell were the Big Five's star performers.

"Mike" Dorizas, Penn's heavyweight wrestler, finished his wrestling career at Penn by winning the intercollegiate title from Jewett, of Princeton, in 20 seconds. During his four years at college "Mike" has not met defeat on the mat. Cornell, by winning three out of seven events, won the intercollegiate championship.

KAPPA DELTA ENTERTAINED BY D. T. U.

On Saturday evening, March 18th, Kappa Delta was delightfully entertained by Delta Theta Upsilon. The party was in the nature of a St. Patrick's day party, although cards were played by many. In the St. Patrick guessing contest, Miss McLeod was the winner. Miss Rose Rainey, of the Domestic Science Department, was chaperone for the affair. At ten o'clock, as usual, the "Semites" started on their homeward way, and a farewell yell by each bunch ended a happy evening.

ANOTHER BUCKNELL RAILROADER PROMOTED

B. M. FRYMIRE, '07. IS MADE ASSISTANT SUPERVISOR OF PENNA. RAILROAD.

For the second time within a short period the Pennsylvania Railroad System "Information" issued for employees and the public gives notice of another promotion for a Bucknell "railroader."

This time it is Boyd M. Frymire, '07, who, after he had completed his course here entered the service of the Pennsylvania Railroad on February 19, 1906, as Roadman on the New York Division.

On April 1, 1910, Frymire was transferred to the office of the Principal Assistant Engineer, Jersey City. He was advanced to Transitman office of the Engineer of Maintenance of Way, on May 15, 1912, and was promoted to Assistant Supervisor, Cresson Division on Nov. 1, 1912. On May 1, 1915, he was transferred to the Renovo Division at Driftwood, Pa., as Asistant Supervisor.

Mr. Frymire was appointed Assistant Supervisor of the Middle Division on Feb. 1, 1916.

ONE ON TEDDY.

The German Crown Prince, while having a little chat with his father, the Kaiser, asked:

"Father, who started this war?"

The Kaiser said, "I know but I do not like to tell."

"Did Cousin George start it?"

"No."

"Did Cousin Nicholas start it?"

"No."

"Did Cousin Francis Joseph start it?"

"No."

"Well then, who did?"

"I'll tell you my son. You remember when Teddy Roosevelt came out of Central Africa and called on us several years ago, and I showed him our magnificent army and our great and glorious navy, the Zeppelins and the submarines and the great gas bags, Teddy was greatly surprised. He slapped me on the back and said, 'Billy, my boy, you can lick the whole world,' and I like a damned fool, thought I could."

The Phoenix, Swarthmore's weekly is at present advocating the establishment of a press bureau system to handle all college news sent to Philadelphia papers. The move is a good one which would prove successful in the majority of colleges if given a thorough trial.

MEXICAN TROUBLE IS DISCUSSED

SUBJECT OF SUNDAY MORNING TALK.

DR. HARRIS TREATS SUBJECT IN BIBLE CLASS

President Draws Parallel Between Israelitish and Mexican Situation.—Says Geography Does Not Permit of Unity.

Dr. Harris discussed the Mexican Situation in his address to the College Bible Class last Sunday morning. He first drew a parallel between the Israelitish situation and the present Mexican situation.

The Israelitish problem arose from the fact that Moses and Josuha had passed by and there was none to take their place. Anarchy followed; and with it religious decay and moral debasement. The Mexican problem has arisen because none was found to take the place of Diaz; and the same results have followed.

In considering national history, one of the first things to do," said Pres. Harris, "is to study national geography." In this respect also Palestine and Mexico offer a striking similarity. Palestine is a hilly country and has no great rivers and valleys; as a result there was no national unity in Palestine. Similarly in Mexico we find great hills, but no large rivers or extensive valleys; and consequently that country is today in a state of civil war.

Geographical conditions may, however, be overcome to a great extent by the extension of railroads. The railroads helped to unite the United States which were in danger of division by the Allegheny mounain range. In Mexico also the country will gradually be taken over by foreign settlers and thus lose its indentity.

Three other difficulties stand in the way of Mexican unity. The first is race difference; for the population of that Latin-American country includes Europeans—especially Spaniards; Indians —that is, the original Mexicans; and mixed breeds. The last named composed forty-three per cent. of the population. The second difficulty is that of party strife. In Mexico there are two great factions, the Progressives and the Conservatives. The Conservatives oppose all advanced ideas and object to education of the masses; in this they are helped by the Church. A third difficulty is the illiteracy of the people, eight-two per cent. of whom cannot read or write, and thus vote as directed by others. These difficulties place Mexico in a position of irresponsibility; and so she becomes a public charge in the family of nations.

An insane man is cared for and a guardian appointed. A bankrupt is placed in the hands of a receiver. This same rule applies in international affairs, and the morally irresponsible country is placed under the guardianship of a large enlightened nation and the bankrupt state in the hands of a national receiver. No one doubts, therefore, the right of the United States assuming the guardianship of Mexico; but the question is one of political expediency. It may cost us much, but duty comes first. We must help the Mexican nation to fulfill its obligations to the world. We must help them to look after themselves. This latter we can do by helping them religiously—by showing them the principles of government in self-governing church. It is also the political duty of the United States to intervene in Mexico.

KAPPA SIG FIRE

Fire this afternoon at 3 o'clock destroyed the whole rear frame-portion of the Kappa Sigma House. The origin of the fire is unknown, but was probably due to the chimney. Everything was saved in the brick portion of the fraternity home. Had the operator put in the right call the fire company might have reached the scene earlier and saved the greater part of the structure.

FRESHIE BASKET-BALLERS DINE ON TURKEY

GIVEN SUMPTUOUS BANQUET BY MRS W. L. GERHART.

The victorious freshman basket-ball team and their coach were treated to a sumptuous turkey dinner by Mrs. W. L. Gerhart, of Lewisburg, the mother of Weber Gerhart, forward on the team which conquered the sophomores in their great battle of March 8. The banquet was given as a surprise to "Gery."

Turkey and all the attendant "fixin's" were set before the lads who had made it possible for the freshies to get rid of the little green button. Appropriate favors and decorations accompanied the "feed" and every fellow present was pleased beyond expectation with the efforts of their hostess. One of the especial features of the banquet was the appearance of three freshman girls who attended to the wants of the hungry youths in an admirable fashion.

LAST OF LYCEUM COURSE NUMBERS TO BE MARCH 29

INTERPRETATIVE READING OF "THE SHEPHERD OF THE HILLS."

The last number which the Y. M. C. A. Lyceum Course Committee will present to its patrons on Wednesday evening, March 29, in the Methodist church is an especially attractive one and in many ways can be termed the feature entertainment of the quartette given by the Hill organization.

Miss Beryl Buckley, interpretative reader, of whom nothing but the most highly complimentary remarks have been heard, will on that date render an interpretative reading of Harold Bell Wright's "The Sheperd of the Hills."

Miss Buckley in order to give to the public as true an interpretation as possible to this book which every reader has found so interesting, visited the scenes of its conception, there lived among the people who were the real characters and sensed the local atmosphere and color.

She made her home in the same house occupied by Harold Bell Wright while writing the story. She met and conversed with "Old Mat" and "Aunt Molly," rode horseback over the old trail and rambled in every scene found in the book until she had really lived it.

Then with such an insight in the lives of the characters and clear understanding of the story into which they are woven she began to commit the lines. The story so full of love, forgiveness, human sympathy and understanding of the lives of the humble people of the hill country could not find a better interpreter.

In her introduction Miss Beckley recites the incidents of her visit which adds much to the understanding and enjoyment of the interpretation itself. Anyone having the opportunity to hear all of this should not commit the grave error of staying from the Methodist Church on Wednesday, March 29.

Zinn, of Albright, has been re-elected captain of the basket-ball five for next year. Zinn was injured when Bucknell played Albright early in the season and his services were lost to his team for most of the season.

FIRST INDOOR MEET HELD

CONDUCTED IN GYM ON WEDNESDAY EVENING.

GOOD MATERIAL UNEARTHED FOR TRACK

Many of the Events Closely Contested.—Donaldson Gets Back At Eyster and Wins In Sraight Falls In Their Bout.

Bucknell's first indoor athletic meet, in several years, proved very interesting to a fair-sized crowd assembled in the gymnasium on Friday night. All of the events were closely contested, and won only after the most strenuous efforts on the part of the contestants.

The heavyweight wrestlers, Donaldson, '17, and Eyster, '17, kept the crowd on edge by a fast and clever exhibition of strength, Donaldson finally winning in two straight falls. Eyster had thrown Donaldson on the night of the Junior Smoker, but was unable to repeat. The middleweight wrestling bout was won by Thomas, '19, over Cook, '19, in two straight falls. Thomas outweighed Cook, but Cook proved game and made him work for both falls.

Hewitt, '18, and Hendren, '19, took part in a fast three-round boxing exhibition during the course of the evening. Hewitt proved to be clever and very fast on his feet, but Hendren's weight was too much of an obstacle to overcome. Both the wrestling and the boxing bouts were handled in an efficient manner by McDermott, '19, acting as referee.

In the other events the Freshmen had things pretty much to themselves, except for the high jump and pole vault which were won by Davis, '16, Hendren, Leslie and Lewis proved the all-around stars of the meet. No records were smashed in any of the events, but some promising material was brought to light in the class of '19, a fact which speaks well for a successful track team in the Spring.

15 yard dash—Lewis, '19, first; Leslie, '19, and Worthington, '19, tied for second.

Standing broad jump—Lewis, '19, first; Leslie, '19, second; Gandy, '19, third.

Height—Lewis, '19, 8 ft., 5 3-4 in. Leslie, '19, 8 ft., 1 3-4 in.

High dive—Hendren, '19, first; Leslie, '19, second; Donaldson, '17, third.

Height—Hendren, '19, 4 ft., 8 in. Leslie, '19, 4 ft., 6 in.

Shot put—Hendren, '19, first; Gaenzel, '19, second; Thomas, '19, third.

Distance—Hendren, '19, 29 ft., 8 1-2 in. Gaenzel, '19, 29 ft. 8 1-4 in.

Height—Davis, '16, 8 ft. Leslie, '19, 7 ft., 6in.

Running high jump—Davis, '16, and Gaenzel, '19, tied for first; Lewis, '19, second.

Height—Davis, '16, Gaenzel, '19, 5 ft. Lewis, '19, 4 ft., 9 in.

Time—Thomas, '19, 102-5 sec. Donaldson, '17, 12 2-5 sec.

Heavyweight wrestling—Won by Donaldson, '17, over Eyster, '17, in straight falls.

BASEBALL PRACTICE

Baseball practice will begin the opening of the spring term, March 29. The next week, although the schedule has not been announced, the Varsity is slated to open with Bloomsburg Normal. The condition of the field at present does not presage an early start. Battery candidates have been working out in the gym lately. The prospects are fine for a successful season.

THE TEAM'S RECORD.

As we depart for our homes at this season of the year to enjoy the days granted us for our spring recess, we have among many other feelings one of elation, produced by the splendid record which our Varsity has accomplished in basket-ball.

This especially appeals to those of us who leave for home knowing that there will be friends from other colleges there who will be ready and anxious to swap "Alma Mater" notes with us. When we come, in our discussions, to athletics of the the past term, it will be our pleasure to hold aloft a record which in its recitation will be accompanied with a big smile and a heart that glows with pride for the five which "pulled the trick."

The Varsity's record of twelve victories in fifteen games as we look at it once again, increases in our estimation. Think of those close rubs which the Orange and Blue gave to the two teams which were victors over them by just one point! Think of that time when the same quintet surged thru a three-day trip with nary a substitute and came back to their lair with three well-earned victories! Think of the one point which alone stood between Coach Cockill's boys and one more clean sweep of a foreign invasion! And then when you have thought of all these things take another thought which will bear you one year ahead, and dwell upon the chances which this quintet, intact save in one respect, has for making another wonderful record next season.

Y. M. C. A. HOLDS ONE OF BEST MEETINGS OF YEAR

REV. RUSSELL, OF ALTOONA, GIVES HIGHLY PROFITABLE TALK.

Rev. Russell, of Altoona, was the speaker at Y. M. C. A. last Thursday night. A young man, recently graduated from the theological seminary, Mr. Russell was enabled to speak on a common ground with college men; and his address was full of the confidence and enthusiasm which is so attractive to students. The talk was an informal heart-to-heart talk from one young man to a body of young men; from one who had pased through college to those who are passing through college.

Two main thoughts were brought out in the speaker's address, and both were thoughts worthy of careful consideration. The first was love for and appreciation of our fellow students. Said the speaker, the love we dovelope for men while in college will characterize our lives in the outer world where we meet men in all professions and occupations. We must realize the individual worth of men; we must see not a poorly-clad man, but a man with a divine soul; we must see not a man of rude speech, but a man with a great heart and wonderful possibilities. All really great men have recognized the good in their fellow-men and this recognition is the basis of Christian social life and the distinguishing feature of great men.

The second thought which Rev. Russel emphasized as being the important one, was that of the "Victorious Life." We must realize, he emphasized, that the victorious life is not so much one of surrender as of receiving blessings. God pours into our lives infinitely more than we give up for Him. Two conditions must be satisfied by him deserving the victoriours life. He must first "let go." He must surrender the self life to a higher life of service to God and his fellow-men. Then he must "let God;" that is, he must take hold of Jesus Christ. Too often we misinterpret the method of living nobly. We strike out aimlessly by ourselves thinking to win the victory. Christ has won the victory for us and He will give us strength. What we must do is to "Live in Christ and He is us" and then victory will be assured. We must say that we cannot beat a retreat, but that we can and will beat the charge to take us on to victory.

The earnestness of the speaker lent great force to his words; and helped to make the talk inspiring and helpful to all who availed themselves of the opportunity of hearing Rev. Russell.

SIMPLE VIRTUES BEST BECOME COLLEGE MAN

EDITOR OF BOSTON AMERICAN COMMENTS ON YALE ATHLETICS.

An alumnus traveling in New England, with a keen appreciation of what readers of a college paper like, sent the Bucknellian during the past week an editorial which he clipped from the Boston American of March 14. The author of the article which follows printed in full, has touched upon the keynote of athletic deterioration in other places save Yale. The article headed "The Simple Virtues Best Become the College Man," reads thus:

"Last week the figures concerning the cost of educating the Yale senior class were published. They are a little surprising. The average cost per man was $4,073.

"There were other items of interest made public concerning the senior class. Almost one-half of the class who drink took their first drink at Yale. Almost one-half of the class who use tobacco contracted the habit at Yale.

"Yale used to be the college of Spartan simplicity. In those days, only ten years ago, Yale, then one-half the size of Harvard, nearly always defeated Harvard in the major athletics. A victory for Yale over Harvard on the football field and on the water was so commonplace that it scarcely gave Yale men a thrill.

"All that is changed now. A few years ago the social influence of a certain very wealthy young man from New York made him captain of the crew, and Yale lost the race that year for the first time in years. It was the beginning of the end of Yale's glory in athletics on all fields.

"Until quite recently Harvard had been in the habit of putting hothouse plants, whose fathers had money, on her athletic teams, and the result was always disaster. This practice has been wisely changed, and the change has produced series of victories quite unprecedented in the history of Harvard.

"Dilettantism, favoritism, luxury, are as destructive of the athletic canacity of a college as the are destructive of the warlike capacity of a nation. Simplicity and the virtues which attend it are as important as training and equipment both in athletics and in war."

VIOLIN RECITAL.

Lovers of violin music had the privilege of listening to a well-rendered program by the pupils of Miss Armstrong on Monday evening. The large crowd gathered in Bucknell Hall thoroughly enjoyed the selections from beginning to end, and showed their appreciation by generous applause. The program as a whole was well arranged, and so rendered as to bring out the careful training and skill of each participant. The concert numbers and the selection "Liebesfreund" by Thomas Eshelman proved exceptionally pleasing to the audience, though to pick out features would be very difficult owing to the excellent rendition of each number. Miss Armstrong and her pupils are to be commended for their splendid entertainment.

A RETROSPECT OF BASKET-BALL

MOST SUCCESSFUL SEASON OF YEARS COMPLETED.

VARSITY WINS TWELVE OUT OF FIFTEEN GAMES

Gettysburg, State and Lebanon Valley Only Team To Defeat Orange and Blue.—Team Remains Practically Intact For Next Year.

With the humbling of the Big Five from Williamsport on Wednesday night in Tustin gymnasium, the Varsity quintet rolled up its twelfth victory and incidentally closed a season which can be set down as the best in the history of basket-ball at the College on the Hill. An unfolding of the team's record shows that in fifteen starts they were only forced to admit defeat thrice. Two of these defeats came early in the season and were administered upon a different team from that which made the grand record hung up for the Orange and Blue.

Bloomsburg, whose appearance on the first space of a Bucknell schedule is as sure a thing as limberger and beer on the menu of a German nightlunch, was the first team the Varsity met. They proved easy. Muhlenberg from whom both games were annexed this season, was next in order and put up a stubborn game, but fell 23-14. Following this hard game the team tackled State on the latter's big floor and the worst defeat of the whole schedule was suffered with the Blue and White passers doling out a 42-21 score against the Orange and Blue. Gettysburg coming to Lewisburg the following Friday with one of the best teams in its history was under a fair way for a good trimming when the Varsity threw up its passing game for individual playing and long shots. This change of play gave the Gettysburgians a one-point victory which hurt like sin. It must be remembered that these defeats came before the team, which made the season what it is by turning the remainder of the schedule into a string of victories, was put upon the floor.

Following these defeats a reconstruction in the Cockill policy became evident in the line-up which next represented the Orange and Blue and administered such a lacing to the team from Susquehanna. The 40-9 defeat was the worst defeat the Selinsgrove aggregation had suffered for a coon's age up until that time.

The feat which the rejuvenated squad next executed startled the college and stamped upon them the trade mark of their ability. Ursinus, Muhlenberg and Albright fell like pins in a row on their own floors before the rapidly moving Cockill passers in three successive nights. Three in a row on a trip established a record which Bucknell basket-ballers will be a long time attaining again. The victory over Muhlenberg, a torrid game replenished with thrills, marked the capture of the series from the Allentowners.

The next game was played at Susquehanna on the Selinsgrove floor and the Varsity kept true to form and came back to Lewisburg with a 49-27 scalp hanging to its belt.

The schedule next called for another three-day trip and the hustling quintet of passers went at Mt. St. Marys, Gettysburg and Lebanon Valley with a spirit that counted in another handsome record of two out of three. The defeat handed to Gettysburg was sweet to the Varsity and their followers, coming as it did on Gettysburg's floor when the battlefield boys thought they were invincible. Lebanon Valley pulled out a one-point victor in the last game of the trip, the scoring registering 27-26. The verdict was only turned in Lebanon Valley's favor during the last 28 seconds of play.

The next games were all played at home and resulted in easy victories for the squad; Albright, Ursinus and the Big Five suffering the defeats meted out.

The team which accomplished all the exploits in these foregoing paragraphs was composed of Garner, '18, Boyles, '19, Musser, '18, Murray, '17, and Shaffner, '16. Of these, all but Boyles, are known to Bucknell followers as having played on other basket-ball teams. To say that they played a better game than ever before suffices. A word of mention concerning Boyles, however, cannot be omitted. In this freshman Bucknell possesses a guard whose sterling work from the very outset of the season has caused everyone witnessing his dashing style of play to regard him already as one of the best of Bucknell guards. "Kid" can shoot, dribble and guard with equal efficiency and great things can be expected in the next three years from the steelton lad.

Next year the team remains intact with but one exception which is Shaffner. "Shaff" played the game of his career this season and will be missed; but several good substitutes stand ready to fill the gap he leaves.

The season's record:

Jan. 7—Bucknell , at Lewisburg, Bloomsburg .
Jan. 14—Bucknell 23, at Lewisburg, Muhlenberg 14.
Jan. 15—Bucknell 21, at State College, Penn State 42.

Feb. 12—Bucknell 49, at Selinsgrove, Susquehanna 27.
Feb. 17—Bucknell 25, at Emmitsburg, Mt. St. Marys 17.
Feb. 18—Bucknell 32, at Gettysburg, Gettysburg 23.
Feb. 19—Bucknell 26, at Annville, Lebanon Valley 27.

"SAL'S" SWATS SHELL DEFEAT

FORMER BUCKNELLIAN IN OPPONENTS' LINE-UP.

DICKINSON WINS OPENER IN TEN INNINGS, 4-3

Weather Conditions Unfavorable For Baseball—Varsity Finds Mower Hard To Hit.—Peale Deserved Better Fate.

With only a few days of outdoor practice, Bucknell lined up against Dickinson on Friday and went down to defeat in a ten-inning struggle by the score 4-3. Although the game had been cancelled earlier in the week owing to the condition of the athletic field, two days of sunshine made playing possible, and the contest was finally re-scheduled. The day, itself, however, was by no means auspicious for the opening of the baseball season, as cold winds made playing disagreeable to players and spectators alike and as a consequence neither displayed the usual 'pep."

When the condition of the two teams is considered, the game was exceedingly well-played and interesting. The Varsity batting against fast pitching for the first time this year, found in Mower, the Dickinson twirler, a great stumbling block, and their inability to gather more than four hits was in the main responsible for the defeat. "Sid" Peale did the hurling for Bucknell, and kept Dickinson's ten hits widely scattered except in the first and tenth innings. Peale struck out twelve men.

In Dickinson's line-up were two faces quite familiar to Bucknell fans namely: "Sal" Fisher and "Tony Murray the First". "Sal" covered the initial sack for the Dickinsonians, while Murray cavorted around third sack. "Sal's" clubbing decided the issue against his former team-mates.

Dickinson started off with a rush, Walters ,the first man up, driving the second ball pitched too far over McDermott's head in centre for "Mac" to hold it. Walters reached third on the play and scored a moment later on Scribner's clean single to left. Moose was out, Seaman to Musser, but Scribner, taking second on the play, scored when "Sal" Fisher drove out a scorching double to right. This ended the scoring in this inning, as the next two men were easy outs. Bucknell went out in order in their half.

Dickinson was easy in the second, but after Miller was safe on an error, in Bucknell's half, singles by Elliott and Murray resulted in two runs. The score remained tie, 2-2, until Dickinson's half of the tenth.

In this inning three singles, a stolen base, and a fielder's choice gave Dickinson enough runs to win the game, the score then being 4-2. The Varsity staged a brillant rally in their half, but lacked the necessary punch to pull it over. Murray, safe on Bidle's error advanced to third on Peale's single. Brenner, batting for McDermott, drew four bad ones and filled the bases. Capt. Seeman was safe on a fielder's choice, Murray being caught at the plate. Peale scored on Storer's high foul to Fisher. Miller ended the game by striking out. During the last inning Vaughn, who was substituted for Mower, proved as effective as his predecessor.

Fisher, playing first base for Dickinson, was the leading hitter, with two singles and two doubles to his credit.

BUCKNELL WILL DEBATE WITH LAFAYETTE

DATE SET FOR FIRST INTERCOLLEGIATE DEBATE IS APRIL 28.

Those in charge of debating at Bucknell have arranged for an intercollegiate debate with Lafayette for the date of April 28th. The question which both sides have agreed upon to debate is the same as was the center of discussion in the Junior debate, namely: "Resolved, that an international police force shall be established to enforce international treaties and agreements and preserve international peace." The negative side of the question will be supported here by the Orange and Blue and the affirmative at Lafayette.

Those who have been chosen to defend the negative on the home floor are Lester Judson Bartlett, Ralph S. Beard and Miller Johnson; those to defend the affirmative, Dayton L. Ranck, Samuel Lennox and Chas. W. Potter.

Arrangements are under way for a debate with State College for perhaps the next week.

JUNIORS CLASH IN ANNUAL DEBATE

PREPAREDNESS QUESTION IS THRASHED OUT THOROUGHLY.

The preparedness question was thrashed out from beginning to end when the Junior debaters clashed in the Annual Junior Debate on Friday, March 29. The question was: "Resolved, that Pres. Wilson's Defense Policy as Outlined in his Message to Congress Should be Adopted by the United States Government."

C. W. Potter and Miller Johnson upheld the negative side. E. E. Aubrey and H. F. Reich spoke for the affirmative.

The affirmative speakers advocated President Wilson's policy as a moderate estimate of our nation's need of defense. "There is a need for more preparation," they said, "but we must not become a militaristic nation." President Wilson's program, providing for a standing army of 141,843 men and a citizens force of 400,000, with a substantial increase in the navy was held up as adequate and not extreme.

The negative speakers used the dilemma method of argument, aiming to force their opponents into a dilemma, by presenting both the extreme militarists' and the pacificist's policies. The argument on both sides was strong and interesting, making a selection of the winner very difficult. The winners will be announced at Commencement time.

FIRST OF SERIES OF SENIOR MUSIC RECITALS

On Thursday evening, April 13th, 1916, at 8 p. m. in Bucknell Hall, Miss Lila Mae Shimp and Mr. George Bender, of the Piano Department, and Mis Margaret Washington Evans, of the Voice Department, will give their senior recital. Miss Shimp and Mr. Bender are pupils of Miss Kramer, and Miss Evans is a pupil of Madame De Sylva-Schoen. An invitation is extended to the public in general.

CLINTON I. SPROUT CHOSEN EDITOR

RECEIVES UNANIMOUS SELECTION OF ADVISORY BOARD.

WILL ASSUME CHARGE WITH THE NEXT ISSUE

Has Served As Assistant Editor of Bucknellian For the Past Year.—Tryouts For Positions On Staff To Begin Immediately.

The members of the faculty advisory board of the Bucknellian have selected Clinton I. Sprout, '17, to serve as Editor-in-Chief of Bucknell's weekly paper for the coming year. The new editor will be inaugurated into office with the next issue.

Sprout has been connected with the Bucknellian staff as Assistant Editor and by his whole-hearted interest, support and ability to write has worked naturally into the position to which he has been elected. His election to the post of editor brings to the Sprout family the distinction of having two editors within its group; Carl Sprout, his brother, having held the editorship of the Orange and Blue in 1907-08.

The new editor will use the competitive system in choosing the new staff, as has been the custom now for the past four years; so any person wishing to compete for a place should hand their name to Mr. Sprout as soon as possible. The final day for these names to be handed in will be announced by Mr. Sprout on the bulletin board. As was done last year, news assignments will be made to the students desiring to compete and from these the editor will determine those who will assist him in his work.

43 STUDENTS NEVER KISSED.

In the recently published senior statistics of Princeton University—a curious jumble of fact, humor and fancy—an unusual record was brought to light. This was a statement that the record-breaking total of forty-three men in the Snior Class had never kissed a girl. Their inability to "swing it" is given as a reason by most, but some consider it unhygienic. While 160 deny it is morally wrong to kiss a girl, forty think it is.

DEBATERS CHOSEN.

About ten contestants competed in the annual try-outs for the intercollegiate debating team last Monday evening. The six chosen from this number to uphold the Orange and Blue in the debates arranged for this term are, L. W. Bartlett, '16, Ralph S. Beard, '18, Miller Johnson, '17, Dayton L. Ranck, '16, Samuel Lennox, '18, and Chas. W. Potter, '17.

"JOE" GDANIEC A SUCCESS AS COACH

HAS, HOWEVER, RESIGNED HIS POSITION AT CHARLEROI.

"Joe" Gdaniec whose athletic prowess, and genuineness of character in all phases of college life made him a prime favorite while at Bucknell, has resigned his position of teacher and coach at Charleroi High School and is now in a new position as Electrical Engineer for the Wise Coal and Coke Company, of Dorchester, West Virginia.

In his short stay at Charleroi the former crack half-back of the Orange and Blue turned out football and basketball teams of the highest order. Under "Joe's" skillful tutelage the basketball team won the scholastic championship of Washington County. The contest which brought the flag to the Charleroi school was played with the Washington High School on W. & J's. court, and "Joe's" lads won out by the decisive score of 30 to 22.

DRAMATIC TRIO GIVES TWO MORE PERFORMANCES

APPEAR AT OSCEOLA MILLS AND LIVERPOOL ON MARCH 24TH AND 31ST.

On March 24 the Bucknell Dramatic Trio appeared in a performance at Osceola Mills. The event was held under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A. and was attended by an appreciative crowd of over three hundred. Many prominent citizens of Osceola declared the program rendered by the Trio by far the best of a series of musical and dramatic entertainments that has been given there within the last six years.

After the performance a reception was tendered the Trio and the teachers of the High School at the home of Mrs. Herbert Gibson. The refreshments were neatly decorated in Orange and Blue. Saturday and Sunday the members of the Trio were royally entertained by Miss Mabel Brouse, '15, at her home in Clearfield.

Again on March 31 the Trio took a trip to Liverpool and gave a highly successful performance. The condition of the Susquehanna made a crossing difficult and many exciting transits were experienced by the Trio During the performance the repeated encores and subsequently the pleasing criticisms of the Liverpool people attested the growing popularity of the Trio.

In that case Bucknell will be represented in the U. S. District Courts in two contiguous states. Judge Dickinson, Bucknell 1877, already presiding in Pennsylvania.

PHI GAMMA DELTA HOLDS CONVENTION

SECTION FIVE MEETS WITH B. U. CHAPTER

Representatives From Penn State and Gettysburg Attend Festivities Held In New Fraternity Home On University Avenue.

Business and pleasure were mixed in proper proportions on March 31st, April 1st and 2nd, when Section Five of Phi Gamma Delta held its Annual Convention at Bucknell. The three Chapters represented in this section are Chi, of Gettysburg, Gamma Phi, of State College, and Delta, of Bucknell. Last year the Convention was held at State; this year it was held at Bucknell, while next year it will be held at Gettysburg, as is the custom of the fraternity. The convention marks the first event of importance that has taken place in Delta's new house.

Some of the visitors arrived Friday afternoon and some Friday evening. At 9:00 o'clock on the evening of the arrival of the delegates from State and Gettysburg, a dance was held in the Lewisburg Club, where approximately fifty couples danced to the excellent music furnished by NeCal's Orchestra from Sunbury. About 11:30 an intermission was observed during which all present enjoyed refreshments served under the supervision of Mr. Payne's catership. This was a most enjoyable feature of the occasion, and Mr. Payne, of the College Inn, is to be highly congratulated for his service. The Patrons and Patronesses at the dance were: Dr. and Mrs. E. M. Heim, Dr. and Mrs. G. C. L. Riemer, Prof. and Mrs. F. G. Ballentine, Prof. and Mrs. Bromley Smith, Prof. and Mrs. M. L. Baldwin, Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Theiss, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Champion, Dr. and Mrs. W. L. Gerhart. At 2:00 a m. with the cessation of the orchestral strains all present left the dance hall feeling that it was a well spent evening of fun.

Saturday morning was spent in viewing things of interest about the college after the last sleepy dancer had aroused himself sufficiently to appreciate them.

After the mid-day repast there was a short reclining, somewhat in the fashion of the old Romans. About 2:30 p. m. was held a business meeting at which all were present. A part of the time was given to the discussion of customs, rules, and regulations of the three colleges represented, with the view of bettering college and fraternity conditions. Among the many good points discussed was "The true relation of the fraternity to the college." Prof. Wood, '05, the newly-elected faculty member of the university presided at the meeting, and he, too had many interesting things to say. The meeting adjourned at 4:30 Saturday afternoon.

On Saturday evening at 7:00 o'clock, Delta Chapter, of Bucknell, played Gamma Phi Chapter, of State, at basket-ball in the Tustin Gymnasium. The game was played before a large audience composed of practically all of the State men who were not in uniform, several of the Gettysburg men, and a large number of students from Bucknell. The talent displayed on both sides was remarkable, far surpassing all expectations. During the most exciting moments of the game, Southerland of the State team, collided with Williams, of the Bucknell team, with very disastrous results, both falling on the floor with such force that the entire Gymnasium trembled, much to the amusement of the spectators. The former was temporarily laid out, and had it not been for the careful and strenuous efforts of Williams the State man would not have been revived sufficiently to resume the game. The Bucknell team won by a score of 41-36.

IN PARTING.

As we step down out of office the paramount thought in our mind is the hope that we if we have not raised the standard of this the organ of Bucknell life and thought, we have not permitted it to fall below the standard which our predeceessor had set.

Throughout the entire time the Bucknellian has been entrusted to our care this has been our motive, and whether the ideal has been attained or missed rests with those who have watched our efforts.

We sincerely hope that our Alma Mater has not lost one single unit of its prestige as the work of our hands has gone out into the world. In the final analysis we must all, sooner or later, reckon with this fact and so shape our conduct as to reflect credit upon the college of our choice.

It was once told us by one who has been of great service to us in our work that a good principle to follow in journalism was to always sacrifice opinion for fact. To this injunction we will try and be true.

Therefore in parting we thank all who have helped us with their time, encouragement and energy and beg the pardon of those whom we may have offended unwittingly.

D. T. U. DANCE.

On Wednesday evening, March 29, at their home on Walker Street, Delta Theta Upsilon gave their annual formal active chapter dinner-dance. The guests began to arrive about seven o'clock, and at eight o'clock dinner was served. Immediately after dinner, the orchestra started in on a "raggy" dance melody, and soon all feet were doing the "light fantastic." Dancing continued until one-thirty o'clock.

Dr. Nelson F. Davis and Mrs. Davis, Prof. Frank M. Simpson and Mrs. Simpson, Dr. Llewellyn Phillips and Mrs. Phillips, Prof. Carl Millward, principal of the Milton High School, and Mrs. Millward were the patronesses and guests.

Out-of-town guests were: Miss Frye, Wilkes-Barre; Miss Treaster and Miss Sheffer, Milroy, and Miss Edna Tator, Milton.

FINAL LYCEUM COURSE NUMBER

The final number of the Lyceum Course, the presentation of Clyde Fiske's masterpiece, "The Truth," by Miss Clarissa Harrold was given on the first night of this term, Wednesday, March 29, in the Methodist Church. Miss Harrold by her skill in portraying different characters held the audience throughout. Two short monologues also, gave a further display of the artist's versatile talent.

"The Shepherd of the Hills," by Miss M. Beryl Buckley was scheduled as the concluding number of the course, but Miss Buckley was unable to appear on account of sickness. Many were disappointed at not being able to hear Harold Bell Wright's story, but felt amply rewarded by Miss Harrold's delightful entertainment. The Lyceum Course has proved an unusual success this year.

—Bucknell vs. Gettysburg Friday.

LARGE NUMBER OF BASE-BALL CANDIDATES OUT

LIVELY TUSSLE ON FOR FIRST-BASE AND CENTER-FIELD POSITIONS.

Baseball at present holds the centre of the athletic stage at Bucknell. A large squad of ball tossers has reported to Coach Cockill and prospects for a good season are promising. Inclement weather thus far this term has kept the squad from the field with the exception of about three days thus seriously retarding the work of drilling the team for the games which are already upon it.

Friday's game with Dickinson showed a Varsity similar to that of last year with the failure of only two instances, those of first base and left field. With the same pitchers on the program who were on the mound for the Orange and Blue last year, Coach Cockill's task of rounding out a team this year is a comparatively easy one.

There are at present three candidates out for the first sack position, Musser, '18, Quinn, '19, and Dent, '19. All three look good but have not had a thorough try-out, since practice on ground balls during the past week was only held once. Musser received the call for the first game from the coach. It looks like a lively race for the pivotal station.

For the other rent in the team left open by Topham in center field, there are two candidates who are making a strong bid to fill "Tip's" shoes. These two are McDermott and DeHaven. Both are fast fielders, but as yet have not shown much batting strength.

Right field will in all probability be taken care of by Crawford, who, during the latter part of last season worked his way into the position by his ability to clout the ball. "Craw" is a natural hitter with a free, easy swing and the contest between this youngster and George Miller for the clean-up station in the batting order will be a lively one.

The wealth of good material out for the catcher's position makes the "wind-pad" job a bit dubious. Murray receives the first call because of past experience, but "Toney" will be compelled to go at top speed with such good ones as Baldt and Miller ready to jump in at a minute's notice. Mason, of the freshman class, is also a dark horse and although he has not had a chance to perform, shows the earmarks of a pad-artist.

The pitching staff, composed of the veterans Peale, Brenner and Liebensberger looks to have a worthy acquisition in the person of "Tom" Cockill, a brother of "George". Young Cockill has the size and seems to have lots on the ball when he whizzes it across the plate. There are other candidates in the freshman class who have high school reputations, but who have not turned up as yet.

Among the candidates for other positions showing promise are Snyder, Weber, Hewitt and Houser.

KAPPA SIGMA REPAIRING.

Carpenters are at present repairing the damage done to the Kappa Sigma House in the recent fire. The work is being supervised by Contractor Catherman.

PHI GAMMA DELTA

The event that followed the game was the banquet, which was held in the Cameron House at 9:30 Saturday night. A most palatable menu was served consisting of six courses. There were several Alumni present among whom were some of the faculty members. Later in the evening the orchestra of Delta Chapter favored the occasion with some very lively and appropriate music. This together with the singing of fraternity songs as well as others added life and enjoyment to the gala occasion. At about 11:30 the autograph blanks provided in the programs having been filled with the names of those present, and all feeling that a hearty appetite had been gratefully appeased, the banqueters disbanded from the tables and re-assembled in the fraternity house, where speeches were aptly rendered and a general good time had.

The banquet was the last event on the Convention Program, but the visitors having enjoyed themselves so well were easily persuaded to prolong their visit one more day.

DR. HARRIS NOW DISCUSSING HEBREW STATESMEN

JOSEPH AND MOSES CHOSEN AS SUBJECTS FOR FIRST TWO CLASSES.

In accordance with his plan to discuss the Hebrew Statesmen, Dr. Harris opened his Spring Term program with addresses on Joseph and Moses. On Sunday, the 2nd, he dwelt on the statesmanship of Joseph in respect to the land problem. In Joseph's time the two highest castes of Egyptian society were the Priests and the Military class. To the former belonged Joseph, and so he naturally acted for their benefit. In his settlement of the land question he replaced the individual ownership by sovereign possession. A great statesman of modern times who gave attention to this problem was Alexander the Third of Russia who freed the serfs of the soil. These serfs were given a chance to make something of themselves by another part of Alexander's plan which provided that the newly freed slaves should be given opportunity to buy land on long term payments. As a result of this reform, Russia stands today as one of the first powers in science.

The work of Joseph as chief executive in Egypt during the years of the great famine resulted in the reduction of the Israelitish people to serfdom and later in the downfall of the dynasty.

This old question of land ownership has occurred in practically all countries. In Italy it was settled by the peasants being deprived of ownership of their land. Land may be owned by three classes. In Egypt it was owned by the government; in England it is owned largely by the landed aristocracy; in other lands it is often owned by the Church. This is the case in Mexico where one-third of the land was owned by the Church until the Revolution. And even then it was transferred, not to the people in small holdings, but in large estates. This great old problem of the ownership of land called forth the bad side of Joseph's administration.

Dr. Harris yesterday spoke on Moses, the great Statesman-Educator of the Israelites. The importance of the educational problem is well shown by the fact that in China the men all have a chance to attain great positions in the governmenthy the competitive system in vogue there. According to this system any man who has the ability may compete in scholastic examinations for the important positions in the administration. In Mexico the whole of the disorder may be attributed to the illiteracy ofthe citizenry. In Prussia the last century saw the adoption of universal education for the men of the nation; because the statesmen realized that an educated soldier could fight better than an uneducated one.

The education of the Hebrew men consisted of Religion, History, Law, and Lyric Poetry. This through education, though not providing for science and mathematics, was the cause of the great progress of the Hebrew nation. This system of education was carried by four agencies: the family, the prophet schools, the synagogue and later by the government when they were the first to adopt the principle of universal education of the male population. And today we find the Hebrew race, in spite of the hardships through which it has passed, a hardy race and a bright one. A Jew, Sir Rufus Isaacs, at present holds the position of Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of England, and another is nominated for the same office in the United States.

Next Sunday Dr. Holmes, of Swarthmore, will address the President's Bible Class. Dr. Holmes will be here for sure, and any who have ever heard him speak will recommend him to the students as an interesting and instructive speaker.

B. F. Lewis, '16, visited his home in Wilkes-Barre during the latter part of the week.

"Dutch" Rehman, '16, was another of the Seniors found absent at the week-end. Rehman was a Newark, N. J., visitor.

Stolz, '18, was recently called to his home in Reading on account of the death of his grandfather. He has returned to school.

Hedge, '15, secretary of the Y. M. C. A. returned from Paterson, N. J., last Monday after an extended visit with Lotte, '14.

Heberling, manager of the Bucknellian, laid aside his many duties on Saturday and Sunday and visited friends in Northumberland; returning Sunday evening.

Geiger, '15, paid a short visit to his Demosthenean brothers who stayed at Bucknell during their spring vacation. Geiger accompanied Hedge, '15, on his trip to Paterson.

R. P. Bilger, H. W. Giffin and H. H. Hann, all of the Senior class, went to Elmira on Friday night and took the civil service examination of the Civil Service Commission of the State of New York on Saturday. The examination lasted six hours.

Several of the Kappa Sigmas, because of the destruction of their bathing facilities in the fire which wrought such havoc with their house, took advantage of the minature lake formed in McClure's last week during the high waters and had a good swim. "Johnnie" Hendren on the slim wager of 89 cents took a dive from the University Avenue bridge "clothes on and all."

"Jim" Tyson and "Johnnie" Johnson are lodging with their S. A. E. brothers during their yearly visit to Bucknell for the purpose of manning Seniors with proper protection in the form of insurance. Talk about your military training in colleges! Why the way these two sharks train the Senior men to hunt cover would do credit to the best manouvering officers in regards to this one tactic of warfare.

William Dean Reading and three of the members of the Clearfield High School basketball team, of which he is coach, spent several days during the first week of the new term at Bucknell as guests of the S. A. E's. "Bill" like "Joe" Gdaniec also turned out a crackerjack basket-ball team, his squad suffering only one high school defeat during the whole season. This came at Williamsport on Friday evening, March 31, when the "Billport" boys amassed seven more points than the Centre County scholastics.

JOHNSON COACHING TRACK MATERIAL

POPULAR FOOTBALL COACH RETURNS.

TRAINING CANDIDATES FOR PENN RELAYS

Better Equipment and Better Track For This Year.—Many Candidates Out For Team.—Inter-Class Meet To Be Held Saturday.

Track sports have taken on a new lease of life this year, and before the season is over, Bucknell should be represented by the best track team she has had in years. Although the schedule has not been completed as yet, Manager Davenport is working on it, and will announce it in the near future.

Coach Johnson, who developed Bucknell's fast football team in the fall, returned to school the first part of this month to take charge of the track material. As in football he has had green material to work with, and the results of his labors have not been demonstrated as yet. New material and better equipment were the first things to receie the coach's attention, and for the past week much time and nergy has been spent on the track in order to put it in better shape. This coming week will see things progress. The men will be given more attention and harder workouts, in order to get them in the pink of condition for the early meets.

Final tryouts for the Penn Relays will be held the latter part of this week. Everybody who dons a track suit will be given a chance to try for the Penn trip. The first elimination test will be held about the middle of the week. The twelve men who make the best time will be eligible for the second tryouts to be held later in the week.

Our chances for the relays this year are more encouraging than they have been in several years previous.

DATE FOR PLAY CHANGED.

The Cap and Dagger play, "The Dutch Detective," which was listed for April 28, has been changed to Tuesday, April 25. The intercollegiate debate with Lafayette on that day necessitated the change. Practice for the play will be held every night this week, except Saturday, in order to get in shape for the near date.

STUDENTS TO ATTEND CAMPS.

Without a canvass of the university, 136 Princeton undergraduates have agreed to attend summer military camps. The Seniors lead with a total of 46. This list is expected to increase considerably from now on to the end of the term. Some of the most prominent men of the college are included in this number.

ELWOOD H. COURTER, FORMER STUDENT DIES

GRADUATE OF 1912 IS VICTIM OF TUBERCULOSIS OF JOINTS.

Elwood Harris Courter, '12, one of the most promising younger graduates of Bucknell, passed away at his home at Basking Ridge, N. J., on Saturday, April 8th, following an illness of several months. Since his graduation from Bucknell where he received the degree of Bachelor of Science in Biology, Mr. Courter had been continuing his studies at Johns Hopkins University until late last fall when he became ill.

Mr. Courter while attending Bucknell was assistant to Prof. Davis in the Department of Biology during his Sophomore, Junior and Senior years from 1909 to 1912. His quiet and industrious career during four years at college won him many friends among the student body and faculty. As a student Mr. Courter was one of the best among the many Bucknell has trained for the study of medicine.

After leaving Bucknell he went to Johns Hopkins University, and had almost completed his Junior year in medicine when stricken with tuberculosis of the joints late last fall. After several operations at the hospital Mr. Courter returned to his home at Basking Ridge, N. J. In a letter to Prof. Davis, of the faculty, last November Mr. Courter said he hoped to return to Hopkins in March to complete his course. Later the infection spread and he died on Saturday, April 8th.

Mr. Courter was a member of the Forum fraternity. Sowers, '17, a representative from that body left early last week to attend the funeral which took place from the home in Basking Ridge, N. J., on Tuesday, April 11.

SAMUEL M. DAVENPORT.

We are classed this year with schools of our own size and calibre: such schools as Gettysburg, Franklin and Marshall, and Muhlenberg being classed with Bucknell.

Next Saturday the Annual Inter-Class Meet will be held on the Athletic Field. This will help the coach select the best men from the four classes, and also give the fellows an opportunity to show the coach just what they can do.

A new requirement in the Inter-Class Meet is that no one will be permitted to compete unless they have trained for it previously. Besides, nobody will be permitted to take part in more than two events. The reason for the above conditions is that the management does not want the candidates to risk injury by over-exertion so early in the season.

Entrants for the Inter-Class Meet must hand their names to Manager Davenport before 6 o'clock Thursday evening. Besides the usual track and field events many special events will be staged. These will include fat men's race, 50 yd. dash and other novelty events. The complete schedule for the season will be announced after it has been ratified by the Athletic Board.

PHI GAMMS ENTERTAIN.

On the evening of Friday, April 14, the Phi Gamma Delta fraternity informally entertained at their house a number of young ladies from Lewisburg and adjacent towns. The hours were made lively by card-playing, and singing. The patrons and patronesses were: Dr. and Mrs. G. C. L. Riemer, Prof. and Mrs. Bromley Smith, and Prof. and Mrs. M. L. Baldwin. At 11:00 o'clock delightful refreshments were served, shortly after which the guests left for their homes.

MECHANICAL ENGINEERS.

The regular monthly meeting of the Bucknell branch of the American Society of Mechanical Engineers was held Monday evening, April 10th. Impromptu discussions of safety devices were taken up at this meeting; the subject proving to be a very interesting nature, and one of practical value and economic importance. Those who do not attend these meetings are missing something worth their while.

SENIOR CLASS PLAY CAST.

The members of the Senior Class who have been selected to take part in the annual play at Commencement time are as follows: Dayton L. Ranck, Joseph Earl Malin, Edgar C. Campbell, Eric A. Oesterle, James Russell Snyder, Samuel M. Davenport, Wade C. Blackburn, Helen Jenkins, Marie E. Harer, Virginia Blanche Wood, Ruth Emlyn Embrey and Carrie Dunbar Foresman.

STUDENTS HEAR DR. J. R. HOLMES

LARGE CROWD ATTENDS BIBLE CLASS.

"JESUS—THE BOY AND MAN," HIS SUBJECT

Swarthmore College Professor Gives Interesting Address.—First of Prominent Speakers To Be Here This Term.

A large attendance was present at the Baptist Church yesterday morning to hear an excellent address by Dr. Holmes, of Swarthmore College, who spoke to the class on "Jesus—The Boy and Man."

Prof. Holmes stated his intention at the beginning of his speech to touch on a side of the Master's life often overlooked—His importance as a historical character. Unfortunately, the artists have given up pictures of Christ which represent Him as an ascetic or as a mild, effeminate man who lacks force of character. This failure of art to interpret the manhood of our Lord has been in a large measure responsible for the fact that Jesus' life does not appeal to many virile men.

Another misconception has branded the Jews as a legalized and narrow people. Though this is true of their leaders it is not true of the Jews as a mass; for the average Jew was a man of deep and noble piety. The home of Jesus was far removed from the seat of the leadership of the Jewish nation and thus He lived unexaminated by the legalizing influence of that class. And yet, in spite of his distance from the capital, the boy Jesus saw a great deal of the world; for travelers and Roman soldiers passed through the village of Nazareth, up there in the northern province of Galilee, with the blue Mediterranean and Mt. Carmel on the west, Samaria on the south, and Mt. Morah on the east.

At six years of age Jesus went to the synagogue where he was instructed in the Hebrew alphabet, in reading the Old Testament and in Hebrew—for Aramaic was the spoken language of his native land. At this time he probably played with the boys of his age. And then there was work to be done; water had to be carried from the well in the town.

When he was twelve he went, we know, to the Feast of the Passover at Jerusalem. On that journey he campsid along the way and we can imagine how he must have enjoyed himself. Then, on arriving at the Temple he saw the money-changers and those who sold animals for sacrifice.

With the manhood of the Master we associate his service as a preacher and teacher. His message, like that of his predecessor, John the Baptist, was repentance; which, by the way, means starting over again rather than looking back on the sins of the past. By the originality and power of his address Jesus became very attractive. At this period of his life we are prone to overlook the fact that the Master was also the breadwinner of his family since the death of his father. He was probably a contractor or builder, for he seldom refers to the carpenter's work, but rather to the work of the contractor who managed others. When he started preaching he left his home and went down South. We can imagine that after choosing his life's work, Christ did not take much interest in the trade his father had pursued; but his interest was rather in living and growing things and people. The parables indicate this, for they are about the birds of the air and the plants of the field.

The style of the Master's teaching was not oratorical, but rather conversational. He was accessible to all, but yet he answered no questions directly. When asked, "Who is my neighbor?", he answered with a story of the good Samaritan; and when questioned on the rendition of tribute to Caesar, his reply was in the form of a counter-question and an indefinite, general answer. He used exaggeration frequently for emphasis, and on this account has been often misunderstood by those who read his words without considering this fact. Christ did not give people laws: he sowed questions all over Palestine and left them to be answered by those who heard him. He went about awakening souls and stirring up dead hearts.

NOTICE TO BASEBALL MEN.

Candidates for baseball are requested to keep off the running track as much as possible. An effort is being made to get the track in condition, but these efforts will be useless if baseball men keeping tearing it up with their spiked shoes.

PAGEANT COMMITTEE PICKED BY RANCK

SENIOR PRESIDENT LAYS PLANS FOR THE ANNUAL PARADE.

What promises to be an outstanding feature of Commencement Week is the pageant which is scheduled for Tuesday afternoon, June 20. The general plans for the event are in the hands of Senior President, Ranck, and it is his aim to make it an affair to be remembered by students and alumni. The interest of the students in last year's parade was not what it should have been, but by forming plans earlier in the year, it is hoped to make it more of a success.

Ranck has appointed men to represent the various departments, and to work up ideas befitting the occasion. These men are authorized to select a committee from their respective departments to aid in the work. Those who cannot classify themseles under any of these divisions are requested to fall in line regardless of their course.

Those in charge of the work are: Chairman, Cyril Lewis, Mechanicals; C. A. Soars, Chemicals; Harry Lofft, Civils; St. Clair Murray, Electricals; S. M. Davenport, Biology Students; John Heberling Medicals; Domer Ackerman, Lawyers; E. E. Aubrey, Ministerials; Paul C. Moser, Rifle Club.

EXCELLENT SPEAKERS SECURED FOR Y. M. C. A.

MEN OF WIDE REPUTATION COMING THIS TERM.—DR. PHILLIPS, THURSDAY.

A number of excellent speakers have been booked for the Y. M. C. A. meetings for the present term. In order to insure a good speaker for each week the schedule for the remainder of the term has been completed and is ready to be announced.

This week, April 20th at 7:15, Dr. Llewllyn Phillips will give one of his helpful talks in the Y. M. C. A. Room in West College. On April 27th, at 7:30 Mr. H .L. Spangler, of Milton, will speak in the Y. M. C. A. Room in West College. A social will be held in Bucknell Hall on May 29th by the Y. W. C. A. and the Y. M. C .A.

During the month of May the regular meetings of the Y. M. C. A. will be held in Bucknell Hall on Wednesday nights at 7:30 o'clock. On May 3rd Mr. R. S. Snyder, of Schwenksville, will be the speaker. On May 10th Mr. Haddy Phillips, a noted lecturer and preacher of Philadelphia, will give an address in Bucknell Hall on the subject, "Human Waste Heaps and How To Reduce Them." On May 17th Mr. B. M. Johns will speak in Bucknell Hall. "Joe" Henderson, who has had considerable experience with the immigration problem will give an address on "The Problem of Immigration" on May 24th.

Look over this list of speakers and then arrange to attend all the meetings and profit by the helpful talks that will be given. Every speaker in this list is able to give you something worth while.

FRESHMEN WIN.

The Freshmen baseball team defeated the Academy nine in a five-inning game on Saturday afternoon by a score of 3-0. The pitching of Cockill for the Freshmen was the feature of the game. Both teams were weak in batting.

ELOCUTION SENIORS PRESENT HAMLET

PROGRAM BRINGS OUT UNUSUAL TALENT.

PRESENT WORK IN MONOLOGUE FORM

Students Bring Credit To Elocution Department.—Each Selection Well Received By Audience.—Concluding Number Pleases.

Seniors of the Elocution Department presented Shakespeare's Hamlet in monologue form before an appreciative audience in Bucknell Hall on Friday night. The clever manner in which the different scenes were interpreted, gave evidence of unusual talent and efficient training. How much the audience appreciated the program, was evidenced by the hearty applause at the conclusion of each number.

To single out particular features on the program would be extremely difficult, owing to the skillful presentation of each selection. Many of the scenes were very difficult to interpret, and required more than ordinary ability to make them effective. The closing number, "The Catastrophe" by Mr. Richards was presented with exceptional force and proved to be highly pleasing to those in attendance.

The rendition of the program as a whole showed the results of ability combined with proficient teaching. This marked success of the Elocution Seniors is a further proof of the efficiency of our Department of Elocution.

The program in full,follows:—

The Story of Hamlet .. Miss Kathryn Redelin
Hamlet's First Soliloqy .. Mr. D. L. Ranck
The Platform Scenes .. Miss Hazel Gay

SHAKSPERE TERCENTENARY.

A meeting for students, faculty, and friends in Bucknell Hall, Friday evening at eight o'clock will be part of this community's contribution to the nation-wide celebration of the Shaksperean Tercentenary. Dr. Perrine, Head of the English Department of the University, will deliver a lecture and a quartet will sing some Shaksperean songs. All over this country, states and cities, schools and colleges are organizing to do honor to Shakspere on this 300th anniversary of his death. Rightly does this nation take a leading part in observing the event for with all Europe torn by war, upon America falls the burden of rendering fitting tribute to the memory of this great hero of the arts of peace.

GAME CANCELLED.

The game scheduled for last Friday with Gettysburg had to be called off on account of the wet condition of the field. Had the weather permitted, a good game would have undoubtedly resulted, as Gettysburg won from Susquehanna, and lost to State only after a hard 13 inning struggle. The Varsity plays Cornell and Syracuse away this week.

DRAWINGS FOR PENN RELAYS.

Bucknell drew fourth position in the Penn Relay drawings on Saturday. Muhlenberg was lucky enough to secure the pole in the class 4 division in which Bucknell is listed.

FOREWORD.

Within a short time the Bucknellian will be in the hands of a new staff. In view of this fact, we think it well to state what we aim to do, and at the same time ask for the wholehearted support of the students in our new undertaking. We realize the problems and responsibilities connected with the work which we are about to take up, and for this reason we ask for co-operation on the part of alumni and students.

We realize, further, the efforts which must be put forth if the standards maintained by former editors and associates, are to be upheld. Our aim shall be at all times to continue the publication of a paper which shall be a credit to Bucknell and typically Bucknellian in every respect. To make it the students' paper we must have the universal co-operation of the students.

Criticisms will be welcome from alumni, students and friends, for we do not expect to put forth a publication which shall be flawless. Students will be free to express their opinions on college problems through these columns. If you dislike some custom about college, give us your reasons, and perhaps others will agree with you. This privilege has been extended to the students other years, but thy have seldom taken advantage of it. The name of the writer need not be published, but it must accompany the communication.

As was announced last week, the competitive system of choosing the staff will be used. This system has proved to be the best means of selecting associates who can do efficient work, and we believe it will again prove successful. The members will be picked only after thorough trials. In this way we hope to find men who will take an active interest in their work, and put forth their best efforts towards making the Bucknellian an ideal college weekly.

WILLIAMSPORT ALUMNI MEET.

An event of local interest occurred in Williamsport last Tuesday evening when 75 men and women, alumni of Bucknell, met and formed a Williamsport-Bucknell club. Among the speakers present at the formation of the club were, Dr. Harris, who told of the trend to specialization of modern education and its application to Bucknell University; Prof. Lindemann, who spoke on "Life as a Preparation for Education," and Registrar Wilcox, who spoke on a subject befitting the occasion. Oliver J. Decker, Esq., editor of the Alumni Monthly, was chairman of the meeting and was elected president of the club. A social hour followed and the banquet was served on a table decorated with orange and blue flowers. At present there is also a Wiliamsport-Bucknell club composed of students attending Bucknell.

As a class memorial, the Seniors of the Pennsylvania State College have voted to erect an imposing gateway at the campus entrance. Tentative plans call for an elaborate structure which is said to surpass any of the college gateways in the counry.

SENIORS IN MUSIC RENDER RECITAL

MADAME DE SYLVA-SCHOEN'S AND MISS KRAMER'S PUPILS EXCEL.

A large auidence greeted the performers in the first Senior Musicale on Thursday evening, April 13th, in Bucknell Hall, when Madame de Sylva-Schoen presented her voice pupil, Miss Margaret Washington Evans, and Miss Mame G. Kramer presented her piano pupils, Mill Lila Mae Shimp and Mr. George T. Bender. The program was brilliant and well given. Miss Evans' voice was especially effective in "Oh! Brilliant Bird" from "La Perle de Brezil" by F. David. Miss Ruth Haines, post graduate, supported the voice very well, at the piano. Miss Shimp played "Valse de Concert" by Wieniavsky with great charm. Mr. Bender's last two numbers, "Andante Finale" for the left hand by Leschetizky and "Valse Caprice" by Newland, were his best numbers. The following is the program:

Sonata Op. 21 No. 3 .... Beethoven
Allegro
Allegretta vivace
George T. Bender

Valse de Concert ..... Wieniavsky
Lila Shimp

Polonaise from 'Mignon' . A. Thomas

Y. W. C. A.

An interesting meeting of Y. W. C. A. was held on Tuesday evening, when Dagmar James presented to the girls the idea of the Eight Weeks Clubs and the International Friendship Clubs. Edith Superko rendered a piano solo, and Mme. de Sylva-Schoen sang "There Is A Green Hill Far Away." The girls who, during summer vacation expect to have Eight Weeks Clubs or International Friendship Clubs among the girls at home, have formed a class for the study of that particular field of Y. W. C. A. work. The class promises to be very interesting under the leadership of Miss Rainey. Meetings will be held every Wednesday at 4:30 p. m., outside whenever possible.

An Eagles' Mere Club was organized among the girls who have been to the Eagles' Mere Conference of Y. W. C. A. and those who hope to attend the conference this summer from June 27 to July 7. Betty Stevens was elected president and Edna Sayenga business manager. Meetings of the club will be held every two weeks on Tuesday afternoons.

SECOND OF SERIES OF SENIOR RECITALS

Tonight at eight p. m. in Bucknell Hall Miss Priscilla Richardson Hardesty will present her piano pupil, Miss Charlotte Welliver, and Miss Etta Althea Brown will present her voice pupil, Miss Mabel Dunkelberger. This is the second of the series of Senior Recitals to be given this term and will attract, doubtless, a large number. A general invitation is extended to the public to attend.

FRESHIES ENTERTAIN JUNIORS.

The Freshmen girls most royally entertained the Junior girls last Saturday evening. The party left about 4 p. m. and was conveyed in three large wagons to Mifflinburg. There, in a dining room charmingly decorated with blue ribbon and daffodils, both guests and hosts did ample justice to a splendid chicken dinner. After dinner toasts were made and responded to by members of both classes. The trip home was made by moonlight and was most pleasant. That they stand indebted to the Freshmen for an unusually fine time is agreed upon by all the members of '17.

TENNIS ACTIVITIES SOON TO BEGIN

SYRACUSE OPENS ON MAY 6TH AT HOME.

HARRIS, '18, ELECTED CAPTAIN OF TEAM

Manager Bigler Working Hard For Good Schedule.—Fraternities Show Interest In Court Game By Building Courts.

Judging from the material at hand, Bucknell should be represented by a first-class tennis team this spring. All four members of last year's team are in school in addition to some promising candidates in the Freshmen class. For the first time in several years the students will have the privilege of witnessing several good matches here at home. The season opens with Syracuse playing here on May 6.

Stanley Harris, '18, has been elected captain of the team. Harris was not defented in any of last year's matches, and is without doubt the best player in school. With a fine nucleus left over from last year, prospects for a winning combination look better than they have for several years back. The other members of the 1915 team are: Malin, '16, Painter, '17, and Geary, '18.

Credit is due Manager Bigler for his efforts in arranging a real tennis schedule. Five matches have been scheduled up to date, and negotiations are on foot for several others. At least three of these will be played here.

Owing to the bad conditions of the courts it has been impossible to start practice, but just as soon as the weather permits, try-outs will be staged to determine who will go against Syracuse on May 6. The tournament held last fall unearthed some new players who should make strong bids for the team. Those who wish to try for positions should report to Captain Harris as soon as possible in order to enable him to choose the team which will represent Bucknell in the early matches. The schedule is not yet complete, but will be published in an early issue.

Interest in tennis among the student body is growing rapidly, as is shown by the number of courts built in late years. The Lambda Chi Alpha and Phi Gamma Delta fraternities are laying out courts at the present time. This awakened interest should result in the support of intercollegiate tennis, something which has been noticeably lacking in former years. Thanks to the Budget System, Manager Bigler has had a foundation upon which to depend, and the result will be seen when the schedule is announced.

RIFLE CLUB MEETING.

The regular semi-monthly meeting of the Bucknell Rifle Club was held in the Y. M .C. A. room in West College last Monday evening. The point of greatest importance at this meeting was shown when the Club hiked to Gundy's meadow on Saturday morning to hold a practice, for long distance. The Rifle Club is a very recent organization at this university, but is making great progress in its efforts to train college men in marksmanship. It has a membership of over fifty, and the majority of these possess excellent shooting ability, as was shown in the practice last Saturday.

STUDENTS OFFER SERVICES.

Bryn Mawr, Pa., April 16.—Fifty per cent. of the girl students of Bryn Mawr College have volunteered to do social work, and about 70 per cent. are definitely interested in some form of social endeavor. More than 160 have offered to spend some time each week in Bryn Mawr village. Forty-three offered to coach girls' basketball teams or teach girls' gym classes; 21 offered to teach dancing; 19 are prepared to talk on current events, and 12 are ready to discuss dramatics.

BIOLOGY TRIP.

Professor Stewart has begun to take his class in Biology on the pleasant trips which the class in that course are accustomed to take each year. A large group headed by the Professor passed by the office presumably on its way to Kinkaide Swamp.

STUDENTS AT DEDICATION.

A number of students were present at the dedication of the new Evangelical Church on Sunday to hear excellent addresses by out-of-town speakers. The new building presents a fine appearance both inside and out. Dale Hollenbaugh, of Williamsport, a graduate of the 1912 class, was in attendance.

The Varsity journeys to York State this week to play two games.

INTERCOLLEGIATES

The Twenty-Fourth Annual Intercollegiate Oratorical Contest was held at Ursinus on Thursday, April 13. Orations were given upon current problems of national and international life. Six colleges were represented: Swarthmore, Gettysburg, Franklin and Marshall, Lafayette, Muhlenberg and Ursinus.

Princeton University recently decided to install a course in military training. Upon completion of the course credit will be given toward a degree.

The Annual Prohibition Contest of Pennsylania colleges was held at Gettysburg on April 8. The first prize was won by Gettysburg and the second by Franklin and Marshall. Besides these colleges, Juniata, Penn State and Lebanon Valley were represented. This is the first time in several years that Bucknell has not sent a representative to this contest.

Carlisle Indian School has decided to introduce a summer institute course.

The Lafayette tennis team decisively defented the Navy team at Annapolis Saturday. The Pennsylvanias succeeded in capturing four out of the five events.

Dr. Raymond F. Bacon, director of the Mellon Institute and dean of the School of Chemistry of the University of Pittsburgh, has been appointed a member of the United States Naval Consulting Board by Josephus Daniels, Secretary of the Navy. He has also been made a director of Organization for Industrial Preparedness of the State of Pennsylvania.

TRACK MEN OUT.

On Wednesday afternoon the try-outs for the Penn Relays will be held. Saturday the Inter-Class Meet will take place. No men will be allowed to enter this meet unless they have previously trained. The trip to Penn is worth working for, and deserving of the best efforts from the track candidates.

He obtained a nice pole, placed it securely on a big stone in the centre of the creek and jumped. The pole slipped and "Chief" followed. The rest of the story you may get from "Chief" himself.

VARSITY BREAKS EVEN ON TRIP

TEAM PLAYS TWO HARD GAMES LAST WEEK.

Brenner Holds Cornell Safe Until Ninth.—Peale Baffles Syracuse While Bucknell Batters Hit Timely Drives.

Cornell Game.

The Varsity completed its first endeavors on foreign fields last week, and it was surely a commendable showing. On Thursday we crossed bats with Cornell, and the Ithacans were on the losing end until the ninth. In the last frame they instituted a batting rally which put two runs across, and brought victory to them.

Bucknell's batting was not of the kind that would deafen with its noise at Cornell. Crawford was the man who was solely responsible for Bucknell's lone tally. He drove a three-bagger against the right field fence in the second inning. With Dale on third Russel began pitching to Storer. Russell started his wind-up. There was a little spurt of dust out along the third base line, and Crawford was racing toward the plate. Russell threw to Cary. Cary muffed the ball, and Crawford was safe.

Cornell was unable to overcome this one run lead until the ninth. Brenner was master of the situation thru all the stages until he ninth, and even then it was only the luck of the game that beat him. Budd was safe on an infield hit .Valentine singled, and Budd reached third. Russell dropped one in front of the plate which Fred fielded a trifle too late to catch Budd. Santers and Burpee walked, filling the bases. Sutterby drove out a single, and Valentine scored.

The tabulations show, however, that the game was hard fought, and that Bucknell played a kind of ball that deserved to win.

The score follows:

Syracuse Game.

The next day the team traveled to Syracuse, and proceded to convince the people of that city that Bucknell is on the collegiate baseball map. The bats that had been silent at Cornell got busy at Syracuse, and when the smoke had cleared, Bucknell was the victor—score 8 to 6.

Bucknell's first selection for the hurling was Liebensberger. "Liebie" seemed, however, to be unable to find the rubber. He was decidedly liberal with his free tickets, and also keenly enjoyed hitting a man now and then. He pulled himself out of a tight place in the first. By issuing passes he filled the bases, and then kept Syracuse from scoring.

In the third he again became lib-

NOTICE TO TENNIS CANDIDATES

In order to determine who will represent Bucknell in tennis this year, Captain Harris has decided to hold a tournament beginning May 4. All those who wish to tryout for the team must hand their names either to Manager Bigler or Capt. Harris on or before 6 o'clock May 3. The management also requires the time of day when they can play. Names not fulfilling the above conditions will not be considered. The reason for this action is to enable the management to know exactly when each candidate can play, in order that the tournament may be run off as quickly and smoothly as possible.

FRESHMEN CONTEST.

The Freshman Contest in Declamation, one of the popular events of the college year, will be held on Saturday evening, the 29th. A number of standard selections plus some new adaptions will be rendered by those who have survived the preliminaries.

DR. PHILLIPS GIVES HELPFUL ADDRESS

STUDENTS GATHER TO HEAR TALK ON "THE MAN AND HIS WORK."

Dr. Llewellyn Phillips, of the faculty, gave an interesting and helpful talk to the members of the Y. M. C. A. in their meeting last Thursday evening. The subject of his talk was "The Man and His Work."

There was a period, before the adoption of the elective system, in which no real thought possessed the student of the university, but this period has passed away. There was a time also, when such a thing as professionalism was tolerated in the university, called the period of "abandonment," but this too has passed away. The time has come when the college student is possessed with a serious problem, namely, the selection of his calling.

The solution of this problem comes at the crucial point in a man's career when he must act rightly . In order to act rightly at this crucial point he must follow the bent of his nature. Darwin, Brooks, and Drummond are three remarkable cases where men, struggling to find their proper vocation, acted rightly at the crucial point in their career, became great and accomplished great things. As their biography will show they disregarded the professions that others had laid out for them and followed the bent of their nature.

If we expect to be successful in life we must learn to control the impulses of our nature. We must find ourselves, and it is not the bad in us, but the good in us that is our real self. The real problem before us in life, then, is to find ourselves so that we may best express our powers in the right direction.

This was the gist of Dr. Phillips' talk and it carries with it an instructive and very helpful lesson for every Bucknell student.

STUDENTS MINGLE IN SOCIAL EVENING

BUCKNELL HALL IS SCENE OF ENJOYMENT.

JOINT SOCIAL OF CHRISTIAN SOCIETIES

Students of Women's College Present Clever Play.—Musical Selections An Enjoyable Feature of the Evening's Program.

In spite of the inclement weather which seems to be in the habit of intruding upon the Easter season, a large crowd of students filled Bucknell Hall on Saturday evening, on the occasion of the social held under the auspices of the Y. M. and Y. W. C. A. A general spirit of sociability prevaded the hall the entire evening, and a casual glance over the room would have given one the impression that all were enjoying themselves to the fullest.

The evening's program was well started by the presentation of a short, but very laughable play entitled, "How the Story Grew." It concerned the mysterious moving of a mysterious family into "The Smith Property," which, reported from mouth to mouth by the village gossips, soon reached enormous and terrible proportions, but which turned out to be nothing more than the family of the new minister. The play was very capably presented by the following members of the Women's College: Matilda McLaughlin, Margaret McLaughlin, Kromer, McLoud, Downer, Thompson, Kanter, and Dinterman.

Following the play Miss Ruth Williams, '16, delighted those present with several well-rendered vocal selections.

Mr. Barthold, a Sophomore of Lehigh University, visiting his sister, Ruth Barthold, '17, also contributed to the evening's entertainment by his artistic interpretation of two selections on the violin.

FORUM ENTERTAINS.

Saturday's rain prevented the members of the Forum fraternity from taking their planned-for hike with their "Semite" friends to Montour. The disappointment, however, was partly dispelled by a very pleasant gathering of the would-be hikers at the Forum rooms in the afternoon. After the serving of refreshments, the party journeyed to the Orpheum, where they took in an interesing show.

STATE STUDENTS HERE.

A large number of Penn State students were visitors on the "Hill" last Wednesday. Easter vacation started at State last week and they were on their way home for vacation.

EVERETT T. JONES WINS PEACE PRIZE

BUCKNELL STUDENT TAKES SECOND PRIZE AT HARRISBURG.

Jones, '18, entered the Sixth Annual Inter-Collegiate Oratorical Contest as the representative of Bucknell and came away with the second prize. The contest was held in the Auditorium of the Technical High School, in Harrisburg last Thursday night. The Chairman at the Contest was Dr. J. J. Maloney, of the State Health Department. The event was held under the auspices of the Harrisburg Branch of the Pennsylvania Arbitration and Peace Society.

Jones has shown considerable ability in public speaking, winning the Freshman Declamation contest last year. He spoke at Harrisburg on the subject, "War and Public Opinion." Edgar G. Diehm, of Juniata, captured the first prize of seventy-five dollars. The other colleges represented were: Lebanon Valley, State College, and St. Joseph's College.

STUDENT VOLUNTEER.

Student Volunteers have been holding interesting meetings every week this term. The return of Everett E. Stone, president, has been welcome to all. Plans for the work of the term have been discussed at the recent meetings. The meeting on April 20 was led by Miss Superko. The immigration question was the chief topic for discussion a this time. Thursday afternoon at 4:30 the next meeting will take place at Women's College.

SCRUBS DEFEATED.

Errors by the Scrubs gave a hard-fought baseball game to the Academy team Thursday afternoon, 8-7. Swayze, the pitcher for the "Preps," was hit hard at times, but managed to fool the Scrub batters with men on bases. Beattie pitched for the Scrubs.

DR. HARRIS SPEAKS ON RESURRECTION

BIBLE CLASS LISTENS TO ADDRESS ON RISEN CHRIST.

On Easter Sunday Dr. Harris addressed the Bible Class on the Resurrection. In the first place he said that the resurrection of Christ was well established by three methods. The records of the scriptures evidence the fact, that after his death and resurrection his disciples and friends saw him, and not only saw him, but touched him, thus correcting any possible mistake of the eyes. Thon, too, the authenticity of the resurrection is attested by the historical records; for this event is as well proved as any other of the times. Finally, the testimony of our personal experience of salvation is conclusive to us of the reality of the resurrected Christ.

The common reasoning of the people is that the Christ arose, and therefore is alive in the world today as an active force; but the more logical reasoning is that the Christ is alive in the world today, and therefore this gives evidence that the Christ was not held by the grave. This may not be conclusive proof that the body of Christ was raised, but rather for the more essential reality that the Christ spirit was not held by the grave. This risen Christ may be active in the world as an influence such is exerted by the life of Lincoln upon one who reads his life, or may be active by virtue of Jesus' example. Or it may be in the world as a living, active presence. The latter phase of this will be considered by Dr. Harris in his address next Sunday.

INTERCOLLEGIATE DEBATE.

The first intercollegiate debate of the year will take place on Friday evening in Bucknell Hall, when the Lafayette team will be here. At the same time represntatives of Bucknell will uphold their side of the question at Lafayette.

CELEBRATE WORK OF SHAKESPERE

SHAKESPERE TERCENTENARY OBSERVED.

DR. ENOCH PERRINE DELIVERS LECTURE

Head of English Department Speaks on "Shakespere Self Revealed."—Chamanade Musical Club Gives Several Selections.

In view of the fact that the countries which most admire Shakespere, and which should really lead the way in the 300th anniversary of his death, are at present engaged in a tremendous conflict; it seemes only fitting that America, as the greatest nation at peace, should take the lead in celebrating the Stratford peasant's tercentenary. Accordingly, America has risen to the occasion and at least five of the states of the Union have definitely organized for this celebration. Since this community has decided to do its share, and since the work of Shakespere has so greatly affected the literature of the Anglo-Saxon races—and in fact, of the whole world—no better man could be chosen as the speaker at such exercises than the head of the Bucknell Department of English Literature, Dr. Perrine. Especially is this true since Professor Perrine has spent the greater part of his time, for the last quarter of a century in trying to impress the students under him with the greatness of Shakespere and his works.

Such was the content of Professor Fries' speech, which opened the exercises held in Bucknell Hall Friday night when Dr. Perrine gave an address on "Shakespere Self Revealed."

When we read the plays of Shakspere, we wish to know first what he says; and, from that, who he is. The reason for such a desire is that he deals with life in all its phases. Moreover, the commonness of the language and of the plays have both contributed to make Shakesperian productions popular. One question always comes up for discussion: whether or not Shakespere expressed his opinions at all in his work. It seems that he contradicts himself often if he makes his characters express his own opinions, for he tells us in one place that men are masters of their fates; in another, that men control their own destiny up to a certain point; and again that men are not masters of their futures. This view of Mr. Austen, the English Poet Laureate, that Shakespere does express his own opinions through his characters thus renders worthless—as do most of that critic's ideas.

Three things are, however, true: first, that Shakespere is to some extent in his lines, for he could not be purely objective in his works, extensive as they are. Secondly, we may approach him in his works, even if he tries to elude us when we are about to seek him. Then again, if we try to find him we shall gain ample reward for life.

At this point Prof. Perrine expressed his own ideas and gave his own suggestions on the subject. These suggestions were contained in three statements, made as follows: 1. Passages occur which do not apply to the thought, but where the playwright gives his own opinion. Such an instance is found in Hamlet's advice to the players, in which passage the poet takes the opportunity to criticise the acting of his day. 2. Sometimes Shakespere wanders from the speech in hand and introduces irrelevant matter, as in the dialogue between Thesus and his bride Hippolyta. 3. In the midst of simple, prosaic passages the characters burst out into highly poetic language, as when Horatio addressing the soldiers, suddenly refers to the coming dawn as a goddess clothed in a russet mantle. In these suggestions Dr. Perrine is supported by similar expressions of Matthew Arnold who says that Shakespere will NOT reveal himself, but leave us his works without disclosing himself.

THE BUDGET AGAIN.

Students of the three upperclasses remember how strong the sentiment for a budget system was at the close of last year's spring term. Ninety per cent. of the members of these classes pledged themselves to support the system as worked out by the Student Council. With such an encouraging start, it was thought certain that the budget system would prove a thorough success. That its success has been limited is due entirely to the failure of the students to give it the promised support. The fall term receipts were encouraging, but those of the winter term fell off almost one third.

The students themselves know why they have not paid. Doubtless they have various reasons, but when they say the budget system has failed, they are apt to forget that its fate lay entirely in the hands of the students. With proper support its success would have been assured. It has been just as great a success as the student body has willed.

The only fair test is to give it the strongest support possible. Even at that it could not be expected that every need would be satisfied within a few months time. It takes time to determine the proper apportionment for the various activities of school life, and students must consider this fact when they weigh the results.

The budget system is not dead. Its success this year may have been limited by lack of support, but plans are being formed by the Student Council, whereby the needed support will be forthcoming when the next school year opens. The budget system has been successful at other colleges, Why can it not be at Bucknell?

COMMUNICATION.

It is gratifying to red-blooded Americans to note the increasing wave of interest in military matters that surges throughout the country. Those of us who do not care to be classed with the Ford and Bryan aggregration are glad to see that the enthusiasm not only created an increased effort on the part of the War Department to train civilians, but it has affected probably every legislative body in the United States. The almost unanimous passage of the Welsh-Slater bill by the New York State Senate, providing for compulsory military training in public schools, shows that we feel our present unpreparedness, and is a measure of the realization in the minds of executive men that something must be done along the line of military training for young boys. The bill passed by a vote of 40 to 1.

There is no chance for argument by sensible, thinking people against military training. For the United States to encourage or even compel such training need not place us on a military basis comparable to that in Germany. However, we must admit the superiority of the Germans in war tactics and strategy and although it may be difficult for us to use them as an example of perfection in military matters we should not hesitate to do so. We must not let our superficial feelings get the better of our common sense. Strategists realize hat the United States has been extremely fortunate in all her wars. We have never faced a strong nation on the battlefield and of course it is hoped that it will never be necessary for us to do so. But the possibility exists, and the dignity and fate of such a nation as the United States is far too important for us to entrust its existence in a continuation of good luck. An ex-president very recently said in effect that God looks after drunkards, fools and the United States, but there is no telling when He may fall down on His job. God helps those who help themseles and it is our duty to strive to meet Providence more than half way.

Since the outbreak of the Great War it seems that our bluff has saved us several times from becoming involved. It is necessary to use a mieroscope to see the dignity of the United States at present. This is not entirely the fault of President Wilson, for he, realizing the weakness of the country, hesitates to take drastic steps. This is only a suggestion and not an excuse for the aggravating policy of "watchful waiting."

Peace is the ultimate goal. It is something no nation can promise another. Presidents, Emperors and Kings are human, and their terms of power are not perpetual. This generation, the world over, might lay down arms and trust each other, but they cannot speak for the next generation nor can they forsee the problems and disputes that are sure to arise. It is only folly to try to establish a lasting peace in this fashion. The most effectie peace is that which is backed by a good supply of Howitzers with a trained army and navy.

Military training is not preparation for war. It is preparation AGAINST war. Some people argue that now there is no nation fit to make war on us nor will they be fit to do so for 50 years or more, and in consequence they reason that this is a poor time to talk military training. No time is poor for military training. Why, if we were sure that we would have no use for an army or navy for 200 years there would yet be ample argument in favor of military training. It is the best training ever known for young men—the strict discipline creates a keen sense of respect for superiors, (a virtue sadly wanting in us today), and the strenuous exercise, the compulsion of systematic living, and the importance of loyalty to the country are enough to justify the existence of military training in a land of everlasting peace.

Bucknell offers (or at least up to 1915 offered) no opporunity for military training. Therefore most of the alumni are untrained in military matters. It is hoped that the University will take some action to establish compulsory training very soon. It should not be established as optional for this is out of keeping with the whole military atmosphere which depends upon discipline for its effectiveness. But better optional than not at all because there would be very few who would not take advantage of the opportunity if it existed. The "Plattsburg Idea" affords a chance for the alumni to get the very best of training and everyone who can possibly get away for a month ought to go to one of the camps. The testimony of last year's Plattsburg campers is enough to make anyone want to go. Why, even the ladies are training in California in connection with the Red Cross work. Information concerning the camps will be gladly furnished by Officer in Charge, Military Training Camps, Governors Island, N. Y.

REGISTRARS MEET AT COLUMBIA

DR. BUTLER, OF COLUMBIA, SPEAKS.—PROF. WILCOX PRESENT.

That the college registrar has become an officer of major importance because of his close touch with students and because his records furnish data for solving problems was the declaration of Dr. Nicholas Murray Butler, President of Columbia University, in his opening address before the seventh annual convention of the American Association of Collegiate Registrars at Columbia on April 18-20. Dr. Butler pointed out that the registrar now has functions performed in earlier days by the president of the institution, and that historically and actually this work has value and dignity.

The three days program of the Association included addresses by Clyde Furst, Secretary of the Carnegie Foundation for Teaching, Professors Mann and Reed, experts of the Foundation, L. A. Kalbach, of the United States Bureau of Education, and A. S. Bard, of the Inter-Fraternity Council. Secretary Furst discussed entrance certificate blanks and the plans of the Foundation to recommend a standard certificate form for colleges.

At the convention there were 70 representatives from many of the leading colleges and universities of the East, South and Middle West.

Officers for 1916-1917 were elected as follows: President, Frank A. Dickey, of Columbia University; First Vice-President, Arthur W. Tarbell, of Carnegie Institute of Technology; Second Vice-President, W .D. Hiestand ,of the University of Wisconsin; Secretary and Treasurer, Ezra L. Gillis, of the University of Kentucky. President Dickey appointed Raymond Walters, of Lehigh University, as Chairman of the Publicity Committee.

Still, in spite of his secrecy, Shakespere lives today as an idol in the hearts of his countrymen, and, as Thomas Carlyle says, England would rather lose her possessions than give up her favorite playwright, who is the great unifying factor of Saxondom.

After the address by Prof. Perrine, the audience was entertained with some very pleasing selections by the Chamanade Musical Club. The first was a duet from Nicolai's "Merry Wives of Windsor," rendered in highly amusing style by Mme. De Sylva-Schoen and Miss Etta Brown, who presented Mrs. Fluth and Mrs. Page in the dialogue scene, where both receive love letters of the same contents from Falstaff, read them aloud to each other and decide to play a joke upon the sender.

Three selections by the enire club followed: "Under the Greenwood Tree," "Come Away, Come Away Death," and "It Was a Lover and His Lass," all by MacFarren. The audience then dispersed after a very enjoyable and instructive evening.

Tonight, at 8 p. m. in Bucknell Hall, Miss Hardesty will present her piano pupils, Miss Cecile McCollum and Miss Marie Yeisley, in a very good program.

Williams-Bergstresser Recital.

Thursday night, April 27th, at 8 p. m. in Bucknell Hall, Madame De Sylva-Schoen will present her voice pupil Miss Ruth Williams, and Miss Hardesty will present her piano pupil, Miss Katherine Bergstresser. They will give a very effective program. Miss William will be accompanied by Mr. Alvin Adams. A violin obligato to her last two numbers will be played by Mr. Thos. Eshelman.

Welliver-Dunkelberger Recital.

Monday night, April 17th, in Bucknell Hall. Miss Charlotte Welliver, pupil of Miss Hardesty, and Miss Mabel Dunkelberger, pupil of Miss Brown gave their Senior recital. Miss Dunkelberger has a beautiful clear voice, and gave evidence of great control. She was particularly effective in Dudley Buck's "Sunset" and in Mary Turner Salter's "The Cry of Rachael." Miss Welliver did her best work in Nevin's "Napoli," in which she showed more originality than in any of her other numbers. However, at all times Miss Welliver produced a clear liquid tone on the piano. In the Concerto by Reincke, Miss Hardesty played the orchestral parts.

The program follows:

Prelude in B flat ..... Bach
Sonata Op. 2, No. 1 ..... Beethoven
Prestissimo
Charlotte Welliver
Still Wie Die Nacht ..... Bohm

VARSITY BREAKS EVEN

eral, and Syracuse scored four runs. The bases were full with two out in this inning when "Sid" Peale relieved "Liebie" on the mound. He ended the inning by disposing of the only man to face him by the strike-out method.

In the fifth Syracuse garnered two runs off "Sid" on a bunt, and a three-bagger which Miller was slow in returning. This brought their total up to six, and beyond that they were unable to go.

Bucknell began her scoring in the second. Four runs were gathered in that inning. Another was added in the third, and in the fifth the scorer credited us with three more, a total of eight runs, which gave a comfortable margin over the six which Syracuse had been able to gather.

The batting pace was set by Seeman who drove out three hits. "Mac" was also in the running, having two hits placed to his credit. The score will prove to the Bucknell adherents that the fellows had their batting eyes open.

Enjoyable Straw Ride.

Last Saturday afternoon three large wagon loads of Bucknell girls from Lewisburg—all packed in straw—save those who stood upright and tread it, arrived in town, their cheery songs and laughter making things ring right merrily. They made the Buffalo Valley Inn their headquarters and there they banqueted in grand shape on the best things eatable to be obtained. The bunch contained about 75 of the jolliest girls we ever heard yell "Bucknell." Come again, girls.—Mifflinburg Telegraph.

VARSITY DEFEATED IN TWO CLOSE GAMES

LOST TWO GAMES ON TRIP BY ONE RUN.

NAVY GAINED HARD BATTLE TILL EIGHTH

Brenner Pitches One Hit Game, But Loses 1-0 At Dickinson.—Errors Fatal At Navy.—Gettysburg Victor By 3-2 Score.

The hardest trip on the baseball schedule was completed last week, and altho we did not land any victories there is no evidence that the team was not playing good ball. No matter what brand of ball the varsity would put up, their opponents always went one better.

Dickinson Game.

The first game was played at Carlisle where we met the Dickinson nine. This game was the most closely contested of the three, Dickinson coming out the winner by the score of 1-0. Both Brenner and Vaughn gave a fine exhibition of pitching. Vaughn held the Bucknell batters hitless while one hit was all that Dickinson could muster off Brenner's delivery. Brenner really deserved a better fate, for Vaughn was hit hard and often, but our batsmen always had the misfortune to direct their swats straight into some fielder's hands. Vaughn issued one base on balls which almost proved fatal. In the ninth inning Elliott walked, stole second, advanced to third on an infield out, and on the next play was called out at the plate on a close decision.

Dickinson scored their lone tally in the fourth inning. With one out Walter received a pass and was sacrificed to second by Scribner, making the second out. Then Moose, the next man up, with two strikes against him stepped out and caught a high and wide one for two bases, and Walter scored . The hit was a lucky one and it was upon this that the game hinged.

REV. COBER, '96, BACK.

The Rev. A. A. Cober, '96, father of Mrs. Rockwell, '11, pastor of the Baptist church in Dayton, Ohio, was in town last week. His church had given him leave of absence for four months and with Mrs. Cober he was on his way to San Salvador in Central America to take up temporary work at the request of the Mission Board. Mr. Cober was for several years engaged in similar work in Porto Rico, but was obliged to give it up on account of severe illness. He saw many improvements here and rejoiced at the progress in both attendance and equipment. While a student here, he served the Milton Baptist Church regularly.

TENNIS TRY-OUTS.

Try-outs for the tennis team will begin in earnest this week to determine who will represent Bucknell in th coming matches. A few trials were held last week, but the majority will be staged within the next few days.

GLEE CLUB WILL GIVE HOME CONCERT

MAY 21, DATE SET FOR CONCERT.—PLANS FOR COMMENCEMENT.

The University Glee Club under the direction of Professor Stolz of the music department is working hard in preparation for their annual home concert which is to be held in the Lutheran Church on the evening of May 16th.

The Glee Club has had a very successful season thus far. The joint concert with the Penn State Club at State resulted in many flattering press notices and commendations for the local club.

Practically the same program as was rendered at Penn State will be rendered at the home concert and lovers of music will be tendered a rare treat in male harmony. A novelty which elicited much favorable comment at State College and which will be rendered here, was the rendition in German of Professor Stolz' adaption of "Leise, Leise" (Softly, Softly). Another selection which is certain to "bring down the house" is the club's rendition of "Alexander," a comic male voice selection. In spite of the statement before the State College concert that there would be no encores, the audience insisted on an encore after this number.

The Glee Club is also planning an innovation for Commencement Week. They will render a concert before the Alumni meeting at that time, and will also render an open air concert in the quadrangle immediately after the band concert the evening of June 20th.

Another innovation inaugurated by the Glee Club is the awarding of medals to those members who have rendered three consecutive years of service. The winners of medals this year are: Jeffrey, '16; James, '16; Sprenkle, '17; Johnson, '17; Pedigo, '17; Bertin, '17, and Weber, '17.

ELECTRICAL ENGINEERS.

The Electrical Engineers held a meeting in their quarters in East College on Monday evening. Banks, '10, discussed at length the subject of "Storage Batteries." The meeting was rather prolonged, due to the inexhaustible knowledge which Banks had on his subject. Besides this there were many other interesting topics discussed at the meeting.

DEBATING TEAM WINS AND LOSES

SECOND DEBATE OF YEAR ON FRIDAY.

State and Bucknell Men Put Forth Strong Arguments In Bucknell Hall.—Bucknell Band Renders Excellent Concert.

Bucknell's Debating Team defeated Penna. State College in the second intercollegiate debate of the term Friday evening when they upheld the affirmative side of the question: "Should an International Police Force for the Purpose of Enforcing International Agreements and Treaties and Preserving International Peace be Established?" The debate was hotly contested on both sides and the judges' decision was a two to one vote.

The Bucknell Band opened the program with several selections after which the presiding officer, Judge A. W. Johnson, of Lewisburg, took the chair and announced the following speakers: Affirmative—Bucknell, D. L. Ranck, C. W. Potter, S. D. Lennox; Negative—Penna. State, H. R. Hammond, G. W. Miller and W. R. Oehrle. The opening speeches were ten minutes in length and all men rebutted, the first two on each side being allowed five minutes each and the last two eight minutes each.

The argument of the affirmative consisted in upholding an international police force by showing that it was a practical and logical principle; that its necessity justified its adoption and that the details such as legislative, judicial and executive, could easily be worked out in founding such a force. The negative maintained that the question was unsound in principle; that it was not practical and also illogical for connection existed between world peace movement and a national police force. The arguments for both sides were very well outlined and a number of points not touched upon on the same question with Lafayette a week ago were brought out. The rebuttal was well taken up, but Bucknell appeared to an advantage in this refutation.

The judges handed in their sealed decisions without consultation and a verdict of two to one in favor of the affirmative was announced by Judge Johnson. The judges were: D. L. Glover, Esq., of Mifflinburg; Dr. Frank P. Manhart, of Selinsgrove, and the Rev. M. S. Kemp, of Watsontown.

In the debate at State College, Bucknell lost the decision by a 3-0 vote of the judges. Bucknell's representatives were: Lester Bartlett, '16; Ralph Beard, '18; Miller Johnson, '17, who upheld the negative side of the same question.

"PITT" HERE SATURDAY.

The University of Pittsburgh's strong baseball team will cross bats with the varsity, Saturday on Athletic Field. "Pitt" has a clever pitcher in Laugdon, a southpaw, who will probably go against the Orange and Blue. This game will be the biggest game on the home schedule.

Bucknell University Glee Club

ALUMNUS HONORED.

Alfred Van Osten, '14, who was well known for his musical ability while at Bucknell, has been successful as director of the Presbyterian Church choir at Clearfield. Van Osten has charge of this choir in connection with his work as teacher in Clearfield High School. The following is a clipping from a Clearfield paper: "The oratorio, "The Crucifixion," by John Stainer, given by the augmented choir of the Presbyterian Church, assisted by the Sabbath School orchestra, was one of the finest musical trents ever heard in Clearfield. The night was stormy, and yet in the down-pour the people came and filled the church. Mr. Alfred Van Osten, Mr. Horton and the chorus have been laboring in the preparation and rehearsal since the first of the year, and the finished production was a credit to all who had part in the service."

GETTYSBURG VICTOR IN DUAL TRACK MEET

BUCKNELL TEAM MAKES GOOD SHOWING IN DISTANCE RUNS.

The track team journeyed to Gettysburg on Saturday for a dual meet with the "Battlefield Collegians," with the result that at the final wind up the score stood 62½-41½ in favor of our opponents. This was the first track meet of the season and it served well to bring out the strong and the weak points of the team.

As in last year's team we were strong in the distance races. In the two mile and the mile, Butt and Bachman showed up in their old time form and had little difficulty in winning their respective races. Our men also starred in the middle distances, Pierce winning the quarter-mile, and Winkelblech tieing for first place in the half-mile. In the dashes and hurdles we were outclassed by the Gettysburg men, who won the 100 and 220 yard dashes, as well as the 120 and 220 yard hurdles. The time for most of the track events was slow, but the runners labored under the disadvantage of a very heavy track.

In the field events the Gettysburg men showed their strong points, Titzel winning the shot-put with 39 feet, and Anderson taking the pole vault at 11 feet, 6 inches, breaking the Gettysburg record in this event. Our team was greatly handicapped by lack of time. They arrived in Gettysburg at 2 p. m. and had to leave at 4 o'clock. One event, the broad jump, had to be omitted on this account.

Summary.

Two Mile Run—1st Butt, 2nd Buck, time 10.47.

880 Yd. Run—1st, tie, Howard, Winkelblech, time 2min. 9.4 sec.

120 Yd. Hurdle—1st Anderson, 2nd Lawrence, time 17.2.

FORUM MEETS DEFEAT.

Too many errors resulted in a defeat for the Forum nine at the hands of the Demosthenean on Thursday by a 9-2 score. Williamson pitched a good game for his team, but was poorly supported. Smith and Bigler were the Demosthenean's battery, while Williamson with Reed behind the bat worked for the Forum.

SENIORS NOTICE.

All members of the Senior Class Play cast are requested to be at Commencement Hall tonight at 8:00, with the lines of the first two acts memorized.

BIG CROWD SEES MAY DAY EVENTS

ANNUAL MAY DAY EXERCISES SATURDAY.

CROWNING OF QUEEN A BRILLIANT AFFAIR

Women's College Campus Presents An Attractive Scene.—Helen Jenkins, Queen of May.—Bucknell Band Gives Concert.

The Annual May Day exercises were held May 6, on the grounds surrounding the Woman's College. The day was ideal, a fact which added greatly to the success of the exercises.

Early in the afternoon people began to arrive. Automobiles from the outlying towns gathered along the campus on two sides and all eagerly waited for the program to commence. The Bucknell Band arrived and in a few moments struck up the air to "The Stars and Stripes." For one-half hour the band relieved the anxiety of the spectators, who were waiting for the girls, now arranging themselves in line for the Grand March.

By means of a code of signals arranged between Miss Schillinger and the band, the concert came to an end, and all was now in readiness for the Grand March.

The girls had "lined-up" in front of New Building and marched up the centre of the campus. The variety of costumes and the various colors added beauty and interest to the occasion. The Grand March was lead by the Seniors, with the Junior, Sophomore and Freshmen girls following.

At the conclusion of the Grand March, the procession marched back to the New Building, where they formed an archway, through which the Queen of May, escorted by her Royal House was to come.

In the meantime "A Poppy Phantasy," arranged by Margaret Weddell and Lois Reynolds, was given by the Senior girls.

Finally the Queen, Helen Jenkins, '16, escorted by her attendants, approached the throne, which was beautifully decorated by large bouquets, apple blossoms and bunting. The crown, signifying that the dignity of royalty has been fully granted, was placed upon the head of the Queen.

The May Queen dance was now carried out by the Misses Cooper, Williamson, Potts, Fritz, Collins and Johnson. In this dance the gayety of colors was a significant feature.

The Wand drill given by the first year's physical training class, displayed great skill in drill work, by the girls.

The Misses Wallace, Gay, Michael, Haines, Dolphin, Starr and Potts carried out the "Hoops" exhibition in a most pleasing manner. The Junior girls, representing daises, entertained with a Folk Dance.

One of the most interesting events of the afternoon was the Milk Maids' Carnival Day. The girls, dressed as the famous "Milking Girl," carrying their pails, gave a most delightful drill, which ended with the song, "Where Are You Going My Pretty Maid?"

With the Folk Dance and an Irish March given by the first year Domestic Science class, this part of the program came to a close.

The May pole exercises followed, after which the planting of the 1916 Senior Girls' Tree concluded the exercises.

May Day exercises date back to the old Elizabethean and feudal times. They were first given in honor of the Gods. Later the poorer people held these exercises in honor of the rich lords and barons. Finally it changed its purpose and was given in honor of spring. The last step in the progress of this custom was taken over by the college and today there is not a Woman's College of standard which does not have its May Day exercises.

The entire student body, town folks and visitors deeply appreciated the endeavor of Miss Schillinger's, under whose able instruction, such a delightful program was rendered.

MONDAY MAY 8, 1916.

MOTHERS' DAY.

Next Sunday, May 14, is Mothers' Day. On this day thousands of people in all parts of the country will do reverence to their mothers, and wear a white carnation as an external sign of this reverence.

For the student attending college, the observation of Mothers' Day carries with it a world of meaning. In many cases it has meant many sacrifices on her part, in order that the son might attend college. In every case the student knows the guiding influence that his mother has had upon his life, and realizes what it might have been if it were not for this influence. The wearing of a carnation or some other white flower is a little act in itself, but the thought which prompts the act is a recognition of what our mothers have done for us. As Rev. Snyder said in his talk to the Y. M. C. A. last week, we can never know the intensity of a mother's love, but we can at least show our appreciation of the sacrifices which come as a result of this love. A white carnation on every Bucknell student next Sunday would be a fine tribute to that great guiding influence —a mother's love.

DEFEATED IN CLOSE GAMES

All the scoring that was done by both teams came in the seventh and ninth innings. Gettysburg managed to register three runs in the seventh. The first man up in this inning received a free passage to first and the next man singled. The next batter bunted and Peale tried to catch the man going to third, but Storer failed to cover the bag, and the bases were filled. Two runs crossed when Baldt muffed Elliott's throw to the plate and another single produced the third run. Peale, who had been working in good form up to this inning, was taken out and Cockill finished the game.

Bucknell scored one run in the seventh on Elliott's double, Crawford's infield out, and Storer's single. They came back again in the ninth in a final attempt to overcome Gettysburg's lead but one run was all that they could gather. The one run came about thru Elliott's triple and Miller's infield hit.

Hoar occupied the mound for Gettysburg and kept the seven hits that he allowed well scattered. Gettysburg gathered but three hits, two of these coming in the seventh inning.

Navy Game.

The team next made their appearance in Annapolis and after a one-day rest they launched an attack upon the Navy. The game was undecided until the eighth inning when the Middies coupled hits with our errors and piled up five runs, making the final score 6-1.

The Midshipmen opened upon the offensive by scoring one run in the fourth. They retained this lead until the seventh when Bucknell evened things up by working the squeeze play. Miller singled, reached third, and scored on Baldt's bunt. The next inning proved fatal for us when the Middies joined a couple of hits to our loose handling of the ball and netted enough runs to win the game.

Brenner pitched in his usual good form and deserved to win. Had it not been for the errors of his teammates he would probably have landed a victory. Blodgett, who did the hurling for Navy, seemed to take exceptional glee in retiring his opponents on strikes, as thirteen Bucknell batsmen were disposed of in this manner.

FIRST TENNIS MATCH RESULTS IN VICTORY

SYRACUSE TEAM GOES DOWN TO DEFEAT BY SCORE OF 5-1.

Bucknell's tennis team won their first match of the season when they defeated Syracuse on Saturday by a 5-1 score, winning everything except one match of doubles. Captain Harris and Malin, veterans of last year's team, put up their usual good game, and won both their singles and doubles without much trouble. Hulley and Sprout lost their doubles, but won out in both singles. A fair-sized crowd was on hand to witness the matches, which were played on the S. A. E. and Linn courts.

The men who represented Bucknell in this match were picked by elimination, from those who stood up well in last fall's tournament. The early date prevented the trying-out of all the candidates prior to Saturday. This week the regular trials will be held, when every candidate will be given a chance to make a place on the team.

A summary of the matches follows:

Doubles—Harris and Malin, Bucknell, defeated Norton and Osborn, Syracuse, 6-1 and 6-2.

Holzworth and Kupfer, Syracuse, defeated Sprout and Hulley, Bucknell, 10-8, 6-4.

Sprout, Bucknell, defeated Holzworth, Syracuse, 4-6, 6-3, 6-1.

ALUMNUS GETS JUDGESHIP.

Washington, D. C., May 6.—J. Warren Davis, '96, Salem, United States District Attorney for New Jersey, was nominated today for the new Federal District Judgeship recently created by Congress.

Mr. Davis was formerly a Baptist minister, pastor of the church at Pedricktown, but gave up the ministry for the practice of law. He later became interested in politics, and in 1912 was chosen Senator on the Democratic ticket in Salem county. While in the Senate he was one of the more independent and progressive men of the party, and in the following year was chosen the party leader on the floor. President Wilson named him United States District Attorney that same year, the first of his administration.

Mr. Davis was born in Elizabeth City, N. C., March 14, 1867. In 1889 he entered Chester Academy at Chester, Pa., where he was graduated in 1892. He entered Bucknell University at Lewisburg, Pa., the same fall, graduating in 1896, and then entered Crozer Theological Seminary in Chester, where he was graduated in 1899.

Mr. Davis was a professor in Crozer for two years and then entered the University of Chicago for a year. Later he studied in the University of Leipsic and the University of Berlin. Returning to America, he entered the University of Pennsylvania Law School, and was graduated in 1906. While studying at the University of Pennsylvania he accepted a call to the Baptist Church at Pedricktown.

REV. SNYDER GIVES FORCEFUL ADDRESS

"MOTHER," THE SUBJECT OF HIS PRACTICAL TALK TO Y. M. C. A.

In spite of the fact that on account of some misunderstanding the girls failed to show up at the scheduled joint Y. W. and Y. M. C. A. meeting on Wednesday evening, a good bunch of fellows turned out at the chapel to hear their old friend Rev. Sylvester Snyder, of Schwenksville. Aubrey, the newly elected president, made his debut by taking charge of the meeting and introducing the speaker.

The fellows who had the pleasure of hearing Mr. Snyder's forceful message at one of the winter term meetings, and who came to last week's meeting with pleasant anticipations, were by no means disappointed. For his message, though simple, was intensely practical; though "homely," as he himself expressed it, it was vitally important. In other words, it was a frank, earnest, friendly plea for more love for Home and Mother. Mr. Snyder's wide experience with college men has enabled him to understand them, and to know how to help them. And from that experience, he drew many illustrations—touching illustrations that sank deep into the hearts of his hearers.

"Nothing is neglected quite so much by the average college student," said Mr. Snyder, "as the cultivation of an appreciation for mother love. I have been in many a college student's room, but very, very rarely do I find a picture of Mother on the wall. The three greatest words in the world to me are Heaven, Home and Mother, but Mother is by far the greatest, for Heaven would not be Heaven without the Home, and what is Home without the Mother?

"Why is the word 'Mother' the greatest in the world? In the first place, she labors. Sometimes college fellows get the ideas into their heads that they are hard worked, but I wonder if there is one here who has to work as hard as his own Mother? Her life means 'labor' from morning until night. When we are tempted to complain of hard work, let us think of her. And what pay does she receive? It is too often the case that she does not even get the appreciation of the son whom she is trying to keep in college.

And while she labors for us, she worries about us. She wonders what we are doing, how we are occupying our time, whether we are living up to the principles of truth which we heard from her lips.

And the labor and the worry are be-gotten of the greatest of all Mother virtues, namely, Mother Love. It is a love that takes everything for granted—the most unreasonable love in the world. No matter how bad a scape-grace you may be, no matter how vile or how unworthy, that love, still goes out to you, and refuses to believe that you are not true to it. Do you want a picture of God's love? Then go to Mother, for you will find a better picture, never. You cannot be a Christian and be indifferent to that love. It is the one thing above all others that should keep us straight and above-board. The fellow who lives in the shade would not do so if he could realize the intensity of that love, and of his Mother's faith in him.

Mr. Snyder closed his message with an earnest prayer that his words might cause the fellows to appreciate their mothers more, and we feel sure that neither his message nor his prayer were in vain.

SCRUBS LOSE FAST GAME TO BLOOMSBURG

DEFEATED BY A NINTH INNING RALLY ON PART OF NORMALITES.

The Scrubs lost a fast game to the Bloomsburg State Normal team on Saturday at Bloomsburg by the score of 4-3. The Normalites rallied in the ninth with the score 3-2 in favor of the Scrubs and scored two runs on a two-base hit by pitcher Kelsey. Adverse decisions by a leathery-eyed umpire robbed the Scrubs of a victory which was justly theirs; for in both hitting and fielding Cockill's second-string men were the superiors of the Normal nine. Liebensberger twirled for the Scrubs and showed by his masterly exhibition that he is rounding into his old-time form. Snyder's catch of a difficult fly ball in left field which chased him to the foul line was the feature of the game.

SCRUBS GET REVENGE.

The Scrubs revenged their last week's defeat by the Preps with a clean-cut 6-2 victory on Friday afternoon. The batteries were Swayze and Lees for the Preps, and Beattie and Miller for the Scrubs.

ANNUAL ELOCUTION CONTEST PLEASES

LARGE AUDIENCE HEARS SELECTIONS FROM DICKENS.

The annual Elocution Contest of the Bucknell Department of Elocution was held on Saturday night in Bucknell Hall; when one of the largest audiences ever present at such a contest was in attendance. The program consisted of cuttings from Dickens' "David Copperfield." The selections were all very well adapted to elocutionary work and were delivered in an interesting and pleasing style by the contestants. That the contest held the attention of the crowded house may be easily understood from the varied nature of the program as seen in the following copy:

Betsy Trotwood and Her Small Nephew .... Sarah Evans Thompson, Sewell, N. J.

The Peggotty Family .. Ora Beatrice Smith, White Deer.

BIBLE CLASS HEARS INTERESTING TALK

DR. HARRIS SPEAKS ON, "RELATION OF WAR TO POSITIVE MORALITY."

As was announced previously Dr. Harris addressed the Bible Class last Sunday on the subject, "The Relation of the War To Positive Morality."

It is every man's duty to love the right and hate the wrong. God is love and a consuming fire towards evil. He loves the sinner, but hates sin. When the manifestation of hate is so evident in the world, the positive side, which is love is liable to be forgotten.

War as viewed from a negative standpoint is hate. War arises from one of three causes. The first type results from an offspring of passion, or a desire for revenge. The second comes from a desire for possession or plunder undr the modified title of indemnity. The third kind comes about because of an expression of principle—perhaps on both sides as in the Civil War. The North advocated equality; the South believed that the capitalist should own the laborer.

The present war from a negative standpoint is hate, yet only a deep love for country, family and home institutions will cause men to go to certain death in the trenches. Love for country is the positive power which has made 400,000 Canadians cross the ocean to fight for their country.

There is not the personal hatred in war that one imagines. The mingling in friendship of Union and Confederate troops in Richmond after Lee's surrender proves this fact. The same is true of the present European War as incidents in the trenches at Christmas time showed. The men are fighting because of love for their country and not because of hatred for their enemies. We must bear this fact in mind when we study war in relation to morality.

Next Sunday Dr Colestock will address the class on, "The Historical Background of the War."

SPEAKING CONTESTS

On Friday evening, May 12th, the lovers of public speaking will be greeted by the orators of the Junior class. This year a novel program has been arranged. Each speaker will advocate a course which he has investigated.

Problems will be presented such as, Safety First—Liberalization of the Engineering Courses—Reformation of Criminals—Telling of Stories—Americanization of Immigrants and True Patriotism.

On the following night, Saturday, May 13th, the Sophomore class will deliver a mixed program of orations and declamations.

A notable feature of these contests will be the presence of the speakers who have represented Bucknell in the State Oratorical Championships.

VARSITY CONQUERS PITT'S FAST NINE

HARD HITTING SPELLS DEFEAT FOR PITT 4-3

Brenner Twirls Fine Game.—Two Timely Hits By Storer.—Pitt Man Gets Farther.—Susquehanna Beaten On Wednesday 8-2.

The [illegible] pitching of Brenner and timely hitting by the home team enabled Bucknell to triumph over Pittsburgh Saturday by the score of 4-3. [illegible] was helpless after the second inning, securing only one hit in the last seven rounds. The lead, however, they had obtained in he first two innings was sufficient to keep the varsity plugging hard to overcome it.

The game was given a lively sendoff in the opening frame by Carlson, the second man at bat for the western nine. He met one of Brenner's fast ones and sent it sizzling into centre field, having little trouble in completing the whole circuit when the ball bounded past McDermott and rolled to the track in deep centre. The blow met with Brenner's disapproval and he sought vengeance by whiffing the next two batters.

Things assumed a graver aspect in the next inning when Pitt scored two more runs, both a trifle tainted. Elliott received the first chance and heaved the ball to the railroad tracks. Another wild pass by Storer and a hit gave the visitors a three-run lead. Any further attempt to score was smothered by "Freddie" before the situation became dangerous.

The process of evening things up began in the third. McDermott drew a pass and after Elliott and Miller flied out Crawford singled. Two runs crossed when Storer drove a two-sacker into left field. The two runs needed to win came in the seventh inning. With two down Elliott reached first on a pass and scored when Miller sent the ball over the canvass in right field. The umpire allowed him only two bases, but ordinarily the hit would have been good for an easy home run. Cockill, batting for Crawford, who had been removed on account of injury, was safe on an error and Miller scored on Storer's two-bagger.

Brenner was working in top form and when his team mates gave him proper support he had no trouble in retiring his opponents. Pittsburgh used three pitchers, two left-handers and one right. Langdon, who is reputed to be one of the best pitchers in college ranks, ascended the mound in the fourth and proved effective for several innings. The winning runs were scored off Hoch, who pitched the last two innings.

Bucknell Hall was the scene of another interesting contest Saturday evening, when nine Sophomores competed for the annual Sophomore oratorical prizes. All of the numbers were well chosen, and splendidly handled by the competitors. TENNIS TEAM WINS OVER SUSQUEHANNA

SECOND MATCH OF SEASON RESULTS IN EASY VICTORY, 6-0.

Bucknell's tennis team annexed the second victory of the season when they triumphed over Susquehanna Saturday by a 6-0 score. None of the matches were at all close, Susquehanna securing but 5 games in the whole tournament.

The next match will be played here on May 27 with State College. The team will endeavor to wipe out last year's defeat at the hands of State, when they lost out 4-2. Judging by the showing of Bucknell and State against Susquehanna, last year's score may be reversed in Bucknell's favor.

The score for Saturday's match:

Singles.

JUNIORS DELIVER ANNUAL ORATIONS

EIGHT MEMBERS OF JUNIOR CLASS CONTEST.

SPEAKERS ADVOCATE VARIOUS CAUSES

National Problems Furnish Material For Effective Orations.—Musical Numbers Add Pleasing Feature To Program.

Eight members of the Junior Class delivered orations advocating the advancement of some cause or movement, on the occasion of the Annual Exhibition of Oratory, held in Bucknell Hall on Friday night.

The selecting of the orators, as has been the case in other years, was done on a basis of work in Rhetoric and Oratory during the Freshmen and Sophomore years. In view of this fact five young men and three young ladies were chosen to represent the Junior Class in this contest. The subjects of the orations dealt with many problems of national importance and common interest, the national life of the present age giving splendid opportunities for the choosing of subjects of this nature. These problems were brought before the fair-sized audience in a clear and forcible manner by the speakers.

The excellent musical numbers by Miss Welliver and Miss Evans served to enliven the interest and round out the program in an efficient manner.

The program:—

March ..... Miss C. Welliver
Clinton Irwin Sprout .. Picture Rocks
"Reforming the Criminal"
George Thomas Bender, Jr., .. Lewisburg
"Safety-First: The New Crusade"
Paul Wheeler Boggess .. Philippi, W. Va.

DR. WHERRY GIVES LECTURE ON RADIUM

MANY STUDENTS HEAR ASSISTANT CURATOR OF NATIONAL MUSEUM.

Dr. Edgar Werry, Assistant Curator of the National Museum at Washington, gave a lecture on, "Radium Bearing Materials," on Thursday evening, which was enjoyed by a large number of science students.

Dr. Werry first spoke of luminescence and phosphorescence, or the property which some materials possess, of giving off light, without heat. He defined the various types of luminescence and gave demonstrations illustrating them. One of the most interesting of these was the absorption luminescence. Some materials have the property of absorbing light during the daytime and giving it off at night. This phenomena was reproduced in several minerals by subjecting them to the action of the ultra violet rays from an electric spark discharge; after which treatment they glowed brilliantly when shown in the dark.

Dr. Wherry next spoke of Radium itself, and with the aid of the stereopticon outlined the historical development of this rare and important element. The radium bearing materials, samples of which were exhibited, showed the property of luminescence to a high degree. With the first named minerals this property lasts but for a short time after the source has been removed. However with the radium bearing minerals no external source of energy is needed, and the specimen continues to glow for an indefinitely long period of time which may run into many years.

The lecturer also spoke of some of the uses of Radium. He exhibited an alarm clock, th face of which was covered with a very small amount of a Radium salt. This illuminated the face so brilliantly that one could tell the time at any hour of the night, without the use of a light. At the close of the lecture the audience was given the opportunity of making a close examination of the specimens and apparatus.

MUSICAL SORORITY ESTABLISHED HERE

GRANTED CHAPTER IN MU PHI EPSILON

National Officers Will Install New Chapter Here This Term.—Miss Nelle Aumiller, President, At National Convention.

Bucknell University now harbors another sorority. The newly established sorority in unique in that it is exclusively a musical organization, and has as a requirement for membership, musical talent. This organization is a chapter of the well-known national Mu Phi Epsilon sorority; a sorority which has on its roll such names as Schumann-Heink, Alma Gluck, Carolina White, Geraldine Farrar and Carrie Jacobs Bond. Founded in 1903 by Mr. Sterling at Cincinnati, Ohio; the Mu Phi Epsilon musical sorority has grown till it extends its branches to the Atlantic and Pacific Coasts, and has installed at different musical conservatories and colleges twenty-two chapters, of which the best known to Easterners are those at the Boston Conservatory, Coombs' Conservatory in Philadelphia and at the Colleges of Music at the Universities of Chicago, Syracuse and Cornell. The publication of the national organization is the "Mu Phi Epsilon Triangle."

Since one understands that the national sorority is very careful in its choice of members and is very conservative in the installation of chapters, seldom granting more than two or three chapters in a state; one can appreciate the honor that has come to the Bucknell College of Music. That the Bucknellian musicians have themselves proved worthy of the favorable consideration, is also a satisfaction to all the students of the university.

But you are curious to know a little more of the facts of the case; how the local organization was founded, and how it received an affirmative answer to its petition for a chapter in Mu Phi Epsilon. The Alpha Omega, as the local musical organized society was called, was talked of as early as last fall term; but did not definitely announce itself as an organization till last March. The sorority consists of fifteen members, all affiliated, also, with the Bucknell Oratorio Society; and the officers are as follows: President, Miss Nelle Aumiller; Vice President, Marie Volkmar; Secretary, Martha Wettlaufer; Treasurer, Margaret Allen, and Corresponding Secretary, Aileen Larson.

Through the efforts of the local society, Miss Aumiller was sent as a petitioning delegate to the national convention of Mu Phi Epsilon at Cincinnati, O. An elaborately arranged convention was there held at which the delegates joined in luncheons—at one of which Mme. Carolina White was entertained—, concerts and a ball. The delegates were also highly honored guests at the first performance of Strauss's famous "Alpine Symphony" given by the Kunwald Symphony of Cincinnati. At this convenion, then, before a large assembly of delegates from different parts of the States, Miss Aumiller presented her oral petition for a chapter at Bucknell. Submitted to a searching examination by those who had not even heard of Bucknell, and finally released; the President of Alpha Omega was able to report favorable consideration. Then last week the good news came in official form and Bucknell College of Music was the home of another chapter of Mu Phi Epsilon.

The installation of the local chapter will probably take place before Commencement time comes around; and next year fraternity life at Bucknell will be able to welcome another organization into its midst.

THE BAND CONCERT.

The Bucknell Band is to be commended for the excellent concert on the Campus Friday evening. The music rendered on this occasion would have done credit to any college band in the country, and to say that the students enjoyed it, is putting it mildly; the universal opinion among the students being, that it was one of the features of the school year.

The Band had spent considerable time in preparation for this concert and the brand of music they played gave evidence of this fact. The selections too were well chosen to suit an audience of college students, the program being varied with popular and classical numbers.

The idea of the open-air concert is a good one, and has met with a generous response from the students. The annual band concert by some noted band of the country at Commencement time is always looked forward to with interest on the part of the students, because of a desire to hear band music, and also, because of the attractive scene which the campus presents at this time. Friday night was ideal for an open-air concert and the campus, if ever, presented an attractive scene. Taking everything in consideration, the concert may be called a decided success, and makes us wish that we may hear more of them before the school year closes.

COMMUNICATION.

Preparedness, one of the live issues in public life today, is a subject that should be handled with a great deal of care and thought by the American people. Our country guided by men such as Washington, Jefferson, Clay and Lincoln has reached a position of marked power and influence in the 'mind' of the nations of the world. With that power there goes a great responsibility.

An army and navy are essential and the United States has done well to keep both in right condition. However, the present plans for their enlargement would not only require an enormous sum of money, but without question tend to develop a class of military men and organizations that would start a cataclysm because the preparations have been made. Shall America with all her noble history and virile, courageous manhood leave the old path and launch a program that trusts steel and dreadnaughts more than faith in God, American integrity, and the loyalty and bravery of her manhood and womanhood?

Among the many eminent statesmen that stood for a small standing army and navy was Jackson, a lion in war, yet a firm believer in the dangers of militarism. In his last address to the people we read; "You have the highest of human trusts committed to your care. You have been chosen as the guardian of freedom to preserve it for the benefit of the human race. May you with pure hands, and sleepless vigilance guard and defend to the end of time the great charge committed to your keeping."

But guard and defend from whom? The English? The Germans? Yet Jackson answers: "It is from within, among yourselves, from disappointed ambition and inordinate thirst for power that liberty will be endangered."

Again we quote: "Sincerely desirous to cultivate the most liberal and friendly relations with all; ever ready to fulfill our engagements with scrupulous fidelity; limiting our demands upon others to mere justice; holding ourselves ready to do unto them as we would wish to be done by, and avoiding ever the appearance of undue partiality to any nation; it appears to me impossible that a simple and sincere application of our principles to our relations, can fail to place them ultimately upon the footing upon which it is our own wish they should rest."

Heretofore our Republic has held out a hand of service to the peoples of all parts of the globe. This has been proven by our action toward the Philippines and Cubans. Can the world continue to believe in this policy if the present plans for extensive Preparedness are put into effect? If at any time we become involved in war and if the struggle be for principle God will give us the victory.

During the Revolution and the Civil War American manhood never flinched when the real issue came.

We should remember the principles which the early law-makers drew up for our Republic, hold to a mighty trust in God, the Father, and a loyalty to Christ's program of life which will not only mould our individual thought and character, but will guide our actions toward the other nations of the world; that of service to humanity and the sacrifice of national pride, if necessary, for the uplift of the races.

W. A. GOEHRING, '12.

The last Senior Music recital of the year was given in Bucknell Hall last Monday evening. Miss Armstrong presented her violin pupil Miss Camilla Bunker Reed, and Miss Hardesty presented her piano pupil Miss Charlotte Probasco Laning. The program was so arranged as to bring out an excellent variety of expression and power of interpretation in the different numbers. Miss Reed's selection, "Concerto No. 22," by Viotti, was highly appreciated, while Miss Laning appeared at her best in the "Indian Sketch by Cadman.

The program:—

DR. COLESTOCK SPEAKS TO COLLEGE BIBLE CLASS

"HISTORICAL BACKGROUND OF THE WAR," HIS SUBJECT.

Professor Colestock, of the college faculty, delivered a very interesting address to the Bible Class last Sunday on, "The Historical Background of the War."

Th combination of a dominant nation and a dominant ruler with imperial ambitions and capacities is likely to result disastrously to lesser nations, which must suffer at the expense of the more powerful nation's expansion. Rome, for example, expanded until the entire Mediterranean country was included within its territory. Prior to the spread of imperialism however, the national element must be broken down—the nationalism which is in continual conflict with imperialism. Numerous wars have been brought about as a result of this natural conflict.

Th smaller nations prefer to have thir own laws, rather than be absorbed into a stronger nation with better laws. All they ask is to be let alone, in order that they may solve their own problems.

In the present war, something more than the conflict between nationalism and imperialism lies in the background. The reason why the war has taken on such immense proportions lies in the existence of a remarkable group of entangling alliances among the nations of Europe. These alliances came about thru the subjugation of Turkey by Russia—the subsequent conference of the powers at Berlin, where they undid all Russian gains—and fear of Russia on the part of the other powers. Germany, Austria and Italy formed the one alliance; France, England and Russia formed the other. Thus we find practically the whole of Europe tied up in a combination of offensive and defensive alliances.

Alsace-Lorraine, taken by Germany in 1871, has been a bone of contention between France and Germany ever since. The large indemnity exacted from the French and the compulsory military serice forced upon the French youths of Alsace-Lorraine have served to arouse a bitter feeling between the two nations. These factors, however, were only of minor importance. The chief factors to be considered are: The conflict between the old order and the new, and the entangling alliances of the great powers.

The spread of the peace movement resulted in a counter-movement on the part of the militarists. It resulted in the organization of the military class and a scattering of propaganda for increased armament. By this means a half-dozen men can almost compel a nation to take up arms against its will. This is one of the causes of contest between the old and new orders—a contest where the old seeks to hold itself against the new.

Many other minor factors might be considered in the background of the war, but these seem to be of most importance.

Next Sunday Dr. Drinker, of Lehigh University, will address the class.

HARD GAME SATURDAY.

pitcher: Brenner, Belford. Passed balls: Beatty, Baldt. Umpire: Difenderfer.

Susquehanna Game.

Last Wednesday the varsity invaded Selinsgrove and took Susquehanna by storm, score 8-2.

Peters, the opposing twirler, was bumped for twelve hits which, coupled with four errors, produced eight runs. One of these runs came in the second inning on hits by Miller and Crawford. In the sixth round our batters opened fire and went thru the enemy's defense for four runs. A base on balls to McDermott, a triple by Elliott, and singles by Crawford, Storer, Murray and Cockill were the main factors in the onslaught. Still unsatisfied with a comfortable lead, the varsity kept on pounding out hits and three more runs were added in the last two frames.

Cockill occupied the hill for the varsity and had easy sailing until the ninth when Susquehanna attempted a rally. Swope flied to centre, but Klefer got his third hit of the game scoring Smith. Cockill gave the next two batters free passages, hitting one and passing the other. The bases were full but the game was ended when Peters hit to third and was thrown out at first.

VARSITY CONQUERS LEBANON VALLEY

ANOTHER VICTORY ADDED TO TEN'S CREDIT.

TIMELY WALLOPS AID IN 4-1 VICTORY

Varsity's Swatters Total Fourteen.—Stoltzfoldt Make Stirring Catches.—Brenner Pitches Strong Game in Pinches.

The varsity annexed another victory to its list of triumphs by defeating Lebanon Valley on Saturday by a score of 4-1. Brenner was especially effective in the pinches and allowed only three hits thruout the entire game.

In the first inning an unsuccessful attempt at the squeeze play cost the home team a run. McDermott tripled to centre but he failed to leave third in time to score on Elliott's bunt. Bucknell drew first blood in the fifth. Murray, the first man up, singled and the bases were loaded when Baldt and Brenner both reached first on errors. Again the squeeze play was attempted, but Seeman failed to connect and Murray was out at home. Baldt now occupied third and this time the squeeze was successfully pulled, scoring our first run. McDermott then hit for a base scoring Brenner. He went to second on an error and scored on Elliott's single. The scoring continued in the next frame. Crawford opened with a single, took third on Storers' two-bagger and counted on Baldt's sacrifice.

The visitors showed feeble signs of resistance in the last inning. With one gone J. Zeigler secured a two-base wallop. Machen then hit one between third and short which Elliott failed to grab and Zeigler crossed with the visitor's only tally.

Brenner had seven strike-outs, three of these coming when the third station was inhabited, an evidence of his effectiveness in the pinches. Zeigler was equally as effective until the fifth inning. He blew up in this period and yielded nine hits in the last four innings. The game was slow and, outside of the "umping" of Diefenderfer, and sensational catches by Baldt and Storer, lacked features.

HAS OLD BIBLE.

William G. Murdock, ex-'05, former postmaster and lawyer, of Milton, has a copy of a Bible, printed in Latin and Greek, and published at Rotterdam, Holland, in 1648, just 268 years ago. It is a fairly good state of preservation, except that the back is missing. The paper is good, and the type unusually well-cut and clear to read. In fact, the mechanical work on the book is as good, if not better, than that turned out of many print shops today. Mr. Murdock does not know where it came from, or who brought it into his family. While searching the garret at his home, he says, he found it among other books.

SOPHS AND FRESHIES TO CLASH SATURDAY

WILL CONTEST IN TRACK MEET AND BASEBALL GAME.

Next Saturday will be a big day for the Sophomores and Freshmen. In the morning at 9:45 the annual track meet between the two classes will take place; in the afternoon the baseball game will be played.

The track meet had been scheduled for June 10, but it has been necessary to change the date to May 27. All track men who train for at least two days before the meet will be allowed to participate. Varsity men will be allowed to compete in order that they may keep in condition for the coming meets. The managers of the Freshmen and Sophomore track teams are requested to confer with Manager Davenport at once. It is also required that candidates hand their names to their class manager early this week, so the managers can hand their names in before Friday noon.

PHI GAMM PARTY.

The Phi Gamma Delta House was the scene of enjoyment last Friday evening when the fraternity was afforded the pleasure of entertaining a crowd of Seminary girls. The young ladies arrived at 8:00 and the scene immediately changed from one of introduction and acquaintance to that of a lively game of cards. The fraternity orchestra furnished appropriate music for the occasion. Before the card game became tiresome it was interrupted by the serving of refreshments. The first scene of the last act opened with the momentary departure of the young ladies to don their cloaks and the evening of fun closed with the final good-night and one enthusiastic fraternity yell for the "Semites."

KAPPA SIGMA WINS.

Kappa Sigma fraternity defeated D. T. U. last week in an inter-fraternity game by a score of 2-1. The game went five innings. The twirling of Bonham and Johnson for their respective teams was of the highest order. Korth's fielding; Hendren's stickwork, and Hauser's home run over the railroad tracks were other features.

MANY LECTURES DURING YEAR.

During the collegiate year just closing at the University of Pennsylvania there were given 28 lectures by members of the university faculty, the attendance upon which was 4113, and the average attendance 146. There were also 69 lectures by eminent authorities on a great variety of topics. These were attended by 16,556 people, the average attendance being 243. The total attendance upon all lectures given in Houston Hall during the collegiate year was 20,669. These statistics do not include lectures given by conventions, etc., such as schoolmen's week, and other scientific and educational conventions held in the hall during th year.

CONCERT BY GLEE CLUB A SUCCESS

ANNUAL HOME CONCERT TUESDAY NIGHT.

EVERY NUMBER ON PROGRAM ENCORED

Concert Work Showed Efficient and Persistent Training.—Professor Stolz, Director Presented With Loving Cup.

The annual home concert of the University Glee Club was a complete success. In spite of the rainy weather of last Tuesday night, the Lutheran church was well filled with students and townspeople. That the reports about the Club's work at State College were not exaggerated was evidenced by the hearty applause which followed the different selections; every number on the program being encored at least once. The program was well selected, varying humorous numbers with selections of a more serious nature. All in all, the concert may be called a success in every sense of the word.

Besides the selections from the entire club, there were other features which deserve mention. The quartette composed of Pettigo, Sprenkle, Johnson and Jeffrey appeared several times, and on each occasion made a decided hit with the audience. Their voices harmonized well and were well adapted for quartette work. The work of Miller Johnson as vocal soloist, and Thomas Eshelman, as violin soloist, was of the highest order. Alden Davis also received a hand for the clever interpretation of his readings. As accompanist and piano soloist Alvin Adams displayed ability and judgment, as well as considerable skill in the interpretation of his numbers.

An unannounced part of the program was the presentation of a loving cup to Professor Stolz for his efficient and painstaking work as director of the Club. The presentation speech was made by Professor Lindemann, and in the absence of Professor Stolz the cup was received by Mrs. Stolz.

The Glee Club will be much in evidence during Commencement Week, when they will give a concert before the Alumni meeting, and will also render an open-air concert in the quadrangle immediately following the band concert on the evening of June 20th. The program rendered on Tuesday night is as follows:

FRESHMEN WIN AGAIN.

On Saturday the Freshmen gave Mifflinburg a trimming, 5-4, on their grounds in their first game of the season. Stewart starred at bat for the Freshmen with a triple, two singles, and two stolen bases, while S. Smith featured afield with a sensational diving catch in right field. M. Smith pitched a strong game for the Freshies, striking out seven men, and walking only one, while of the six singles made off his delivery, five were of the scratchy infield variety. The game went only seven innings as the Freshmen had to catch a train. The score by innings:

DR. DRINKER TALKS TO BIBLE CLASS

PRESIDENT OF LEHIGH HERE SUNDAY.

ADDRESSES CLASS ON PREPAREDNESS

Advocates Summer Training Camps for College Students.—One Should Listen to the Military Men Who Know.

President Drinker, of Lehigh University, was the speaker at the College Bible Class yesterday morning; and spoke on the subject of Preparedness.

In introducing his subject, Dr. Drinker mentioned the College Council of Pennsylvania, which has for one of its aims the eradication of the practice of issuing fraudulent degrees. Our own President, Dr. Harris, is chairman of this council. Having touched upon the value of student habits in after life and cited in this connection the instance of Colonel Goethals who never played baseball while at college; the speaker passed on to his subject proepr.

That an enduring peace is possible is evident from the fact thnt the United States has lived at peace with Canada while the border line between th two countries has been unprotected There are no men-of-war on the great lakes; no fortresses on land, and yet we have witnessed one hundred years of peace. All disputes with the British government have been settled by arbitration.

But this is no plea for unpreparedness. We must prepare ourselves against war in order to preserve the blessings of peace. The material advances of this country carry with them great responsibilities. Fortunately, however, the people have come to a realization of the evils of war; and this has spurred them on to secure their country from its ravages. Nor is the preparedness policy opposed to the teaching of Christ for he told Peter at the time of the latter's struggle with the servant of the high priest, not to throw away his sword, but to put up his sword—i. e. for future use. It is dangerous to submit the nation to the abstract principle of Justice. We must learn to know our strength although we like peace. War is to be an abhorrence to all; but just as we need police to preserve order in civic life, so we must have force to preserve order in international life, and to insure protection for the weak and to restrain the strong.

These principles for the use of force are embodied in the plans of the League to Enforce Peace. This league, which is to be a league of the nations, strives for the establishment of an international court for the settlement of disputes. In the second place it plans to secure the submission of disputes to a council. Then, finally the decisions of this court and council are to be enforced by a police force of the united economic and militaristic powers of the nations of the world. This, after all, is the useful kind of preparedness: for this present war has taught us the lesson that we cannot secure peace by talk, but by action. The talk of the past century did not avert the European War; but the war has shown the folly of putting men into the field who are unprepared.

What is the method? We must talk less and do more; listen less to the advice of the masses and more to that of the military men, who understand what they are talking about. The Summer Training Camps which are to be held this summer for the third successive year will give men the training necessary for national defense or emergency. And this is not all: It will afford opportunity for intercourse with students from all parts of the eastern states, for its attendants will come from places from the Great Lakes to the Gulf.

The citizens of the Union are law-abiding people with good sense who will never stand for oppression and will always resist aggression.

THE TRACK TEAM.

Since the recent defeats of the track team the students are beginning to ask, "What is the matter?" When they ask this question they should take several things into consideration.

In the first place the colleges which the varsity has gone against have much better teams than they have had for several years, as their meets with other colleges have shown. In the second place, it takes more than one year to build up a first-class team. The coaching has been all that can be desired, and the fellows know this, but they are apt to forget that many of the candidates have not had much track experience.

It is also a known fact that some of the men pay little or no attention to the rules of training. For this reason the students have a right to look for better results. The track team will never bring results, if half of the team trains, and the other half does not. It is discouraging, also, to the members of the team who train, when they see the other men enjoying luxuries which they have denied themselves. If a few members of the team would take track more seriously, better work would undoubtedly result.

THE OLD STORY.

As Commencement time draws near it is once more necessary to raise the old cry, "Keep the Campus Clean." Bucknell has the reputation of having one of the prettiest campuses in the state, and the careless acts of a few students who are accustomed to using their windows for waste paper baskets can greatly mar the natural beauty of the campus.

There are times when the window is the nearest exit for a pile of rubbish, but students should remember, that in a few weeks hundreds of visitors and alumni will be back for Commencement. The fewer papers and less junk under the windows of the buildings, the better opinion of Bucknell will these visitors carry away with them.

STUDENTS AT MAY DAY EXERCISES

Many of the students from the "Hill" and the girls from the "Sem" took the opportunity of going to the Lewisburg playground on Friday and viewing the May Day exercises of the town schools.

LAWRENCE ONLY MAN TO CAPTURE A FIRST PLACE IN THE MEET.

The Third Triangular Track Meet held at Lancaster on Saturday afternoon was won by Dickinson with a final score of Dickinson 55½, Franklin and Marshall scored 44½ and Bucknell 24. As in former years, Bucknell held the time honored place at the end of the list. Bucknell men were outclassed in the dashes, but it is hard to see just why the distance men did not make a better showing. Lawrence in the 120 yard hurdles was the only Bucknell man to win a first place. Ganzel won a track "F" by taking two seconds, one in the high jump and one in the discus.

Franklin and Marshall took most of the points in the dashes while Dickinson scored heavily in the distance runs and in the field events.

INTERCOLLEGIATES

Exercises to mark the close of the year at the Carlisle Indian School began on Sunday with religious services and will continue throughout the week. For the first time no class will receive diplomas, a change in the course during the present year compelling those who would have been otherwise eligible for such papers continue a year longer in the school.

BELLEFONTE, PA.—A delegation of some forty members of the Student Prohibition League of Pennsylvania State College had full possession of Bellefonte today. The court house was packed this afternoon to hear the student orators discuss the temperance question. At 6:30 a large open-air meeting was conducted on the public square, while the several churches of the town were placed at their disposal this evening for special temperance services. The college boys made a splendid impression.

Thirty preparatory schools are expected to compete in the annual interscholastic track meet to be held at Lafayette on Memorial Day. Some of th leading academies and high schools of the state have entered, and from present indications the meet will be one of the most closely contested of recent years

BLACKSNAKES.

Professor Stewart, of the faculty, received a box of blacksnakes during the early part of last week. The box contained four of the shiny reptiles; several of them being of considerable size. They were shipped to Professor Stewart from Williamsport.

CHRISTIAN SOCIETIES HEAR REV. B. M. JOHNS

SPEAKS TO Y. W. AND Y. M. C. A. ON THE SUBJECT "LOSTNESS."

Rev. B. M. Johns, of Plymouth, was the speaker at the joint Y. W. and Y. M. C. A. meeting Wednesday evening at Bucknell Hall. His helpful address was fully appreciated by a good representation from the "Hill" and "Sem". A sextette of girls gave an added attraction to the meeting by their rendition of an appropriate selection.

Rev. Johns based his address on the fifteenth chapter of Luke, containing the stories of the lost sheep, coin and son.

"The subject of 'Lostness—The Lost Life,' said the speaker, "is one that most people are inclined to connect up with the future life, but many people are lost in this life, and they dont' realize it.

"In what sense was the sheep lost? Not necessarily because it was torn, bleeding, and wretched. The Bible doesnt' say a word about that. It was lost because it was without a leader. Many of us are lost in just that sense. We are not guided by any great ideal or life purpose. We follow the crowd, and do not stop to consider whether it is leading us in the right direction or not. It is just as essential to our success to be a good follower as it is to be a good leader.

"How about the lost coin? That was lost, not because its value was lost, but simply because it was out of circulation. Money locked up in a vault is not fulfilling the purpose for which it was made ,and so our lives are of value only in so far as we invest them. Some people won't do anything unless they can do big things; while some, on the other hand, feel keenly their sense of littleness, and won't do anything at all. Our success does not depend on having lots of talents but in using what we have.

"Then there is the parable of the lost son. The prodigal son was lost not because he was drunk, debauched, disgraced, but because he had failed to grasp the thought that he was the son of his father. I don't know how far that man travelled from the 'far country,' but this I do know: He travelled the distance from 'the old man' to 'father.' Many of us do not realize the beauty of sonship—our Father's claim upon us. We allow Him to feed us and clothe us and surround us with beauty, and take it all as a matter of course.

"Lastly, the elder brother of that prodigal was also lost; but he was lost because he was so small. Petty jealousies, mean dislikes will never land us anywhere in life or in the estimation of our associates."

The speaker closed with the striking statement: "Let us be too big to be small."

COMMUNICATION.

In keeping pace with the times and alive to the many and great questions that are today before the American people Bucknell is doing her part in "lining up" with the colleges of the country in having her students discuss and familiarize themselves in these American Problems.

Oratory may appear a drudge and a waste of time to some, however, it is the one art that trains young men to become leaders among men, when they take their place in the world.

Under the direction of Prof. Bromley Smith, the Freshmen Class in a series of addresses have offered some interesting data. Armed with literature furnished by the Anti-Suffragists and by the Pro-Suffragists, they have advocated suffrage in the proportion of 80 to 20. A year ago the figures stood 60 to 40.

On the question of "Preparedness" with literature from both sides the Freshmen stood 60 against and 40 for additional preparation.

The students were almost unanimously in faor of Simplified Spelling and the Short Ballot.

These three questions are of paramount importance in American politics and are being attacked or defended by every citizen of the United States who takes the least interest in American Problems.

Some times we have heard it remarked that, the average college student is ignorant of the political conditions in our county. We do not attempt to take sides, in answer to this criticism, either on the affirmative or negative, but we do emphatically say, that with a course, that acquaints students with the every day questions of our country, a course of which such benefits are derived, is well worth the following by any student. Bucknell has such a course.

FRESHMEN GIRLS IN ANNUAL CONTEST

PROVES TO BE ONE OF YEAR'S BEST DECLAMATION CONTESTS.

Eight Freshmen girls delivered declamations at the annual contest, Thursday evening in Bucknell Hall. Not to be outdone by the other half of the Freshmen class, the girls presented an excellent program of varied declamations. Their work was a credit to their class, as well as the department of oratory. The contest was well attended, as has been the case with the other speaking contests this year; more interest being taken than during several years previous. The opening march was played by Miss Farquhar.

WOMEN'S COLLEGE NOTES

Alpha Omega Entertains.

Alpha Omega entertained on Thursday girls from the various other fraternities. The party was quite a success in every respect.

Tennis Match.

The first tennis match played by the Woman's College was with Milton High School last Thursday at Milton. Our team, consisting of Dorothy Bunnell, '16, Francis Brown, '18, and Mary McLeod, '19, gained an easy victory over Milton High School. The second match will be played on the Woman's College courts with Milton High School on Thursday afternoon.

Y. W. C. A. Notes.

Y. W. C. A. was lead by "Peg" Weddell, '16, last Thursday. She gave quite a stirring talk on the subject of Preparedness. Other things combined to make this meeting one of the most successful of the school year.

Lawn Fete.

On Saturday evening, May 2th, the girls of the Women's College held their annual lawn fete on their campus, and it was quite an enjoyable affair. Bright lights were strung in a large circle around the campus, within which were tables where ice cream and cake were served. Aside from these tables were booths; some of which held fortune tellers while another was a fish pond. In the early part of the evening the band rendered several enjoyable selections. "Birth of a Nation," and the opening of Milton Park were to a great extent responsible for the small turnout of students

Seniors Entertain Sophomores.

The Senior girls gave the Sophomores a most unusual entertainment last Monday night between 9 and 10 p. m. After the ice cream and cherry pie was devoured, there were some rousing yells on both sides.

Undergraduates of New York University, disappointed at the inability of the aumni and officials to raise sufficient funds for a new physics-engineering building, asked the faculty for permssion to begin excavating for the new building themselves. A student committee notified the executive council of the university that the "nickel-a-week" campaign conducted among undergraduates for several years had provided sufficient funds to begin the work and that the students stood ready to help.

George W. Cockill, manager of the Harrisburg baseball team, came home Thursday afternoon, being threatened with an attack of appendicitis. George was taken ill and the physicians advised him to take a week or two off and rest up. VARSITY WINS BUT ONCE ON TRIP

TWO GAMES LOST BY ONLY ONE RUN.

DELAWARE COLLEGE BEATEN BY 10-2 SCORE

Lebanon Valley Secures Revenge for Defeat Here. Seton Hall Wins 2-1. —Lehigh Victor in Ten-Inning Game.

The varsity played four hard games last week and wound up the baseball season on foreign fields. Of the four games played they came out the winner in one by a score of 10-2. In the other three, however, they went down to defeat, twice by only a one run margin.

South Bethlehem was the scene of the first conflict which resulted in an 8-7 victory for Lehigh. The visitors began operations as early as the second inning. They tore thru the curves of Lehigh's twirler in this round and piled up a three-run lead. Storer, the first man up, drove out a single and took second on Murray's sacrifice. Baldt then drew a pass and the two trotted home with tallies when Brenner walloped one for two bases. Seeman followed suit with another two-bagger scoring Bremer.

In the third after Miller had grounded out, Crawford cracked out a three-bagger and scored on Storer's single. Three more were added in the fifth. Storer singled, Murray was passed and they both counted when Baldt hit for two bases. Bremner then came across with his second two-bagger of the game and Baldt brought in the seventh and last run. Hurley, who relieved Twombley, put an end to the scoring and allowed only two men to reach first in the last five innings.

Up to this point in the contest Lehigh had crossed the plate but once. In the fourth Achorn singled, stole second and scored on Storer's error. With the score 7 to 1 against them in the fifth the home team began the uphill fight. They added three runs in the fifth on a pass and three consecutive two-base hits. The score was tied in the ninth when three more runs crossed as the result of two walks, a two-bagger and a home run by Achorn. "Sid" Peale took Brenner's place on the mound and in the tenth, after issuing free tickets to Twombley and Rawle, Lees hit scored Twombley and ended the game.

The score:

Seton Hall Game.

South Orange, N. J., was next visited by the varsity where they crossed bats with Seton Hall. The game played here was closely contested and was featured by the pitching of McMalroy. After the second inning he did not allow a single man to get as far as second base and only two reached first. He allowed only three hits and retired eleven men on strikes.

The only run that the Bucknell nine got came in the second. Storer was passed, went to second when McDonell fumbled Murray's grounder, and scored on Baldt's single.

The opposing nine evened up the score in the fourth. Boyle was safe at first on Murray's error and went home when Dillon hit for two bases. They nosed ahead in the sixth when Sullivan sent out a double and Dillon scored him with a single.

Cockill pitched good ball for the visitors but his team-mates could not bat out enough runs off McMalroy, who was at all times the master of the situation, to give him the advantage needed to win.

Delaware College Game.

Webb and Ewing were the pitchers used by Delaware in the first frame and they yielded 8 hits for a total of eight runs. Hoch was Delaware's third choice and he proved effective, pitching the last eight innings and allowing only two hits.

ALUMNUS A SCOUT MASTER.

Philip Randall, '10, is assistant scout master for the Boy Scouts of the Pennsylvania Institution for the Blind. Twenty-five of these blind boys are now camping at Fort Washington, near Philadelphia. The distance from Philadelphia to the camping ground, 4 miles, was covered by foot. In training the Scouts will be given no deviation from the regular routine as stated in the Scout manual.

EVENING OF FUN.

Students who attended the "Evening of Fun" night, last year will recall the splendid program presented. On Friday evening at 8 o'clock in Bucknell Hall another "Evening of Fun" will be staged. Those who attend will be given another treat in the way of wholesome enjoyment.

ALUMNUS HERE.

Rev. E. H. Dutton, '98, associate pastor of the Fifth Avenue Baptist Church, New York, and teacher of the John D. Rockefeller, Jr., Bible Class was back for a few days last week. On Friday morning he led the devotional exercises at the chapel service.

TENNIS TEAM DEFEATS STATE'S FAST TEAM

ALL OF THE SINGLES AND ONE DOUBLES MATCH GOES TO BUCKNELL.

In one of the most interesting and strenuous tennis tournaments ever played at Bucknell, Captain Harris and his men triumphed over State College's fast team Saturday by a score of 5-1; State capturing one match of doubles. The tournament was played on the Seminary courts, and though handicapped by the close backstops both teams put up a fine brand of tennis; Bucknell winning out only after the hardest kind of tennis. One of the largest crowds that ever witnessed a tennis match here, was on hand to watch the tournament.

The score does not show how close the match really was, for three of the rounds in singles were won by great uphill battles after they were apparenly lost. Harris won over Nevin, one of the best college players in the state, after losing the first set and with the score 5-2 in the second set, he came back strong and won the set 12-10.

State has had a very successful season this year, having lost only one tournament previous to Saturday. They recently defeated "Pitt" 5-1 at Pittsburgh. Bucknell's victory over a team like State's should go far toward arousing a keener interest than ever in the intercollegiate tournaments.

The summary:

Singles.

Harris, Bucknell, defeated Nevin, State, 4-6, 12-10, 6-4.

Musser, Bucknell, defeated Clark, State, 10-8, 5-7, 7-5.

Malin, Bucknell, defeated Reed, State, 2-6, 8-6, 6-4.

Doubles.

Musser and Sprout, Bucknell, defeated Clark and Craighead, State, 7-5, 6-1.

Nevin and Reed, State, defeated Harris and Malin, Bucknell, 4-6, 7-5, 6-2.

Eyster is editor and John Heberling, manager of this years production. The 1917 L'Agenda is unusually well illustrated and contains thirty more pages than the edition of last year The binding is of cloth and leather and corresponds in size to former issues.

LEWIS A. EYSTER.
Editor of the 1917 L'Agenda.

The editor in his foreword states that the staff has attempted to put the proper emphasis on each department with the hope of encouragement for higher education and to the glory of the Alma Mater. The book has been dedicated to Elmer S. Pettit, the serious good-hearted classmate who passed away several months ago.

Preceeding the usual departmental form is a history and a reproduction of David Porter Leas, treasurer of Bucknell University from 1882 until his death which occurred at Philadelphia, February 9, 1916. Several of the new features include the staff of the Women's Journal, a publication issued quarterly; a cut of the new Kappa Delta sorority, founded in the past year, and the Domestic Science Department for the first time is given a separate department instead of being included in the Institute department as in former years.

JOHN A. HEBERLING.
Manager of the 1917 L'Agenda.

The Faculty department shows an addition of eight instructors and the Junior section presents a list of 124 members, the largest in the history of the University. The Senior, Sophomore and Freshmen sections are as usual, except a humorous idea in the last named department; all the names of the Freshmen being spelled with small letters instead of capitals.

The usual space has been allotted the fraternities and sororities and this

TRACK MEET WON BY FRESHMEN ATHLETES

TAKE SECOND INTER-CLASS CONTEST OF WEEK.—SCORE 71-25.

The annual track and field meet between the Sophomores and Freshmen, held on Saturday, proved an easy victory for the Freshmen, due to the fact that several of the best track men of the Sophomore Class failed to put in appearance. The final score was 71-25.

Unlike the baseball game on Thursday, the track meet was slow and uninteresting; much more so than those of previous years. Needless to say, there were no records broken, though Williams, '19, by putting the shot 38 ft. 4 in. showed that he is steadily improving as a weight man. Winkelblech, '19, scored 21 points for his team by taking 3 firsts and 2 seconds.

100 Yard Dash—Lewis, '19, first; Shilling, '18, second.

Pole Vault—Gandy, '19, first; Leslie, '19, second.

High Jump—Gaenzle, '19, first; Martin, '19, second.

Shot Put—Williams, '19, first; Waldron, '18, second.

220 Yard Dash—Lewis, '19, first; Shilling, '18, second.

1 Mile Run—Bachman, '18, first; Torkington, '18, second.

440 Yard Run—Winkelblech, '19, first; Mackey, '18, second.

Broad Jump—Gaenzle, '19, first; Winkelblech, '19, second.

Discus Throw—Winkelblech, '19, first; White, '19, second.

Hammer Throw—Winkelblech, '19, first; White, '19, second.

ANNUAL RECEPTION TO SENIOR CLASS

SENIORS MINGLE IN SOCIAL EVENING

Yearly Affair Affords Students Much Pleasure.—Orchestra Features With Several Excellent Musical Selections.

Dr. and Mrs. Harris gave their annual reception to the members of the Senior Class at their home on University Avenue, last Thursday evening. Music, conversation and the hospitality of Dr. and Mrs. Harris enabled the Seniors to spend an evening filled with pleasure of the most enjoyable kind.

At 7:45 the Senior men assembled in front of West College, attired in the conventional cap and gown. From West College they proceeded to the Women's College where they took up their position on both sides of the main entrance. The fellows stood at attention as the girls appeared, likewise arrayed in cap and gown, marched between the two ranks of men, and took their position at the head of the column.

From the Women's College the class proceeded to the home of Dr. Harris As they neared the house an orchestra extended them an advance welcome in the form of an excellent musical selection. Upon entering the house the class was received by Dr. and Mrs. Harris.

The evening was then given over to social enjoyment. Music was a feature, there being no limit to the excellent selections rendered by the orchestra. The Seniors strolled about the brilliantly lighted lawn, and Seniors, men and women, found keen enjoyment in an exchange of pleasantries.

At ten the festivities took a new turn when refreshments were in order. The Seniors discovered with delight that their physical, as well as their aesthetic and mental needs had been provided for.

Then came the departure . The Seniors went away, not as they had come —en Masse—but in numbers of smaller units, mostly units of two.

Upon arriving at the "Hill," the Senior patrol made its customary rounds of the rooms, and the Freshman, with his annual shoes protruding from the foot of his bed continued to snore away the early hours of the morning.

STUDENTS NOTICE.

Students who desire to renew their scholarships will do so early this week. Thursday, June 1st, will be registration day for rooms for next year. It is also requested that students who are planning to stay for Summer School, make application at once, and indicate the subjects which they desire to take up.

FRATERNITY BASEBALL.

The S. A. E. team now heads the interfraternity league with two victories and no defeats, having won over the Lambda Chis Tuesday by the score of 10-2. Quinn for the Lambda Chis and Rohrabach for the S. A. E. team were the opposing moundsmen.

In the game between the Phi Gamms and Kappa Sigs, the Phi Gamms won 8-5 in an exciting game. The batteries were: Phi Gamms, Gillette and Ashman; Kappa Sigs, Bonham and Mason.

The standing of the teams follows:

	Won	Lost
S. A. E.	2	0
Kappa Sigma	1	1
D. T. U.	1	1
Phi Gamm	1	1
Lambda Chi	0	2

EAGLES MERE CONFERENCE.

It often happens that advantages which are easiest to be had, are often overlooked, because of their nearness to us. Such has been the case with Bucknell students in respect to the Annual Middle Atlantic Student Conference at Eagles Mere. Students from Maryland, Ohio and the surrounding states travel hundreds of miles to attend the conference, while Bucknell, less than fifty miles distant sends one or two representatives or perhaps none at all.

Eagles Mere offers the college student a chance to mingle with the best all-around manhood of the Eastern colleges and to hear and talk with the strongest leaders of men, in the country. For the athlete, baseball, swimming and tennis present opportunities to compete with men of skill. Richards, of Cornell, the noted jumper and weight thrower, was a student at last year's conference.

In respect to natural beauty, it would be hard to find a better place than Eagles Mere; the pretty mountain lake and numerous arrow paths thru the surrounding woods presenting real mountain life to the fullest extent. Every afternoon is given over to recreation which means that the students have ample opportunity to enjoy the natural beauty of the vicinity.

This year's conference will be held from June 16-25. Speakers such as—John R. Mott, Robert E. Speer and Sherwood Eddy—men with messages for college men, will talk to the students as only such men can. Anyone who has heard any of these men well knows their worth as student leaders.

Bucknell should be represented at this conference by at least six students, for several Ohio colleges will have fully this many representatives. General Secretary Hedge will gladly furnish more details to those who are interested. Several of the fellows expect to go and if enough enlist they will secure a cottage or tent for the Bucknell delegation.

Potts, '19, entertained his father last week.

Champion, '17, journeyed to his home in Montoursville Friday.

ANOTHER BAND CONCERT.

On Friday evening, June 2nd, at 6:30 o'clock ,the band will give the student-body another concert on the campus. All those who attended the last one will surely avail themselves again of the opportunity to hear excellent music. Besides, the band expects to spring a surprise, which will prove interesting to the students.

The class completing the course in elocution gave their annual recital at the Women's Study Hall on Friday evening, May 26. VARSITY WINS BUT ONCE

In the first inning Seeman drew a pass the first time up and advanced on Murray's single. Elliott then walked and all advanced on Miller's sacrifice fly. Storer drew the next free ticket loading the bases. The next five men up singled and when the smoke cleared away eight men had completed the circuit. Another run was annexed in the second on a pass to "Mac" and a hit by Crawford. Still another came in the seventh. McDermott singled, advanced to second on Crawford's infield out and counted when Baldt hit for a base.

Two runs were all that Delaware could muster off Peale's delivery. One came in the sixth from a base on balls and two hits; the other came in the ninth from a double and a single.

The score:

Lebanon Valley Game.

The last game of the trip was played at Annville. Here the varsity met Lebanon Valley in a return game which resulted in a 5-2 victory for the home nine. The victory can be attributed principally to the hill work of White. He had things his own way most of the time and was extremely effective in the pinches. In the eighth inning after the first two men up had singled he struck out the next three batters.

Bucknell took the lead in the third inning when singles by Seeman, Murray and Elliott netted two runs. This lead was overcome by Lebanon Valley in the sixth. McNelly and Keating singled and, after Zeigler struck out, Machen scored the pair with a single.

The winning runs were scored in the eighth off Cockill, who had relieved Brenner in the seventh. J. Zeigler singled, Machen walked and E. Zeigler doubled. Then followed singles by Swartz and White netting a trio of runs.

The score:

COLLEGE BIBLE CLASS HEARS JUDGE JOHNSON

JUDGE OF UNION COUNTY TALKS ON, "BUILDING OF MEN."

Judge A. W. Johnson, '96, of Lewisburg, spoke to the college bible class Sunday on the "Building of Men." His address contained a thorough analysis of the processes necessary to develop true American manhood.

Too much attention has been paid to money, and not enough to men; for the making of men has been overlooked in the world's onward rush toward personal advantage. To make men, five factors must be considered. The first of these is military training.

Military training should be universal for three reasons. In the first place, it is democratic. In time of war, the best blood of a nation always volunteers. Secondly, it gives personal and physical benefits. The military man stands out from his companions as a physical superior. Weaklings and defectives are made into men by miltiary training, and it is the man with such training who always gets the job. Thirdly, it is the duty of every citizen to be prepared to defend his country, for we are trustees as well as beneficiaries of our nation, and we are bound by duty to preserve it. Another factor to be considered in building of men is the immigration problem. We need more careful restrictions on immigration. Our nation is flooded with foreigners who lower the standards of our civilization. It is time to restrict and restrict carefully.

Still another problem must be met. We must prevent the reproduction of the unfit, for it generally happens that the parents and grandparents of paupers and criminals have been the same types of people. We need to pay more attention to the morally as well as physically defective.

Besides, a more efficient and systematic educational system, where more practical training is taught, is needed in our country. Many of the criminal boys of our country dropped out of the public schools because there were no courses suitable to their natural bent. By introducing the teaching of trades and physical culture in all our schools, we would have a more efficient school system.

Last of all, social justice must be considered. To establish such, the watering of stocks, and giving of rebates must be stopped. Legislation can stop such practices, but it takes time to do so. All legislation must aim toward a "square deal" for everybody, if we wish our citizens to be true, patriotic Americans. College men and women have their part to do in this fight for social justice.

WOMEN'S COLLEGE NOTES

Y. W. C. A. Notes.

Dorothy Bunnell, '16, led Y. W. C. A. this week. Her subject, "Personal Responsibility," is one which touches each one of us and the leader did it full justice. Margaret Evans, '16, sang a solo.

There was such an outpouring of girls from Bucknell this week-end that space would not permit the names and destinations of all.

This week seems to be "Father's Week." Mr. Potts and Mr. Edge were here, while only Mrs. Redelin represented the mothers.

Elizabeth Kates, '19, had quite a family gathering. Besides her father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Bodine, her uncle and aunt, were here.

Miss Anna Rogers, from Millville, N. J., visited Amanda Whitaker, '17, over the week-end.

Tennis Match.

Promptly at three-thirty on Thursday afternoon four girls arrived from Milton to play the second match of the tennis tounament with the Bucknell girls. Since we had won the first match we were not quite so fearful as to the outcome Both doubles and singles came easily, the score of singles being 6-3 and 6-2. Jeanette Cooke, '17, put a very good game in singles. "Dot" Bunnell, '16, and Francis Brown, did some fine playing also, and completely out-classed the Milton girls with a score of 6-1 and 6-2. We intend soon to play the town girls and, of course, to beat them.

FRESHMEN CONQUER SOPHS IN BASEBALL

FRESHMEN TAKE OFF CAPS AFTER GETTING LONG END OF 8-4 SCORE.

In an exciting game on Thursday afternoon the Freshmen showed their superiority over the Sophomores in baseball matters to the tune of 8-4. Johnson the Soph pitcher, was very wild and that fact, coupled with the oppertune hitting of the Freshies contributed to his downfall. In the opening the Sophs hit Beattie hard, but superb support helped him out of the rough spots, but after the fourth inning he always had the situation under control.

The first-year men drew first blood in the second Baldauf opened up with a single to centre. Hendren beat out an infield hit to Houser. That put Johnson in the air, and he walked Quinn. Smith, however, struck out, but Withington ,next up, was also walked, forcing in a run. Beattie hit a foul pop to Musser, and Hendren scored on the cut. Stewart ended the inning with his grounder to Garner.

In the third, the Sophs a little more than evened up things. Northrup walked, and Yon beat out a bunt. Johnson forced Northrup at third, and then Grice was safe at first on a close play, filling the bases. Garner than doubled to centre, scoring all three men, but that ended the scoring for that inning.

The Freshies scored two runs in the fourth on Quinn's infield hit, Withington's and Beattie's singles, and Stewart's and Dent's walks. Two runs were again made in the fifth, when Baldauf walked, and Hendren was forced out; Quinn's force out, Gerhart's triple followed in order and Withington completed the scoring with a single.

The pitchers began to get going now and no more runs were made until the Sophs came to bat in the eighth. Houser was hit by Beattie. Miller hit to third, but both runners were safe on Baldauf's high throw to second, while Houser went on to third when Hendren lost the ball. Houser then scored on Beattie's wild pitch.

The Freshmen came back strong again in the ninth. Dent hit a pretty two-bagger to left and advanced to third on Harer's bunt to Johnson. Harer stole second. Baldauf walked. Hendren forced Dent at home, but Quinn, who had played a star game all afternoon, came across with a long single that brought in two runs. In their half the Sophs could do nothing ,and the Freshmen gave vent to their joy at taking off the caps by carrying Beattie to the Gym on their shoulders. The score:

TENNIS TEAM WINS FOURTH STRAIGHT

ANOTHER VICTORY ADDED AT GETTYSBURG.

GETTYSBURG ON SHORT END OF 4-2 SCORE

Bucknell Wins Both Doubles.—Breaks Even in Singles.—Rain Early in Day Hinders Work of Both Teams' Players.

The Bucknell tennis team scored its fourth straight victory of the season on Saturday, when it journeyed to Gettysburg and defeated their quartet of tennis players by a score of 4 matches to 2; Bucknell winning both the doubles and breaking even in the singles. A match with Susquehanna next Saturday will be the last of the season.

Previous to last Saturday's tournament, the Gettysburg team had a list of five or six victories against one defeat; the first match of the year resulting in a victory for Johns Hopkins University, 4-2. The list of victories includes wins over Franklin and Marshall, Western Maryland and Mercersburg. The entire team remained intact from the year before; and hence formed a combination of experienced players. Both of the rounds in doubles went to three sets before Bucknell succeeded in capturing the deciding points.

The courts on which the tournament was played, were a trifle soggy, due to the hard rain early Saturday morning, and on this account the players of both teams were unable to put up their best brand of tennis. Otherwise the courts were in good shape, having good level surfaces and plenty of room between the back lines and the back stops.

Captain Harris and Musser had little difficulty in disposing of their opponents in straight sets in the singles; but Malin and Sprout came out on the losing end in their singles matches. In two years of intercollegiate tournaments, Harris has not been defeated in singles. With him as a nucleus, Bucknell should have no trouble in producing winning teams for two more years at least.

Singles.

Harris, Bucknell, defeated Swartz, Gettysburg, 6-0; 6-1.

Mehring, Gettysburg, defeated Malin, Bucknell, 6-4; 6-8; 6-3.

Doubles.

Harris and Malin, Bucknell, defeated Swartz and Seacrist, Gettysburg, 6-3; 4-6; 6-2.

Musser and Sprout, Bucknell, defeated Mehring and Becker, Gettysburg, 4-6; 6-3; 6-2.

CONCERT BY COLLEGE BAND ON CAMPUS

SECOND TWILIGHT CONCERT PLEASES LARGE CROWD OF STUDENTS.

The Bucknell Band gave another of its Twilight Concerts last Friday evening on the Campus. Though the weather was threatening, a large crowd of students and townspeople was present to hear the music. The program contained several new pieces which were rendered in a way which told of careful practice; and the general opinion was that the Band had improved greatly since its last appearance.

Unfortunately, the weather did not hold out quite long enough for the concert to continue as long as the audience would have liked; and the assembly was dispersed by a shower. The Band is to be congratulated for the success of the good efforts it put forth to entertain the student body and other patrons.

—Chinese here on Friday.

OLDEST LIVING GRADUATE.

Reverend John Morris Lyons, '51, of Germantown, Bucknell's oldest living graduate is planning to come back for this year's Commencement. Mr. Lyons has retired from active work, but still seems very much alive. On May 26th he walked from Germantown to Roxboro, a distance of three miles, and delivered a poem to the Daughters of Veterans, which was received with close attention and warmly applauded. On the following Sunday he preached for the old Beulah Church at Russelville, where he was converted and baptized in 1844, and some years subsequently served as pastor.

ALUMNUS DIES.

Rev. G. T. Ellis, '74, retired Baptist minister, died at his home at Baker, Oregon, May 7th, death being caused by a diminution of the red corpuscles in the blood. Rev. Ellis was licensed to preach while in college, and filled the various churches of the vicinity while a student. He was a resident of Oregon since 1883. In 1908, he retired from the active ministry on account of ill health.

ANNUAL PARADE AND SOCIAL TO BE HELD THURSDAY.

All members of the Freshmen Class are expected to attend a "Dink Social," to be held Thursday night, June 8, at 8 o'clock in Bucknell Hall The affair will be in the hands of the Freshmen Athletic Association. Besides a short program there will be music by the University Orchestra. Generous "eats" in the form of ice cream, cake, and punch are promised those who attend.

Perhaps this last statement is enough to bring the Freshmen out, but there is something else which must be said.

Every Freshman will wear his "dink" cap on Thursday night, After the indoor events are run off, the annual Freshmen parade and burning of caps will take place. Any Freshman who misses this, will miss one of the biggest times of the entire college course.

ATHLETES WIN CUPS AT BERWICK MEET

BACHMAN AND DOLPHIN CARRY OF FINE PRIZES ON MEMORIAL DAY.

Two Bucknell athletes, Bachman, '18, and Dolphin, '17, came out winners in the field day event held at Berwick on Memorial Day. Bachman had little trouble in winning the mile and half mile runs. His time for the mile was five minutes and nine seconds and for the half mile, one minute and eleven seconds. Dolphin won the pole vault. As a result of winning these events, the men were rewarded with fine loving cups.

Many of the best known athletes of that section competed in this meet and the winners have reason to be proud of their work. A noteworthy feature of the meet was the high jump, which was won by a one-legged man from Scranton. This is the second year that Bucknell athletes have won cups at this meet.

WMSPT.-BUCKNELL CLUB.

The Williamsport-Bucknell Club met Thursday afternoon and elected officers for the coming year with the following result: President, Lester Lighton; vice president, Chester Lesher; secretary, Agnes Carswell; treasurer, Howard Harer. Owing to the scheduling of the Susquehanna game for 3 oclock, on Tuesday afternoon, the date for the Athletic Association election will be held between the hours of 1:15 and 3:15.

There will be an important meeting of the Mechanical Engineering Society to-night. Election of officers for the coming year will be held.

NO TRACK MEET.

SIGMA CHIS WIN.

In a game which was closely contested in the early innings, the Sigma Chi batters finally got their eyes on the ball and batted out a one-sided victory over the Phi Psis by a 9-1 score. Miller and Heckendorn worked out as the Sigma Chi battery, and Beattie and Lees did the battery work for the Phi Kappa Psi team.

GAME POSTPONED.

The hard shower on Saturday afternoon made it necessary to postpone the baseball game scheduled between the Varsity and Susquehanna. The game will be played off on Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Susquehanna always fights hard against Bucknell, and a hard game should result.

SUMMER SCHOOL TO OPEN ON JUNE 27

NUMBER OF STUDENTS EXPECT TO STAY FOR SIX WEEKS' SESSION.

Plans for Bucknell's second year of summer session are now beginning to rapidly advance, and already the effects of last year's initial session can be noticed. A number of students are preparing to stay for the additional term of six weeks, beginning June 27. The courses have been designed for public school teachers also who may desire research opportunities without regard to a degree or professional advancement.

A fair-sized faculty under President Harris will take charge of the sessions which embrace a number of good courses including vocal and instrumental music, domestic science and a number of teachers' courses. There will be no Saturday sessions. Social functions, evening lectures and entertainments are being planned, and will be announced soon. Saturday and week-end trips will be arranged to Dale's cave, Penn's cave, Essick Heights, Eagles Mere and other nearby points of interest. In addition to the opportunities offered by the Susquehanna river and Buffalo creek for water sport, the tennis courts on the campus, the baseball diamond and the gymnasium will be open for the summer students. It is understood, that the Carnegie Library and museums will also be open. As the sessions begin just one week after Commencement it is expected that all will be in readiness for the opening soon after the departure of most of the students for summer vacation. From the present efforts which are being put forth, Bucknell's next summer session should prove successful in every sense of the word.

PAGEANT PLANS.

The alumni parade or pageant, scheduled for 3 p. m., Tuesday of Commencement Week promises to be one of the most attractive of several years. The student committee is busy forming plans to have the different activities represented by a large number of students from each division The Alumni also intend to do their part toward making it one of the big events of Commencement Week.

Two men were killed, two probably fatally injured and property damaged at between $80,000 and $100,000 wrought by the fire which Sunday, May 28, broke out in the main building of Penn College, at Oskaloosa, Ia.

DR. PHILLIPS AT KEYSTONE.

Dr. Phillips preached the baccalaureate sermon to the graduating class of Keystone Academy on Sunday. He also preached the sermon at the ordination services of Igler, '12, in Scranton Friday evening.

1918 COTILLION SCORES SUCCESS

COMMITTEE PRESENTS PLEASING AFFAIR.

ANNUAL DANCE HELD WEDNESDAY AT MILTON

Riverside Park Scene of Gay Event. —NeCal Orchestra, of Sunbury, Furnishes Music.—Dance Lasts from 9 to 3 O'clock.

The Annual Sophomore Cotillion, held at Riverside Park, Milton, on Wednesday evening, May 31st, proved to be one of the big social events of the college year. A large number of students and friends were on hand to enjoy the informal dance as arranged by the members of the Cotillion committee.

At 7:30 o'clock the first car left Lewisburg, crowded with a jolly bunch of students who comprised the first arrivals. The others were not long in following, however, for soon the cars from Milton, Watsontown and another from Lewisburg brought large crowds of "merry tip-toers" who made ready for the festivities about to commence.

Music started at 9:00 o'clock, when the orchestra gave the sign for dancing to begin. The sign was not long ignored, for scarcely had the first note sounded when the floor was filled with revellers.

The weather man had provided against the heat to such an extent that the dancers had no trouble whatever in keeping cool. In fact, overcoats and woolen gloves were the order of the day, and a new custom was established for future Cotillions.

As usual, a little excitement and commotion accompanied the movement toward seats, when everybody made a desperate grab for his or her chair. Refreshments were served, but even the most keen search failed to expose any ham in the ham sandwiches. Dancing continued until about three o'clock; when all dispersed to their diverse abodes.

Music was by the NeCal Orchestra from Sunbury. The committee in charge of the dance was composed of the following members of the Sophomore class: Umlauf, Copeland, Ritter, Mackey, Hindman, Sheffer, Heikes, Robbins, Beckley and Sheppard. The success of the Cotillion is due in a large degree, to the well-laid plans of this committee.

CHAPTER OF MU PHI EPSILON INSTALLED

MISS TAYLOR, PRESIDENT, HERE TO INSTALL CHAPTER.

Bucknell received a new sorority into her midst on Memorial Day when the local Alpha Omega Sorority became a member of Mu Phi Epsilon, a national musical sorority of wide reputation. The Bucknell chapter is the twenty-third of the organization.

Miss Roxielettie Taylor, of St. Louis, the Supreme President, came here on Monday to install the chapter. On Monday evening the members of the sorority journeyed to Mifflinburg where they partook of a banquet at the Buffalo Valley Inn.

On Tuesday morning the installation exercises took place, when thirteen girls were admitted to membership in the national sorority. After the business meeting of the afternoon, an impromptu program was rendered by the new members of the sorority.

A reception was given in honor of Miss Taylor on Tuesday evening in the parlors of Women's College at which representatives from the fraternities and other sororities were present. The songs of Madame de Sylva Schoen and Miss Etta Brown were features of an enjoyable evening.

SUMMER SCHOOL.

In a few weeks Bucknell will enter upon her second session of Summer School with fine prospects for another successful term of six weeks. Many of the students who are taking the regular college course are expecting to remain over for the summer course and a large number of teachers are expected to enroll for the special coursese in teaching.

With the arrangement, whereby students who take summer work will be given credit in their regular college courses, it is possible for students who have been forced to leave school on account of illness or financial difficulties to make up work missed during such absences. This arrangement should meet with the approval of many a student who would find it hard to continue the college course without such an arrangement.

Success for the Summer School means success for Bucknell in general, and for this reason the students should do all in their power to induce other students to enroll for the course. Between the time for this term's ending and June 27, when the Summer Session begins, Bucknell students can use their influence toward inducing their friends to take up a summer course here; and by so doing aid in making the session a real success.

ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION ELECTION ON TUESDAY

NEW RULES FORBID VOTING BY PROXY AT THIS ELECTION.

The date for the election of assistant managers and members of the advisory board has been set for Tuesday afternoon from 1:15 to 3:15 p. m. The voting will be done in the College Reading Room. The election was previously scheduled for Saturday, June 3, but it was decided to postpone it, because of the athletic meets which took some of the students out of town. The coming election will be staged under the new rules adopted recently by the Advisory Board; the most important of these being the ruling against voting by proxy. Considerable confusion was caused at the last election of the Athletic Association by proxy voting, and this ,it is hoped, will be eliminated by compelling every member to cast his vote in person or lose his vote.

(1). An election board consisting of the president of the Association acting as judge, the two student members of the advisory board as tellers and the assistant comptroller as clerk shall have charge of the election.

Each student candidate may designate a "watcher" to look after his interests.

2). Each member of the Athletic Association shall be given a ballot bearing the names of the candidates. This ballot shall be marked and deposited by the voter in to the ballot box provided for that purpose.

(3). It is further provided that the polls shall be open between the hours of 1:15 and 3:15 p.m., Tuesday, June 6th, 1916, in the College Reading Room, and that the members of the Association desiring a vote shall vote in person during the time stated. This means that ballot by proxy is prohibited and that the ballot cast upon student membership in the Association and not upon the number of season tickets held by the voter.

By order of
THE ADVIORY BOARD.

The candidates to be voted on Tuesday afternoon are as follows:

Assistant Manager of Baseball—Mason and Miller.

Assitant Manager of Basketball—Shilling and Copeland.

Asistant Manager of Track—Eaton and Northrup.

Assitant Manager of Tennis—Beckley and Reed.

INTERCOLLEGIATES.

"Jing" Johnson, Ursinus' star spitball twirler, has signed up with the Athletics. He will get a try-out as soon as his college work is over.

Lafayette recently closed one of the most successful tennis seasons in years. Captain Pardee went thru the season without being defeated by a college man.

Yap, Lehigh's third baseman, toured the country with the Chinese baseball team last spring and summer. He is one of the best hitters in collegiate ranks.

NEW BASEBALL THROW RECORD

Milwaukee, June 4.—The world's record for college women in the baseball throw for distance was broken one foot by Miss Elizabeth Faville, of Lake Mills, Wis., in the annual field meet between Milwaukee, Downer College and Seminary. Miss Faville threw the ball 228 feet. The world's record, held by a University of Wisconsin student, was 227 feet.

—Junior representatives will meet with Senior Council tonight.

BISHOP CHIDES COLLEGE MEN

South Bethlehem, Pa., June 4.—Right Rev. Charles P. Anderson, Bishop of the Episcopal diocese of Chicago, preached the Lehigh baccalaureate sermon today in Packer Memorial Church, while Rev. Brayton Byron, chaplain of the University, and Bishop Ethelbert Talbot were in charge of the services. The vested choir of the Pro-Cathedral of the Nativity rendered a musical program.

Bishop Anderson in his discourse lamented the fact that the college man is not doing his share in the religious and public life outside; that is, that he is not rendering suitable returns for what he receives in college.

DR. HARRIS GIVES ADDRESS ON SOLOMON

BIBLE CLASS LEARNS OF SOLOMON AS A STATESMAN.

Dr. Harris addressed the Bible Class Sunday morning on "Solomon as a Statesman." In his talk he showed what Solomon might have done with the enormous wealth of his empire.

In our day and age one can hardly conceive of all our taxes and internal revenue being taken as one lump and used only for the enjoyment and welfare of the higher officials. On the other hand each present day congressman, while in office endeavors to turn over as much money or to have as many improvements as possible in the district from which he comes.

While such a plan could have been worked out by Solomon, for he lacked neither money nor intellect to carry through such a plan, still he saw to it that his money was used altogether in a different manner. In his capacity of a statesman Solomon had a tendency to be rather pompous and proud, so much so that after building the great temple which his father David had been unable to build because of so much warfare, he had another large building constructed of the huge cedars of Lebanon, together with great quantities of cut stone and huge brass plates, a sort of summer residence as it were, far more magnificent and luxuriant, however, than the majority seen now-a-days. In this connection one can picture King Solomon with his scores of servants in advance burning sweet incense in order that no obnoxious gas or odor could reach the royal nostrils; accompanied by several hundred wives and concubines together with numerous other servants, and well might he have so many servants since their wage was only from 10 to 15 cents per day.

Owing to the fact that Solomon had at his disposal about $2,000,000 per year, which at first may seem small, but when it is considered that a dollar in Solomon's time would purchase about ten times the same amount today, one concludes that, if he so desired, some of this amount could be spent profitably for the bettering of conditions among the working classes.

Even though Solomon's ability as a financer may have been wanting, we are told he had a particular fondness for plants and the study of Botany in general; but there are no instances on record to show that he ever made use of even that fondness for the bettering of agricultural conditions.

No one disputes the intellectual ability of Solomon; th Book of the Proverbs is read and admired by all classes of thinking men, but it seems evident that in the foregoing statements his ability as a statesman was somewhat deficient.

GOVERNOR AT GETTYSBURG.

Governor Brumbaugh preached the baccalaureate sermon before Gettysburg College's 65 graduates and an audience which filled the college church, on Sunday, June 4. Governor Brumbaugh's sermon was a ringing call to service, the speaker declaring that education was of no value whatever unless it was applied in an unselfish way for the good of others. He urged upon the graduates an early choice in life work, thorough perparation for it, and a careful study of how to put into effect their plans for that work. "Do not think that, because you have put four years of your life into acquiring an education, that the world owes you a living. The Master spent 30 years preparing for a ministry of three that has changed the whole course of civilization and the life of all mankind."

IMMIGRATION PROBLEM DEALT WITH THOROUGHLY.

The Sophomore Cotillion, and the tennis, canoeing and walking which the fine evening afforded, were probably the main reasons why such a small crowd turned out at Bucknell Hall last Wednesday evening to hear Joe Henderson, '08, on "The Immigration Question."

The instructive and interesting talk of Mr. Henderson certainly deserved a larger audience, as he is a lawyer employed by the Italian Government and is well qualified and able to talk on he subject of immigration.

That those who land on our shores are the "scum of the earth," that they are diseased and undesirable criminals, that most of them return to their native lands with much American gold, that they are the main owners of the American saloon, that they heighten the criminal record and reduce wages and the standard of living, are some of the many arguments taken up by Mr. Henderson, and clearly and logically torn to pieces.

Mr. Henderson proceeded to tear down some of the many arguments used by those in favor of the restraining of immigration.

After reviewing briefly the immigrant's reasons for leaving his native country, his troubles in starting and enroute via steerage, and his final landing in the Land of Opportunity,

"In dealing with this important question," he continued, "how shall we trent the foreigner if we are going to keep him within our shores? First,by proper legislation,altho with this question, as with many others, we have a tendency toward over-legislation Second, by the establishment in every foreign-populated city, of night schools for the sole purpose of teaching the foreigner English. He is anxious to learn, for he realizes that he can do nothing until he knows the language. Third, by their proper distribution throughout the county; and fourth, by personal contact with them."

Mr. Henderson strongly emphasized the last point, saying that it was more important for the ultimate good of the foreigner than all of the others put together.

CHINESE PLAYERS GET VENGEANCE

FRIDAY'S GAME PLAYED ON SOGGY FIELD.

VARSITY ON WRONG END OF 4-2 SCORE

Susquehanna Beaten on Tuesday 8-4. —Brenner Effective Against Chinese.—Errors Prove Fatal.—Elliott Gets Three Hits.

In the two games of last week, the varsity won and lost; winning from Susquehanna 8-4, and losing to the Chinese 4-2, on a rain-soaked field.

Chinese Game.

On Friday afternoon the varsity met the fast Chinese team and the latter got vengeance for their defeat of last year, carrying away a 4-2 victory. The work of Brenner on the mound was commendable and if he had received the proper support the victory would have probably been ours.

Neither side was able to score in the first five frames. Bucknell started things going in the sixth. Seeman, the first man to bat, rapped one between second and first which Chin cut down in a pretty fashion but was not able to recover in time for a putout. Seeman took second on Murray's sacrifice hit and scored on Elliott's two-bagger into left. The first baseman then threw out Miller unassisted, Elliott taking third on the play. Crawford then secured our last hit of the game scoring Elliott.

Up until the seventh inning the home team had been playing superb ball, but in this period came the explosion. Y. Chin reached first on Seeman's error. Suan then hit one down between second and first which everybody tried to field leaving no one to cover first, consequently it went for a hit. The runners advanced a base when the ball was thrown into the grass back of first. Dot single dover second scoring Y. Chin and Suam crossed on Baldt's passed ball, Dot taking second. Another single by J. Chin allowed Dot to score.

In the ninth the "Chinks" annexed another run on a two-bagger by Ako and a single thru third by Ayan. In our half of the ninth a last effort to score failed. Miller drew a free ticket and took second on Dent's foul to the catcher. Storer's sacrifice fly placed him on third but McDermott popped to the third baseman for the exit out.

The score:

Susquehanna Game.

The Susquehanna baseball nine received its second defeat of the season at the hands of the varsity here on Tuesday afternoon. Bucknell showed its superiority by driving home 8 runs while the visitors were held to half as many. The game was far from being an exciting one; the only thing that resembled a bright spot was the stickwork of Elliott, Miller and Crawford.

Susquehanna took the lead in the third inning. After the first man had been thrown out, Storer to Murray, Baldt got dizzy under an infield fly and Middlesworth was safe at first. Peters, the next man up, saw fit to drive a triple to the left garden and Middlesworth counted. Peters scored when Shannon hit out a single.

Bucknell came right back after revenge in their half of the third. Baldt, first up, drew a pass and Murray fanned. Elliott then scored the pair with a two-bagger. Miller scored Elliott with another two-bagger, but Crawford went one better, scoring Miller with a three-bagger. Crawford crossed with the fifth tally when Smith booted Storer's grounder. McDermott ended the inning with a fly to left.

Nothing further happended until the sixth. McDermott was hit by a pitched ball and stole second. Baldt then bounced one off the shortstop's shins and "Mac" scored. Cockill sacrificed Baldt to second and Seeman scored him with a single. Elliott drove Seeman home with a two-bagger which was the last run of the game.

Susquehanna raised their total to

HAROLD W. GIFFIN TAKES SECOND IN NEW YORK EXAMS.

Of all the hundreds of graduates and senior class students from almost all of the technical schools in the Eastern States, who took the recent New York State examination for the position of Junior Assistant Civil Engineer, Harold W. Giffin, a Bucknell Senior, took second place with an average of 92.2.

Bucknell should be proud of Giffin's record, for it not only proves his ability as a student, but it also proves the efficiency of the Civil Engineering Course. To win over the students from the best technical schools in the East, is an honor to be appreciated by Bucknell men.

SENIORS TO PRESENT "AN AMERICAN CITIZEN"

ANNUAL CLASS PLAY PROMISES TO BE ONE OF BEST.

This year's Senior Class Play, according to advance reports, will be one of the best ever presented at Bucknell. The play, an original comedy in four acts, entitled, "An American Citizen" was written by Madeleine Lucette Ryley, and is well adapted to a college audience. The play will be given Monday evening, June 19, at 7:30 in Commencement Hall.

The Senior Class has within its members an exceptionally large number of good actors as has been shown in the different plays and entertainments of the last four years. Seldom has a class had so many students with the varied experience in public work that the members of the present cast have had. If experience and ability counts for anything, Bucknell students may expect a night of delightful entertainment on Monday next. Tickets are now for sale in Heisers' Drug Store at 35 and 50 cents.

FRESHMEN SAY GOOD-BYE TO CAPS

DINK SOCIAL PRECEDES PARADE AND BONFIRE

Social Under Auspices of Freshmen Athletic Association.—Orchestra Furnishes Music.—Coach Johnston With Parade.

"All the world loves a Freshman." At least that seemed to be the case last Thursday evening, when the "Nineteeners" were given a full rein to celebrate the removal of the "dinks." And they took full advantage of the opportunity to "let loose," too for they had the blessed assurance that not even the malignant eyes of the Sophomores were watching them to see that they did not overstep the bounds of Freshman propriety.

The festivities started with a "Dink Social" in Bucknell Hall, conducted under the auspices of the Freshman Athletic Association. A grand promenade was the opening number, in which every fellow grabbed a fair damsel from the "Sem" and marched around the hall to the tune of a march by the University Orchestra. The orchestra, by the way, consisting of Adams, piano, Eshelman, violin, Rex Stone, clarinet, and Cassler, cornet, presented a fine program of music, during the progress of the social, with characteristic skill.

Davies, President of the Freshmen Athletic Association, acted as chairman for the program of the evening. Before introducing the first speaker, he took advantage of the opportunity to review briefly the work of the newly organized association during the year, and expressed the hope that it would not end with the class of '19. He then introduced the various speakers, the first being Fries, Class President. Fries took as his subject, "The Occasion," and the various things that led up to the occasion. Tommy Mangan, President of the Shower Bath Corporation, was next in order with a touching tribute to the ladies—especially a certain few ladies. The class, however, refuses to accept responsibility for what he said.

Florence M. Dershimer, President o the Freshman Girls, responded to Tommy with a well-worded speech on the "Hillites." The fact that such shorties as Angel and Phi Psi Gandy were singled out by Miss Dershimer, to throw roses at, proved conclusively to those present that six-footers haven't a ghost of a show with the ladies at the "Sem."

Leslie, Martin, Dent and Pearce, representing respectively football, basketball, baseball and track, gave brief talks on the work of the Freshies against the Sophs along these lines. Sophomore President Miller, an especially invited guest, was at this point called upon for a few words.

White was next, with a well-prepared talk on "The Dink." White is gifted with a ready tongue, and he kept his hearers in good humor for fifteen minutes with a few "sparklers."

After the program the fatted calf was brought forth ,and no one will deny that eating ice cream and drinkpunch is a fine way to close a fine program.

The fellows lined up along either side of the path leading to the main entrance of Woman's College, and as the girls passed through, they were serenaded with a "Good-night Ladies" and a rousing cheer.

Ten minutes later every fellow on the Hill was assembled in Bucknell Hall in his best suit of pajamas, and the annual Freshman pajama parade was then in order. Serenading the different fraternity houses and professors' homes as they passed them, they finally reached the Cameron House, where Coach Johnston was roused from peaceful slumbers and forced to accompany the celebrators. The fellows soon dispersed through the town to gather wood, and then, each fellow loaded down with barrels, boxes and planks, no time was lost in getting to the athletic field, where they revelled in the light of a "little old" bonfire until the wee small hours of the morning.

CHRISTIAN ENDEAV- OR OFFICERS

At the regular meeting of the College Christian Endeavor Society held in the Baptist Church Sunday evening the following officers were elected to serve during the next school year: President, Edwin E. Aubrey; Vice President, Everett E. Stone; Secretary, Ella Jones; Treasurer, Robert Neal; Organist, Anna Hankins.

D. T. U'S. WIN.

The fast S. A. E. team met with its first defeat of the season at the hands of the D. T. U's. last Monday afternoon. The hitting of the latter team was a noticeable feature of the game, gathering in all 15 bingles including several home runs. The final score was 10-6.

ASSISTANT MANAGERS ELECTED ON TUESDAY

NEW METHODS FOR ELECTION PROVE SATISFACTORY.

The new rulings of the Athletic Association in regard to elections were put to test last Tuesday afternoon and proved far more satisfactory than the former methods. Proxy voting was done away with and unadvoidable "mix-ups" were eliminated as a result. Everything was carried on in a business-like manner by those in charge of the election and in a much shorter time than formerly.

Assistant Baseball Manager, Mason, 123; Miller, 57.

Assitant Basketball Manager, Copeland, 102; Shilling, 78.

Asistant Manager Track, Northrup, 132; Eaton, 48.

Assistant Manager Tennis, Beckley, 117; Reed, 62.

STATE TO HELP STUDENTS GET JOBS

TWENTY-THREE BUCKNELL STUDENTS HAVE APPLIED.

The employment bureau of the state of Pennsylvania has received applications for summer jobs from 406 college students. Penn State heads the list with 128; Bucknell has 23. Among the number of applicants are two girls; one from Vassar, and the other from Hood College, Maryland.

Applicantions from employers willing to take on 693 students have been received. The greatest number of applications from employers call for undergraduate mechanical engineers. Only eleven farmers have been willing to place their confidence in the college agricultural student. Nine employers want civil engineers. There are also vacancies for 28 chemists and 27 clerks.

The employment bureau has sent applicantion blanks to the presidents of colleges and principals of schools in all sections of the state. As the applications are received, they are classified and the applicant is directed to an employer, whose order seems to call particularly for that type of employee. At the same time a letter is sent to the employer informing him that a student applicant is seeking a position.

PAGEANT COMMIT- TEE MEETING.

Chairman Lewis wishes to meet the Pageant Committee to-night at 9 o'clock, in the Y. M. C. A. Room. Only a little over a week remains until the Pageant will be staged, and it is necessary for every man on the committee to attend this meeting and help make the annual parade a success.

DR. PERRINE TALKS TO BIBLE CLASS

CLASS ADJOURNED TILL NEXT FALL.

SUBJECT OF TALK NON-RESISTANCE

Speaker Advocates Method of Bible Study.—Non-Resistance Does Not Discredit Self-Defense, but Makes It Altruistic.

Those who attended the College Bible Class yesterday, were privileged to hear an excellent address by Dr. Perrine, who spoke on "Christian Non-resistance." The clear, definitely logical outline of Prof. Perrine's talk made it easy and interesting to the audience.

In the first place the speaker made four statements concerning the commands of Christ. "We want to obey Jesus," he said; and again, "He never commands what is impossible." Then follow the two questions: "What are the commands of our Master?" and "Are they feasible for human nature at its best estate?"

The whole problem of obedience to our Lord's commandments hinges upon the understanding of those commands in their true significance. We should, then, respect those scholars who try to find out what Christ said; and then to ascertain what He menat when he said so. Respect is due to these men because they try to solve the problem on its most practical basis; and because they tackle a situation made exceedingly hard by the difficulties arising from the translation of a language with its peculiar idioms and the changes it undergoes through the centuries. In Corinthians we read of the house of Stephanus being "addicted to the ministry of the saints." Shakespeare uses the same verb in one of his plays with a similarly commendatory meaning; while today we use the verb "addicted" in a bad sense . The use of this word exemplifies the difficulty experienced in all language work.

Let us first see what Christ said. His word were: "Resist not evil." The verb used is antistami which is a compound of the two Greek words anti-histami, meaning to stand against. In this respect the translation is quite comprehensible to us. The Greek word "ponoros" which we transiate "evil" may also—and better—mean "a wicked man." The actual command of Christ, then, is "Do not resist the evil man."

What, in the second place, did Christ mean. In this connection we must bear in mind that he spoke to people individually rather than collectively. It was His custom so to do and in the preceding utterance He had just spoken to the "eye-for-an-eye" principle of vengeance. Vengeance was the individual form of justice. Later the principle entered into the family and finally became law in the hands of the state. Does the injunction of our Lord entail self-sacrifice to the extent of loss of life or limit at the hands of the aggressor? No. The principle underlying this command is action by the aggressed for improvement on all sides. How can we say that this is the principle involved in Christian-non-resistance? Because, self defense is primarily a law of nature. Furthermore, Jesus enunciates the same principle in Romans XII: 21, where He says, "Overcome evil with good." When Peter attacked the servant of the High Priest, the Master said, "Put up thy sword" implying that the disciple might later be placed in a position where he would need the weapon for self denfense. The saying that "They that take the sword shall perish by the sword" means that the aggressor when he takes up his sword shall be met by the righteous man with drawn sword and defeated by him he attacked. In this way he shall "perish by the sword."

All these principles were applied by Jesus to the individual and were enunciated privately; but they are applicable to state and national conduct as they may be broadened. Still,

MONDAY. JUNE 12, 1916.

FAREWELL!

In view of the fact that this issue of the Bucknellian is the last of the present school year, we wish to thank all those who have helped with the publication of this paper by their interest and support. We desire also to send our best wishes for success with the Seniors as they are about to leave Bucknell and begin life in another sphere. We wish them success in their new undertakings, and hope that the gaps caused by their leaving, will be capably filled by the men who will take their places.

BOOST BUCKNELL.

As the students leave for their summer vacation, they should be ready to say a good word for Bucknell whenever the opportunity offers itself. In many cases the student who has been to college himself can have more influence on the boys of his town, than the official representative of the school who is not acquainted with the conditions of each prospective student. By influencing the right kind of men to enter Bucknell, we can aid materially in the development of a greater Bucknell.

Twenty years from now our diploma will be valued according to Bucknell's standing at that time; thus by boosting Bucknell, and by getting the right type of students to enter, we benefit ourselves as well as our college.

COMMUNICATION.

One of the oldest customs of Bucknell University, which is noticeable by its absence, is the proper kind of hazing. The proper kind of hazing is that which does not disable a man physically, is harmless and should be administered in the spirit of correction.

The majority of the students entering Bucknell in the Freshman Class are away from home and its influences for the first time. After being here for a few weeks it seems to be perfectly natural for some of them to think that they will control their own affairs, materially influence their class and generally supervise the University.

The reform element claims that hazing has been nearly abolished. It appears that the proper kind of hazing has been abolished, but the violent brutal kind is still very much in vogue.

An objection is registered when fraternities haze their own men, properly, and for their own good, but, a crowd may take an unassociated man and beat him so badly that he is confined to his bed for a week.

MOVEMENT TO MERGE PHARMACY SCHOOLS

On the heels of the amalgamation of the medical department of the University of Pennsylvania, Jefferson Medical College and Medico-Chirurgical College comes a movement to merge Philadelphia's three pharmacy schools into one great institution.

The Philadelphia College of Pharmacy and the pharmacy departments of the Medico-Chirurgical College and of Temple University will be the units of the tripartite amalgamation.

There are two plans advanced for the merger. One is the immediate absorption by the Philadelphia College of Pharmacy, of the pharmacy departments of Medico-Chi and Temple University. The other is the merger of all three into the newly formed United Medical Schools. One of the two plans will be ultimately effected, and will result in a school of pharmacy such as America or Europe has never known.

individual adherence to these principles will secure public peace and righteousness. We must read the Bible not as science but as literature, striving to see in the Scriptures the spirit that is back of them, and always remembering Christ never enjoined us to do the impossible but that his doctrine of non-resistance was both common sense and practicable.

MUSIC ACTIVITIES FOR COMMENCEMENT WEEK

Sacred Concert.

On Sunday, June 18th, the Oratorio Society of the Bucknell University School of Music, will give a sacred concert. Eva Emmet Wycoff, Amy E. Ellerman, Calvin Coxe, and Earle Tuckerman, all from New York City, and Madame De Sylva-Schoen, of the University School of Music, will be the soloists.

Miss Wycoff will be remembered as a soloist several years ago. Thru some effort Miss Wycoff has been secured for this year, and her work needs no comment from the press. The Musical America says of Miss Ellerman—"Amy Ellerman has a remarkably beautiful contralto of wide range which she uses in a finished manner. Her interpretation is dramatic and telling."

"Mr. Coxe has a large, dramatic voice and an agreeable presence. His aria was given with distinction. He proved his superiority in matters of diction and technique."—Madison Democrat, Wis.

Concerning Mr. Tuckerman, the baritone, Musical Observer says, "Earle Tuckerman was a delight to his hearers. He is an interpreter with finished enunciation and perfect school. His rich voice is resonant and musical."

Madame De Sylva Schoen needs no introduction to Lewisburg audiences. The program will be in two parts. The first part will be from Mendelssohn's "Elijah", and the second part will be made up of solos by the various soloists. It will be a treat that none should miss. The general public is cordially invited.

Organ Recital.

On Saturday morning, June 17th, at 10:00 o'clock the annual Organ Recital of the Bucknell University School of Music will be given in the Baptist Church. The public will be welcome.

Weber and Oesterle with two singles and a two-bagger apiece, led in the hitting.

STUDENTS AT BAKER HOUSE.

The Baker House, closed since April 1st, opened its doors Saturday as a boarding house, where will be quartered college students who will be employed at the unition plant operated by the Shimers at Milton. Several students of the Kentucky college were the first to arrive, and with the closing of educational institutions in Pennsylvania, especially Bucknell and Penn State, the number will be greatly increased. The company pays big wages, making an attractive inducement for the college boys to earn some surplus coin in the summer months, and the hotel property is leased to care for them. Its management is under Mrs. May Perry, assisted by her father John J. Fausnaught, many years clerk at the house. It is expected that by July 1st at least one hundred will be housed at the old stand.
